The Death of Josiah

35:20 – 36:1pp — 2Ki 23:28-30

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Necho king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish^j on the Euphrates,^k and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle. ²¹But Necho sent messengers to him, saying, "What quarrel is there, king of Judah, between you and me? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told^l me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you."

²²Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised^m himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Necho had said at God's command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

²³Archersⁿ shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, "Take me away; I am badly wounded." ²⁴So they took him out of his chariot, put him in his other chariot and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his ancestors, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

²⁵Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the male and female singers commemorate Josiah in the laments.^o These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.

²⁶The other events of Josiah's reign and his acts of devotion in accordance with what is written in the Law of the LORD — ²⁷all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 ¹And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

Cyrus Helps the Exiles to Return

1:1-3pp — 2Ch 36:22-23

1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah,^a the LORD moved the heart^b of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and also to put it in writing:

2^c“This is what Cyrus king of Persia says:

“The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed^c me to build^d a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. ³Any of his people among you may go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem, and may their God be with them.

⁴And in any locality where survivors^e may now be living, the people are to provide them with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings^f for the temple of God in Jerusalem.”^g

⁵Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin,^h and the priests and Levites — everyone whose heart God had movedⁱ — prepared to go up and build the house^j of the LORD in Jerusalem. ⁶All their neighbors assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, in addition to all the freewill offerings.

⁷Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god.^{ak} ⁸Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer,

Rebuilding the Altar

3 When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,^r the people assembled^s together as one in Jerusalem. ²Then Joshua^t son of Jozadak^u and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel^v and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses^w the man of God. ³Despite their fear^x of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening sacrifices.^y ⁴Then in accordance with what is written, they celebrated the Festival of Tabernacles^z with the required number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day. ⁵After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the New Moon^a sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred festivals of the LORD,^b as well as those brought as freewill offerings to the LORD. ⁶On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, though the foundation of the LORD's temple had not yet been laid.

and drink and olive oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs^c by sea from Lebanon^d to Joppa, as authorized by Cyrus^e king of Persia.

⁸In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel^f son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jozadak and the rest of the people (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work. They appointed Levites twenty^g years old and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD. ⁹Joshua^h and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah^c) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers — all Levites — joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

¹⁰When the builders laidⁱ the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets,^j and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise^k the LORD, as prescribed by David^l king of Israel.^m ¹¹With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD:

“He is good;
 his love toward Israel endures forever.”ⁿ

And all the people gave a great shout^o of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ¹²But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple,^p wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy. ¹³No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy^q from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

Opposition to the Rebuilding

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles

^a 69 That is, about 1,100 pounds or about 500 kilograms ^b 69 That is, about 3 tons or about 2.8 metric tons ^c 9 Hebrew Yehudah, a variant of Hodaviah

were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, ²they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, “Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon^r king of Assyria, who brought us here.”^s

³But Zerubbabel, Joshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, “You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us.”^t ⁴Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building.^{au} ⁵They bribed officials to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Later Opposition Under Xerxes and Artaxerxes

⁶At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes,^{bv} they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.^w

⁷And in the days of Artaxerxes^x king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic^y language.^{c,d}

⁸Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

⁹Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates^z — the judges, officials and administrators over the people from Persia, Uruk and Babylon, the Elamites of Susa, ¹⁰and the other people whom the great and honorable Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates.^a

To King Artaxerxes,

From your servants in Trans-Euphrates:

¹²The king should know that the people who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.^b ¹³Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty^c will be paid, and eventually the royal revenues will suffer.^e ¹⁴Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king, ¹⁵so that a search may be made in the archives^d of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place with a long history of sedition. That is why this city was destroyed.^e ¹⁶We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

¹⁷The king sent this reply:

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates:^f

Greetings.

rebellion and sedition. ²⁰Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates,^h and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them.

²¹Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order. ²²Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?ⁱ

²³As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates,^j they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.

²⁴Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius^k king of Persia.

Tattenai's Letter to Darius

5 Now Haggai^l the prophet and Zechariah^m the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesiedⁿ to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel^o son of Shealtiel and Joshua^p son of Jozadak set to work^q to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

³At that time Tattenai,^r governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai^s and their associates went to them and asked, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and to finish it?"^t ⁴They^a also asked, "What are the names of those who are constructing this building?" ⁵But the eye of their God^u was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.

⁶This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. ⁷The report they sent him read as follows:

To King Darius:

Cordial greetings.

⁸The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work^v is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.

⁹We questioned the elders and asked them, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and to finish it?"^w ¹⁰We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

¹¹This is the answer they gave us:

"We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple^x that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished. ¹²But because our ancestors angered^y the God of heaven, he gave them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.^z

¹³However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree^a to rebuild this house of God. ¹⁴He even removed from the temple^b of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple^b in Babylon.^b Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar,^c whom he had appointed governor, ¹⁵and he told him, "Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site."

¹⁶So this Sheshbazzar came

^a 4 See Septuagint; Aramaic We.

^b 14 Or palace

and laid the foundations of the house of God^d in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished.”

¹⁷Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives^e of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.

The Decree of Darius

6 King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives^f stored in the treasury at Babylon. ²A scroll was found in the citadel of Ec-batana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

Memorandum:

³In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem:

Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid.⁹ It is to be sixty cubits^a high and sixty cubits wide, ⁴with three courses^b of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury.ⁱ ⁵Also, the gold^j and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.^k ⁶Now then, Tattenai,^l governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai^m and you other officials of that province, stay away from there. ⁷Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

⁸Moreover, I hereby decree

what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God:

Their expenses are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury,ⁿ from the revenues^o of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop. ⁹Whatever is needed — young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings^p to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and olive oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem — must be given them daily without fail, ¹⁰so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.^q

¹¹Furthermore, I decree that if anyone defies this edict, a beam is to be pulled from their house and they are to be impaled^r on it. And for this crime their house is to be made a pile of rubble.^s ¹²May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there,^t overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem.

I Darius^u have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

¹³Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates^v carried it out with diligence. ¹⁴So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching^w of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo. They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus,^x Darius^y and Artaxerxes,^z kings of Persia. ¹⁵The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.^a

¹⁶Then the people of Israel — the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles — celebrated the dedication^b of the house of God with joy.¹⁷ For the dedication of this house of God they offered^c a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering^a for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel.¹⁸ And they installed the priests in their divisions^d and the Levites in their groups^e for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.^f

The Passover

¹⁹On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.⁹ ²⁰The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered^h the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their relatives the priests and for themselves.²¹ So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselvesⁱ from the unclean practices^j of their Gentile neighbors in order to seek the LORD,^k the God of Israel.²² For seven days they celebrated with joy the Festival of Unleavened Bread,^l because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude^m of the king of Assyria so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

7 After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxesⁿ king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,^o ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok,^p the son of Ahitub,^q ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest — ⁶this Ezra^r came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.^s ⁷Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, musicians, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Je-

⁸Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.⁹ He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him.^u ¹⁰For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching^v its decrees and laws in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

¹¹This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

¹²Artaxerxes, king of kings,^w

To Ezra the priest, teacher of the Law of the God of heaven:

Greetings.

¹³Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who volunteer to go to Jerusalem with you, may go.¹⁴ You are sent by the king and his seven advisers^x to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.¹⁵ Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given^y to the God of Israel, whose dwelling^z is in Jerusalem,¹⁶ together with all the silver and gold^a you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the free-will offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem.^b ¹⁷With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male lambs,^c together with their grain offerings and drink offerings,^d and sacrifice^e them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

¹⁵I assembled them at the canal that flows toward Ahava,^x and we camped there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites^y there. ¹⁶So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning, ¹⁷and I ordered them to go to Iddo, the leader in Kasiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his fellow Levites, the temple servants^z in Kasiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God. ¹⁸Because the gracious hand of our God was on us,^a they brought us Sherebiah, a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and brothers, ¹⁸in all; ¹⁹and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, ²⁰in all. ²⁰They also brought 220 of the temple servants^b — a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

²¹There, by the Ahava Canal,^c I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey^d for us and our children, with all our possessions. ²²I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers^e and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, "The gracious hand of our God is on everyone^f who looks to him, but his great an-

²⁴Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, namely, Sherebiah,ⁱ Hashabiah and ten of their brothers, ²⁵and I weighed out^j to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God. ²⁶I weighed out to them 650 talents^a of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents,^b 100 talents^b of gold, ²⁷20 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics,^c and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

²⁸I said to them, "You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD.^k The silver and gold are a free-will offering to the LORD, the God of your ancestors. ²⁹Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel." ³⁰Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

³¹On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal^l to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way. ³²So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.^m ³³On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremothⁿ son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.^o ³⁴Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

Ezra's Prayer About Inter-marriage

9 After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate^s from the neighboring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites,^t Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites.^u ²They have taken some of their daughters^v as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled the holy race^w with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness."^x

³When I heard this, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled. ⁴Then everyone who trembled^y at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled until the evening sacrifice.

⁵Then, at the evening sacrifice,^z I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God ⁶and prayed:

"I am too ashamed and disgraced, my God, to lift up my face to you, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens.^a ⁷From the days of our ancestors^b until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword^c and captivity,^d to pillage and humiliation^e at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

⁸"But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious^f in leaving us a remnant^g and giving us a firm place^h in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyesⁱ and a little relief in our bondage. ⁹Though we are slaves,^j our God has not forsaken us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness^k in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins,^l and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰"But now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have forsaken the commands^m ¹¹you gave through your servants the prophets when you said: 'The land you are entering to possess is a land pollutedⁿ by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices^o they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other. ¹²Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them^p at any time, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.'

¹³"What has happened to us is a result of our evil deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins deserved^q and have given us a remnant like this. ¹⁴Shall we then break your commands again and intermarry^r with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us,^s leaving us no remnant^t or survivor? ¹⁵LORD, the God of Israel, you are righteous!^u We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand^v in your presence.^w”

The People's Confession of Sin

10 While Ezra was praying and confessing,^x weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites — men, women and children — gathered around him. They too wept bitterly. ²Then Shekaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful^y to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.^z ³Now let us make a covenant^a before our God to send away^b all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law. ⁴Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it.”

⁵So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath^c to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath. ⁶Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water,^d because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

⁹Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin^e had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain. ¹⁰Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful; you have married foreign women, adding to Israel’s guilt. ¹¹Now honor^a the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives.”^f ¹²The whole assembly responded with a loud voice:^g “You are right! We must do as you say. ¹³But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; so we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be taken care of in a day or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing. ¹⁴Let our officials act for the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges^h of each town, until the fierce angerⁱ of our God in this matter is turned away from us.” ¹⁵Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai^j the Levite, opposed this.

¹⁶So the exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases, ¹⁷and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.

NEHEMIAH

Nehemiah's Prayer

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hakaliah:

In the month of Kislev^a in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, ²Hanani,^b one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant^c that had survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

³They said to me, “Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.^d”

⁴When I heard these things, I sat down and wept.^e For some days I mourned and fasted^f and prayed before the God of heaven. ⁵Then I said:

“LORD, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God,^g who keeps his covenant of love^h with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁶let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hearⁱ the prayer^j your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's family, have committed against you. ⁷We have acted very wickedly^k toward you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

⁸“Remember^l the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful, I will scatter^m you among the nations, ⁹but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gath-

¹⁰“They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand.^p ¹¹Lord, let your ear be attentive^q to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favor in the presence of this man.”

I was cupbearer^r to the king.

Artaxerxes Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

2 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes,^s when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before, ²so the king asked me, “Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.”

I was very much afraid, ³but I said to the king, “May the king live forever!^t Why should my face not look sad when the city^u where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?^v”

⁴The king said to me, “What is it you want?”

Then I prayed to the God of heaven, ⁵and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried so that I can rebuild it.”

⁶Then the king^w, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?” It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.

⁷I also said to him, “If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates,^x so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah? ⁸And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the royal park, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel^y by the temple and for the city wall and for the residence I will occupy?” And because the gracious hand of my God was on me,^z the king granted my requests. ⁹So I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry^a with me.

¹⁰When Sanballat^b the Horonite and Tobiah^c the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.^d

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem’s Walls

¹¹I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days^e ¹²I set out during the night with a few others. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

¹³By night I went out through the Valley Gate^f toward the Jackal^g Well and the Dung Gate,^g examining the walls^h of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. ¹⁴Then I moved on toward the Fountain Gateⁱ and the King’s Pool,^j but there was not enough room for my mount to get through; ¹⁵so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and reentered through the Valley Gate. ¹⁶The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.

¹⁷Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire.^k Come, let us rebuild the wall^l of Jerusalem, and we will no

They replied, “Let us start rebuilding.” So they began this good work.

¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem^o the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us.^p “What is this you are doing?” they asked. “Are you rebelling against the king?”

²⁰I answered them by saying, “The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share^q in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.”

Builders of the Wall

3 Eliashib^r the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt^s the Sheep Gate.^t They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel.^u ²The men of Jericho^v built the adjoining section, and Zakkur son of Imri built next to them.

³The Fish Gate^w was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. ⁴Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs. ⁵The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa,^x but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.^b

⁶The Jeshanah^c Gate^y was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. Opposition to the Rebuilding

4^a When Sanballat^v heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, ²and in the presence of his associates^w and the army of Samaria, he said, “What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble^x — burned as they are?”

³Tobiah^y the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, “What they are building — even a fox climbing up on it would break down their wall of stones!”^z

⁶So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.

⁷But when Sanballat, Tobiah,^d the Arabs, the Ammonites and the people of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem’s walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry. ⁸They all plotted together^e to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it. ⁹But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

¹⁰Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, “The strength of the laborers^f is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.”

¹¹Also our enemies said, “Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work.”

¹²Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.”

¹³Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows. ¹⁴After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid^g of them. Remember^h the Lord, who is great and awesome,ⁱ and fight^j for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

¹⁵When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it,^k we all returned to the wall, each to our own work.

¹⁶From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah ¹⁷who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon^l in the other, ¹⁸and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet^m stayed with me.

²¹So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out. ²²At that time I also said to the people, “Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so they can serve us as guards by night and as workers by day.” ²³Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water.^c

Jos 10:14

Nehemiah Helps the Poor

5 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their fellow Jews. ²Some were saying, “We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain.”

³Others were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields,^p our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine.”^q

⁴Still others were saying, “We have had to borrow money to pay the king’s tax^r on our fields and vineyards. ⁵Although we are of the same flesh and blood^s as our fellow Jews and though our children are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery.^t Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”^u

⁶When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry. ⁷I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!”^v So I called together a large meeting to deal with them ⁸and said: “As far as possible, we have bought^w back our fellow Jews who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your own people, only for them to be sold back to us!” They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say.^x

⁹So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach^y of our Gentile enemies? ¹⁰I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let us stop charging interest!^z ¹¹Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the interest^a you are charging them — one percent of the money, grain, new wine and olive oil.”

¹²“We will give it back,” they said. “And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.”

Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath^b to do what they had promised. ¹³I also shook^c out the folds of my robe and said, “In this way may God shake out of their house and possessions anyone who does not keep this promise. So may such a person be shaken out and emptied!”

At this the whole assembly said, “Amen,”^d and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

¹⁴Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes,^e when I was appointed to be their governor^f in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year — twelve years — neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor. ¹⁵But the earlier governors — those preceding me — placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels^g of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God^h I did not act like that. ¹⁶Instead,^h I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we^b did not acquire any land.

¹⁷Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations. ¹⁸Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultryⁱ were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.

¹⁹Remember^j me with favor, my God, for all I have done for these people.

Further Opposition to the Rebuilding

6 When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah,^k Geshem^l the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it — though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates — ²Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, let us meet together

But they were scheming to harm me; ³so I sent messengers to them with this reply: “I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?” ⁴Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.

⁵Then, the fifth time, Sanballatⁿ sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter ⁶in which was written:

“It is reported among the nations — and Geshem^{bo} says it is true — that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king ⁷and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us meet together.”

⁸I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

⁹They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.”

But I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands.”

¹⁰One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple^p, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you — by night they are coming to kill you.”

¹¹But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Or should someone like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!” ¹²I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me^q because Tobiah and Sanballat^r had hired him. ¹³He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.^s

¹⁴Remember^t Tobiah and Sanballat,^u my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophet^v Noadiah and how she and the rest of the prophets^w have been trying to intimidate me. ¹⁵So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.

Opposition to the Completed Wall

¹⁶When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realized that this work had been done with the help of our God.

¹⁷Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. ¹⁸For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shekariah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. ¹⁹Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

7 After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers,^x the musicians^y and the Levites^z were appointed. ²I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani,^a along with Hananiah^b the commander of the citadel,^c because he was a man of integrity and feared^d God more than most people do. ³I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut the doors and bar them. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses.”

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,^y all the people came together as one in the square before the Water Gate.^z They told Ezra the teacher of the Law to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses,^a which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

²So on the first day of the seventh month^b Ezra the priest brought the Law^c before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. ³He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate^d in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

⁵Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing^f above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up. ⁶Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands^g and responded, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷The Levites^h — Jeshua, Bani, Sherubiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodia, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah — instructedⁱ the people in the Law while the people were standing there. ⁸They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear^j and giving the meaning so that the people understood what was being read.

⁹Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher of the Law, and the Levites^j who were instructing the people said to them all, “This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep.”^k For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

¹⁰Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing^l prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy^m of the LORD is your strength.”

¹¹The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a holy day. Do not grieve.”

¹²Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy,ⁿ because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

¹³On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the teacher to give attention to the words of the Law. ¹⁴They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in temporary shelters during the festival of the seventh month ¹⁵and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make temporary shelters” — as it is written.^a

¹⁶So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves temporary shelters on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim.^o

¹⁷The whole company that had returned from exile built temporary shelters and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated^p it like this. And their joy was very great.

The Israelites Confess Their Sins

9 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and putting dust on their heads.^s ²Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners.^t They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.^u ³They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshiping the LORD their God. ⁴Standing on the stairs of the Levites^v were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani. They cried out with loud voices to the LORD their God. ⁵And the Levites — Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethabiah — said: “Stand up and praise the LORD your God,^w who is from everlasting to everlasting.^b”

“Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶You alone are the LORD.^x You made the heavens,^y even the highest heavens, and all their starry host, the earth^z and all that is on it, the seas^a and all that is in them.^b You give life to everything, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

²⁷So you delivered them into the hands of their enemies,^r who oppressed them. But when they were oppressed they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them, and in your great compassion^s you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

²⁸“But as soon as they were at rest, they again did what was evil in your sight. Then you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies so that they ruled over them. And when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and in your compassion you delivered them^t time after time.

²⁹“You warned them in order to turn them back to your law, but they became arrogant^u and disobeyed your commands. They sinned against your ordinances, of which you said, ‘The person who obeys them will live by them.’^v Stubbornly they turned their backs on you, became stiff-necked and refused to listen.^w ³⁰For many years you were patient with them. By your Spirit you warned them through your prophets.^x Yet they paid no attention, so you gave them into the hands of the neighboring peoples. ³¹But in your great mercy you did not put an end^y to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

³²“Now therefore, our God, the great God, mighty^z and awesome, who keeps his covenant of love,^a do not let all this hardship seem trifling in your eyes — the hardship that has come on us, on our kings and leaders, on our priests and prophets, on our ancestors and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until today. ³³In all that has happened to us, you have remained righteous;^b you have acted faithfully, while we acted wickedly.^c ³⁴Our

11 Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten of them to live in Jerusalem,^o the holy city,^p while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns.^q ²The people commended all who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

³These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on their own property in the various towns,^r ⁴while other people from both Judah and Benjamin^s lived in Jerusalem):^t

From the descendants of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez; ⁵and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah. ⁶The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 men of standing.

⁷From the descendants of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah, ⁸and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai — 928 men. ⁹Joel son of Zikri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hasenuah was over the New Quarter of the city.

¹⁰From the priests:

Jedaiah; the son of Joarib; Jakin; ¹¹Seraiah^u son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub,^v the official in charge of the house of God, ¹²and their associates, who carried on work for the temple —

Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim.

¹⁵From the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶Shabbethai^w and Jozabad,^x two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God; ¹⁷Mattaniah^y son of Mika, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph,^z the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.^a ¹⁸The Levites in the holy city^b totaled 284.

¹⁹The gatekeepers:

Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates — 172 men.

²⁰The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on their ancestral property.

²¹The temple servants^c lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

²²The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah,^d the son of Mika. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, who were the musicians responsible for the service of the house of God. ²³The musicians^e were under the king's orders, which regulated their daily activity.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

²⁷At the dedication^k of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals,^l harps and lyres.^m ²⁸The musicians also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem — from the villages of the Netophathites,ⁿ ²⁹from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the musicians had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. ³⁰When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people,^o the gates and the wall.

⁴⁰The two choirs that gave thanks then took their places in the house of God; so did I, together with half the officials,⁴¹ as well as the priests — Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah with their trumpets — ⁴²and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah. ⁴³And on that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

⁴⁴At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms^f for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes.^g From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites.^h ⁴⁵They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the musicians and gatekeepers, according to the commands of Davidⁱ and his son Solomon.^j ⁴⁶For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph,^k there had been directors for the musicians and for the songs of praise^l and thanksgiving to God. ⁴⁷So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the musicians and the gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.^m

Nehemiah's Final Reforms

13 On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God,ⁿ ²because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam^o to call a curse down on them.^p (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.)^q ³When the people heard

^a 31 Or go alongside ^b 31 Or proceed alongside ^c 38 Or them alongside ^d 39 Or Old

this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.^r

⁴Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms^s of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah,^t ⁵and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes^u of grain, new wine and olive oil prescribed for the Levites, musicians and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

⁶But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes^v king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission ⁷and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib^w had done in providing Tobiah a room in the courts of the house of God. ⁸I was greatly displeased and threw all Tobiah's household goods out of the room.^x ⁹I gave orders to purify the rooms,^y and then I put back into them the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.

¹⁰I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them,^z and that all the Levites and musicians responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields. ¹¹So I rebuked the officials and asked them, "Why is the house of God neglected?"^a Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.

¹²All Judah brought the tithes^b of grain, new wine and olive oil into the storerooms.^c ¹³I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zakkur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because they were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their fellow Levites.^d ¹⁴Remember^e me for this, my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

¹⁵In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads. And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath.^f Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day. ¹⁶People from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath^g to the people of Judah. ¹⁷I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this wicked thing you are doing — desecrating the Sabbath day? ¹⁸Didn't your ancestors do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity on us and on this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath."^h ¹⁹When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath,ⁱ I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem. ²¹But I warned them and said, "Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you." From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath. ²²Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

ESTHER

Queen Vashti Deposed

1 This is what happened during the time of Xerxes,^a the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces^b stretching from India to Cush^{b:c}.² At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,^d ³and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet^e for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

⁴For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty. ⁵When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days,^f in the enclosed garden^g of the king's palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest who were in the citadel of Susa. ⁶The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. There were couches^h of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones. ⁷Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king's liberality.ⁱ ⁸By the king's command each guest was allowed to drink with no restrictions, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits^k from wine,^l he commanded the seven eunuchs who served him — Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona,^m Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Karkas — ¹¹to bringⁿ before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty^o to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at. ¹²But when the attendants delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.^p ¹³Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times^q ¹⁴and were closest to the king — Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memukan, the seven nobles^r of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

¹⁵“According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?” he asked. “She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her.”

¹⁶Then Memukan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, “Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes. ¹⁷For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say, ‘King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.’ ¹⁸This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen's conduct will respond to all the king's nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.^s ¹⁹“Therefore, if it pleases the king,^t let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed,^u that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she. ²⁰Then when the king's edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest."

²¹The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memukan proposed. ²²He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language,^y proclaiming that every man should be ruler over his own household, using his native tongue.

Esther Made Queen

2 Later when King Xerxes' fury had subsided,^w he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her. ²Then the king's personal attendants proposed, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king. ³Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful young women into the harem at the citadel of Susa. Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them. ⁴Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

⁵Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish,^x ⁶who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin^{ay} king of Judah. ⁷Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This young woman, who was also known as Esther,^a had a lovely figure^b and was beautiful. Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

⁸When the king's order and edict had been proclaimed, many young women were brought to the citadel of

Susa^c and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem. ⁹She pleased him and won his favor.^d Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food.^e He assigned to her seven female attendants selected from the king's palace and moved her and her attendants into the best place in the harem.

¹⁰Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.^f ¹¹Every day he walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

¹⁷Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen^m instead of Vashti. ¹⁸And the king gave

Mordecai Uncovers a Conspiracy

¹⁹When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.^q ²⁰But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.^r

²¹During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana^a and Teresh, two of the king's officers^s who guarded the doorway, became angry^t and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. ²²But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai. ²³And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were impaled^u on poles. All this was recorded in the book of the annals^v in the presence of the king.

Haman's Plot to Destroy the Jews

3 After these events, King Xerxes honored Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite,^w elevating him and giving him a seat of honor higher than that of all the other nobles. ²All the royal officials at the king's gate knelt down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor.

³Then the royal officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"^x ⁴Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply.^y Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

⁵When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor, he was enraged.^z ⁶Yet having learned who Mordecai's people were,

he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way^a to destroy^b all Mordecai's people, the Jews,^c throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

⁷In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, the pur^d (that is, the lot^e) was cast in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on^b the twelfth month, the month of Adar.^f

⁸Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain people dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom who keep themselves separate. Their customs^g are different from those of all other people, and they do not obey^h the king's laws; it is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.ⁱ ⁹If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will give ten thousand talents^c of silver to the king's administrators for the royal treasury."^j

¹²Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language^l of each people all Haman's orders to the king's satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed^m with his own ring. ¹³Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jewsⁿ — young and old, women and children — on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar,^o and to plunder^p their goods. ¹⁴A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so they would be ready for that day.⁹

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

4 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes,¹¹ put on sackcloth and ashes,¹¹ and went out into the city, wailing¹¹ loudly and bitterly. ²But he went only as far as the king's gate,^x because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it. ³In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴When Esther's eunuchs and female attendants came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. ⁵Then Esther summoned Hathak, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

⁹Hathak went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. ¹⁰Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai, ¹¹"All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the in-

¹²When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai, ¹³he sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. ¹⁴For if you remain silent^c at this time, relief^d and deliverance^e for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"^f

¹⁵Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: ¹⁶"Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast⁹ for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish."^h ¹⁷So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther's instructions.

