

"Mom," asked Abby, "can I ask God questions when I pray?"
"God loves to hear your questions," Mom said.
"When you pray, you can ask God anything."

"Anything?" asked Abby.
"Any question that's on your mind!" Mom said.

Abby prayed to God in the mornings, and she prayed to God at night.

She loved talking to God!

And the more she talked to God, the more she wanted to know about praying.