Esther's Request to the King

5 On the third day Esther put on her royal robesⁱ and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's^j hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. ²When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.^k

³Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom,^l it will be given you."

⁴"If it pleases the king," replied Esther, "let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."

⁵"Bring Haman at once," the king said, "so that we may do what Esther asks."

So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Haman’s Rage Against Mordecai

⁹Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage^r against Mordecai.⁵ ¹⁰Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

Calling together his friends and Zeresh,^t his wife, ¹¹Haman boasted^u to them about his vast wealth, his many sons,^v and all the ways the king had honored him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials. ¹²“And that’s not all,” Haman added. “I’m the only person^w Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow. ¹³But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”^x ¹⁴His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Have a pole set up, reaching to a height of fifty cubits,^{ay} and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai impaled^z on it. Then go with the king to the banquet and enjoy yourself.” This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the pole set up.

Mordecai Honored

6 That night the king could not sleep;^a so he ordered the book of the chronicles,^b the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him. ²It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana

⁴The king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about impaling Mordecai on the pole he had set up for him.

⁵His attendants answered, “Haman is standing in the court.”

⁶When Haman entered, the king asked him, “What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?”

Now Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would rather honor than me?” ⁷So he answered the king, “For the man the king delights to honor, ⁸have them bring a royal robe^d the king has worn and a horse^e the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head. ⁹Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king’s most noble princes. ¹⁰“Go at once,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended.”

¹¹So Haman got⁹ the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!”

whom your downfallⁱ has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him—you will surely come to ruin!”¹⁴ While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet^k Esther had prepared.

Haman Impaled

7 So the king and Haman went to Queen Esther’s banquet,¹ ²and as they were drinking wine^m on the second day, the king again asked, “Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom,ⁿ it will be granted.”^o

³Then Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favor^p with you, Your Majesty, and if it pleases you, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare my people—this is my request. ⁴For I and my people have been sold to be destroyed, killed and annihilated.^q If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king.”^a ⁵King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is he—the man who has dared to do such a thing?”

⁶Esther said, “An adversary and enemy! This vile Haman!”

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen. ⁷The king got up in a rage,^r left his wine and went out into the palace garden.^s But Haman, realizing that the king had already decided his fate,^t stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

⁸Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch^u where Esther was reclining.^v

The king exclaimed, “Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?”^w

As soon as the word left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.^x ⁹Then Harbona,^y one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, “A pole reaching to a height of fifty cubits^{bz} stands by Haman’s house. He had it set up for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king.”

The king said, “Impale him on it!”^a

¹⁰So they impaled Haman^b on the pole^c he had set up for Mordecai.^d Then the king’s fury subsided.^e

The King’s Edict in Behalf of the Jews

8 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman,^f the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her. ²The king took off his signet ring,^g which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman’s estate.^h

⁵“If it pleases the king,” she said, “and if he regards me with favor and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces. ⁶For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?”^j

⁷King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, “Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have impaled him on the pole he set up. ⁸Now write another decree^k in the king’s name in behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king’s signet ring^l—for no document written in the king’s name and sealed with his ring can be revoked.”^m

⁹At once the royal secretaries were summoned—on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai’s orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush.^a These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language.^o ¹⁰Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for the king.

¹¹The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate the armed men of any nationality or province who might attack them and their women and children,^b and to plunder^p the property of their enemies. ¹²The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.^q ¹³A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day^r to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴The couriers, riding the royal horses, went out, spurred on by the king's command, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa.

The Triumph of the Jews

¹⁵When Mordecai^s left the king's presence, he was wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen.^t And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration.^u ¹⁶For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy,^v gladness and honor.^w ¹⁷In every province and in every city to which the edict of the king came, there was joy^x and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear^y of the Jews had seized them.^z hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand^b over those who hated them.^c ²The Jews assembled in their cities^d in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those determined to destroy them. No one could stand against them,^e because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them. ³And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king's administrators helped the Jews,^f because fear of Mordecai had seized them. ⁴Mordecai was prominent^g in the palace; his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.^h

⁵The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them,ⁱ and they did what they pleased to those who hated them. ⁶In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, ¹⁰the ten sons^j of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.^k

¹¹The number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day. ¹²The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? It will also be granted."^l

¹³"If it pleases the king," Esther answered, "give the Jews in Susa permission to carry out this day's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons^m be impaledⁿ on poles."

¹⁴So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they impaled^o the ten sons of Haman. ¹⁵The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.^p

¹⁶Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king's provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief^q from their enemies.^r They killed seventy-five thousand of them^s but did not lay their hands on the plunder. ¹⁷This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting^t and joy.

¹⁸The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

¹⁹That is why rural Jews — those living in villages — observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar^u as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.^v

Purim Established

²⁰Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far, ²¹to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar ²²as the time when the Jews got relief^w from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration.^x He wrote them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food^y to one another and gifts to the poor.

²³So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them. ²⁴For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite,^z the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur^a (that is, the lot^b) for their ruin and destruction. ²⁵But when the plot came to the king's attention,^a he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back onto his own head,^c and that he and his sons should be impaled^d on poles.^e

²⁶(Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.^f) Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them, ²⁷the Jews took it on themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed. ²⁸These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never fail to be celebrated by the Jews — nor should the memory of these days die out among their descendants.

²⁹So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail,^g along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim. ³⁰And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces^h of Xerxes' kingdom — words of goodwill and assurance — ³¹to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fastingⁱ and lamentation.^j ³²Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

The Greatness of Mordecai

10 King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire, to its distant shores.^k ²And all his acts of power and might, together with a full account of the greatness of Mordecai,^l whom the king had promoted,^m are they not written in the book of the annalsⁿ of the kings of Media and Persia? ³Mordecai the Jew was second^o in rank^p to King Xerxes,^q pre-eminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by his many fellow Jews, because he worked for the good of his people and spoke up for the welfare of all the Jews.^r

JOB

1 In the land of Uz^a there lived a man whose name was Job.^b This man was blameless^c and upright; he feared God^d and shunned evil. ²He had seven sons and three daughters,^e ³and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man^f among all the people of the East.

⁴His sons used to hold feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would make arrangements for them to be purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering^g for each of them, thinking, "Perhaps my children have sinned^h and cursed Godⁱ in their hearts." This was Job's regular custom.

⁶One day the angels^j came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan^b also came with them.^k ⁷The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it."^l

⁸Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job?^m There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil."ⁿ

⁹"Does Job fear God for nothing?"^o Satan replied. ¹⁰"Have you not put a hedge around him and his household and everything he has?^p You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land.^q ¹¹But now stretch out your hand and strike everything he has,^r and he will surely curse you to your face."^s

¹²The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, then, everything he has is in your power, but on the man himself do not lay a finger."

Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

¹³One day when Job's sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, ¹⁴a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, ¹⁵and the Sabeans^t attacked and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

¹⁶While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The fire of God fell from the heavens^u and burned up the sheep and the servants,^v and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

¹⁷While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The Chaldeans^w formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

¹⁸While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, "Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, ¹⁹when suddenly a mighty wind^x swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"

²⁰At this, Job got up and tore his robe^y and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship^z ²¹and said:

"Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I will depart.^{ca}

^a 6 Hebrew the sons of God ^b 6 Hebrew satan means adversary. ^c 21 Or will return there

The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away;^b may the name of the LORD be praised.”^c

²²In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.^d

2 On another day the angels^a came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them^e to present himself before him. ²And the LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it.”

³Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil.^f And he still maintains his integrity,^g though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason.”^h

⁶The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, he is in your hands; but you must spare his life.”^k

⁷So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head.^l

⁸Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.^m

⁹His wife said to him, “Are you still maintaining your integrity? Curse God and die!”

¹⁰He replied, “You are talking like a foolish^b woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?”ⁿ

In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.^o

¹¹When Job’s three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite,^p Bildad the Shuhite^q and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him.^r ¹²When they saw him from a distance, they could

- ⁴Your words have supported those who stumbled;
 you have strengthened faltering knees.^u ⁵But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged;
 it strikes^v you, and you are dismayed.^w ⁶Should not your piety be your confidence^x
 and your blameless^y ways your hope?
⁷"Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished?^z
 Where were the upright ever destroyed?^a ⁸As I have observed, those who plow evil^b and those who sow trouble reap it.^c ⁹At the breath of God^d they perish;
 at the blast of his anger they are no more.^e ¹⁰The lions may roar and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions are broken.^f ¹¹The lion perishes for lack of prey,^g and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
¹²"A word was secretly brought
 to me,
 my ears caught a whisper^h
 of it.ⁱ ¹³Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on people,^j ¹⁴fear and trembling seized me and made all my bones shake.^k ¹⁵A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.
¹⁶It stopped,
 but I could not tell what it was.
 A form stood before my eyes,
 and I heard a hushed voice:
¹⁷"Can a mortal be more righteous than God?^l
 Can even a strong man be more pure than his Maker?^m ¹⁸If God places no trust in his servants, if he charges his angels with error,ⁿ

¹⁹how much more those who live in houses of clay,^o
whose foundations^p are in the dust,^q
who are crushed more readily than a moth!
²⁰Between dawn and dusk they are broken to pieces;
unnoticed, they perish forever.^r ²¹Are not the cords of their tent pulled up,^s
so that they die without wisdom?^t

5 “Call if you will, but who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones^u will you turn?
²Resentment kills a fool,
and envy slays the simple.^v ³I myself have seen a fool taking root,^w but suddenly his house was cursed.^x ⁴His children are far from safety,^y crushed in court^z without a defender.
⁵The hungry consume his harvest,^a taking it even from among thorns,
and the thirsty pant after his wealth.
⁶For hardship does not spring from the soil,
nor does trouble sprout from the ground.
⁷Yet man is born to trouble^b
as surely as sparks fly upward.
⁸“But if I were you, I would appeal to God;
I would lay my cause before him.^c ⁹He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed,^d
miracles that cannot be counted.
¹⁰He provides rain for the earth;
he sends water on the countryside.^e ¹¹The lowly he sets on high,^f and those who mourn are lifted to safety.
¹²He thwarts the plans^g of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.
¹³He catches the wise in their craftiness,^h
and the schemes of the wily are swept away.

Job

6 Then Job replied:

³It would surely outweigh the ⁸“Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant what I hope for,ⁿ ⁹that God would be willing to crush me,

to let loose his hand and cut off my life!^o ¹⁰Then I would still have this consolation —
my joy in unrelenting pain — that I had not denied the words^p of the Holy One.^q ¹¹“What strength do I have, that I should still hope?
What prospects, that I should be patient?^r
¹²Do I have the strength of stone?
Is my flesh bronze?
¹³Do I have any power to help

6 “God has made me a byword^h to everyone,
a man in whose face people spit.
7 My eyes have grown dim with grief;ⁱ
my whole frame is but a shadow.
8 The upright are appalled at this;
the innocent are aroused^j

9 Nevertheless, the righteous^k will hold to their ways, and those with clean hands^l

10 “But come on, all of you, try again!
I will not find a wise man among you.^m
11 My days have passed, my plans are shattered.
Yet the desires of my heartⁿ
12 turn night into day;

Interlude: Where Wisdom Is Found

28 There is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.

- ²Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.^d

³ Mortals put an end to the darkness;^e they search out the farthest recesses
 for ore in the blackest darkness.
⁴ Far from human dwellings they cut a shaft,
 in places untouched by human feet;
 far from other people they dangle and sway.
⁵ The earth, from which food comes,^f
 is transformed below as by fire;
⁶ lapis lazuli comes from its rocks, and its dust contains nuggets
 of gold.
⁷ No bird of prey knows that hidden path,
 no falcon's eye has seen it.
⁸ Proud beasts do not set foot on it,
 and no lion prowls there.
⁹ People assault the flinty rock with their hands
 and lay bare the roots of the mountains.
¹⁰ They tunnel through the rock;
 their eyes see all its treasures.
¹¹ They search^a the sources of the rivers
 and bring hidden things to light.
¹² But where can wisdom be found?^g
 Where does understanding dwell?
¹³ No mortal comprehends its worth;^h it cannot be found in the land of the living.
¹⁴ The deep says, "It is not in me";
 the sea says, "It is not with me."
¹⁵ It cannot be bought with the finest gold,
 nor can its price be weighed out in silver.ⁱ
¹⁶ It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir,
 with precious onyx or lapis lazuli.
¹⁷ Neither gold nor crystal can compare with it,
 nor can it be had for jewels of gold.^j ¹⁸ Coral and jasper are not worthy of mention;
 the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.^k

²⁰ Where then does wisdom come from?
 Where does understanding
 dwell?^m
²¹ It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing,
 concealed even from the birds
 in the sky.
²² Destruction^{bn} and Death say,
 "Only a rumor of it has reached our ears."
²³ God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells,^o
²⁴ for he views the ends of the earth^p
 and sees everything under the heavens.^q ²⁵ When he established the force of the wind
 and measured out the waters,^r ²⁶ when he made a decree for the rain
 and a path for the thunderstorm,^s ²⁷ then he looked at wisdom and appraised it;
 he confirmed it and tested it.
²⁸ And he said to the human race,
 "The fear of the Lord — that is wisdom,
 and to shun evil is understanding."^t

Elihu

32 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.^w ²But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite,^x of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God.^y ³He was also angry with the three friends, because they had found no way to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.^a ⁴Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he. ⁵But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.

⁶So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said:

- “I am young in years,
and you are old;^z
that is why I was fearful, not daring to tell you what I know.
⁷I thought, ‘Age should speak;
advanced years should teach
wisdom.’
⁸But it is the spirit^b in a person, the breath of the Almighty,^a that gives them understanding.^b ⁹It is not only the old^c who are wise,^c not only the aged who understand what is right.
¹⁰“Therefore I say: Listen to me;
I too will tell you what I
know.

^a 3 Or you ^b 10, 11 Or night, / ¹¹who teaches us by ^c 11 Or us wise by ^d 15 Symmachus, Theodotion and Vulgate; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

- 7 He does not take his eyes off the righteous;^e he enthrones them with kings^f and exalts them forever.
- 8 But if people are bound in chains,^g held fast by cords of affliction, 9 he tells them what they have done —
that they have sinned arrogantly.^h
- 10 He makes them listenⁱ to correction and commands them to repent of their evil.^j
- 11 If they obey and serve him,^k
they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity and their years in contentment.
- 12 But if they do not listen,
they will perish by the sword^{al} and die without knowledge.^m
- 13 “The godless in heartⁿ harbor resentment;
even when he fetters them,
they do not cry for help.
- 14 They die in their youth, among male prostitutes of the shrines.^o
- 15 But those who suffer he delivers in their suffering;
he speaks to them in their affliction.
- 16 “He is wooing^p you from the jaws of distress
to a spacious place free from restriction, to the comfort of your table^q laden with choice food.
- 17 But now you are laden with the judgment due the wicked;
judgment and justice have taken hold of you.^r
- 18 Be careful that no one entices you by riches;
do not let a large bribe turn you aside.^s
- 19 Would your wealth or even all your mighty efforts sustain you so you would not be in distress?
- 20 Do not long for the night,^t to drag people away from their homes.^b
- 21 Beware of turning to evil,^u which you seem to prefer to affliction.^v

Epilogue

⁷After the LORD had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “I am angry with you and your two friends,^v because you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has. ⁸So now take seven bulls and seven rams^w and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering^x for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer^y and not deal with you according to your folly.^z You have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has.” ⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

¹²The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the former part. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys. ¹³And he also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

❖ Psalm 1

- ¹Blessed is the one who does not walk^a in step with the wicked
or stand in the way that sinners take or sit^b in the company of mockers, ²but whose delight^c is in the law of the LORD,^d
and who meditates^e on his law day and night.
³That person is like a tree^f planted by streams of water,^g
which yields its fruit^h in season and whose leaf does not wither—whatever they do prospers.ⁱ ⁴Not so the wicked!
They are like chaff^j
that the wind blows away.
⁵Therefore the wicked will not stand^k in the judgment,^l nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
⁶For the LORD watches over^m the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.ⁿ

❖ Psalm 2

- ¹Why do the nations conspire^a
and the peoples plot^b in vain?
²The kings^p of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the LORD and against his anointed,^q saying, ³“Let us break their chains and throw off their shackles.”^r ⁴The One enthroned in heaven laughs;^s
the Lord scoffs at them.

²Hear my cry for help,^d my King and my God,^e for to you I pray.

³In the morning,^f LORD, you hear my voice;
in the morning I lay my

❖ Psalm 12^a

For the director of music. According to sheminith.^b A psalm of David.

- ¹ Help, LORD, for no one is faithful anymore;^y
those who are loyal have vanished from the human race.
- ² Everyone lies to their neighbor;
they flatter with their lips
but harbor deception in their hearts.^z
- ³ May the LORD silence all flattering lips and every boastful tongue — ^a
- ⁴ those who say,
“By our tongues we will prevail;
our own lips will defend us —
who is lord over us?”
- ⁵ “Because the poor are plundered
and the needy groan,
I will now arise,” says the LORD.
“I will protect them^b from those who malign them.”
- ⁶ And the words of the LORD are flawless,^c
like silver purified in a crucible,
like gold^c refined seven times.
- ⁷ You, LORD, will keep the needy safe
and will protect us forever from the wicked,^d

when what is vile is honored by the human race.

⁹LORD, give victory to the king!
Answer us^m when we call!

❖ Psalm 21^a

*For the director of music.
A psalm of David.*

¹The king rejoices in your strength,
LORD.
How great is his joy in the victories you give!ⁿ

²You have granted him his heart's desire^o
and have not withheld the request of his lips.^b

³You came to greet him with rich blessings
and placed a crown of pure gold^p on his head.

⁴He asked you for life, and you gave it to him —
length of days, for ever and ever.^q

⁵Through the victories^r you gave,
his glory is great;
you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.

⁶Surely you have granted him unending blessings
and made him glad with the joy^s of your presence.^t

⁷For the king trusts in the LORD;
through the unfailing love of the Most High
he will not be shaken.

⁸Your hand will lay hold^u on all your enemies;
your right hand will seize your foes.

⁹When you appear for battle, you will burn them up as in a blazing furnace.

*For the director of music. To the tune of "The Doe of the Morning."
A psalm of David.*

¹My God, my God, why have you

❖ Psalm 25^e

Of David.

- 1 In you, LORD my God,
I put my trust.^p
2 I trust in you;^q
do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
3 No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame,^r but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause.
4 Show me your ways, LORD, teach me your paths.^s 5 Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my Savior,
and my hope is in you all day long.
6 Remember, LORD, your great mercy and love,^t
for they are from of old.
7 Do not remember the sins of my youth^u
and my rebellious ways;
according to your love^v
remember me,
for you, LORD, are good.
8 Good and upright^w is the LORD;
therefore he instructs^x sinners
in his ways.

^d 6 The Hebrew has Selah (a word of uncertain meaning) here and at the end of verse 10.

^e This psalm is an acrostic poem, the verses of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

- ¹⁰ All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful^a toward those who keep the demands of his covenant.^b
- ¹¹ For the sake of your name,^c LORD, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.
- ¹² Who, then, are those who fear the LORD?
He will instruct them in the ways^d they should choose.^a
- ¹³ They will spend their days in prosperity,^e and their descendants will inherit the land.^f
- ¹⁴ The LORD confides^g in those who fear him;
he makes his covenant known^h to them.
- ¹⁵ My eyes are ever on the LORD,ⁱ for only he will release my feet from the snare.
- ¹⁶ Turn to me^j and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.
- ¹⁷ Relieve the troubles of my heart and free me from my anguish.^k
- ¹⁸ Look on my affliction and my distress^l and take away all my sins.
- ¹⁹ See how numerous are my enemies^m and how fiercely they hate me!
- ²⁰ Guard my lifeⁿ and rescue me;
do not let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
- ²¹ May integrity^o and uprightness protect me, because my hope, LORD,^b is in you.
- ²² Deliver Israel,^p O God, from all their troubles!

31:1-4pp — Ps 71:1-3

*For the director of music.
A psalm of David.*

- ¹ In you, LORD, I have taken refuge;
let me never be put to shame;
deliver me in your righteousness.
- ² Turn your ear to me,
come quickly to my rescue;
be my rock of refuge,^q
a strong fortress to save me.

for you are my refuge.^t ⁵ Into your hands I commit my spirit;^u deliver me, LORD, my faithful God.
⁶ I hate those who cling to worthless idols;
as for me, I trust in the LORD.^v ⁷ I will be glad and rejoice in your love,
for you saw my affliction^w and knew the anguish^x of my soul.
⁸ You have not given me into the hands^y of the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place.
⁹ Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am in distress;
my eyes grow weak with sorrow,^z
my soul and body with grief.
¹⁰ My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning;^a my strength fails because of my affliction,^a and my bones grow weak.^b ¹¹ Because of all my enemies,
I am the utter contempt of my neighbors^c
and an object of dread to my closest friends —
those who see me on the street
flee from me.
¹² I am forgotten as though I were dead;^d
I have become like broken

- ¹Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous;
it is fitting^r for the upright^s to praise him.
- ²Praise the LORD with the harp;
make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.^t
- ³Sing to him a new song;^u
play skillfully, and shout for joy.
- ⁴For the word of the LORD is right^v
and true;
he is faithful in all he does.
- ⁵The LORD loves righteousness and justice;^w
the earth is full of his unfailing love.^x
- ⁶By the word^y of the LORD the heavens were made,
their starry host by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷He gathers the waters of the sea
into jars^b;
he puts the deep into storehouses.
- ⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the people of the world revere him.^z
- ⁹For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded,^a and it stood firm.
- ¹⁰The LORD foils the plans of the nations;^b
he thwarts the purposes of the peoples.
- ¹¹But the plans of the LORD stand
firm forever,
the purposes^c of his heart
through all generations.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is
the LORD,^d
the people he chose^e for his inheritance.
- ¹³From heaven the LORD looks down

- ¹⁶No king is saved by the size of his army;^j no warrior escapes by his great strength.
- ¹⁷A horse^k is a vain hope for deliverance;
despite all its great strength it cannot save.
- ¹⁸But the eyes^l of the LORD are on those who fear him,
on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,^m
- ¹⁹to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.ⁿ
- ²⁰We wait^o in hope for the LORD;
he is our help and our shield.
- ²¹In him our hearts rejoice,^p
for we trust in his holy name.
- ²²May your unfailing love be with us, LORD,
even as we put our hope in you.

❖ Psalm 34^{a,b}

Of David. When he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him away, and he left.

- ¹I will extol the LORD at all times;^q
his praise will always be on my lips.
- ²I will glory^r in the LORD;
let the afflicted hear and rejoice.^s
- ³Glorify the LORD with me;
let us exalt^t his name together.
- ⁴I sought the LORD,^u and he answered me;
he delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵Those who look to him are radiant;^v
their faces are never covered with shame.^w
- ⁶This poor man called, and the LORD heard him;
he saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD^x encamps around those who fear him,

- do not fret when people succeed in their ways,
when they carry out their wicked schemes.
- ⁸ Refrain from anger^b and turn from wrath;
do not fret — it leads only to evil.
- ⁹ For those who are evil will be

- ²⁰ But the wicked will perish:
Though the LORD's enemies are like the flowers of the field,
they will be consumed, they will go up in smoke.ⁿ
- ²¹ The wicked borrow and do not repay,
but the righteous give generously;^o
- ²² those the LORD blesses will inherit
the land,
but those he curses^p will be destroyed.
- ²³ The LORD makes firm the steps^q
of the one who delights^r in him;
²⁴ though he may stumble, he will not fall,^s for the LORD upholds^t him with his hand.
- ²⁵ I was young and now I am old,
yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken^u
or their children begging bread.
- ²⁶ They are always generous and lend freely;
their children will be a blessing.^{av}
- ²⁷ Turn from evil and do good;^w
then you will dwell in the land forever.
- ²⁸ For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.
- Wrongdoers will be completely destroyed^b;
the offspring of the wicked will perish.^x
- ²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land^y
and dwell in it forever.
- ³⁰ The mouths of the righteous utter
wisdom,
and their tongues speak what is just.
- ³¹ The law of their God is in their hearts;^z
their feet do not slip.^a

^a 26 Or freely; / the names of their children will be used in blessings (see Gen. 48:20); or freely; / others will see that their children are blessed
^b 28 See Septuagint; Hebrew They will be protected forever

³² The wicked lie in wait^b for the righteous, intent on putting them to death;
³³ but the LORD will not leave them in the power of the wicked or let them be condemned when brought to trial.^c ³⁴ Hope in the LORD^d
 and keep his way.
 He will exalt you to inherit the
 land;
 when the wicked are destroyed,
 you will see^e it.
³⁵ I have seen a wicked and ruthless man
 flourishing^f like a luxuriant
 native tree,
³⁶ but he soon passed away and was no more;
 though I looked for him, he could not be found.^g ³⁷ Consider the blameless, observe the upright;
 a future awaits those who seek peace.^{ah} ³⁸ But all sinners will be destroyed;
 there will be no future^b for the wicked.ⁱ
³⁹ The salvation^j of the righteous comes from the LORD;
 he is their stronghold in time of trouble.^k
⁴⁰ The LORD helps^l them and delivers^m them;
 he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in
 him.

40:13-17pp — Ps 70:1-5

*For the director of music. Of David.
A psalm.*

- ¹ I waited patiently^h for the LORD;
he turned to me and heard my cry.ⁱ
- ² He lifted me out of the slimy pit,
out of the mud and mire;^j
he set my feet on a rock^k and gave me a firm place to stand.
- ³ He put a new song^l in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.

❖ Psalm 72

Of Solomon.

- ¹Endow the king with your justice,
O God,
the royal son with your
righteousness.
- ²May he judge your people in righteousness,^k
your afflicted ones with justice.
- ³May the mountains bring prosperity to the people, the hills the fruit of righteousness.
- ⁴May he defend the afflicted
among the people and save the children of the needy;^l
may he crush the oppressor.
- ⁵May he endure^a as long as the sun,
as long as the moon, through all generations.
- ⁶May he be like rain^m falling on a mown field,
like showers watering the earth.
- ⁷In his days may the righteous
flourishⁿ
and prosperity abound till the moon is no more.
- ⁸May he rule from sea to sea and from the River^{bo} to the ends of the earth.^p
- ⁹May the desert tribes bow before
him
and his enemies lick the dust.
- ¹⁰May the kings of Tarshish and of distant shores
bring tribute to him.
May the kings of Sheba^q and Seba present him gifts.^r
- ¹¹May all kings bow down to him
and all nations serve him.
- ¹²For he will deliver the needy who cry out,
the afflicted who have no one to help.
- ¹³He will take pity on the weak and the needy
and save the needy from death.
- ¹⁴He will rescue^s them from oppression and violence, for precious^t is their blood in his sight.

28 He made them come down inside their camp,
all around their tents.

29 They ate till they were gorged — ^j
he had given them what they craved.

30 But before they turned from what they craved, even while the food was still in their mouths,^k

31 God's anger rose against them;
he put to death the sturdiest^l among them,
cutting down the young men of Israel.

32 In spite of all this, they kept on sinning;
in spite of his wonders,^m they did not believe.ⁿ

33 So he ended their days in futility^o and their years in terror.

34 Whenever God slew them, they would seek^p him;
they eagerly turned to him again.

35 They remembered that God was their Rock,^q that God Most High was their Redeemer.^r

36 But then they would flatter him with their mouths,^s lying to him with their tongues;

37 their hearts were not loyal^t to him,
they were not faithful to his covenant.

38 Yet he was merciful;^u
he forgave^v their iniquities^w and did not destroy them.
Time after time he restrained his anger
and did not stir up his full wrath.

39 He remembered that they were but flesh,^x
a passing breeze^y that does not return.

40 How often they rebelled^z against him in the wilderness^a and grieved him^b in the wasteland!

41 Again and again they put God to the test;^c they vexed the Holy One of Israel.^d

42 They did not remember his power —
 the day he redeemed them from the oppressor, 43 the day he displayed his signs in Egypt,
 his wonders in the region of Zoan.
 44 He turned their river into blood;^e
 they could not drink from their streams.
 45 He sent swarms of flies^f that devoured them,
 and frogs^g that devastated them.
 46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper,
 their produce to the locust.^h 47 He destroyed their vines with hailⁱ and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
 48 He gave over their cattle to the hail,
 their livestock^j to bolts of lightning.
 49 He unleashed against them his hot anger,^k his wrath, indignation and hostility — a band of destroying angels.
 50 He prepared a path for his anger;
 he did not spare them from death
 but gave them over to the plague.
 51 He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt,^l
 the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.^m 52 But he brought his people out like a flock;ⁿ
 he led them like sheep through the wilderness.
 53 He guided them safely, so they were unafraid;
 but the sea engulfed^o their enemies.^p 54 And so he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand^q had taken.
 55 He drove out nations^r before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance;^s he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.

56 But they put God to the test

 57 Like their ancestors^t they were disloyal and faithless,
 as unreliable as a faulty bow.^u
 58 They angered him^v with their high places;^w

 59 When God heard them, he was furious;
 he rejected Israel^y completely.
 60 He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,^z

 61 He sent the ark of his might^a into captivity,^b his splendor into the hands of the enemy.
 62 He gave his people over to the sword;
 he was furious with his inheritance.
 63 Fire consumed^c their young men, and their young women had no wedding songs;^d 64 their priests were put to the sword,^e and their widows could not weep.
 65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,^f
 as a warrior wakes from the stupor of wine.
 66 He beat back his enemies;
 he put them to everlasting shame.^g 67 Then he rejected the tents of Joseph,
 he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;
 68 but he chose the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion,^h which he loved.
 69 He built his sanctuary like the heights,
 like the earth that he established forever.
 70 He chose Davidⁱ his servant
 and took him from the sheep pens;

- ⁷¹from tending the sheep he brought him

❖ Psalm 87

Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm. A song.

- ¹He has founded his city on the holy mountain.
- ²The LORD loves the gates of Zion^x more than all the other dwellings of Jacob.
- ³Glorious things are said of you, city of God:^{ay}
- ⁴"I will record Rahab^{bz} and Babylon among those who acknowledge me — Philistia too, and Tyre^a, along with Cush^c — and will say, 'This one was born in Zion.'^{db}
- ⁵Indeed, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one were born in her, and the Most High himself will establish her."
- ⁶The LORD will write in the register^c of the peoples: "This one was born in Zion."

^b 4 A poetic name for Egypt ^c 4 That is, the upper Nile region ^d 4 Or "I will record concerning those who acknowledge me: / 'This one was born in Zion.' / Hear this, Rahab and Babylon, / and you too, Philistia, Tyre and Cush."

7 As they make music^d they will sing,
“All my fountains^e are in you.”

❖ Psalm 88^a

A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah. For the director of music. According to mahalath leannoth.^b A maskil^c of Heman the Ezrahite.

- 1 LORD, you are the God who saves me;^f
day and night I cry out^g to you.
2 May my prayer come before you;
turn your ear to my cry.
3 I am overwhelmed with troubles and my life draws near to death.^h
4 I am counted among those who go down to the pit;ⁱ
I am like one without strength.
5 I am set apart with the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no more,
who are cut off^j from your care.
6 You have put me in the lowest pit,
in the darkest depths.^k 7 Your wrath lies heavily on me;
you have overwhelmed me
with all your waves.^l
8 You have taken from me my closest friends^m and have made me repulsive to them.
I am confinedⁿ and cannot escape;
9 my eyes^o are dim with grief.
I call^p to you, LORD, every day;
I spread out my hands^q to you.
10 Do you show your wonders to the dead?
Do their spirits rise up and praise you?^r 11 Is your love declared in the grave, your faithfulness^s in Destruction^e?
12 Are your wonders known in the place of darkness,
or your righteous deeds in the land of oblivion?
13 But I cry to you for help,^t LORD;
in the morning^u my prayer comes before you.^v

❖ Psalm 89^f

A maskil^c of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 1 I will sing^b of the LORD's great love forever;
with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known^c
through all generations.
2 I will declare that your love stands
firm forever,
that you have established your faithfulness in heaven itself.^d
3 You said, “I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David my servant,
4 “I will establish your line forever and make your throne firm through all generations.”^e 5 The heavens^f praise your wonders, LORD, your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones.
6 For who in the skies above can compare with the LORD?
Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings?^g

You, LORD, are mighty, and your faithfulness surrounds
you.

9 You rule over the surging sea;
when its waves mount up, you still them.^j

10 You crushed Rahab^k like one of the slain;
with your strong arm you scattered^l your enemies.

11 The heavens are yours, and yours also the earth;^m
you founded the world and all

12 You created the north and the south;
Tabor^o and Hermon^p sing for joy^q at your name.

13 Your arm is endowed with power;
your hand is strong, your right hand exalted.

14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;^r
love and faithfulness go before
you.

15 Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light^s of your

BOOK IV

❖ Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

¹ Lord, you have been our dwelling place^d

throughout all generations.

² Before the mountains were born^e

or you brought forth the whole world,

from everlasting to everlasting you are God.^f

³ You turn people back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, you mortals.”^g

⁴ A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.^h

⁵ Yet you sweep people awayⁱ in the sleep of death —
they are like the new grass of the morning:

⁶ In the morning it springs up new,

but by evening it is dry and withered.^j

⁷ We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.

⁸ You have set our iniquities before
you,
our secret sins^k in the light of your presence.

⁹ All our days pass away under your wrath;
we finish our years with a moan.^l

^a 50 Or your servants have

- ¹⁰ Our days may come to seventy years,
or eighty, if our strength endures;
yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.^m
- ¹¹ If only we knew the power of your anger!
Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.ⁿ
- ¹² Teach us to number our days,^o
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.^p
- ¹³ Relent, LORD! How long^q will it be?
Have compassion on your servants.^r
- ¹⁴ Satisfy^s us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy^t and be glad all our days.^u
- ¹⁵ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.
- ¹⁶ May your deeds be shown to your servants,
your splendor to their children.^v
- ¹⁷ May the favor^a of the Lord our God rest on us;
establish the work of our hands for us —
yes, establish the work of our hands.^w

❖ Psalm 91

- ¹ Whoever dwells in the shelter^x of the Most High will rest in the shadow^y of the Almighty.^b
- ² I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge^z and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust.”
- ³ Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare^a and from the deadly pestilence.^b
- ⁴ He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge;^c
his faithfulness will be your shield^d and rampart.

- ¹⁴He makes grass grow^f for the cattle,
 and plants for people to cultivate — bringing forth food^g from the earth:
- ¹⁵wine^h that gladdens human
 hearts,
 oilⁱ to make their faces shine,
 and bread that sustains their hearts.
- ¹⁶The trees of the LORD are well watered,
 the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
- ¹⁷There the birds^j make their nests;
 the stork has its home in the junipers.
- ¹⁸The high mountains belong to the wild goats;
 the crags are a refuge for the hyrax.^k
- ¹⁹He made the moon to mark the seasons,^l
 and the sun^m knows when to go down.
- ²⁰You bring darkness,ⁿ it becomes night,^o
 and all the beasts of the forest^p prowl.
- ²¹The lions roar for their prey
 and seek their food from God.^q
- ²²The sun rises, and they steal away;
 they return and lie down in their dens.^r
- ²³Then people go out to their work,^s
 to their labor until evening.
- ²⁴How many are your works,^t LORD!
 In wisdom you made^u them all;
 the earth is full of your creatures.
- ²⁵There is the sea,^v vast and spacious,
 teeming with creatures beyond number — living things both large and small.
- ²⁶There the ships^w go to and fro,
 and Leviathan,^x which you formed to frolic there.
- ²⁷All creatures look to you to give them their food^y at the proper time.

^a 4 Or angels

28 When you give it to them, they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
they are satisfied^z with good things.

29 When you hide your face,^a they are terrified;
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.^b

30 When you send your Spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the ground.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure
forever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works^c —

32 he who looks at the earth, and it trembles,^d
who touches the mountains,^e and they smoke.^f

33 I will sing^g to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as 34 May my meditation be pleasing to 35 But may sinners vanishⁱ from the

and the wicked be no more.

Praise the LORD, my soul.
Praise the LORD.^{aj}

6 you his servants, the descendants of Abraham,^q
his chosen^r ones, the children of Jacob.

7 He is the LORD our God;
his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He remembers his covenant^s
forever,
the promise he made, for a thousand generations, 9 the covenant he made with Abraham,^t
the oath he swore to Isaac.

10 He confirmed it^u to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

11 “To you I will give the land of Canaan^v
as the portion you will inherit.”

12 When they were but few in number,^w
few indeed, and strangers in it,^x

13 they wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another.

14 He allowed no one to oppress^y
them;
for their sake he rebuked
kings:^z

15 “Do not touch^a my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm.”

16 He called down famine^b on the land
and destroyed all their supplies
of food;

17 and he sent a man before them —
Joseph, sold as a slave.^c

18 They bruised his feet with shackles,^d
his neck was put in irons,

19 till what he foretold^e came to pass,
till the word of the LORD proved him true.

20 The king sent and released him,
the ruler of peoples set him
free.^f

21 He made him master of his household,
ruler over all he possessed,

^a 35 Hebrew Hallelu Yah; in the Septuagint this line stands at the beginning of Psalm 105.

22 to instruct his princes^g as he pleased
and teach his elders wisdom.

23 Then Israel entered Egypt;^h Jacob resided as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

24 The LORD made his people very fruitful;
he made them too numerousⁱ
for their foes,

25 whose hearts he turned^j to hate
his people,
to conspire^k against his servants.

26 He sent Moses^l his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.^m

27 They performedⁿ his signs among
them,
his wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness^o and made the land dark —
for had they not rebelled against his words?

29 He turned their waters into blood,^p
causing their fish to die.^q

30 Their land teemed with frogs,^r which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.

31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,^s
and gnats^t throughout their country.

32 He turned their rain into hail,^u with lightning throughout their land;

33 he struck down their vines^v and fig trees
and shattered the trees of their country.

34 He spoke, and the locusts came,^w grasshoppers without number;

35 they ate up every green thing in
their land,
ate up the produce of their soil.

36 Then he struck down all the firstborn^x in their land,
the firstfruits of all their manhood.

37 He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold,^y
and from among their tribes no one faltered.

BOOK V

Psalms 107 – 150

❖ Psalm 107

1 Give thanks to the LORD,^s for he is good;
 his love endures forever.
 2 Let the redeemed^t of the LORD tell their story —
 those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,
 3 those he gathered^u from the lands,
 from east and west, from north and south.^a 4 Some wandered in desert^v wastelands,
 finding no way to a city where they could settle.
 5 They were hungry and thirsty,
 and their lives ebbed away.
 6 Then they cried out^w to the LORD
 in their trouble,
 and he delivered them from their distress.
 7 He led them by a straight way^x to a city where they could settle.
 8 Let them give thanks to the LORD
 for his unfailing love
 and his wonderful deeds for
 mankind,
 9 for he satisfies^y the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.^z 10 Some sat in darkness,^a in utter darkness,
 prisoners suffering in iron chains,^b 11 because they rebelled^c against God's commands
 and despised the plans^d of the Most High.
 12 So he subjected them to bitter labor;
 they stumbled, and there was no one to help.^e 13 Then they cried to the LORD in
 their trouble,
 and he saved them from their distress.

^a 3 Hebrew north and the sea

14 He brought them out of darkness,
the utter darkness,
and broke away their chains.^f 15 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for his unfailing love
and his wonderful deeds for
mankind,
16 for he breaks down gates of bronze
and cuts through bars of iron.
17 Some became fools through their rebellious ways
and suffered affliction^g because of their iniquities.
18 They loathed all food^h and drew near the gates of death.ⁱ
19 Then they cried to the LORD in
their trouble,
distress.
20 He sent out his word^j and healed them;^k
he rescued^l them from the grave.^m
21 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for his unfailing love
and his wonderful deeds for
mankind.
22 Let them sacrifice thank offeringsⁿ
and tell of his works^o with songs of joy.
23 Some went out on the sea in ships;
they were merchants on the mighty waters.
24 They saw the works of the LORD, his wonderful deeds in the deep.
25 For he spoke^p and stirred up a tempest^q
that lifted high the waves.^r 26 They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths;
in their peril their courage melted^s away.
27 They reeled and staggered like drunkards;
they were at their wits' end.
28 Then they cried out to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

30 They were glad when it grew calm,
and he guided them to their desired haven.
31 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for his unfailing love
and his wonderful deeds for
mankind.
32 Let them exalt him in the assembly^v of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.
33 He turned rivers into a desert,^w flowing springs into thirsty
ground,
34 and fruitful land into a salt waste,^x
because of the wickedness of those who lived there.
35 He turned the desert into pools of water^y
and the parched ground into flowing springs;
36 there he brought the hungry to live,
and they founded a city where
they could settle.
37 They sowed fields and planted vineyards^z
that yielded a fruitful harvest;
38 he blessed them, and their numbers greatly increased,^a and he did not let their herds diminish.
39 Then their numbers decreased,^b and they were humbled by oppression, calamity and sorrow;
40 he who pours contempt on nobles^c
made them wander in a trackless waste.^d
41 But he lifted the needy^e out of their affliction
and increased their families like flocks.
42 The upright see and rejoice,^f but all the wicked shut their mouths.^g

❖ Psalm 108^a

108:1-5pp — Ps 57:7-11
108:6-13pp — Ps 60:5-12

A song. A psalm of David.

¹My heart, O God, is steadfast;
I will sing and make music with all my soul.
²Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.
³I will praise you, LORD, among the nations;
I will sing of you among the peoples.
⁴For great is your love, higher than the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.^j ⁶Save us and help us with your right hand,
that those you love may be delivered.
⁷God has spoken from his sanctuary:
“In triumph I will parcel out Shechem
and measure off the Valley of Sukkoth.
⁸Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah^k is my scepter.
⁹Moab is my washbasin,
on Edom I toss my sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.” ¹⁰Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
¹¹Is it not you, God, you who have rejected us
and no longer go out with our armies?^l ¹²Give us aid against the enemy,
for human help is worthless.
¹³With God we will gain the victory, and he will trample down our enemies.

❖ Psalm 109

*For the director of music. Of David.
A psalm.*

¹My God, whom I praise, do not remain silent,^m ²for people who are wicked and deceitful
have opened their mouths
against me;
they have spoken against me
with lying tongues.ⁿ ³With words of hatred^o they surround me;
they attack me without cause.^p ⁴In return for my friendship they accuse me,
but I am a man of prayer.^q ⁵They repay me evil for good,^r and hatred for my friendship.
⁶Appoint someone evil to oppose my enemy;
let an accuser^s stand at his right hand.
⁷When he is tried, let him be found guilty,
and may his prayers condemn^t
him.
⁸May his days be few;
may another take his place^u of leadership.
⁹May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.^v ¹⁰May his children be wandering beggars;
may they be driven^b from their ruined homes.
¹¹May a creditor seize all he has;
may strangers plunder the fruits of his labor.^w ¹²May no one extend kindness to
him
or take pity^x on his fatherless children.
¹³May his descendants be cut off,^y their names blotted out^z from the next generation.
¹⁴May the iniquity of his fathers^a be remembered before the LORD;
may the sin of his mother
never be blotted out.

^a In Hebrew texts 108:1-13 is numbered 108:2-14.

^b 10 Septuagint; Hebrew sought

- ¹⁵ May their sins always remain
before the LORD, that he may blot out their name^b from the earth.
- ¹⁶ For he never thought of doing a kindness,
but hounded to death the poor and the needy^c and the brokenhearted.^d
- ¹⁷ He loved to pronounce a curse —
may it come back on him.^e
He found no pleasure in blessing — may it be far from him.
- ¹⁸ He wore cursing^f as his garment;
it entered into his body like water,^g
into his bones like oil.
- ¹⁹ May it be like a cloak wrapped about him,
like a belt tied forever around
him.
- ²⁰ May this be the LORD's payment^h
to my accusers,
to those who speak evilⁱ of me.
- ²¹ But you, Sovereign LORD, help me for your name's sake;
out of the goodness of your love,^k deliver me.
- ²² For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is wounded
within me.
- ²³ I fade away like an evening
shadow;^l
I am shaken off like a locust.
- ²⁴ My knees give^m way from fasting;
my body is thin and gaunt.
- ²⁵ I am an object of scornⁿ to my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.^o
- ²⁶ Help me,^p LORD my God;
save me according to your unfailing love.
- ²⁷ Let them know^q that it is your hand,
that you, LORD, have done it.
- ²⁸ While they curse,^r may you bless;
may those who attack me be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.^s
- ²⁹ May my accusers be clothed with disgrace
and wrapped in shame^t as in a cloak.
- ³⁰ With my mouth I will greatly
extol the LORD;

Of David. A psalm.

- ¹ The LORD says^w to my lord:^a “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet.”^x
- ² The LORD will extend your mighty scepter^y from Zion, saying, “Rule in the midst of your

℟ Aleph

- 1 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk^r according to the law
of the LORD.
- 2 Blessed are those who keep his statutes
and seek him with all their
heart — ^s
- 3 they do no wrong^t

- 4 You have laid down precepts
that are to be fully obeyed.
- 5 Oh, that my ways were steadfast in obeying your decrees!
- 6 Then I would not be put to shame when I consider all your commands.
- 7 I will praise you with an upright heart
as I learn your righteous laws.
- 8 I will obey your decrees;
do not utterly forsake me.

and dashes them^e against the rocks.

❖ Psalm 138

Of David.

¹I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart;
before the "gods"^f I will sing your praise.

²I will bow down toward your holy temple^g and will praise your name for your unfailing love and your faithfulness, for you have so exalted your solemn decree that it surpasses your fame.^h

³When I called, you answered me;
you greatly emboldened me.

^a 13 Or the Sea of Reeds; also in verse 15

- ⁴ May all the kings of the earthⁱ
praise you, LORD, when they hear what you have decreed.
- ⁵ May they sing of the ways of the LORD,
for the glory of the LORD is great.
- ⁶ Though the LORD is exalted, he looks kindly on the lowly;^j though lofty, he sees them^k
from afar.
- ⁷ Though I walk^l in the midst of trouble,
you preserve my life.
You stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes;^m with your right handⁿ you save me.^o
- ⁸ The LORD will vindicate^p me;
your love, LORD, endures
forever —
do not abandon the works of your hands.^q

❖ Psalm 139

*For the director of music. Of David.
A psalm.*

- ¹ You have searched me,^r LORD,
and you know^s me.
- ² You know when I sit and when I rise;^t
you perceive my thoughts^u
from afar.
- ³ You discern my going out and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.^v
- ⁴ Before a word is on my tongue
you, LORD, know it completely.^w
- ⁵ You hem me in^x behind and before,
and you lay your hand
upon me.
- ⁶ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,
too lofty^y for me to attain.
- ⁷ Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee^z from your presence?
- ⁸ If I go up to the heavens,^a you are there;
if I make my bed^b in the depths, you are there.

PROVERBS

Purpose and Theme

1 The proverbs of Solomon^a son of David, king of Israel:^b

- ²for gaining wisdom and instruction;
for understanding words of insight;
- ³for receiving instruction in prudent behavior,
doing what is right and just and fair;
- ⁴for giving prudence to those who are simple,^{ac} knowledge and discretion^d to the young —
- ⁵let the wise listen and add to their learning,^e and let the discerning get guidance —
- ⁶for understanding proverbs and parables,^f
the sayings and riddles^g of the wise.^b
- ⁷The fear of the LORD^h is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools^c despise wisdom and instruction.

Prologue: Exhortations to Embrace Wisdom

Warning Against the Invitation of Sinful Men

- ⁸Listen, my son,ⁱ to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching.^j

Wisdom's Rebuke

- ²⁰Out in the open wisdom calls aloud,^u
she raises her voice in the public square;
- ²¹on top of the wall^d she cries out,
at the city gate she makes her speech:

^a 4 The Hebrew word rendered simple in Proverbs denotes a person who is gullible, without moral direction and inclined to evil.

^b 6 Or understanding a proverb, namely, a parable, / and the sayings of the wise, their riddles ^c 7 The Hebrew words rendered fool in Proverbs, and often elsewhere in the Old Testament, denote a person who is morally deficient. ^d 21 Septuagint; Hebrew / at noisy street corners

- 22 “How long will you who are simple^v love your simple ways?
How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge?
23 Repent at my rebuke!
Then I will pour out my thoughts to you,
I will make known to you my teachings.
24 But since you refuse to listen when I call^w and no one pays attention when I stretch out my hand, 25 since you disregard all my advice and do not accept my rebuke,
26 I in turn will laugh^x when disaster strikes you;
I will mock when calamity overtakes you^y — 27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind,
when distress and trouble overwhelm you.
28 “Then they will call to me but I will not answer;^z they will look for me but will not find me,^a 29 since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the LORD.^b
30 Since they would not accept my advice

32 For the waywardness of the simple will kill them,

Warnings Against Folly

6 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor,^b
if you have shaken hands in pledge^c for a stranger, ²you have been trapped by what you said,
ensnared by the words of your mouth.
³So do this, my son, to free yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:
Go — to the point of exhaustion — ^a and give your neighbor no rest!
⁴Allow no sleep to your eyes,
no slumber to your eyelids.^d ⁵Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.^e ⁶Go to the ant, you sluggard;^f consider its ways and be wise!
⁷It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler, ⁸yet it stores its provisions in summer
and gathers its food at harvest.^g ⁹How long will you lie there, you sluggard?^h
When will you get up from your sleep?
¹⁰A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to restⁱ — ¹¹and poverty^j will come on you like a thief
and scarcity like an armed man.
¹²A troublemaker and a villain, who goes about with a corrupt
mouth,
¹³who winks maliciously with his eye,^k signals with his feet
and motions with his fingers, ¹⁴who plots evil^l with deceit in his heart —
he always stirs up conflict.^m ¹⁵Therefore disaster will overtake him in an instant;
he will suddenly be destroyed — without remedy.ⁿ

Warning Against Adultery

²⁰ My son, keep your father's command
and do not forsake your mother's teaching.^t ²¹ Bind them always on your heart;
fasten them around your neck.^u ²² When you walk, they will guide
you;
when you sleep, they will watch
over you;
when you awake, they will speak to you.
²³ For this command is a lamp, this teaching is a light,^v and correction and instruction
are the way to life, ²⁴ keeping you from your neighbor's wife,
from the smooth talk of a wayward woman.^w
²⁵ Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes.
²⁶ For a prostitute can be had for a loaf of bread,
but another man's wife preys
on your very life.^x ²⁷ Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?
²⁸ Can a man walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?

^a 3 Or Go and humble yourself,

- ²⁹ So is he who sleeps^y with another man's wife;^z
no one who touches her will go unpunished.
- ³⁰ People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving.
- ³¹ Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold,^a though it costs him all the wealth of his house.
- ³² But a man who commits adultery^b has no sense;^c whoever does so destroys himself.
- ³³ Blows and disgrace are his lot,
and his shame will never^d be wiped away.
- ³⁴ For jealousy^e arouses a husband's fury,^f
and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.
- ³⁵ He will not accept any compensation;
he will refuse a bribe, however great it is.^g

and have all of them ready on your lips.
- ¹⁹ So that your trust may be in the LORD,
I teach you today, even you.
- ²⁰ Have I not written thirty sayings for you,
sayings of counsel and knowledge, ²¹ teaching you to be honest and to speak the truth,^t so that you bring back truthful reports to those you serve?

Saying 2

- ²² Do not exploit the poor^u because they are poor and do not crush the needy in court,^v
- ²³ for the LORD will take up their case^w and will exact life for life.^x

Saying 3

- ²⁴ Do not make friends with a hot-tempered person,
do not associate with one easily angered, ²⁵ or you may learn their ways and get yourself ensnared.^y

when your lips speak what is right.^k

Saying 15

¹⁷Do not let your heart envy^l sinners,
but always be zealous for the fear of the LORD.
¹⁸There is surely a future hope for
you,
and your hope will not be cut

- ²It is the glory of God to conceal a matter;
to search out a matter is the glory of kings.^y
- ³As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings are

⁵remove wicked officials from the king's presence,^z
and his throne will be established^a through righteousness.^b

⁶Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence,
and do not claim a place among his great men;

⁷it is better for him to say to you,
"Come up here,"^c
than for him to humiliate you before his nobles.

What you have seen with your eyes

⁸do not bring^a hastily to court, for what will you do in the end
if your neighbor puts you to shame?^d

⁹If you take your neighbor to court, do not betray another's confidence,

¹⁰or the one who hears it may shame you
and the charge against you will stand.

¹¹Like apples^b of gold in settings of

ECCLESIASTES

Everything Is Meaningless

1 The words of the Teacher,^{aa} son of David, king in Jerusalem:^b

² “Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher.
“Utterly meaningless! Everything is meaningless.”^c

³ What do people gain from all their labors at which they toil under the sun?^d

⁴ Generations come and generations go, but the earth remains forever.^e

⁵ The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to where it rises.^f

⁶ The wind blows to the south and turns to the north; round and round it goes, ever returning on its course.

⁷ All streams flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full. To the place the streams come from,

there they return again.^g

⁸ All things are wearisome, more than one can say. The eye never has enough of seeing,^h nor the ear its fill of hearing.

⁹ What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again;ⁱ there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰ Is there anything of which one can say, “Look! This is something new?”

It was here already, long ago; it was here before our time.

¹¹ No one remembers the former generations, and even those yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow them.^j

Wisdom Is Meaningless

¹² I, the Teacher,^k was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³ I applied my mind to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under the heavens. What a heavy burden God has laid on mankind!^l ¹⁴ I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.^m

¹⁵ What is crooked cannot be straightened;ⁿ what is lacking cannot be counted.

¹⁶ I said to myself, “Look, I have increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me;^o I have experienced much of wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷ Then I applied myself to the understanding of wisdom,^p and also of madness and folly,^q but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind.

¹⁸ For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more grief.^r

Pleasures Are Meaningless

2 I said to myself, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure^s to find out what is good.” But that also proved to be meaningless. ² “Laughter,”^t I said, “is madness. And what does pleasure accomplish?” ³ I tried cheering myself with wine,^u and embracing folly^v — my mind still guiding me with wisdom. I wanted to see what was good for people to do under the heavens during the few days of their lives.

⁴ I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself^w and planted vineyards.^x ⁵ I made gardens and

I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I amassed silver and gold^y for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I acquired male and female singers,^z and a harem^a as well — the delights of a man's heart. ⁹I became greater by far than anyone in Jerusalem before me.^a In all this my wisdom stayed with me.

¹⁰I denied myself nothing my eyes desired;

I refused my heart no pleasure.
My heart took delight in all my labor,
and this was the reward for all my toil.

¹¹Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind;^b
nothing was gained under the sun.^c

Wisdom and Folly Are Meaningless

¹²Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly.^d
What more can the king's successor do than what has already been done?^e

¹³I saw that wisdom^f is better than folly,^g just as light is better than darkness.

¹⁴The wise have eyes in their heads, while the fool walks in the darkness;
but I came to realize that the same fate overtakes them both.^h

¹⁵Then I said to myself,
“The fate of the fool will overtake me also.
What then do I gain by being wise?”ⁱ

I said to myself,
“This too is meaningless.”

¹⁶For the wise, like the fool, will not be long remembered;
the days have already come forgotten.^j

Like the fool, the wise too must die!

Toil Is Meaningless

¹⁷So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.^k ¹⁸I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.^l ¹⁹And who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? Yet they will have control over all the fruit of my toil into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless. ²⁰So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun. ²¹For a person may labor with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then they must leave all they own to another who has not toiled for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune. ²²What do people get for all the toil and anxious striving with which they labor under the sun?^m ²³All their days their work is grief and pain;ⁿ even at night their minds do not rest. This too is meaningless.

All have the same breath^c; humans have no advantage over animals. Everything is meaningless. ²⁰All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return.^k ²¹Who knows if the human spirit rises upward^l and if the spirit of the animal goes down into the earth?”

²²So I saw that there is nothing better for a person than to enjoy their work,^m because that is their lot.ⁿ For who can bring them to see what will happen after them?

Oppression, Toil, Friendlessness

4 Again I looked and saw all the oppression^o that was taking place under the sun:

I saw the tears of the oppressed —
and they have no comforter;
power was on the side of their oppressors —
and they have no comforter.^p

²And I declared that the dead,^q who had already died,
are happier than the living,
who are still alive.^r

³But better than both is the one who has never been born,^s
who has not seen the evil
that is done under the sun.^t

⁴And I saw that all toil and all achievement spring from one person's envy of another. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.^u

⁷Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

⁸There was a man all alone;
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not content^x
with his wealth.

“For whom am I toiling,” he asked,
“and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?”

This too is meaningless —
a miserable business!

⁹Two are better than one,
because they have a good return for their labor:

¹⁰If either of them falls down,
one can help the other up.
But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up.

¹¹Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.
But how can one keep warm
alone?

¹²Though one may be overpowered,
two can defend themselves.
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Advancement Is Meaningless

¹³Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to heed a warning. ¹⁴The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom.
¹⁵I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed the youth, the king’s successor. ¹⁶There was no end to all the people who were before them. But those who came later were not pleased with the successor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

meaningless. Therefore fear God.^f

Riches Are Meaningless

⁸If you see the poor oppressed^g in a district, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at such things; for one official is eyed by a higher one, and over them both are others higher still. ⁹The increase from the land is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

¹⁰Whoever loves money never has enough;
whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income.
This too is meaningless.

¹¹As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owners
except to feast their eyes on
them?

¹²The sleep of a laborer is sweet, whether they eat little or much,
but as for the rich, their abundance
permits them no sleep.^h

^a In Hebrew texts 5:1 is numbered 4:17, and 5:2-20 is numbered 5:1-19.

¹³I have seen a grievous evil under the sun:ⁱ

wealth hoarded to the harm of its owners,

¹⁴ or wealth lost through some misfortune, so that when they have children there is nothing left for them to inherit.

¹⁵Everyone comes naked from their mother's womb, and as everyone comes, so they depart.^j

They take nothing from their toil^k that they can carry in their hands.^l

¹⁶This too is a grievous evil:

As everyone comes, so they depart, and what do they gain, since they toil for the wind?^m ¹⁷All their days they eat in darkness, with great frustration, affliction and anger.

¹⁸This is what I have observed to be good: that it is appropriate for a person to eat, to drinkⁿ and to find satisfaction in their toilsome labor^o under the sun during the few days of life God has given them — for this is their lot. ¹⁹Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions,^p and the ability to enjoy them,^q to accept their lot^r and be happy in their toil — this is a gift of God.^s ²⁰They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with gladness of heart.^t

6 I have seen another evil under the sun, and it weighs heavily on mankind: ²God gives some people wealth, possessions and honor, so that they lack nothing their hearts desire, but God does not grant them the ability to enjoy them,^u and strangers enjoy them instead. This is meaningless, a grievous evil.^v

7 A good name is better than fine perfume,^d and the day of death better than the day of birth.

because you took an oath before God.
3 Do not be in a hurry to leave the 8 As no one has power over the wind to contain it,

so^a no one has power over the time of their death.
As no one is discharged in time of so wickedness will not release

9 All this I saw, as I applied my ingless that occurs on earth: the righteous who get what the wicked deserve, and the wicked who get what the righteous deserve.^s This too, I say, is meaningless.^t 15 So I commend the enjoyment of life^u, because there is nothing better for a person under the sun than to eat and drink^v and be glad.^w Then joy will accompany them in their toil all the days of the life God has given them under the sun.

16 When I applied my mind to know wisdom^x and to observe the labor that is done on earth^y — people getting no sleep day or night — 17 then

Wisdom Better Than Folly

¹³I also saw under the sun this example of wisdom^z that greatly impressed me: ¹⁴There was once a small city with only a few people in it. And a powerful king came against it, surrounded it and built huge siege works against it. ¹⁵Now there lived in that city a man poor but wise, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But nobody remembered that poor man.^a ¹⁶So I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are no longer heeded.^b

¹⁷The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded
than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

¹⁸Wisdom^c is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much
good.

10 As dead flies give perfume a bad smell,
so a little folly^d outweighs
wisdom and honor.

²The heart of the wise inclines to the right,
but the heart of the fool to the left.

³Even as fools walk along the road, they lack sense
and show everyone^e how stupid they are.

⁴If a ruler’s anger rises against you, do not leave your post;^f calmness can lay great offenses to rest.^g

⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
the sort of error that arises
from a ruler:

⁶Fools are put in many high positions,^h
while the rich occupy the low
ones.

Whether a tree falls to the south
or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there it will lie.
- ⁴Whoever watches the wind will not plant;
whoever looks at the clouds
will not reap.
- ⁵As you do not know the path of the wind,^y
or how the body is formed^b in a mother's womb,^z
so you cannot understand the work of God,
the Maker of all things.
- ⁶Sow your seed in the morning,
and at evening let your hands not be idle,^a for you do not know which will succeed,
whether this or that,
or whether both will do equally well.

Remember Your Creator While Young

let them enjoy them all.

But let them remember^c the days
of darkness,
for there will be many.
Everything to come is meaningless.

⁹You who are young, be happy
while you are young,
and let your heart give you joy
in the days of your youth.
Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see,
but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.^d

¹⁰So then, banish anxiety^e from your heart and cast off the troubles of your body,
for youth and vigor are meaningless.^f

12 Remember⁹ your Creator
in the days of your youth,
before the days of trouble^h come and the years approach when you will say,

“I find no pleasure in them” —

²before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark,
and the clouds return after the rain;

³when the keepers of the house tremble,
and the strong men stoop,
when the grinders cease because they are few,
and those looking through the windows grow dim;

⁴when the doors to the street are closed
and the sound of grinding fades;
when people rise up at the sound of birds,
but all their songs grow faint;ⁱ

⁵when people are afraid of heights and of dangers in the streets;
when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags itself along and desire no longer is stirred.

The Conclusion of the Matter

⁹Not only was the Teacher wise, but he also imparted knowledge to the people. He pondered and searched out and set in order many proverbs.^p

¹⁰The Teacher searched to find just the right words, and what he wrote was upright and true.^q

¹¹The words of the wise are like goats, their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails^r — given by one shepherd.^b ¹²Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.

Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body.^s

¹³Now all has been heard;
here is the conclusion of the matter:

Fear God and keep his commandments,^t
for this is the duty of all mankind.^u

¹⁴For God will bring every deed into judgment,^v
including every hidden thing,^w whether it is good or evil.

9 and 10 ^b 11 Or Shepherd

ISAIAH

1 The vision^a concerning Judah and Jerusalem^b that Isaiah son of Amoz saw^c during the reigns of Uzziah,^d Jotham, Ahaz^e and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

A Rebellious Nation

²Hear me, you heavens! Listen, earth!

For the LORD has spoken:^f
“I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled^g
against me.

³The ox knows its master,
the donkey its owner’s manger,
but Israel does not know,^h
my people do not understand.”

⁴Woe to the sinful nation,
a people whose guilt is great,
a brood of evildoers,ⁱ children given to corruption!
They have forsaken the LORD;
they have spurned the Holy One^j of Israel and turned their backs on him.

⁵Why should you be beaten any more?
Why do you persist in rebellion?^k

Your whole head is injured,
your whole heart afflicted.^l

⁶From the sole of your foot to the top of your head there is no soundness^m —
only wounds and welts
and open sores,
not cleansed or bandagedⁿ
or soothed with olive oil.^o

⁷Your country is desolate,^p your cities burned with fire;
your fields are being stripped by foreigners right before you,
laid waste as when overthrown
by strangers.

⁸Daughter Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,

⁹Unless the LORD Almighty had left us some survivors,^r we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been like Gomorra^h.^s

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD,^t
you rulers of Sodom;^u

God,
you people of Gomorra^h!

¹¹“The multitude of your ¹³Stop bringing meaningless offerings!^a

Your incense^b is detestable

New Moons, Sabbaths and

I cannot bear your worthless assemblies.

¹⁴Your New Moon feasts and your appointed festivals^d
I hate with all my being.
They have become a burden
to me;
I am weary^e of bearing them.

¹⁵When you spread out your hands
in prayer,
I hide^f my eyes from you;
even when you offer many prayers,
I am not listening.
Your hands are full of blood!⁹

¹⁶Wash and make yourselves clean.
Take your evil deeds out of my sight;^h
stop doing wrong.ⁱ

¹⁷Learn to do right; seek justice.^j
Defend the oppressed.^a Take up the cause of the fatherless;^k
plead the case of the widow.

¹⁸“Come now, let us settle the matter,”^l
says the LORD.
“Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow;^m

though they are red as crimson,
they shall be like wool.

¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good things of the land;ⁿ

²⁰but if you resist and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword.”^o
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.^p

²¹See how the faithful city has become a prostitute!^q
She once was full of justice;
righteousness used to dwell in her —
but now murderers!

²²Your silver has become dross,
your choice wine is diluted saw concerning Judah and Jeruas the highest of the mountains;

it will be exalted above the hills,

Jacob.

He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths.”⁷
The law^f will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.⁹

⁴He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples.

They will beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.^h

Nation will not take up sword

Judgment on Jerusalem and Judah

Isaiah's Commission

6 In the year that King Uzziah^k died,^l I saw the Lord,^m high and exalted, seated on a throne;ⁿ and the train of his robe filled the temple.^o ²Above him were seraphim,^o each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet,^p and with two they were flying.³ And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”^q

⁴At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵“Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips,^r and my eyes have seen the King,^s the LORD Almighty.”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips;^t your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.”^u

⁸Then I heard the voice^v of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”

And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

The Sign of Immanuel

7 When Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin^h of Aramⁱ and Pekah^j son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem, but they could not overpower it.

²Now the house of David^k was told, “Aram has allied itself with^b Ephraim^l”; so the hearts of Ahaz and his people were shaken, as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

Remaliah.⁵ Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah's son have plotted your ruin, saying, "Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabe-el king over it."⁷ Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

Isaiah and His Children as Signs

The Darkness Turns to Light

¹⁹When someone tells you to consult^s mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter,^t should not a people inquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?
²⁰Consult God’s instruction^u and the testimony of warning. If anyone does not speak according to this word, they have no light^v of dawn. ²¹Dis-tressed and hungry, they will roam through the land; when they are famished, they will become enraged and,
looking upward, will curse^w their king and their God. ²²Then they will look toward the earth and see only distress and darkness and fearful gloom, and they will be thrust into utter darkness.^x

9^d Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,^y but in the future he will honor Galilee of the nations, by the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan —

²The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;^z on those living in the land of deep darkness^a

a light has dawned.^b

³You have enlarged the nation

The LORD's Anger Against Israel

⁸The Lord has sent a message against Jacob;
it will fall on Israel.

⁹All the people will know it — Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria^q —

who say with pride
and arrogance^r of heart,

¹⁰"The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone;
the fig trees have been felled,
but we will replace them with cedars."

¹¹But the LORD has strengthened Rezin's^s foes against them and has spurred their enemies on.

¹²Arameans^t from the east and Philistines^u from the west have devoured^v Israel with ¹²When the Lord has finished all his work^p against Mount Zion^q and Jerusalem, he will say, “I will punish the king of Assyria^r for the willful pride of his heart and the haughty look in his eyes. ¹³For he says:

“‘By the strength of my hand I have done this,^s and by my wisdom, because I have understanding.
I removed the boundaries of nations,
I plundered their treasures;^t
like a mighty one I subdued^a their kings.

¹⁴As one reaches into a nest,^u so my hand reached for the wealth^v of the nations;
as people gather abandoned eggs,
so I gathered all the countries;
not one flapped a wing,
or opened its mouth to chirp.’”

¹⁵Does the ax raise itself above the person who swings it, or the saw boast against the one who uses it?^w
As if a rod were to wield the person who lifts it up, or a club^x brandish the one who is not wood!

¹⁶Therefore, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will send a wasting disease^y
upon his sturdy warriors;
under his pomp^z a fire will be kindled like a blazing flame.

¹⁷The Light of Israel will become a fire,^a their Holy One^b a flame;
in a single day it will burn and consume
his thorns^c and his briers.^d

¹⁸The splendor of his forests^e and fertile fields
it will completely destroy,
as when a sick person wastes away.

¹⁹And the remaining trees of his forests will be so few^f that a child could write them down.

The Remnant of Israel

²⁰In that day⁹ the remnant of Israel, the survivors of Jacob, will no longer rely^h on him who struck them downⁱ but will truly rely^j on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹A remnant^k will return,^a a remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.^l

²²Though your people be like the sand by the sea, Israel, only a remnant will return.^m Destruction has been decreed,ⁿ overwhelming and righteous.

²³The Lord, the LORD Almighty, will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.^o

²⁴Therefore this is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says:

“My people who live in Zion,^p do not be afraid of the Assyrians, who beat^q you with a rod and lift up a club against you, as Egypt did.

²⁵Very soon^r my anger against you will end and my wrath^s will be directed to their destruction.”

²⁶The LORD Almighty will lash^t them with a whip, as when he struck down Midian^u at the rock of Oreb; and he will raise his staff over the waters,^v as he did in Egypt.

²⁷In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke^w from your neck;^x the yoke will be broken because you have grown so fat.^b

²⁸They enter Aiath; they pass through Migron;^y they store supplies at Mikmash.^z

²⁹They go over the pass, and say, “We will camp overnight at Geba.” Ramah^a trembles; Gibeah of Saul flees.

A Prophecy Against Babylon

13 A prophecy against Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

²Raise a banner^x on a bare hilltop, shout to them;
beckon to them
to enter the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded those I prepared for battle;
I have summoned my warriors^y
to carry out my wrath —
those who rejoice^z in my triumph.

⁴Listen, a noise on the mountains,
like that of a great multitude!^a Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations massing together!
The LORD Almighty is mustering an army for war.

⁵They come from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens^b —
the LORD and the weapons of his wrath —
to destroy^c the whole country.

⁶Wail,^d for the day^e of the LORD is near;
it will come like destruction
from the Almighty.^a

⁷Because of this, all hands will go limp,
every heart will melt with fear.^f

⁸Terror^g will seize them, pain and anguish will grip
them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.

They will look aghast at each other,
their faces aflame.^h

⁹See, the day of the LORD is coming
— a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger —
to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.

¹⁰The stars of heaven and their constellations
will not show their light.
The rising sunⁱ will be darkened^j and the moon will not give its light.^k

¹¹I will punish^l the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins.

⁹The waters of Dimon^a are full of blood,
 but I will bring still more upon Dimon^a — a lion^t upon the fugitives of Moab
 and upon those who remain in the land.

16 Send lambs^u as tribute to the ruler of the land,
 from Sela,^v across the desert,
 to the mount of Daughter Zion.^w

²Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest,^x
 so are the women of Moab
 at the fords of the Arnon.^y

³“Make up your mind,” Moab says.
 “Render a decision.

 they wail together for Moab.

 the vines of Sibmah also.
 The rulers of the nations have trampled down the

 which once reached Jazer
 and spread toward the desert.
 Their shoots spread out and went as far as the sea.^c

⁹So I weep,^j as Jazer weeps, for the vines of Sibmah.
 Heshbon and Elealeh,
 I drench you with tears!
 The shouts of joy over your ripened fruit
 and over your harvests^k have been stilled.

¹⁰Joy and gladness are taken away

A Prophecy Against Egypt

19 A prophecy^c against Egypt:^d

See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud^e
and is coming to Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble before
him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt^f with fear.

²“I will stir up Egyptian against Egyptian—
brother will fight against brother,^g
neighbor against neighbor,
city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.^h ³The Egyptians will lose heart, and I will bring their plans to nothing;
they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead,
the mediums and the spiritists.ⁱ ⁴I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master, and a fierce king^j will rule over
them,”
declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

⁵The waters of the river will dry up,^k and the riverbed will be parched and dry.

⁶The canals will stink;^l
the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up.^m

The reeds and rushes will wither,ⁿ ⁷also the plants along the Nile,
at the mouth of the river.

Every sown field^o along the Nile will become parched, will blow away and be no more.

⁸The fishermen^p will groan and lament,

¹³The officials of Zoan have become fools,
the leaders of Memphis^w are deceived;
the cornerstones of her peoples
have led Egypt astray.
¹⁴The LORD has poured into them
a spirit of dizziness;^x
they make Egypt stagger in all that she does,
as a drunkard staggers around in his vomit.
¹⁵There is nothing Egypt can do —

reed.^y ¹⁶In that day the Egyptians will become weaklings.^z They will shudder with fear^a at the uplifted hand^b that the LORD Almighty raises against them. ¹⁷And the land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be terrified, because of what the LORD Almighty is planning^c against
them.
¹⁸In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance^d to the LORD Almighty. One of them will be called king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it — ²at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz.^s He said to him, “Take off the sackcloth^t from your body and did so, going around stripped^v and ³Then the LORD said, “Just as my having fled while the enemy was still far away.

⁴Therefore I said, “Turn away
from me;
let me weep^d bitterly.
Do not try to console me over the destruction of my people.”^e ⁵The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a day of tumult and trampling and terror^f
in the Valley of Vision,
a day of battering down walls and of crying out to the mountains.
⁶Elam^g takes up the quiver,^h

¹⁷“Beware, the LORD is about to take firm hold of you and hurl you away, you mighty
man.
¹⁸He will roll you up tightly like a ball
and throw^y you into a large country.
There you will die
and there the chariots you were so proud of will become a disgrace to your master’s house.
¹⁹I will depose you from your office, and you will be ousted from your position.
²⁰“In that day I will summon my servant, Eliakim^z son of Hilkiah. ²¹I

will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash around him and hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the people of Judah. ²²I will place on his shoulder the key^a to the house of David;^b what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.^c ²³I will drive him like a peg^d into a firm place;^e he will become a seat^d of honor^f for the house of his father. ²⁴All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and offshoots — all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars.

²⁵“In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg^g driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.” The LORD has spoken.^h

A Prophecy Against Tyre

23 A prophecy against Tyre:ⁱ

Wail, you ships^j of Tarshish!^k
For Tyre is destroyed and left without house or harbor.

From the land of Cyprus
word has come to them.

²Be silent, you people of the island and you merchants of Sidon, whom the seafarers have enriched.

³On the great waters
came the grain of the Shihor;
the harvest of the Nile^{bl} was the revenue of Tyre,^m and she became the marketplace of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, Sidon,ⁿ and you fortress of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:
“I have neither been in labor nor given birth;
I have neither reared sons nor brought up daughters.”

⁵When word comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report from Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, you people of the island.

⁸Who planned this against Tyre,

the earth?

⁹The LORD Almighty planned it, to bring down^p her pride in all her splendor
and to humble^q all who are renowned^r on the earth.

¹⁰Till^c your land as they do along the Nile,
Daughter Tarshish,

¹¹The LORD has stretched out his

Her profits will go to those who live before the LORD,^c for abundant food and fine clothes.

The LORD's Devastation of the Earth

24 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth^d and devastate it; he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants —
²it will be the same for priest as for people,^e for the master as for his servant, for the mistress as for her servant, for seller as for buyer,^f for borrower as for lender, for debtor as for creditor.^g ³The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered.^h The LORD has spoken this word.
⁴The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the heavensⁱ languish with the earth.
⁵The earth is defiled^j by its people; they have disobeyed^k the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant.
⁶Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt.

Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up,^l and very few are left.
⁷The new wine dries up and the vine withers;^m all the merry-makers groan.ⁿ
⁸The joyful timbrels^o are stilled, the noise^p of the revelers has stopped, the joyful harp^q is silent.^r ⁹No longer do they drink wine^s with a song; the beer is bitter^t to its drinkers.
¹⁰The ruined city lies desolate; the entrance to every house is barred.
¹¹In the streets they cry out for wine; all joy turns to gloom,^u all joyful sounds are banished from the earth.
¹²The city is left in ruins, its gate is battered to pieces.
¹³So will it be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten,^v or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.
¹⁴They raise their voices, they shout for joy;^w from the west they acclaim the LORD's majesty.
¹⁵Therefore in the east give glory^x to the LORD; exalt^y the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea.
¹⁶From the ends of the earth we hear singing: “Glory^z to the Righteous One.”
But I said, “I waste away, I waste away!
Woe to me!
The treacherous betray!
With treachery the treacherous betray!^a”
¹⁷Terror and pit and snare^b await you, people of the earth.
¹⁸Whoever flees at the sound of terror will fall into a pit; whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare.

it will never be rebuilt.
- ³Therefore strong peoples will honor you;
cities of ruthless^u nations will

A Song of Praise

sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;^m
God makes salvation
its wallsⁿ and ramparts.

²Open the gates that the righteous^o nation may enter,
the nation that keeps faith.

³You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are

⁴Trust^p in the LORD forever, for the LORD, the LORD himself, is the Rock eternal.

⁵He humbles those who dwell on high,
he lays the lofty city low;
he levels it to the ground^q
and casts it down to the dust.

⁶Feet trample it down —
the feet of the oppressed,
the footsteps of the poor.^r

⁷The path of the righteous is level;
you, the Upright One, make the way of the righteous smooth.^s

⁸Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws,^{at} we wait for you;
your name^u and renown
are the desire of our hearts.

⁹My soul yearns for you in the night;
in the morning my spirit longs^v
for you.

When your judgments come upon
the earth,
the people of the world learn righteousness.^w

¹⁰But when grace is shown to the wicked,
they do not learn righteousness;
even in a land of uprightness they go on doing evil^x
and do not regard^y the majesty
of the LORD.

¹⁰For it is:
 Do this, do that,
 a rule for this, a rule for that^a;
 a little here, a little there.”
¹¹Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tonguesⁿ
 God will speak to this people,^o
¹²to whom he said, “This is the resting place, let the weary rest”;^p
 and, “This is the place of repose” —
 but they would not listen.
¹³So then, the word of the LORD to them will become:
 Do this, do that,
 a rule for this, a rule for that;
 a little here, a little there —
 so that as they go they will fall backward;
 they will be injured^q and snared and captured.^r ¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD,^s you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.
¹⁵You boast, “We have entered into a covenant with death, with the realm of the dead we have made an agreement.
 When an overwhelming scourge sweeps by,^t
 it cannot touch us,
 for we have made a lie^u our refuge
 and falsehood^b our hiding place.”^v
¹⁶So this is what the Sovereign
 LORD says:
 “See, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone,^w
 a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;
 the one who relies on it will never be stricken with panic.^x ¹⁷I will make justice^y the measuring line
 and righteousness the plumb line;^z

^a 10 Hebrew / sav lasav sav lasav / kav lakav kav lakav (probably meaningless sounds mimicking the prophet's words); also in verse 13

^b 15 Or false gods

hail will sweep away your refuge,
the lie,
and water will overflow your hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be annulled;
your agreement with the realm of the dead will not stand.^a

When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by,^b
you will be beaten down^c by it.

¹⁹As often as it comes it will carry you away;^d
morning after morning, by day
and by night,
it will sweep through.”

The understanding of this message
will bring sheer terror.^e

²⁰The bed is too short to stretch out on,
the blanket too narrow to wrap around you.^f

²¹The LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim,^g
he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon^h—
to do his work,ⁱ his strange work,
and perform his task, his alien task.

²²Now stop your mocking, or your chains will become heavier;
the Lord, the LORD Almighty, has told me
of the destruction decreed^j against the whole land.^k

²³Listen and hear my voice;
pay attention and hear what I say.

²⁴When a farmer plows for planting, does he plow continually?
Does he keep on breaking up and working the soil?

²⁵When he has leveled the surface,
does he not sow caraway and scatter cumin?^l

Does he not plant wheat in its place,^a barley in its plot,^a and spelt^m in its field?

²⁶His God instructs him and teaches him the right way.

so one does not go on

Woe to David's City

29 Woe^p to you, Ariel, Ariel,^q
the city where David settled!

Add year to year and let your cycle of festivals^r go on.

²Yet I will besiege Ariel;
she will mourn and lament,^s she will be to me like an altar hearth.^b

³I will encamp against you on all sides;
I will encircle^t you with towers and set up my siege works against you.

⁴Brought low, you will speak from
the ground;
your speech will mumble^u out of the dust.

Your voice will come ghostlike
from the earth;
out of the dust your speech will whisper.

⁵But your many enemies will become like fine dust,
the ruthless hordes like blown chaff.^v

Suddenly,^w in an instant,

⁶the LORD Almighty will come with thunder and earthquake^x and great noise,
with windstorm and tempest
and flames of a devouring fire.

^a 25 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain. ^b 2 The Hebrew for altar hearth sounds like the Hebrew for Ariel.

7 Then the hordes of all the nations^y that fight against Ariel, that attack her and her fortress and besiege her, will be as it is with a dream,^z with a vision in the night —
 8 as when a hungry person dreams of eating, but awakens^a hungry still; as when a thirsty person dreams of drinking, but awakens faint and thirsty still.
 So will it be with the hordes of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

9 Be stunned and amazed, blind yourselves and be sightless; be drunk,^b but not from wine,^c stagger, but not from beer.
 10 The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep: He has sealed your eyes^d (the prophets);^e he has covered your heads (the seers).^f

11 For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed^g in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say, “Read this, please,” they will answer, “I can’t; it is sealed.”
 12 Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, “Read this, please,” they will answer, “I don’t know how to read.”

16 You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay! Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, “You did not make me”? Can the pot say to the potter,^o “You know nothing”?

Woe to the Obstinate Nation

30 "Woe^g to the obstinate children,"^h
declares the LORD,
"to those who carry out plans that are not mine,
forming an alliance,ⁱ but not by my Spirit,
heaping sin upon sin;
²who go down to Egyptⁱ
without consulting^k me;
who look for help to Pharaoh's protection,^l
to Egypt's shade for refuge.
³But Pharaoh's protection will be to your shame,
Egypt's shade will bring you disgrace."^m ⁴Though they have officials in Zoanⁿ
and their envoys have arrived in Hanes, ⁵everyone will be put to shame because of a people^o useless to
them,
who bring neither help nor advantage,
but only shame and disgrace."

⁶A prophecy concerning the animals of the Negev:

Through a land of hardship and distress,^p
of lions and lionesses,
of adders and darting snakes,^q
the envoys carry their riches on donkeys' backs,
their treasures^r on the humps
of camels,
to that unprofitable nation,
⁷ to Egypt, whose help is utterly useless.

Therefore I call her

⁸Go now, write it on a tablet for
them,
inscribe it on a scroll,^s that for the days to come it may be an everlasting witness.

⁹For these are rebellious people, deceitful^t children,
children unwilling to listen to the LORD's instruction.^u

¹⁰They say to the seers,
"See no more visions^v!"
and to the prophets,
"Give us no more visions of what is right!
Tell us pleasant things,^w prophesy illusions.^x

¹¹Leave this way,
get off this path,
and stop confronting^y us with the Holy One of Israel!"

¹²Therefore this is what the Holy
One of Israel says:

"Because you have rejected this message,^z relied on oppression^a and depended on deceit, ¹³this sin will become for you like a high wall,^b cracked and bulging,
that collapses^c suddenly,^d in an instant.

¹⁴It will break in pieces like pottery,^e
shattered so mercilessly that among its pieces not a fragment will be found for taking coals from a hearth or scooping water out of a cistern."

¹⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, says:

"In repentance and rest is your salvation,
in quietness and trust^f is your strength,
but you would have none of it.

¹⁶You said, 'No, we will flee on horses.'^g
Therefore you will flee!
You said, 'We will ride off on swift horses.'
Therefore your pursuers will be swift!

¹⁷A thousand will flee
at the threat of one;
at the threat of five^h
you will all fleeⁱ away, till you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop,
like a banner on a hill.”

¹⁸Yet the LORD longs^j to be gracious to you;
therefore he will rise up to show you compassion.
For the LORD is a God of justice.^k Blessed are all who wait for him!^l

¹⁹People of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more.^m How gracious he will be when you cry for help! As soon as he hears, he will answerⁿ you. ²⁰Although the Lord gives you the bread^o of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers will be hidden^p no more; with your own eyes you will see them. ²¹Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice^q behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.” ²²Then you will desecrate your idols^r overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, “Away with you!”

²³He will also send you rain^s for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will graze in broad meadows.^t ²⁴The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat fodder and mash, spread out with fork^u and shovel. ²⁵In the day of great slaughter, when the towers^v fall, streams of water will flow^w on every high mountain and every lofty hill. ²⁶The moon will shine like the sun,^x and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals^y the wounds he inflicted.

Woe to Those Who Rely on Egypt

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt^m for help,
who rely on horses,
who trust in the multitude of their chariotsⁿ
and in the great strength of their horsemen,

but do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
or seek help from the LORD.^o

²Yet he too is wise^p and can bring disaster;^q
he does not take back his words.^r
He will rise up against that wicked nation,^s against those who help evildoers.

³But the Egyptians^t are mere mortals and not God;^u their horses are flesh and not spirit.

When the LORD stretches out his hand,^v
those who help will stumble, those who are helped^w will fall;
all will perish together.

⁴This is what the LORD says to me:

“As a lion^x growls,
a great lion over its prey —
and though a whole band of shepherds is called together against it, it is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their clamor — so the LORD Almighty will come down^y to do battle on Mount Zion and on its heights.

⁵Like birds hovering overhead, the LORD Almighty will shield^z
Jerusalem;
he will shield it and deliver^a it,
he will ‘pass over’ it and will rescue it.”

⁶Return, you Israelites, to the One you have so greatly revolted against.

⁷For in that day every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold^b your sinful hands have made.

⁸“Assyria^c will fall by no human sword;
a sword, not of mortals, will devour^d them.

They will flee before the sword and their young men will be put to forced labor.^e

Distress and Help

33 Woe to you, destroyer, you who have not been
destroyed!
Woe to you, betrayer,
you who have not been betrayed!

- ¹² The peoples will be burned to ashes;
like cut thornbushes they will be set ablaze.^k
- ¹³ You who are far away,^l hear^m what I have done;
you who are near, acknowledge my power!
- ¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are terrified;
tremblingⁿ grips the godless:
“Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire?^o
Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning?”
- ¹⁵ Those who walk righteously^p and speak what is right,^q who reject gain from extortion and keep their hands from accepting bribes, who stop their ears against plots of murder and shut their eyes^r against contemplating evil —
- ¹⁶ they are the ones who will dwell on the heights, whose refuge^s will be the mountain fortress.^t
Their bread will be supplied,
and water will not fail^u them.
- ¹⁷ Your eyes will see the king^v in his beauty and view a land that stretches afar.^w
- ¹⁸ In your thoughts you will ponder the former terror:^x “Where is that chief officer?
Where is the one who took the revenue?
Where is the officer in charge of the towers?”
- ¹⁹ You will see those arrogant people no more,
people whose speech is obscure,
whose language is strange and incomprehensible.^y
- ²⁰ Look on Zion, the city of our festivals;
your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful abode,^z a tent that will not be moved;^a its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Judgment Against the Nations

- 34 Come near, you nations, and listen;
pay attention, you peoples!^k
Let the earth^l hear, and all that is in it, the world, and all that comes out of it!^m
- ² The LORD is angry with all nations;

all the starry host will fall^t
like withered leaves from the vine, like shriveled figs from the fig tree.

^a 2 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 5.

⁵My sword^u has drunk its fill in the heavens;
see, it descends in judgment on Edom,^v
the people I have totally destroyed.^w

⁶The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood, it is covered with fat —
the blood of lambs and goats,
fat from the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah
and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷And the wild oxen will fall with them, the bull calves and the great bulls.^x
Their land will be drenched with blood, and the dust will be soaked with fat.

⁸For the LORD has a day of vengeance,^y
a year of retribution, to uphold Zion's cause.

⁹Edom's streams will be turned into pitch,
her dust into burning sulfur;

them. ²Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. When the commander stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderer's Field,^l ³Eliakim^m son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebnaⁿ the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph
 the recorder went out to him.

⁴The field commander said to them, “Tell Hezekiah:

“‘This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours? ⁵You say you have counsel and might for war — but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel^o against me? ⁶Look, I know you are depending on Egypt,^p that splintered reed^q of a staff, which pierces the hand of anyone who leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him. ⁷But if you say to me, “We are depending on the LORD our God” — isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed,^r saying to Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship before this altar”?’^s

⁸“‘Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses — if you can put riders on them! ⁹How then can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt^t for chariots and horsemen^{a?} ¹⁰Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this land without the LORD? The LORD himself told^v me to march against this country and destroy it.’”

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic,^w since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

^a 9 Or charioteers

¹²But the commander replied, “Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the people sitting on the wall — who, like you, will have to eat their own excrement and drink their own urine?”

¹³Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew,^x “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you! ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’^y

¹⁸“Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’ Have the gods of any nations ever delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand? ²⁰Who of all the gods^b of these countries have been able to save their lands from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

²¹But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”^c

²²Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

⁵When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, ⁶Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master, ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid^h of what you have heard — those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Listen! When he hears a certain report,ⁱ I will make him want to return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.’”

⁸When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.^j ⁹Now Sennacherib received a report^k that Tirhakah, the king of Cush,^a was marching out to fight against him. When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word: ¹⁰“Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, ‘Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.’^l ¹¹Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. will accomplish this.

³³“Therefore this is what the LORD
says concerning the king of Assyria:

“He will not enter this city
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield
or build a siege ramp against it.

³⁴By the way that he came he will return;ⁿ
he will not enter this city,”
declares the LORD.

³⁵“I will defend^o this city and save it,
for my sake^p and for the sake of David^q my servant!”

³⁶Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian^r camp. When the people got up the next morning — there were all the dead bodies! ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew.
He returned to Nineveh^s and stayed
there.

³⁸One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisrok, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat.^t And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

Hezekiah's Illness

38:1-8pp — 2Ki 20:1-11; 2Ch 32:24-26

38 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz^u went to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order,^v because you are going to die; you will not recover.”

²Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, ³“Remember, LORD, how I have walked^w before you faithfully and with whole-hearted devotion^x and have done what is good in your eyes.^y” And Hezekiah wept^z bitterly.

⁹A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

¹⁰I said, “In the prime of my life^e must I go through the gates of death^f
and be robbed of the rest of my years?^g”

¹¹I said, “I will not again see the LORD himself
in the land of the living;^h
no longer will I look on my fellow
man,
or be with those who now dwell
in this world.

¹²Like a shepherd’s tentⁱ my house has been pulled down^j and taken from me.
Like a weaver I have rolled^k up my life,
and he has cut me off from the loom;^l
day and night^m you made an end of me.

¹³I waited patiently till dawn, but like a lion he brokeⁿ all my bones;^o
day and night you made an end of me.

¹⁴I cried like a swift or thrush,
I moaned like a mourning
dove.^p

My eyes grew weak as I looked to
the heavens.

I am being threatened; Lord, come to my aid!”^q

¹⁵But what can I say?
He has spoken to me, and he himself has done this.^r

I will walk humbly^s all my years because of this anguish of my soul.^t

¹⁶Lord, by such things people live; and my spirit finds life in them too.

You restored me to health and let me live.^u

¹⁷Surely it was for my benefit that I suffered such anguish.
In your love you kept me
from the pit^v of destruction;
you have put all my sins^w behind your back.^x

¹⁸For the grave^y cannot praise
you,
death cannot sing your praise;^z
those who go down to the pit^a cannot hope for your faithfulness.

¹⁹The living, the living — they praise^b you,
as I am doing today;
parents tell their children^c
about your faithfulness.

²⁰The LORD will save me, and we will sing^d with stringed instruments^e
all the days of our lives^f
in the temple^g of the LORD.

²¹Isaiah had said, “Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover.”

²²Hezekiah had asked, “What will be the sign that I will go up to the temple of the LORD?”

Envoys From Babylon

39:1-8pp — 2Ki 20:12-19

39 At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon^h sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of his illness and recovery. ²Hezekiah received the envoysⁱ gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses — the silver, the gold,^j the spices, the fine olive oil — his entire armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

“They saw everything in my palace,” Hezekiah said. “There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.”

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD Almighty: ⁶The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon.^l Nothing will be left, says the LORD. ⁷And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.^m”

⁸“The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my lifetime.ⁿ”

Before I was born^y the LORD called^z me;
from my mother’s womb he has

Who is my accuser?
 Let him confront me!
⁹It is the Sovereign LORD who helps^w me.
 Who will condemn me?
 They will all wear out like a garment;
 the moths^x will eat them up.
¹⁰Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the word of his servant?^y
 Let the one who walks in the dark,
 who has no light,
 trust^z in the name of the LORD and rely on their God.
¹¹But now, all you who light fires and provide yourselves with flaming torches,^a go, walk in the light of your fires^b and of the torches you have set ablaze.
 This is what you shall receive from my hand:
 You will lie down in torment.^c

Everlasting Salvation for Zion

51 "Listen^d to me, you who pursue righteousness^e
 and who seek the LORD:
 Look to the rock from which you were cut
 and to the quarry from which you were hewn;
²look to Abraham,^f your father, and to Sarah, who gave you birth.
 When I called him he was only one man,
 and I blessed him and made him many.^g
³The LORD will surely comfort^h Zion
 and will look with compassion on all her ruins;ⁱ
 he will make her deserts like Eden,^j
 her wastelands like the garden
 of the LORD.
 Joy and gladness^k will be found in
 her,
 thanksgiving and the sound of singing.

 Awake, as in days gone by,
 as in generations of old.^y
 Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces,
 who pierced that monster^z
 through?
¹⁰Was it not you who dried up the sea,^a
 the waters of the great deep,
 who made a road in the depths of the sea
 so that the redeemed might cross over?

¹⁹ These double calamities^u have come upon you —

²⁰ Your children have fainted;
they lie at every street corner,^w
like antelope caught in a net.
They are filled with the wrath of the LORD,
with the rebuke of your God.

²¹ Therefore hear this, you afflicted one,
made drunk,^x but not with wine.

²² This is what your Sovereign LORD says, your God, who defends^y his people: “See, I have taken out of your hand
the cup^z that made you stagger;
from that cup, the goblet of my wrath,
you will never drink again.
²³ I will put it into the hands of your tormentors,^a who said to you,

And you made your back like the ground,
like a street to be walked on.”

52 Awake, awake,^d Zion, clothe yourself with strength!^e

Put on your garments of splendor,^f
Jerusalem, the holy city.^g
The uncircumcised and defiled will not enter you again.^h

² Shake off your dust;ⁱ
rise up, sit enthroned,

Free yourself from the chains on your neck,
Daughter Zion, now a captive.

“You were sold for nothing,^j and without money^k you will be redeemed.”

The Suffering and Glory of the Servant

¹³See, my servant^d will act wisely^b;
he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.^e ¹⁴Just as there were many who were appalled at him^c —
his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness — ¹⁵so he will sprinkle many nations,^d
and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For what they were not told, they will see,
and what they have not heard,
they will understand.^f

53 Who has believed our message^g
and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?^h ²He grew up before him like a tender shoot,
and like a root out of dry
ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearanceⁱ that we should desire him.
³He was despised and rejected by
mankind,
a man of suffering, and familiar with pain.^j
Like one from whom people hide their faces
he was despised,^k and we held him in low esteem.
⁴Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering,^l yet we considered him punished by God,^m
stricken by him, and afflicted.

⁷He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth;^p he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

⁸The Sovereign LORD declares — he who gathers the exiles of Israel: “I will gather^c still others to them besides those already gathered.”

God’s Accusation Against the Wicked

⁹Come, all you beasts of the field,^d come and devour, all you beasts of the forest!

- ¹⁰ Israel's watchmen^e are blind,
they all lack knowledge;
they are all mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they lie around and dream,
they love to sleep.^f
- ¹¹ They are dogs with mighty appetites;
they never have enough.
They are shepherds^g who lack understanding;^h
they all turn to their own way, they seek their own gain.ⁱ
- ¹² "Come," each one cries, "let me get wine!
Let us drink our fill of beer!
And tomorrow will be like today,
or even far better."^j

57 The righteous perish,^k and no one takes it to heart;^l
the devout are taken away,
and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.^m

² Those who walk uprightlyⁿ enter into peace;
they find rest as they lie in death.

³ "But you — come here, you children of a sorceress,
you offspring of adulterers^o
and prostitutes!^p

⁴ Who are you mocking?
At whom do you sneer
and stick out your tongue?
Are you not a brood of rebels,
the offspring of liars?

⁵ You burn with lust among the oaks
and under every spreading tree;^q
you sacrifice your children^r in the ravines
and under the overhanging crag.

⁶ The idols^s among the smooth stones of the ravines are your portion;
indeed, they are your lot.
Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings^t
and offered grain offerings.
In view of all this, should I relent?^u

you descended to the very realm of the dead!

going about,

Is it not because I have long been

that you do not fear me?

and they will not benefit you.
- ¹³ When you cry out^e for help,
let your collection of idols save
you!
The wind will carry all of them off,
a mere breath will blow them
away.
But whoever takes refuge in me will inherit the land^f

Comfort for the Contrite

- ¹⁴And it will be said:
 “Build up, build up, prepare the road!
 Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people.”^h ¹⁵For this is what the high and exaltedⁱ One says — he who lives forever,^j whose name is holy:
 “I live in a high and holy place, but also with the one who is contrite^k and lowly in spirit,^l to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.^m ¹⁶I will not accuse them forever, nor will I always be angry,ⁿ for then they would faint away because of me —
 the very people I have created.
¹⁷I was enraged by their sinful greed;^o
 I punished them, and hid my face in anger, yet they kept on in their willful ways.^p ¹⁸I have seen their ways, but I will heal^q them;
 I will guide them and restore comfort^r to Israel’s mourners,
¹⁹ creating praise on their lips.^s Peace, peace,^t to those far and near,”^u says the LORD. “And I will heal them.”
²⁰But the wicked^v are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and mud.
²¹“There is no peace,”^w says my God, “for the wicked.”^x

- ²For day after day they seek^a me out;
 they seem eager to know my ways,
 as if they were a nation that does what is right and has not forsaken the commands of its God.

⁴Your fasting ends in quarreling and strife,^f

 Is that what you call a fast,
 a day acceptable to the LORD?
⁶“Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen:

Sin, Confession and Redemption

59 Surely the arm of the LORD is not too shortⁱ to save,
nor his ear too dull to hear.^k 2 But your iniquities have separated
you from your God;
your sins have hidden his face
from you,
so that he will not hear.^l 3 For your hands are stained with blood,^m
your fingers with guilt.
Your lips have spoken falsely,
and your tongue mutters
wicked things.
4 No one calls for justice;
no one pleads a case with integrity.
They rely on empty arguments,
they utter lies;
they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.ⁿ
5 They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider’s web.^o Whoever eats their eggs will die, and when one is broken, an adder is hatched.
6 Their cobwebs are useless for clothing;
they cannot cover themselves with what they make.^p Their deeds are evil deeds, and acts of violence^q are in their hands.
7 Their feet rush into sin;
they are swift to shed innocent blood.^r
They pursue evil schemes;^s acts of violence mark their ways.^t
8 The way of peace they do not know;
there is no justice in their paths.
They have turned them into crooked roads;
no one who walks along them will know peace.^u
9 So justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us.
We look for light, but all is darkness;^v
for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.

^a 8 Or your righteous One

- ¹⁰ Like the blind^w we grope along the wall,
feeling our way like people without eyes.
At midday we stumble^x as if it were twilight;
among the strong, we are like the dead.^y
- ¹¹ We all growl like bears;
we moan mournfully like doves.^z
We look for justice, but find none;
for deliverance, but it is far
away.
- ¹² For our offenses^a are many in your sight,
and our sins testify^b against us.
Our offenses are ever with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities:
- ¹³ rebellion and treachery against
the LORD,
turning our backs^c on our God,
inciting revolt and oppression,^d uttering lies^e our hearts have conceived.
- ¹⁴ So justice is driven back, and righteousness^f stands at a distance;
truth^g has stumbled in the streets,
honesty cannot enter.
- ¹⁵ Truth is nowhere to be found,
and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey.
- The LORD looked and was displeased
that there was no justice.
- ¹⁶ He saw that there was no one,^h he was appalled that there was no one to intervene;
so his own arm achieved
salvationⁱ for him,
and his own righteousness
sustained him.
- ¹⁷ He put on righteousness as his breastplate,^j
and the helmet^k of salvation on his head;
he put on the garments^l of vengeance
and wrapped himself in zeal^m
as in a cloak.
- ¹⁸ According to what they have done,
so will he repay

¹⁰I delight greatly in the LORD;
my soul rejoices^e in my God.
For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of his righteousness,^f
as a bridegroom adorns his head
like a priest,
and as a bride^g adorns herself
with her jewels.
¹¹For as the soil makes the sprout come up and a garden causes seeds to grow,
so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness^h
and praise spring up before all nations.

Zion's New Name

62 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet,

^a 1 Hebrew; Septuagint the blind

till her vindicationⁱ shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch.

²The nations^l will see your vindication,
and all kings your glory;
you will be called by a new name^k
that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.

³You will be a crown^l of splendor in the LORD's hand,
a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

⁴No longer will they call you Deserted,^m or name your land Desolate.
But you will be called Hephzibah,^a and your land Beulah^b;
for the LORD will take delightⁿ in you, and your land will be married.^o

⁵As a young man marries a young woman,
so will your Builder marry you;
as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
so will your God rejoice^p over you.

⁶I have posted watchmen^q on your walls, Jerusalem;
they will never be silent day or night.

You who call on the LORD,
give yourselves no rest,

⁷and give him no rest^r till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm:
"Never again will I give your grain^s

as food for your enemies,
and never again will foreigners drink the new wine
for which you have toiled;

⁹but those who harvest it will eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather the grapes
will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."

God's Day of Vengeance and Redemption

63 Who is this coming from Edom,
from Bozrah,^d with his garments stained crimson?
Who is this, robed in splendor,
striding forward in the greatness of his strength?

"It is I, proclaiming victory, mighty to save."^e

²Why are your garments red,
like those of one treading the winepress?

³"I have trodden the winepress^f
alone;
from the nations no one was with me.

I trampled them in my anger and trod them down in my wrath;^g their blood spattered my garments,^h
and I stained all my clothing.

⁴It was for me the day of
vengeance;
the year for me to redeem had come.

⁵I looked, but there was no oneⁱ to help,
I was appalled that no one gave support;

^a 4 Hephzibah means my delight is in her.

^b 4 Beulah means married.

so my own arm^j achieved
salvation for me,
and my own wrath sustained me.^k ⁶I trampled the nations in my anger;
in my wrath I made them drunk^l and poured their blood^m on the ground.”

Praise and Prayer

⁷I will tell of the kindnessesⁿ of the LORD,
the deeds for which he is to be praised,
according to all the LORD has done for us —
yes, the many good things
he has done for Israel,
according to his compassion^o
and many kindnesses.
⁸He said, “Surely they are my people,^p
children who will be true
to me”;
and so he became their Savior.
⁹In all their distress he too was distressed,
and the angel of his presence^q
saved them.^a
In his love and mercy he redeemed^r them;
he lifted them up and carried^s
them
all the days of old.
¹⁰Yet they rebelled^t and grieved his Holy Spirit.^u
So he turned and became their enemy^v
and he himself fought against
them.
¹¹Then his people recalled^b the days
of old,
the days of Moses and his people —
where is he who brought them through the sea,^w
with the shepherd of his flock?
Where is he who set his Holy Spirit^x among them, ¹²who sent his glorious arm of power
to be at Moses’ right hand,

Judgment and Salvation

 I will not destroy them all.
⁹I will bring forth descendants^s from Jacob, and from Judah those who will possess^t my mountains; my chosen people will inherit them, and there will my servants live.^u

JEREMIAH

1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth^a in the territory of Benjamin. ²The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, ³and through the reign of Jehoiakim^b son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah^c son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.^d

The Call of Jeremiah

⁴The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵“Before I formed you in the womb I knew^{ae} you, before you were born^f I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”^g

⁶“Alas, Sovereign LORD,” I said, “I do not know how to speak;^h I am too young.”ⁱ

⁷But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am too young.’ You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. ⁸Do not be afraid^j of them, for I am with you^k and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

⁹Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched^l my mouth and said to me, “I have put my words in your mouth.”^m ¹⁰See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant.”ⁿ

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me: “What do you see, Jeremiah?”^o

“I see the branch of an almond tree,” I replied.

¹²The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching^b to see that my word is fulfilled.”

¹³The word of the LORD came to me again: “What do you see?”^p

“I see a pot that is boiling,” I answered. “It is tilting toward us from the north.”

¹⁴The LORD said to me, “From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land. ¹⁵I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms,” declares the LORD.

“Their kings will come and set up their thrones in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem; they will come against all her surrounding walls and against all the towns of Judah.”^q

¹⁶I will pronounce my judgments on my people because of their wickedness^r in forsaking me,^s in burning incense to other gods^t and in worshiping what their hands have made.

¹⁷“Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be terrified^u by them, or I will terrify you before them. ¹⁸Today I have made you^v a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land — against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you^w and will rescue^x you,” declares the LORD.

Israel Forsakes God

2 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem:

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, you descendants of Jacob,
 all you clans of Israel.
⁵This is what the LORD says:
 “What fault did your ancestors find in me,
 that they strayed so far from me?
 They followed worthless idols and became worthless^f themselves.
⁶They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD,
 who brought us up out of Egypt^g

 darkness,

¹⁴Is Israel a servant, a slave^s by

 Why then has he become ¹⁵Lions^t have roared;

 they have growled at him.
 They have laid waste^u his land;

the stain of your guilt is still declares the Sovereign LORD.

23 “How can you say, ‘I am not defiled;’^k
I have not run after the Baals’?^l
See how you behaved in the valley;^m consider what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel runningⁿ here and there,

sniffing the wind in her craving —
in her heat who can restrain her?

at mating time they will find her.
25 Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry.
But you said, ‘It’s no use!
I love foreign gods,^p
and I must go after them.’

26 “As a thief is disgraced^a when he

Unfaithful Israel

⁶During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, “Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree^s and has committed adultery^t there. ⁷I thought that after she had done all this she would return to me but she

Disaster From the North

⁵“Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem and say: ‘Sound the trumpet throughout the land!’

Cry aloud and say: ‘Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities!’^l ⁶Raise the signal to go to Zion! Flee for safety without delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north,^m even terrible destruction.”

⁷A lionⁿ has come out of his lair; a destroyer of nations has set out.

He has left his place to lay waste^o your land. Your towns will lie in ruins^p without inhabitant.

⁸So put on sackcloth,^q lament and wail, for the fierce anger^r of the LORD has not turned away from us.

⁹“In that day,” declares the LORD, “the king and the officials will lose heart, and the prophets will be appalled.”^s

¹⁰Then I said, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! How completely you have deceived^t this people and Jerusalem by saying, ‘You will have peace,’^u when the sword is at our throats!”

¹¹At that time this people and Jeru-

³⁰What are you doing,^d you devastated one?
 Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels^e of gold?
 Why highlight your eyes with makeup?^f
 You adorn yourself in vain.
 Your lovers^g despise you;
 they want to kill you.

³¹I hear a cry as of a woman in labor,^h
 a groan as of one bearing her first child —
 the cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath,ⁱ stretching out her hands^j and
 saying,
 “Alas! I am fainting;
 my life is given over to murderers.”

Not One Is Upright

5 “Go up and down^k the streets of Jerusalem,
 look around and consider,
 search through her squares.
 If you can find but one person^l who deals honestly and seeks the truth,
 I will forgive^m this city.
²Although they say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ⁿ still they are swearing falsely.” ³LORD, do not your eyes^o look for truth?
 You struck^p them, but they felt
 no pain;
 you crushed them, but they refused correction.^q
 They made their faces harder than stone^r
 and refused to repent.
⁴I thought, “These are only the poor;
 they are foolish,
 for they do not know^s the way of
 the LORD,
 the requirements of their God.
⁵So I will go to the leaders^t
 and speak to them;
 surely they know the way of the LORD,
 the requirements of their God.”
 But with one accord they too had broken off the yoke and torn off the bonds.^u

False Religion Worthless

7 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Stand^f at the gate of the LORD’s house and there proclaim this message:

“Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD. ³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways^g and your actions, and I will let you live in this place. ⁴Do not trust in deceptive^h words and say, “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!” ⁵If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly,ⁱ ⁶if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood^j in this place, and if you do not follow other gods^k to your own harm, ⁷then I will let you live in this place, in the land^l I gave your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁸But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.

⁹“Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury,^a burn incense to Baal^m and follow other godsⁿ you have not known,¹⁰ and then come and stand before me in this house,^o which bears my Name, and say, “We are safe” — safe to do all these detestable things? ¹¹Has this house,^p which bears my Name, become a den of robbers^q to you? But I have been watching!^r declares the LORD.

¹²“Go now to the place in Shiloh^s where I first made a dwelling for my Name, and see what I did^t to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³While you were doing all these things, declares the LORD,

^a 9 Or and swear by false gods

I spoke to you again and again,^u but you did not listen;^v I called you, but you did not answer.^w ¹⁴Therefore, what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that bears my Name,^x the temple you trust in, the place I gave to you and your ancestors. ¹⁵I will thrust you from my presence, just as I did all your fellow Israelites, the people of Ephraim.^y

¹⁶“So do not pray for this people nor offer any plea^z or petition for them; do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven.^a They pour out drink offerings^b to other gods to arouse^c my anger. ¹⁹But am I the one they are provoking? declares the LORD. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?^d ²⁰“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: My anger^e and my wrath will be poured out on this place — on man and beast, on the trees of the field and on the crops of your land — and it will burn and not be quenched.

²¹“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go ahead, add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices^f and eat^g the meat yourselves! ²²For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt and spoke to them, I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices,^h ²³but I gave them this command: Obeyⁱ me, and I will be your God and you will be my people.^j Walk in obedience to all I command you, that it may go well^k with you. ²⁴But they did not listen or pay attention;^l instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵From the time your ancestors left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you my servants the prophets.^m ²⁶But they did not listen to me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.ⁿ

8 “At that time, declares the LORD, the bones of the kings and officials of Judah, the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves. ²They will be exposed to the sun and the moon and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served^d and which they have followed and consulted and worshiped. They will not be gathered up or buried, but will be like dung lying on the ground. ³Wherever I banish them, all the survivors of this evil nation will prefer

 “Is the LORD not in Zion?
 Is her King no longer there?” “Why have they aroused my anger with their images,

 idols?”ⁱ 20 “The harvest is past,
 the summer has ended,
 and we are not saved.”
 21 Since my people are crushed, I am crushed;
 I mourn,^j and horror grips me.
 22 Is there no balm in Gilead?^k
 Is there no physician there?
 Why then is there no healing^l

 for they are all adulterers,^o
 a crowd of unfaithful people.
 3 “They make ready their tongue like a bow, to shoot lies;^p

 that they triumph^b in the land.
 They go from one sin to another;
 they do not acknowledge me,”
 declares the LORD.
 4 “Beware of your friends;
 do not trust anyone in your clan.^q
 For every one of them is a deceiver,^r
 and every friend a slanderer.
 5 Friend deceives friend,
 and no one speaks the truth.

they fasten it with hammer and nails
so it will not totter.^d

⁵Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field,

The Covenant Is Broken

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Listen to the terms of this covenant and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. ³Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Cursed^k is the one who does not obey the terms of this covenant — ⁴the terms I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace.’^l I said, ‘Obey^m me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people,ⁿ and I will be your God. ⁵Then I will fulfill the oath I swore^o to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey’ — the land you possess today.”

I answered, “Amen, LORD.”

⁶The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow^p them. ⁷From the time I brought your ancestors up from Egypt until today, I warned them again and again,^q saying, “Obey me.” ⁸But they did not listen or pay attention;^r instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses^s of the covenant I had commanded them to follow but that they did not keep.’”

⁹Then the LORD said to me, “There is a conspiracy^t among the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have returned to the sins of their ancestors,^u who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods^v to serve them. Both Israel and Judah have broken the covenant I made with their ancestors. ¹¹Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I will bring on them a disaster^w they cannot escape. A Linen Belt

13 This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a linen belt and put it around your waist, but do not let it touch water.” ²So I bought a belt, as the LORD directed, and put it around my waist.

³Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: ⁴“Take the belt you bought and are wearing around your waist, and go now to Perath^a and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks.” ⁵So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD told me.^u

They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by the men of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev,^x bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you do not obey^y me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire^z in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.^{''a}

At the Potter's House

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message."³ So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. ⁴But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him.

⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me. ⁶He said, "Can I not do with you, Israel, as this potter does?" declares the LORD. "Like clay^b in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, Israel. ⁷If at any time I an-¹⁹Listen to me, LORD; hear what my accusers are saying!

²⁰Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit^a for me. Remember that I stood before you and spoke in their behalf^b to turn your wrath away from them.

²¹So give their children over to famine;^c hand them over to the power of the sword.

you kings^l of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Listen! ⁷“In this place I will ruin^a the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁴Jeremiah then returned from To-pheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court^h of the LORD’s temple and said to all the people, ¹⁵“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘Listen! I am going to bring on this city and all the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-neckedⁱ and would not listen to my words.’”

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20 When the priest Pashhur son of Immer,^j the official^k in charge of the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, ²he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten^l and put in the stocks^m at the Upper Gate of Benjaminⁿ at the LORD’s temple. ³The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD’s name for you is not Pashhur, but Terror on Every Side.^o ⁴For this is what the LORD says: ‘I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; with your own eyes^p you will see them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will give^q all Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon, who will carry^r them away to Babylon or put them to the sword. ⁵I will deliver all the wealth^s of this city into the hands of their enemies — all its products, all its valuables and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied^u lies.’”

God Rejects Zedekiah's Request

21 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah^q sent to him Pashhur^r son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah^s son of Maaseiah. They said: ²"Inquire^t now of the LORD for us because Nebuchadnezzar^{au} king of Babylon is attacking us. Perhaps the LORD will perform wonders^v for us as in times past so that he will withdraw from us."

³But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell Zedekiah, ⁴"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn^w against you the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians^b who are outside the wall besieging^x you. And I will gather them inside this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand^y and a mighty arm in furious anger and in great wrath. ⁶I will strike down those who live in this city — both man and beast — and they will die of a terrible plague. ⁷After that, declares the LORD, I will give Zedekiah^a king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague, sword and famine, into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon^b and to their enemies who want to kill them. He will put them to the sword; he will show them no mercy or pity or compassion.^c

⁸"Furthermore, tell the people, 'This is what the LORD says: See, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague.^d But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Babylonians who are besieging you will live; they will escape with their lives.^e ¹⁰I have determined to do this city harm^f and not good, declares the LORD. Judgment Against Wicked Kings 22 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and proclaim this message there: ²'Hear the word of the LORD to you, king of Judah, you who sit on David's throne^r — you, your officials and your people who come through these gates.^s ³This is what the LORD says: Do what is just^t and right. like towns not inhabited.

⁷I will send destroyers^a against you,
each man with his weapons,
and they will cut^b up your fine

⁸“People from many nations will pass by this city and will ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’^c ⁹And the answer will be: ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.’^d”

¹⁰Do not weep for the dead^e king or mourn^f his loss;
rather, weep bitterly for him
who is exiled,
because he will never return
nor see his native land again.

¹¹For this is what the LORD says about Shallum^g son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has gone from this place: “He will never return. ¹²He will die^h in the place where they have led him captive; he will not see this land again.”

¹³“Woe to him who buildsⁱ

Lying Prophets

⁹Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me;
all my bones tremble.
I am like a drunken man,
like a strong man overcome by wine,
because of the LORD
and his holy words.^u

¹⁰The land is full of adulterers;^v because of the curse^d the land lies parched
and the pastures^w in the wilderness are withered.^x
The prophets follow an evil course and use their power unjustly.

¹¹“Both prophet and priest are godless;^y
even in my temple^z I find their wickedness,”
declares the LORD.

¹⁸But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word?

¹⁹See, the storm^p of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.

²⁰The anger^q of the LORD will not turn back^r until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart.

In days to come you will understand it clearly.

²¹I did not send^s these prophets, yet they have run with their message;

I did not speak to them, yet they have prophesied.

²²But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned^t them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.

²³“Am I only a God nearby,^u” declares the LORD, “and not a God far away?”

²⁴Who can hide^v in secret places so that I cannot see them?” declares the LORD.

“Do not I fill heaven and earth?”^w declares the LORD.

²⁵“I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies^x in my name. They say, ‘I had a dream!’^y I had a dream!”²⁶How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions^z of their own minds? ²⁷They think the dreams they tell one another will make my people forget^a my name, just as their ancestors forgot^b my name through Baal worship. ²⁸Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?” declares the LORD. ²⁹“Is not my word like fire,”^c declares the LORD, “and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?”

³⁰“Therefore,” declares the LORD, “I am against^d the prophets^e who steal from one another words supposedly from me. ³¹Yes,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, ‘The LORD declares.’”^f ³²Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,^g” declares the LORD. “They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit^h these people in the least,” declares the LORD.

False Prophecy

³³“When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you, ‘What is the messageⁱ from the LORD?’ say to them, ‘What message? I will forsake^j you,’ declares the LORD.” ³⁴If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, ‘This is a message^k from the LORD,’ I will punish^l them and their household. ³⁵This is what each of you keeps saying to your friends and other Israelites: ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’^m or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁶But you must not mention ‘a message from the LORD’ again, because each one’s word becomes their own message. So you distortⁿ the words of the living God, the LORD Almighty, our God. ³⁷This is what you keep saying to a prophet: ‘What is the LORD’s answer to you?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ ³⁸Although you claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD,’ this is what the LORD says: You used the words, ‘This is a message from the LORD,’ even though I told you that you must not claim, ‘This is a message from the LORD.’ ³⁹Therefore, I will surely forget you and cast^o you out of my presence along with the city I gave to you and your ancestors. ⁴⁰I will bring on you everlasting disgrace^p—everlasting shame that will not be forgotten.”

³Then the LORD asked me, “What do you see,^t Jeremiah?”

“Figs,” I answered. “The good ones are very good, but the bad ones are so bad they cannot be eaten.”

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁵“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.’^b ⁶My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back^u to this land. Seventy Years of Captivity

25 The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim^j son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar^k king of Babylon. ²So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah^l and to all those living in Jerusalem: ³For twenty-three years—

from the thirteenth year of Josiah^m son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again,ⁿ but you have not listened.^o

⁴And though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets^p to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention. ⁵They said, “Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁶Do not follow other gods^q to serve and worship them; do not arouse my anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm you.”

⁷“But you did not listen to me,” declares the LORD, “and you have aroused my anger with what your hands have made,^r and you have brought harm^s to yourselves.”

⁸Therefore the LORD Almighty says this: “Because you have not listened to my words, ⁹I will summon^t all the peoples of the north^u and my servant^v Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,” declares the LORD, “and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy^a them and make them an object of horror and scorn,^w and an everlasting ruin. ¹⁰I will banish from them the sounds^x of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom,^y the sound of millstones^z and the light of the lamp.^a ¹¹This whole country will become a desolate wasteland,^b and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.^c

¹²“But when the seventy years^d are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation, the land of the Babylonians,^b for their guilt,” declares the LORD, “and will make it desolate^e forever. ¹³I will bring on that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that are written in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations. ¹⁴They themselves will be enslaved^f by many nations^g and great kings; I will repay^h

The Cup of God's Wrath

¹⁵This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take from my hand this cupⁱ filled with the wine of my wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. ¹⁶When they drink it, they will stagger^j and go mad^k because of the sword I will send among them.”

¹⁷So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations to whom he sent^l me drink it: ¹⁸Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn, a curse^{cm}—as they are today;ⁿ ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people, ²⁰and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz;^o all the kings of the Philistines (those of Ashkelon,^p Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod); ²¹Edom, Moab and Ammon;^q ²²all the kings of Tyre and Sidon;^r the kings of the coastlands^s across the sea; ²³Dedan, Tema, Buz and all who are in distant places^d; ²⁴all the kings of Arabia^u and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the wilderness; ²⁵all the kings of Zimri, Elam^v and Media; ²⁶and all the kings of the north,^w near and far, one after the other—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. Jeremiah Threatened With Death

26 Early in the reign of Jehoia-kim^a son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: ²“This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard^f of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell^s them everything I command you; do not omit^t a word. ³Perhaps they will listen and each will turn^u from their evil ways. ⁷The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets and all the people seized him and said, “You must die! ⁹Why do you prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?”^b And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their places at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death^c because he has prophesied against this city. ¹²Then Jeremiah said to all the officials^d and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy^e against this house and this city all the things you have heard.^f ¹³Now reform^g your ways and your actions and obey the LORD your God. Judah to Serve Nebuchadnezzar 27 Early in the reign of Zedekiah^{by} son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²This is what the LORD said to me: "Make a yoke^z out of straps and crossbars and put it on your neck. ³Then send word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon,^a Tyre and Sidon through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴Give them a message for their masters and say, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Tell this to your masters: ⁵With my great power and outstretched arm^b I made the earth and its people and the animals that are on it, and I give^c it to anyone I please. ⁶Now I will give all your countries into the hands of my servant^d Nebuchadnezzar^e king of Babylon; I will make even the wild animals subject to him.^f ⁷All nations will serve^g him and his son and his grandson until the time^h for his land comes; then many nations and great kings will subjugateⁱ him.

12I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, “Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live. 13Why will you and your people die^m by the sword, famine and plague with which the LORD has threatened any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying liesⁿ to you. 15‘I have not sent^o them,’ declares the LORD. ‘They are prophesying lies in my name.^p Therefore, I will banish you and you will perish,^q both you and the prophets who prophesy to you.’”

16Then I said to the priests and all these people, “This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, ‘Very soon now the articles^r from the LORD’s house will be brought back from Babylon.’ They are prophesying lies to you. 17Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin? 18If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead^s with the LORD Almighty that the articles remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon. 19For this is what the LORD Almighty says about the pillars, the

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah^a king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon,^b said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: 2“‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will break the yoke^c of the king of Babylon. 3Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles^d of the LORD’s house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon. 4I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin^{ae} son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,’ declares the LORD, ‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.’”

5Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD. 6He said, “Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD’s house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon. 7Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: 8From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague^f against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true.⁹

¹⁰Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke^h off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it, ¹¹and he saidⁱ before all the people, “This is what the LORD says: ‘In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.’” At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

¹²After the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³“Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will get a yoke of iron. ¹⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke^j on the necks of all these nations to make them serve^k Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.^l”

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent^m you, yet you have persuaded this nation to trust in lies.ⁿ ¹⁶Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to remove you from the face of the earth.^o This very year you are going to die, because you have preached rebellion^p against the LORD.’”

¹⁷In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

the court officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the skilled workers and the artisans had gone into exile from Jerusalem.) ³He entrusted the letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It said:

⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried^s into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵“Build^t houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Marry and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Increase in number there; do not decrease. ⁷Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray^u to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper.” ⁸Yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Do not let the prophets and diviners among you deceive^v you. Do not listen to the dreams you encourage them to have.^w ⁹They are prophesying lies^x to you in my name. I have not sent them,” declares the LORD.

¹⁰This is what the LORD says: “When seventy years^y are completed for Babylon, I will come to you and fulfill my good promise to bring you back^z to this place. ¹¹For I know the plans^a I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. ¹²Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen^b to you. ¹³You will seek^c me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.^d ¹⁴I will be found by you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back^e from captivity.^b I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile.”^f

¹⁵You may say, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,” ¹⁶but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David’s throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow citizens who did not go with you into exile — ¹⁷yes, this is what the LORD Almighty says: “I will send the sword, famine and plague^g against them and I will make them like figs^h that are so bad they cannot be eaten. ¹⁸I will pursue them with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrentⁱ to all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse^a and an object of horror,^j of scorn and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them. ¹⁹For they have not listened to my words,”^k declares the LORD, “words that I sent to them again and again by my servants the prophets.^l And you exiles have not listened either,” declares the LORD.

²⁰Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent^m away from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying liesⁿ to you in my name: “I will deliver them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your very eyes. ²²Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: ‘May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned^o in the fire.’ ²³For they have done outrageous things in Israel; they have committed adultery^p with their neighbors’ wives, and in my name they have uttered lies — which I did not authorize.

Message to Shemaiah

²⁴Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite, ²⁵“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah^r son of Maaseiah, and to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, ²⁶“The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada to be in charge of the house of the LORD; you should put any maniac^s who acts like a prophet into the stocks^t and neck-irons. ²⁷So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you? ²⁸He has sent this message^u to us in Babylon: It will be a long time.^v Therefore build^w houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.”

²⁹Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹“Send this message to all the exiles: ‘This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah^x the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send^y him, and has persuaded you to trust in lies, ³²this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants.^z He will have no one left among this people, nor will he see the good^a things I will do for my people, declares the LORD, because he has preached rebellion^b against me.’”

Therefore my heart yearns for him;
 I have great compassion^o for
 him,”
 declares the LORD.

²¹“Set up road signs;
 put up guideposts.
 Take note of the highway,^p
 the road that you take.
 Return,^q Virgin^r Israel, return to your towns.
²²How long will you wander,^s unfaithful^t Daughter Israel?
 The LORD will create a new thing on earth —
 the woman will return to^a the
 man.”

²³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “When I bring them back from captivity,^b the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘The LORD bless you, you prosperous city,^v you sacred mountain.’^w ²⁴People will live^x together in Judah and all its towns — farmers and those who move about with their flocks. ²⁵I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”^y

²⁶At this I awoke^z and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant
 to me.

²⁷“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will plant^a the kingdoms of Israel and Judah with the offspring of people and of animals. ²⁸Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster,^b so I will watch over them to build and to plant,”^c declares the LORD. ²⁹“In those days people will no longer say,

‘The parents^d have eaten sour grapes,
 and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’^e

³⁰Instead, everyone will die for their own sin;^f whoever eats sour grapes —
 their own teeth will be set on edge.

³¹“The days are coming,” declares
 the LORD,
 “when I will make a new covenant^g

^a 22 Or will protect ^b 23 Or I restore their fortunes

with the people of Israel
and with the people of Judah.
³²It will not be like the covenant^h
I made with their ancestorsⁱ
when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt,
because they broke my covenant,
though I was a husband to^a them,^b”

declares the LORD.

³³“This is the covenant I will make
with the people of Israel
after that time,” declares the LORD.

“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.^j
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.^k

³⁴No longer will they teach^l their neighbor,
or say to one another, ‘Know
the LORD,’
because they will all know^m me,
from the least of them to the greatest,”

declares the LORD.

“For I will forgiveⁿ their wickedness
and will remember their sins^o
no more.”

³⁵This is what the LORD says,

he who appoints^p the sun
to shine by day,
who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night,^q who stirs up the sea
so that its waves roar —
the LORD Almighty is his name:^r

³⁶“Only if these decrees^s vanish from my sight,”
declares the LORD,
“will Israel^t ever cease
being a nation before me.”

³⁷This is what the LORD says:

“Only if the heavens above can be measured^u
and the foundations of the earth below be searched out
will I reject^v all the descendants of Israel
because of all they have done,”
declares the LORD.

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth^e year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth^f year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard^g in the royal palace of Judah.

³Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, “Why do you prophesy^h as you do?
You say, ‘This is what the LORD says:
I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will captureⁱ it. ⁴Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape^j the Babylonians^c but will certainly be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes. ⁵He will take^k Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him, declares the LORD. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’”^l

⁶Jeremiah said, “The word of the LORD came to me: ⁷Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative it is your right and duty^m to buy it.’

⁸“Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.’

“I knew that this was the word of the LORD; ⁹so I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels^a of silver. ¹⁰I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed,^o and weighed out the silver on the scales. ¹¹I took the deed of purchase — the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, as well as the unsealed copy — ¹²and I gave this deed to Baruch^p son of Neriah,^q the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed and of all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

¹³“In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions: ¹⁴“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Take these documents, both the sealed and unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time. ¹⁵For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.’^r

“Ah, Sovereign LORD,^s you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm.^t Nothing is too hard^u for you. ¹⁸You show love^v to thousands but bring the punishment for the parents’ sins into the laps of their children^w after them. Great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD Almighty,^x ¹⁹great are your purposes and mighty are your deeds.^y Your eyes are open to the ways of all mankind;^z you reward each person according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve.^a ²⁰You performed signs and wonders in Egypt^b and have continued them to this day, in Israel and among all mankind, and have gained the renown that is still yours.

²¹You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, by a mighty hand^c and an outstretched arm and with great terror.^d ²²You gave them this land you had sworn to give their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.^e ²³They came in and took possession^f of it, but they did not obey you or follow your law;^g they did not do what you commanded them to do. So you brought all this disaster^h on them.

²⁴“See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of the sword, famine and plague,ⁱ the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you said^j has happened, as you now see. ²⁵And though the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians, you, Sovereign LORD, say to me, ‘Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.’”

²⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷“I am the LORD, the God of all mankind.^k Is anything too hard for me? ²⁸Therefore this is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar^l king of Babylon, who will capture it.^m ²⁹The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire; they will burn it down,ⁿ along with the houses^o where the people aroused my anger by burning incense on the roofs to Baal and by pouring out drink offerings^p to other gods.

³⁰“The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth;^q indeed, the people of Israel have done nothing but arouse my anger^r with what their hands have made,^s declares the LORD. ³¹From the day it was built until now, this city has so aroused my anger and wrath that I must remove^t it from my sight. ³²The people of Israel and Judah have provoked me by all the evil^u they have done — they, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem. ³³They turned their backs^v to me and not their faces; though I taught^w them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline. ³⁴They set up their vile images in the house that bears my Name and defiled^x it. ³⁵They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molek,^y though I never commanded — nor did it enter my mind^z — that they should do such a detestable thing and so make Judah sin.

³⁶“You are saying about this city, ‘By the sword, famine and plague^a it will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon’; but this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ³⁷I will surely gather^b them from all the lands where I banish them in my furious anger and great wrath; I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety.^c ³⁸They will be my people,^d and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them singleness^e of heart and action, so that they will always fear me and that all will then go well for them and for their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make an everlasting covenant^f with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me.^g ⁴¹I will rejoice in doing them good^h and will assuredly plantⁱ them in this land with all my heart and soul.

⁴²“This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised^j them. ⁴³Once more fields will be bought^k in this land of which you say, ‘It is a desolate waste, without people or animals, for it has been given into the hands of the Babylonians.’ ⁴⁴Fields will be bought for silver, and deeds^l will be signed, sealed and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev,^m because I will restoreⁿ their fortunes,^a declares the LORD.”

Promise of Restoration

33 While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard^o of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him a second time: ²“This is what the LORD says, he who made the earth,^p the LORD who formed it and established it — the LORD is his name:^q ³‘Call’ to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’ ⁴For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege^s ramps^t and the sword^u in the fight with the Babylonians^b: ‘They will be filled with the dead bodies of the people I will slay in my anger and wrath.’ ^uI will hide my face^v from this city because of all its wickedness.

⁶“Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. ⁷I will bring Judah^w and Israel back from captivity^x and will rebuild them as they were before.^y ⁸I will cleanse^z them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive^a all their sins of rebellion against me. ⁹Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise^b and honor^c before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.’

¹⁰“This is what the LORD says: ‘You say about this place, “It is a desolate waste, without people or animals.”^d Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, inhabited by neither people nor animals, there will be heard once more ¹¹the sounds of joy and gladness,^e the voices of bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those who bring thank offerings^f to the house of the LORD, saying, ⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem, ⁷while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out — Lachishⁿ and Azekah.^o These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

Freedom for Slaves

⁸The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people^p in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom^q for the slaves. ⁹Everyone was to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female; no one was to hold a fellow Hebrew in bondage.^r ¹⁰So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free. ¹¹But afterward they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors^s when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said, ¹⁴“Every seventh year each of you must free any fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you six years, you must let them go free.”^t Your ancestors, however, did not listen to me or pay attention^u to me. ¹⁵Recently you repented and did what is right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to your own people.^v You even made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name.^w ¹⁶But now you have turned around^x and profaned^y my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go where they wished. You have forced them to become your slaves again.

¹⁷“Therefore this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed me; you have not proclaimed freedom to your own people. So I now proclaim ‘freedom’ for you,^z declares the LORD — ‘freedom’ to fall by the sword, plague

The Rekabites

35 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim^l son of Josiah king of Judah: ²“Go to the Rekabite^m family and invite them to come to one of the side roomsⁿ of the house of the LORD and give them wine to drink.”

³So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons — the whole family of the Rekabites. ⁴I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah the man of God.^o It was next to the room of the officials, which was over that of Maa-seiah son of Shallum^p the doorkeeper.^q ⁵Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the Rekabites and said to them, “Drink some wine.”

⁶But they replied, “We do not drink wine, because our forefather Jehonadab^{br} son of Rekab gave us

Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakimⁿ son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Take a scroll^o and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah^p till now. ³Perhaps^q when the people of Judah hear^r about every disaster I plan to inflict on them, they will each turn^s from their wicked ways; then I will forgive^t their wickedness and their sin."

⁴So Jeremiah called Baruch^u son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated^v all the words the LORD had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.^w ⁵Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am restricted; I am not allowed to go to the LORD's temple. ⁶So you go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting^x and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that you wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns. ⁷Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD and will each turn^y from their wicked ways, for the anger^z and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great."

⁸Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do; at the LORD's temple he read the words of the LORD from the scroll. ⁹In the ninth month^a of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting^b before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah. ¹⁰From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary,^c which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate^d of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the LORD's temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.

¹¹When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, ¹²he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan^e son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. ¹³After Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll, ¹⁴all the officials sent Jehudi^f son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in his hand. ¹⁵They said to him, "Sit down, please, and read it to us."

So Baruch read it to them. ¹⁶When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king." ¹⁷Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?"

¹⁸"Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated^g all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll."

¹⁹Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah, go and hide.^h Don't let anyone know where you are."

²⁰After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him. ²¹The king sent Jehudiⁱ to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it to the king^j and all the officials standing beside him. ²²It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment,^k with a fire burning in the firepot in front of him. ²³Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire.^l ²⁴The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear,^m nor did they tear their clothes.ⁿ ²⁵Even though Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. ²⁶Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest^o Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden^p them.

²⁷After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation,^q the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁸"Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up. ²⁹Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and wipe from it^r both man and beast?"

³⁰Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David; his body will be thrown out^s and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night. ³¹I will punish him and his children and his attendants for their wickedness; I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster^t I pronounced against them, because they have not listened."

³²So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated,^u Baruch wrote^v on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned^w in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

¹¹After the Babylonian army had withdrawn^l from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army, ¹²Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property^m among the people there. ¹³But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, “You are deserting to the Babylonians!”

¹⁴“That’s not true!” Jeremiah said. “I am not deserting to the Babylonians.” But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrestedⁿ Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

Jeremiah Thrown Into a Cistern

38 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal^{dx} son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people when he said, ²“This is what the LORD says: ‘Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague,^y but whoever goes over to the Babylonians^e will live. The Fall of Jerusalem

39:1-10pp — 2Ki 25:1-12; Jer 52:4-16

This is how Jerusalem was taken:

39 ¹In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege^a to it. ²And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah’s eleventh year, the city wall was broken through. ³Then all the officials^b of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officials of the king of Babylon. ⁴When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled; they left the city at night by way of the king’s garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed toward the Arabah.^b

⁵But the Babylonian^c army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah^c in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah^d in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him. ⁶There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes and also killed all the nobles of ⁸The Babylonians^d set fire^g to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls^h of Jerusalem. ⁹Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him, and the rest of the people.ⁱ ¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing; and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard: ¹²“Take him and look after him; don’t harm^j him but do for him whatever he asks.” ¹³So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officers of the king of Babylon ¹⁴sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard.^k They turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam,^l the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.^m

¹⁵While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him: ¹⁶“Go and tell Ebed-Melekⁿ the Cushite, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill my words against this city—words concerning disaster,^o not prosperity. At that time they will be fulfilled before your eyes. ¹⁷But I will rescue^p you on that day, declares the LORD; you will not be given into the hands of those you fear. ¹⁸I will save you; you will not fall by the sword^q but will escape with your life,^r because you trust^s in me, declares the LORD.’”

Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. ²When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him, “The LORD your God decreed this disaster for this place.^t ³And now the LORD has brought it about; he has done just as he said he would. All this happened because you people sinned^u against the LORD and did not obey^v him. ⁴But today I am freeing you from the chains on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if you like, and I will look after you; but if you do not want to, then don’t come. Look, the whole country lies before you; go wherever you please.”^w ⁵However, before Jeremiah turned to go,^a Nebuzaradan added, “Go back to Gedaliah^x son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please.”^y

Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go. ⁶So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah^z and stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

⁷When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women and children who were the poorest^a in the land and who had not been carried into exile to Babylon, ⁸they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah^b — Ishmael^c son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite,^d and Jaazaniah^b the son of the Maakathite,^e and their men. ⁹Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid to serve^f the Babylonians,^c” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.^g ¹⁰I myself will stay at Mizpah^h to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to harvest the wine, summer fruit and olive oil, and put them in your storage jars, and live in the towns you have taken over.”ⁱ ¹¹When all the Jews in Moab,^j Ammon, Edom and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them, ¹²they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered.^k And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer fruit.

¹³Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah^l and said to him, “Don’t you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites^m has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?”

¹⁶But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

41 In the seventh month Ishmaelⁿ son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king’s officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there, ²Ishmael^o son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed^p as governor over the land.^q ³Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian^a soldiers who were there.

¹⁰Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people^b who were in Mizpah — the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.^c

¹¹When Johanan^d son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed, ¹²they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool^e in Gibeon. ¹³When all the people^f Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him, they were glad. ¹⁴All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned

Flight to Egypt

¹⁶Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him led away all the people of Mizpah who had survived,^h whom Johanan had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam — the soldiers, women, children and court officials he had recovered from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimhamⁱ near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt^j ¹⁸to escape the Babylonians.^b They were afraid^k of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah^l son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

42 Then all the army officers, including Johanan^m son of Kareah and Jezaniah^c son of Hoshai^aah, and all the people from the least to the greatestⁿ approached ²Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, "Please hear our petition and pray^o to the LORD your God for this entire remnant.^p For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few^q are left. ³Pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do."^r

⁴"I have heard you," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will certainly pray^s to the LORD your God as you have requested; I will tell you everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from you."^t

⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness^u against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us. ⁶Whether it is favorable or unfavorable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it will go well^v with us, for we will obey^w the LORD our God."

⁷Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸So he called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers^x who were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest.⁹ He said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition, says:^y ¹⁰‘If you stay in this land, I will build^z you up and not tear you down; I will plant^a you and not uproot you,^b for I have relented concerning the disaster I have inflicted on you.^c ¹¹‘Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon,^d whom you now fear.^e Do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you and will save^f you and deliver you from his hands.⁹ ¹²‘I will show you compassion so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land.’^h

You will be a curse^a and an object of horror,^o a curse^a and an object of reproach; you will never see this place again.’^p

43 When Jeremiah had finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God — everything the LORD had sent him to tell them^v — ²Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan^w son of Kareah and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt to settle there.’ ³But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Babylonians,^b so they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon.”^x

⁴So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD’s command^y to stay in the land of Judah.⁵ Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.^a ⁶They also led away all those whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan — the men, the women, the children and the king’s daughters. And they took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah along with them. ⁷So they entered Egypt in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.^b

⁸In Tahpanhes^c the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ⁹“While the Jews are watching, take some large stones with you and bury them in clay in the brick pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes. ¹⁰Then say to them, ‘This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant^d Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here; he will spread his royal canopy above them. ¹¹He will come and attack Egypt,^e bringing

Disaster Because of Idolatry

44 This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt — in Migdol,ⁱ Tahpanhes^j and Memphis^k — and in Upper Egypt:^l ²“This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins^m ³because of the evil they have done. They aroused my anger by burning incense to and worshipping other godsⁿ that neither they nor you nor your ancestors^o ever knew. ⁴Again and again^p I sent my servants the prophets,^q who said, ‘Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!’ ⁵But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods.^r ⁶Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out; it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by you and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?^x ¹⁰To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed my law^y and the decrees I set before you and your ancestors.^z

¹¹“Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster^a on you and to destroy all Judah. ¹²I will take away the remnant^b of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine.^c They will become a curse and an object of horror, a curse and an object of reproach.^d ¹³I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine and plague,^e as I punished Jerusalem. ¹⁴None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives.”^f

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present — a large assembly — and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah, ¹⁶“We will not listen^g to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD! ¹⁷We will certainly do everything we said we would:^h We will burn incense to the Queen of Heavenⁱ and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm.^j ¹⁸But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine.^k”

A Message to Baruch

45 When Baruch^h son of Neriah wrote on a scroll the words Jeremiah the prophet dictated in the fourth year of Jehoiakimⁱ son of Josiah king of Judah, Jeremiah said this to Baruch: ²“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³You said, ‘Woe to me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am worn out with groaning^j and find no rest.’ ⁴But the LORD has told me to say to you, ‘This is what the LORD says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot what I have planted,^k throughout the earth.’^l ⁵Should you then seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them.^m For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.”ⁿ

A Message About Egypt

46 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:^o

²Concerning Egypt:

This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Necho^p king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish^q on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim^r son of Josiah king of Judah:

³“Prepare your shields,^s both large and small,

mount the steeds!

Take your positions with helmets on!

Polish^t your spears,
 put on your armor!^u prudent?

Has their wisdom decayed?
8 Turn and flee, hide in deep caves, you who live in Dedan,^u himself.

His armed men are destroyed,
also his allies and neighbors,
so there is no one^v to say,

¹¹ "Leave your fatherless children;^w I will keep them alive.

declares the LORD.

³³ “Hazor will become a haunt of jackals,
a desolate^a place forever.

No one will live there;
no people will dwell^b in it.”

A Message About Elam

³⁴ This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam,^c early in the reign of Zedekiah^d king of Judah:

³⁵ This is what the LORD Almighty says:

“See, I will break the bow^e of Elam, the mainstay of their might.

³⁶ I will bring against Elam the four winds^f from the four quarters of heaven;

I will scatter them to the four winds,
and there will not be a nation
where Elam’s exiles do not go.

³⁷ I will shatter Elam before their
foes,
before those who want to kill
them;

I will bring disaster on them,
even my fierce anger,”^g
declares the LORD.

“I will pursue them with the sword^h
until I have made an end of them.

³⁸ I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,”
declares the LORD.

³⁹ “Yet I will restoreⁱ the fortunes of Elam
in days to come,”
declares the LORD.

A Message About Babylon

51:15-19pp — Jer 10:12-16

50 This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon^j and the land of the Babylonians^b:

² “Announce and proclaim^k among
the nations,

lift up a banner and proclaim it;
keep nothing back, but say, ‘Babylon will be captured;’^l

Bel^m will be put to shame,
Mardukⁿ filled with terror.
Her images will be put to shame and her idols filled with terror.’

^a 32 Or who clip the hair by their foreheads

^b 1 Or Chaldeans; also in verses 8, 25, 35 and 45

³A nation from the north will attack her
and lay waste her land.
No one will live^o in it;
both people and animals^p will flee away.

⁴“In those days, at that time,”
declares the LORD,
“the people of Israel and the people of Judah together^q

will go in tears^r to seek^s the LORD their God.

⁵They will ask the way to Zion
and turn their faces toward it.
They will come^t and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant^u that will not be forgotten.

⁶“My people have been lost sheep;^v
their shepherds have led them astray
and caused them to roam on the mountains.
They wandered over mountain and hill^w
and forgot their own resting place.^x

⁷Whoever found them devoured
them;
their enemies said, ‘We are not guilty,^y
for they sinned against the LORD,
their verdant pasture,
the LORD, the hope^z of their ancestors.’

⁸“Flee^a out of Babylon;
leave the land of the Babylonians,
and be like the goats that lead
the flock.

⁹For I will stir up and bring against Babylon
an alliance of great nations from the land of the north.
They will take up their positions against her,
and from the north she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like skilled warriors
who do not return empty-handed.

¹⁰So Babylonia^a will be plundered;
all who plunder her will have their fill,^b
declares the LORD.

¹¹“Because you rejoice and are glad, you who pillage my inheritance,^b
because you frolic like a heifer threshing grain
and neigh like stallions, ¹²your mother will be greatly ashamed;
she who gave you birth will be disgraced.
She will be the least of the nations —
a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.

¹³Because of the LORD’s anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate.
All who pass Babylon will be appalled;
they will scoff^c because of all her wounds.^d

¹⁴“Take up your positions around Babylon,
all you who draw the bow.^e Shoot at her! Spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵Shout^f against her on every side!
She surrenders, her towers fall,
her walls^g are torn down.
Since this is the vengeance^h of the LORD,
take vengeance on her;
do to herⁱ as she has done to others.

¹⁶Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with his sickle at harvest.
Because of the sword^j of the oppressor
let everyone return to their own people,^k
let everyone flee to their own land.^l

¹⁷“Israel is a scattered flock that lions^m have chased away.
The first to devour them
was the kingⁿ of Assyria;

^a 10 Or Chaldea

the last to crush their bones was Nebuchadnezzar^o king^p of Babylon.”

¹⁸Therefore this is what the LORD
Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
as I punished the king^q of Assyria.^r

¹⁹But I will bring^s Israel back to their own pasture,
and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
their appetite will be satisfied
on the hills^t of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days, at that time,”
declares the LORD,
“search will be made for Israel’s guilt,
but there will be none,
and for the sins^u of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive^v the remnant^w
I spare.

²¹“Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod.^x Pursue, kill and completely destroy^a them,”
declares the LORD.

“Do everything I have commanded you.

²²The noise^y of battle is in the land,
the noise of great destruction!

²³How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth!

How desolate^z is Babylon
among the nations!

²⁴I set a trap^a for you, Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it;
you were found and captured^b
because you opposed^c the
LORD.

²⁵The LORD has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons^d
of his wrath,
for the Sovereign LORD Almighty has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.^e

²⁶Come against her from afar.
Break open her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain.

⁵⁹This is the message Jeremiah the prophet gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah,^e the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah^f king of Judah in the fourth^g year of his reign. ⁶⁰Jeremiah had written on a scroll^h about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon — all that had been recorded concerning Babylon. ⁶¹He said to Seraiah, “When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. ⁶²Then say, ‘LORD, you have said you will destroy this place, so that neither people nor animals will live in it; it will be desolateⁱ forever.’ ⁶³When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates. ⁶⁴Then say, ‘So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring on her. And her people^j will fall.’”

The words of Jeremiah end^k here.

52 Zedekiah^l was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.^m ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoia-kimⁿ had done. ³It was because of the LORD’s anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah,^o and in the end he thrust them from his presence.

Now Zedekiah rebelled^p against the king of Babylon.

⁴So in the ninth year of Zedekiah’s reign, on the tenth^a day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem^r with his whole army. They encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it.^s ⁵The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

⁶By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.^t ⁷Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king’s garden, though the Babylonians^a were surrounding the city. They fled toward the Arabah,^b ⁸but the Babylonian^c army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered, ⁹and he was captured.^u

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah^v in the land of Hamath,^w where he pronounced sentence on him. ¹⁰There at Riblah the king of Babylon killed the sons^x of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the officials of Judah. ¹¹Then he put out Zedekiah’s eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon, where he put him in prison till the day of his death.^y

¹²On the tenth day of the fifth^z month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan^a commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ¹³He set fire^b to the temple^c of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down. ¹⁴The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down all the walls^d around Jerusalem. ¹⁵Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen^a and those who had deserted to the king of Babylon. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan left behind^e the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

¹⁷The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars,^f the movable stands^g and the bronze Sea^h that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.ⁱ ¹⁸They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.^j ¹⁹The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, censers,^k sprinkling bowls, pots, lampstands, dishes and bowls used for drink offerings — all that were made of pure gold or silver.

²⁰The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.^l ²¹Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference^b; each was four fingers thick, and hollow.^m ²²The bronze capitalⁿ on top of one pillar was five cubits^c high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; the total number of pomegranates^o above the surrounding network was a hundred.

²⁴The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah^p the chief priest, Zephaniah^q the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and seven royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of

Jehoiachin Released

52:31-34pp — 2Ki 25:27-30

³¹In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison. ³²He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.^u ³⁴Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance^v as long as he lived, till the day of his death.

LAMENTATIONS

- 1^a How deserted lies the city,
once so full of people!
How like a widow^a is she,
who once was great^b among
the nations!
She who was queen among the provinces
has now become a slave.^c
- 2 Bitterly she weeps^d at night,
tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers^e
there is no one to comfort
her.
All her friends have betrayed^f
her;
they have become her enemies.^g
- 3 After affliction and harsh labor,
Judah has gone into exile.^h
She dwells among the nations;
she finds no resting place.ⁱ
All who pursue her have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.
- 4 The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to her appointed festivals.
All her gateways are desolate,^j
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she is in bitter anguish.^k
- 5 Her foes have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease.
The LORD has brought her grief^l
because of her many sins.
Her children have gone into exile,^m
captive before the foe.
- 6 All the splendor has departed from Daughter Zion.ⁿ Her princes are like deer
that find no pasture;
in weakness they have fled before the pursuer.

You have slain them in the day of your anger;
you have slaughtered them

²²“As you summon to a feast day, so you summoned against me
terrors^j on every side.
In the day of the LORD’s anger
no one escaped or survived;
those I cared for and reared^k my enemy has destroyed.”

3^b I am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of the LORD’s wrath.^l ²He has driven me away and made me walk
in darkness^m rather than light; ³indeed, he has turned his hand against meⁿ
again and again, all day long.

⁴He has made my skin and my flesh grow old and has broken my bones.^o ⁵He has besieged me and surrounded me
with bitterness^p and hardship.^q ⁶He has made me dwell in darkness
like those long dead.^r

⁷He has walled me in so I cannot escape;^s he has weighed me down with chains.^t

⁸Even when I call out or cry for help,
he shuts out my prayer.^u ⁹He has barred my way with blocks of stone;
he has made my paths crooked.^v

¹⁰Like a bear lying in wait,
like a lion in hiding, ¹¹he dragged me from the path and mangled^w me
and left me without help.
¹²He drew his bow^x
and made me the target^y for his arrows.^z

^a 17 Horn here symbolizes strength. ^b This chapter is an acrostic poem; the verses of each stanza begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet, and the verses within each stanza begin with the same letter.

13 He pierced my heart with arrows from his quiver.^a 14 I became the laughingstock^b of all my people;
 they mock me in song^c all day
 long.
 15 He has filled me with bitter herbs and given me gall to drink.^d 16 He has broken my teeth with gravel;^e
 he has trampled me in the dust.
 17 I have been deprived of peace;
 I have forgotten what prosperity is.
 18 So I say, "My splendor is gone and all that I had hoped from the LORD."^f
 19 I remember my affliction and my wandering,
 the bitterness and the gall.
 20 I well remember them,
 and my soul is downcast^g
 within me.^h
 21 Yet this I call to mind
 and therefore I have hope:
 22 Because of the LORD's great love
 we are not consumed,
 for his compassions never fail.ⁱ 23 They are new every morning;
 great is your faithfulness.^j 24 I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion;^k
 therefore I will wait for him." 25 The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him,
 to the one who seeks him;^l 26 it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.^m 27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
 while he is young.
 28 Let him sit alone in silence,ⁿ for the LORD has laid it on him.
 29 Let him bury his face in the dust —
 there may yet be hope.^o 30 Let him offer his cheek to one who would strike him,^p and let him be filled with disgrace.
 31 For no one is cast off by the Lord forever.^q

without cause
hunted me like a bird.ⁿ

53 They tried to end my life in a pit^o
and threw stones at me;

54 the waters closed over my head,^p and I thought I was about to perish.

55 I called on your name, LORD, from the depths of the pit.^q

56 You heard my plea:^r “Do not close your ears

57 You came near when I called you, and you said, “Do not fear.”^s

58 You, Lord, took up my case;^t
you redeemed my life.^u

59 LORD, you have seen the wrong done to me.^v
Uphold my cause!

vengeance,
all their plots against me.^w

61 LORD, you have heard their insults, all their plots against me —

mutter

63 Look at them! Sitting or standing, they mock me in their songs.

64 Pay them back what they deserve,

EZEKIEL

Ezekiel's Inaugural Vision

1 In my thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles^a by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened^b and I saw visions^c of God.

²On the fifth of the month — it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin^d — ³the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians.^a There the hand of the LORD was on him.^e

⁴I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the north^f — an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal,^g and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures.^h In appearance their form was human,ⁱ but each of them had four faces^j and four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze.^k ⁸Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands.^l All four of them had faces and wings, and the wings of one touched the wings of another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved.^m

¹⁰Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a human being, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle.ⁿ ¹¹Such were their faces. They each had two wings^o spreading out upward, each wing touching that of the creature on either side; and each had two other wings covering its body. ¹²Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went. ¹³The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning^p flashed out of it. ¹⁴The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.^q

¹⁵As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. ¹⁶This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: They sparkled like topaz,^r and all four looked alike. Each appeared to be made like a wheel intersecting a wheel. ¹⁷As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced; the wheels did not change direction^s as the creatures went. ¹⁸Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes^t all around.

¹⁹When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. ²⁰Wherever the spirit would go, they would go,^u and the wheels would rise along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹When the creatures moved, they also moved; when the creatures stood still, they also stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.^v

²²Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked something like a vault,^w sparkling like crystal, and awesome. ²³Under the vault their wings were stretched out one toward the other, and each had two wings covering its body. ²⁴When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice^x of the Almighty,^b like the tumult of an army.^y When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

²⁵Then there came a voice from above the vault over their heads as they stood with lowered wings.

²⁶Above the vault over their heads was what looked like a throne of lapis lazuli,^z and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man.^a ²⁷I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him.^b

²⁸Like the appearance of a rainbow^c in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him.^d

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory^e of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell facedown,^f and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel's Call to Be a Prophet

2 He said to me, "Son of man,^a stand^g up on your feet and I will speak to you." ²As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me^h to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

³He said: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me to this very day.ⁱ ⁴The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn.^j Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' ⁵And whether they listen or fail to listen^k — for they are a rebellious people^l — they will know that a prophet has been among them.^m ⁶And you, son of man, do not be afraidⁿ of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briars and thorns^o are all around you and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of what they say or be terrified by them, though they are a rebellious people.^p ⁷You must speak my words to them, whether they listen or fail to listen, for they are rebellious.^q ⁸But you, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not rebel like that rebellious people;^r open your mouth and eat^s what I give you."

⁹Then I looked, and I saw a hand^t stretched out to me. In it was a scroll,

¹⁰which he unrolled before me. On both sides of it were written words of lament and mourning and woe.^u

3 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat what is before you, eat this scroll; then go and speak to the people of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

³Then he said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you and fill your stomach with it." So I ate^v it, and it tasted as sweet as honey^w in my mouth.

⁴He then said to me: "Son of man, go now to the people of Israel and speak my words to them. ⁵You are not being sent to a people of obscure speech and strange language,^x but to the people of Israel — ⁶not to many peoples of obscure speech and strange language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.^y ⁷But the people of Israel are not willing to listen to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for all the Israelites are hardened and obstinate.^z ⁸But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are.^a ⁹I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious people.^b"

¹⁰And he said to me, "Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. ¹¹Go now to your people in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says,' whether they listen or fail to listen.^c"

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up,^d and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound as the glory of the LORD rose from the place where it was standing.^b ¹³It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud

Ezekiel's Task as Watchman

¹⁶At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:^h ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchmanⁱ for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. ¹⁸When I say to a wicked person, 'You will surely die,' and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their life, that wicked person will die for^a their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood.^j ¹⁹But if you do warn the wicked person and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sin; but you will have saved yourself.^k

²⁰"Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin. The righteous things that person did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for their blood.^l ²¹But if you do warn the righteous person not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself.^m"

²²The hand of the LORDⁿ was on me there, and he said to me, "Get up and go^o out to the plain,^p and there I will speak to you." ²³So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River,^q and I fell facedown.^r ²⁴Then the Spirit came into me and raised me^s to my feet. He spoke to me and said: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people.^t ²⁶I will make

Siege of Jerusalem Symbolized

Doom for the Mountains of Israel

Idolatry in the Temple

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the eldersⁱ of Judah were sitting before^j me, the hand of the Sovereign LORD came on me there.^k ²I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man.^l From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal.¹ ³He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up^m between earth and heaven and in visions of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes to jealousyⁿ stood.
⁴And there before me was the glory^o of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain.^p

⁵Then he said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I looked,
and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol^q of jealousy.

⁶And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing — the utterly detestable^r things the Israelites are doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary?

⁷Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall. ⁸He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.”
So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there.

⁹And he said to me, “Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here.” ¹⁰So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and unclean animals and all the idols of Israel.⁵ ¹¹In front of them stood seventy elders of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing among them. Each had a censer^t in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense^u was rising.

¹²He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? They say, ‘The LORD does not see^v us; the LORD has forsaken the land.’” ¹³Again, he said, “You will see them doing things that are even more detestable.”

¹⁴Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning the god Tammuz.
¹⁵He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this.”

¹⁶He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar,^w were about twenty-five men.
With their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east.^x

¹⁷He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the people of Judah to do the detestable things they are doing here?
Must they also fill the land with violence^y and continually arouse my Judgment on the Idolaters

9 Then I heard him call out in a loud voice, “Bring near those who are appointed to execute judgment on the city, each with a weapon in his hand.” ²And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man clothed in linen^c who had a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Now the glory^d of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim,^e where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side ⁴and said to him, “Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark^f on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament^g over all the detestable things that are done in it.”^h

⁵As I listened, he said to the others, “Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pityⁱ or compassion. ⁶Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, the mothers and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary.” So they began with the old men^j who were in front of the temple.^k

⁷Then he said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!” So they went out and began killing throughout the city. ⁸While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell facedown,^l crying out, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel in this outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?”^m

⁹He answered me, “The sin of the people of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice.ⁿ They say, ‘The LORD has forsaken the land; the LORD does not see.’^o ¹⁰So I will not look on them with pity^p or spare them, but I will bring down on their own heads what they have done.”^q

God’s Glory Departs From the Temple

10 I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne^r of lapis lazuli^s above the vault^t that was over the heads of the cherubim. ²The LORD said to the man clothed in linen,^u “Go in among the wheels^v beneath the cherubim. Fill^w your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city.” And as I watched, he went in.

³Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Then the glory of the LORD^x rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the LORD. ⁵The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice^y of God Almighty^a when he speaks.

⁶When the LORD commanded the man in linen, “Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim,” the man went in and stood beside a wheel. ⁷Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire that was among them. He took up some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out. ⁸(Under the wings of the cherubim could be seen what looked like human hands.)^z ⁹I looked, and I saw beside the cherubim four wheels, one beside each of the cherubim; the wheels sparkled like topaz.^a ¹⁰As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike; each was like a wheel intersecting a wheel. ¹¹As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced; the wheels did not turn about^b as the cherubim went. The cherubim went in whatever direction the head faced,

^a 5 Hebrew El-Shaddai ^b 11 Or aside

without turning as they went.¹² Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands and their wings, were completely full of eyes,^b as were their four wheels.^c ¹³I heard the wheels being called “the whirling wheels.” ¹⁴Each of the cherubim^d had four faces:^e One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a human being, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.^f

¹⁵Then the cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures^g I had seen by the Kebar River. ¹⁶When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side. ¹⁷When the cherubim stood still, they also stood still; and when the cherubim rose, they rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.^h

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim.ⁱ ¹⁹While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, and as they went, the wheels went with them.^j They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD’s house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River,^k and I realized that they were cherubim.^l ²¹Each had four faces^l and four wings,^m and under their wings was what looked like human hands. ²²Their faces had the same appearance as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

God’s Sure Judgment on Jerusalem

11 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. There at the entrance of the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.ⁿ ²The LORD said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who are plotting evil and giving wicked

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and he told me to say: “This is what the LORD says: That is what you are saying, you leaders in Israel, but I know what is going through your mind.^r ⁶You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.^s

⁷“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The bodies you have thrown there are the meat and this city is the pot, but I will drive you out of it.^t ⁸You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Sovereign LORD.^u ⁹I will drive you out of the city and deliver you into the hands^v of foreigners and inflict punishment on you.^w ¹⁰You will fall by the sword, and I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel.^x Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This city will not be a pot^y for you, nor will you be the meat in it; I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. ¹²And you will know that I am the LORD, for you have not followed my decrees^z or kept my laws but have conformed to the standards of the nations around you.^a”

¹³Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah^b son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, “Alas, Sovereign LORD! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?^c”

The Promise of Israel’s Return

¹⁴The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁵“Son of man, the people of Jerusalem have said of your fellow exiles and all the other Israelites, ‘They are far away from the LORD; this land was given to us as our possession.’^d

¹⁶“Therefore say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary^e for them in the countries where they have gone.’

22Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.^o 23The glory^p of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain^q east of it. 24The Spirit^r lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia^a in the vision^s given by the Spirit of God.

7So I did as I was commanded.^a During the day I brought out my things packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulders while they watched.

8In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: 9“Son of man, did not the Israelites, that rebellious people, ask you, ‘What are you doing?’^b

Then they will know that I am the LORD.^k”

17The word of the LORD came to me: 18“Son of man, tremble as you eat your food,^l and shudder in fear as you drink your water. 19Say to the people of the land: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will eat their food in anxiety

There Will Be No Delay

²¹“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments — sword and famine and wild beasts and plague — to kill its men and their animals!^u ²²Yet there will be some survivors — sons and daughters who will be brought out of it.^v They will come to you, and when you see their conduct^w and their actions, you will be consoled regarding the disaster I have brought on Jerusalem — every disaster I have brought on it. ²³You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign LORD.^x”

Jerusalem as a Useless Vine

15 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, how is the wood of a vine^y different from that of a branch from any of the trees in the forest? ³Is wood ever taken from it to make anything useful? Do they make pegs from it to hang things on? ⁴And after it is thrown on the fire as fuel and the fire burns both ends and chars the middle, is it then useful for anything?^z ⁵If it was not useful for anything when it was whole, how much less can it be made into something useful when the fire has burned it and it is charred?

⁶“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As I have given the

Jerusalem as an Adulterous Wife

16 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable practices^e ³and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your ancestry^f and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.^g ⁴On the day you were born^h your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to make you clean, nor were you rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵No one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for on the day you were born you were despised.

⁶“Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, ‘Live!’^{ai} ⁷I made you growⁱ like a plant of the field. You grew and developed and entered puberty. Your breasts had formed and your hair had grown, yet you were stark naked.^k

⁸“Later I passed by, and when I looked at you and saw that you were old enough for love, I spread the corner of my garment^l over you and covered your naked body. I gave you my solemn oath and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.^m

covered you with costly garments.⁴ ¹¹I adorned you with jewelry:^r I put bracelets^s on your arms and a necklace^t around your neck,¹² and I put a ring on your nose,^u earrings on your ears and a beautiful crown^v on your head. ¹³So you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes were of fine linen and costly fabric and embroidered cloth. Your food was honey, olive oil^w and the finest flour. You became very beautiful and rose to be a queen.^x ¹⁴And your fame^y spread among the nations on account of your beauty,^z because the splendor I had given you made your beauty perfect, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵“But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You lavished your favors on anyone who passed by^a and your beauty became his.^b ¹⁶You took some of your garments to make gaudy high places, where you carried on your prostitution.^c You went to him, and he possessed your beauty.^a ¹⁷You also took the fine jewelry I gave you, the jewelry made of my gold and silver, and you made for yourself male idols and engaged in prostitution with them.^d ¹⁸And you took your embroidered clothes to put on them, and you offered my oil and incense before them. ¹⁹Also the food I provided for you — the flour, olive oil and honey I gave you to eat — you offered as fragrant incense before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign LORD.^e ²⁰“And you took your sons and daughters^f whom you bore to me^g and sacrificed them as food to the idols. Was your prostitution not enough?^h ²¹You slaughtered my children and sacrificed them to the idols.ⁱ ²²In all your detestable practices and your prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth,^j when you were naked and bare, kicking about in your blood.^k

³²“You adulterous wife! You prefer strangers to your own husband! ³³All prostitutes receive gifts, but you give gifts^w to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favors.^x ³⁴So in your prostitution you are the opposite of others; no one runs after you for your favors. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you.

³⁵“Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! ³⁶This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you poured out your lust and exposed your naked body in your promiscuity with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood,^y ³⁷therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. and will strip you in front of them, and they will see you stark naked.^z ³⁸I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and who shed blood;^a I will bring on you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealous anger.^b ³⁹Then I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your lofty shrines. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry and leave you stark naked.^c ⁴⁰They will bring a mob against you, who will stone^d you and hack you to pieces with their swords. ⁴¹They will burn down^e your houses and inflict punishment on you in the sight of many women.^f I will put a stop^g to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers. ⁴²Then my wrath against you will subside and my jealous anger will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry.^h ⁴³“Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring downⁱ on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign LORD. Did you not add lewdness to all your other detestable practices?^k ⁴⁴“Everyone who quotes proverbs will quote this proverb about you: “Like mother, like daughter.” ⁴⁵You are a true daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and her children; and you are a true sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.^l ⁴⁶Your older sister was Samaria, who lived to the north of you with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you with her daughters, was Sodom.^m ⁴⁷You not only followed their ways and copied their detestable practices, but in all your ways you soon became more depraved than they.ⁿ ⁴⁸As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.^o

Two Eagles and a Vine

17 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set forth an allegory and tell it to the Israelites as a parable. ³Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: A great eagle^h with powerful wings, long feathers and full plumage of varied colors came to Lebanon. ¹Taking hold of the top of a cedar, ⁴he broke off its topmost shoot and carried it away to a land of merchants, where he planted it in a city of traders.

⁵“‘He took one of the seedlings of the land and put it in fertile soil. He planted it like a willow by abundant water, ⁶and it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and put out leafy boughs.

⁷“‘But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. The vine now sent out its roots toward him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water. ^k ⁸It had been planted in good soil by abundant water so that it would produce branches, bear fruit and become a splendid vine.’

⁹“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots. ¹⁰It has been planted, ¹ but will it thrive? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it — wither away in the plot where it grew?’”

¹¹Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹²“Say to this rebellious people, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’” Say to them: ‘The

A Lament Over Israel's Princes

19 “Take up a lament^q concerning the princes^r of Israel ²and say:

“‘What a lioness was your mother among the lions!

She lay down among them and reared her cubs.

³She brought up one of her cubs, and he became a strong lion.

He learned to tear the prey and he became a man-eater.

⁴The nations heard about him, and he was trapped in their pit.

They led him with hooks to the land of Egypt.^s

⁵“‘When she saw her hope unfulfilled,

her expectation gone, she took another of her cubs

and made him a strong lion.^t

⁶He prowled among the lions, for he was now a strong lion.

He learned to tear the prey and he became a man-eater.^u

⁷He broke down^a their strongholds and devastated^v their towns.

The land and all who were in it were terrified by his roaring.

⁸Then the nations^w came against him,

those from regions round about.

They spread their net for him, and he was trapped in their pit.^x

⁹With hooks they pulled him into a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon.^y

They put him in prison, so his roar was heard no longer

on the mountains of Israel.^z

¹⁰“‘Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard^b planted by the water; it was fruitful and full of branches because of abundant water.^a ¹¹Its branches were strong, fit for a ruler's scepter.

^a 7 Targum (see Septuagint); Hebrew He knew

^b 10 Two Hebrew manuscripts; most Hebrew manuscripts your blood

It towered high above the thick foliage, conspicuous for its height and for its many branches.^b

¹²But it was uprooted^c in fury and thrown to the ground.
The east wind made it shrivel,
it was stripped of its fruit;
its strong branches withered and fire consumed them.^d

¹³Now it is planted in the desert,^e in a dry and thirsty land.^f

¹⁴Fire spread from one of its main^a branches
and consumed^g its fruit.
No strong branch is left on it fit for a ruler's scepter.^h a lament."

Rebellious Israel Purged

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and they sat down in front of me.ⁱ

²Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³"Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Have you come to inquire^j of me? As surely as I live, I will not let you inquire of me, declares the Sovereign LORD.'^k

⁴"Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Then confront them with the detestable practices of their ancestors!^l ⁵and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose^m Israel,
I swore with uplifted hand to the descendants of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt. With uplifted hand I said to them, "I am the LORD your God."ⁿ ⁶On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey,^o the most beautiful of all lands.^p ⁷And I said to them, "Each of you, get rid of the vile images^q you have set your eyes on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."^r

⁸"But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not get rid of the vile images they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt.^s So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in Egypt.^t ⁹But for the sake of my name, I brought them out of Egypt.^u I did it to keep my name from being profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they lived and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites. ¹⁰Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.^v ¹¹I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, by which the person who obeys them will live.^w ¹²Also I gave them

my Sabbaths as a sign^x between us, so they would know that I the LORD made them holy.

¹³"Yet the people of Israel rebelled^y against me in the wilderness.
They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws — by which the person who obeys them will live — and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths.
So I said I would pour out my wrath^z on them and destroy them in the wilderness.^a ¹⁴But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.^b ¹⁵Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land
I had given them — a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands^c — ¹⁶because they rejected my laws and did not follow
my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts^d were devoted to their idols.^e ¹⁷Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or put an end to them in the wilderness. ¹⁸I said to their children in the wilderness, "Do not follow the statutes of your parents^f or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am the LORD your God;^g follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.^h ²⁰Keep my Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.ⁱ"

^a 14 Or from under its

21“‘But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws, of which I said, “The person who obeys them will live by them,” and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in the wilderness. 22But I withheld^j my hand, and for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. 23Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter^k them through the countries, 24because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths,^l and their eyes lusted after^m their parents’ idols.ⁿ 25So I gave^o them other statutes that were not good and laws through which they could not live;^p 26I defiled them through their gifts — the sacrifice of every firstborn — that I might fill them with horror so they would know that I am the LORD.^q”

27“‘Therefore, son of man, speak to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In this also your ancestors blasphemed^r me by being unfaithful to me;^s 28When I brought them into the land^t I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, made offerings that aroused my anger, presented their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings.^u 29Then I said to them: What is this high place you go to?’” (It is called Bamah^a to this day.)

Rebellious Israel Renewed

30“‘Therefore say to the Israelites: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves^v the way your ancestors did and lust after their vile images?^w 31When you offer your gifts — the sacrifice of your children^x in the fire — you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Prophecy Against the South

⁴⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ⁴⁶“Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against^t the forest of the southland.^u ⁴⁷Say to the southern forest: ‘Hear the word of the LORD. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it.^v ⁴⁸Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it; it will not be quenched.^w”

⁶“Therefore groan, son of man! Groan before them with broken heart and bitter grief.^e ⁷And when they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ you shall say, ‘Because of the news that is coming. ²³Again the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴"Son of man, say to the land, 'You are a land that has not been cleansed or rained on in the day of wrath.'^l ²⁵There is a conspiracy^m of her princes^b within her like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they devour people,ⁿ take treasures and precious things and make many widows^o within her. ²⁶Her priests do violence to my law^p and profane my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common;^q they teach that there is no difference between the unclean and the clean;^r and they shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.^s ²⁷Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey; they shed blood and kill people to make unjust gain.^t ²⁸Her prophets whitewash^u these deeds for them by false visions and lying divinations. They say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says'—when the LORD has not spoken.^v ²⁹The people of the land practice extortion and commit robbery; they oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the foreigner,^w denying them justice.^x

³⁰"I looked for someone among them who would build up the wall^y and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found no one.^z ³¹So I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down^a on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.^b"

Two Adulterous Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.^c ³They became prostitutes in Egypt,^d engaging in prostitution^e from their youth. In that land their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms caressed. ⁴The older was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

⁵"Oholah engaged in prostitution while she was still mine; and she lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians^f — warriors⁹ clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, and mounted horsemen. ⁷She gave herself as a prostitute to all the elite of the Assyrians and defiled herself with all the idols of everyone she lusted after.^h ⁸She did not give up the prostitution she began in Egypt,ⁱ when during her youth men slept with her, caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust on her.^j

¹⁴"But she carried her prostitution still further. She saw men portrayed on a wall,^r figures of Chaldeans^a portrayed in red,^s ¹⁵with belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian chariot officers, natives of Chaldea.^b ¹⁶As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸When she carried on her prostitution openly and exposed her naked body, I turned away^t from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister.^u ¹⁹Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt. ²⁰There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses. ²¹So you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fondled.^{cv}

²²"Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stir up your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side^w — ²³the Babylonians^x and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod^y and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses.^z ²⁴They will come against you with weapons,^d chariots and wagons^a and with a throng of people; they will take up positions against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. Jerusalem as a Cooking Pot

24 In the ninth year, in the tenth month on the tenth day, the word of the LORD came to me:^k ²“Son of man, record this date, this very date, because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.^l ³Tell this rebellious people^m a parableⁿ and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the wood high.

10^a So heap on the wood and kindle the fire.
Cook the meat well,
mixing in the spices;

Pharaoh as a Felled Cedar of Lebanon

31 In the eleventh year,^y in the third month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:^z ²“Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

“Who can be compared with you in majesty?

³Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon,

overshadowing the forest;
it towered on high,
its top above the thick foliage.^a

⁴The waters nourished it, deep springs made it grow tall;
their streams flowed
all around its base

to all the trees of the field.

⁵So it towered higher than all the trees of the field;
its boughs increased
and its branches grew long,
spreading because of abundant waters.^b

⁶All the birds of the sky
nested in its boughs,
all the animals of the wild

¹⁰“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because the great cedar towered over the thick foliage, and because it was proud^h of its height, ¹¹I gave it into the hands of the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside,ⁱ ¹²and the most ruthless of foreign nations^j cut it down and left it. Its boughs fell on the mountains and in all the valleys;^k its branches lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth came out from under its shade and left it.^l ¹³All the birds settled on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived among its branches.^m ¹⁴Therefore no other trees by the waters are ever to tower proudly on high, lifting their tops above the thick foliage. No other trees so well-watered are ever to reach such a height; they are all destined for death,ⁿ for the earth below, among mortals who go down to the realm of the dead.^o

¹⁸“Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with you in splendor and majesty? Yet you, too, will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised,^u with those killed by the sword.

A Lament Over Pharaoh

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:^v 2“Son of man, take up a lament^w concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

5I will spread your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys^b with your remains.

6I will drench the land with your flowing blood^c all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.

7When I snuff you out, I will cover the heavens

I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light.^d

8All the shining lights in the heavens
I will darken over you;
I will bring darkness over your land,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

when I bring about your destruction among the nations,

Jerusalem’s Fall Explained

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month on the fifth day, a man who had escaped^y from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen!” ²²Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD was on me,^a and he opened my mouth^b before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.^c

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴“Son of man, the people living in those ruins^d in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as our possession.’^e ²⁵Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you eat meat with the blood^f still in it and look to your idols and shed blood, should you then possess the land?’^g ²⁶You rely on your sword, you do detestable things, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife.^h Should you then possess the land?’

²⁷“Say this to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those who are left in the ruins will fall by the sword, those out in the country I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of a plague.ⁱ ²⁸I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will become desolate so that no one will cross them. ²⁹Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable things they have done.’

³⁰“As for you, son of man, your

^a 8 Or in; also in verse 9 ^b 10 Or away in people are talking together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to each other, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.' ³¹My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit beforeⁱ you to hear your words, but they do not put them into practice. Their mouths speak of love, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain.^k ³²Indeed, to them you are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.^l

³³"When all this comes true — and it surely will — then they will know that a prophet has been among them."^m

The LORD Will Be Israel's Shepherd

34 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to you shepherds of Israel who only take care of yourselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock?'ⁿ ³You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock.^o ⁴You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally.^p ⁵So they were scattered because there was no shepherd,^q and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals.^r ⁶My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them.^s

⁷"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock,

¹¹"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. ¹²As a shepherd^w looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.^x ¹³I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. says: Because some say to you, "You devour people^c and deprive your nation of its children," ¹⁴therefore you will no longer devour people or make your nation childless, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁵No longer will I make you hear the taunts of the nations, and no longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to fall, declares the Sovereign LORD.^d"

Israel's Restoration Assured

¹⁶Again the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷"Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness in my sight.^e ¹⁸So I poured out^f my wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered^g through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and their actions.^h ²⁰And wherever they went among the nations they profanedⁱ my holy name, for it was said of them, 'These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave his land.'^j ²¹I had concern for my holy name, which the people of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.^k

²²"Therefore say to the Israelites, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, people of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned^l among the nations where you have gone.^m ²³I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I am proved holyⁿ through you before their eyes.^o

²⁴"For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land.^p ²⁵I will sprinkle^q clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse^r you from all your impurities and from all your idols.^s ²⁶I will give you a new heart^t and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.^u ²⁷And I will put my Spirit^v in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. ²⁸Then you will live in the land I gave your ancestors; you will be my people,^w and I will be your God.^x ²⁹I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful and will not bring famine^y upon you. ³⁰I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famine.^z ³¹Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices.^a ³²I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Sovereign LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced for your conduct, people of Israel!^b

³³“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it. ³⁵They will say, “This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden;^c the cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.” ³⁶Then the nations around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.^e

by the Spirit^h of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley;ⁱ it was full of bones.^j ²He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. ³He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

I said, “Sovereign LORD, you alone know.^k”

⁴Then he said to me, “Prophecy to these bones and say to them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!’ ⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath^a enter you, and you will come to life.^m ⁶I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. ⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then he said to me, “Prophecy to the breath;^o prophesy, son of man, and say to it, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come, breath, from the four winds and breathe into these slain, that they may live.’” ¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet — a vast army.^p

¹⁸“When your people ask you, ‘Won’t you tell us what you mean by this?’^x ¹⁹say to them, “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph — which is in Ephraim’s hand — and of the Israelite tribes associated with him, and join it to Judah’s stick. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land.^z ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. The LORD’s Great Victory Over the Nations

38 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog,^p the chief prince of^b Meshek and Tubal;^q prophesy against him ³and say: “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Gog, chief prince of^c Meshek and Tubal.^r ⁴I will turn you around, put hooks^s in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army — your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords.^t ⁵Persia, Cush^u and Put^v will be with them, all with shields and helmets, ⁶also Gomer^w with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah^x from the far north with all its troops — the many nations with you.

⁷“Get ready; be prepared,^y you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them. ⁸After many days^z you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations^a to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety.^b ⁹You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm;^c you will be like a cloud^d covering the land.

¹⁰“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil scheme.^e ¹¹You will say,

^a 23 Many Hebrew manuscripts (see also Septuagint); most Hebrew manuscripts all their dwelling places where they sinned ^b 2 Or the prince of Rosh, ^c 3 Or Gog, prince of Rosh, ^d 5 That is, the upper Nile region

"I will invade a land of unwallled villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people — all of them living without walls and without gates and bars.^f ¹²I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the center of the land.^g" ¹³Sheba⁹ and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages^b will say to you, "Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?"^h"

¹⁴"Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In that day, when my people Israel are living in safety,ⁱ will you not take notice of it? ¹⁵You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army.^j ¹⁶You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud^k that covers the land. In days to come, Gog, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me when I am proved holy through you before their eyes.^l ¹⁷"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You are the one I spoke of in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel. At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them. ¹⁸This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my hot anger will be aroused, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁹In my zeal and fiery wrath I declare that at that time there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.^m ²⁰The fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all the people on the face of the earth will tremble at my presence. The Temple Area Restored

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city^t — on that very day the hand of the LORD was on me^u and he took me there. ²In visions^v of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain,^w on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city. ³He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze;^x he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod^y in his hand. ⁴The man said to me, “Son of man, look carefully and listen closely and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell^z the people of Israel everything you see.^a”

The East Gate to the Outer Court

⁵I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the

^a 11 Hamon Gog means hordes of Gog.

^b 16 Hamonah means horde. ^c 25 Or now bring Jacob back from captivity measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits,^a each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured^b the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

⁶Then he went to the east gate.^c He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep. ⁷The alcoves^d for the guards were one rod long and one rod wide, and the projecting walls between the alcoves were five cubits^b thick. And the threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.

⁸Then he measured the portico of the gateway; ⁹it^c was eight cubits^d deep and its jambs were two cubits^e thick. The portico of the gateway faced the temple.

¹⁰Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side; the three had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements. ¹¹Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gateway; it was ten cubits and its length was thirteen cubits.^f ¹²In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit high, and the alcoves were six cubits square. ¹³Then he measured the gateway from the top of the rear wall of one alcove to the top of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits^g from one parapet opening to the opposite one. ¹⁴He measured along the faces of the projecting walls all around the inside of the gateway — sixty cubits.^h The measurement was up to the porticoⁱ facing the courtyard.^{je} ¹⁵The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits.^k ¹⁶The alcoves and the projecting walls inside the gateway were surmounted by narrow parapet openings all around, as was the portico; the openings all around faced inward. The faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.^f

The Outer Court

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court.⁹ There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all around the court; there were thirty rooms^h along the pavement.ⁱ ¹⁸It abutted the sides of the gateways and was as wide as they were long; this was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court;^j it was a hundred cubits^{lk} on the east side as well as on the north.

The North Gate

²⁰Then he measured the length and width of the north gate, leading into the outer court. ²¹Its alcoves^l — three on each side — its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ²²Its openings, its portico^m and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them. ²³There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.ⁿ

The South Gate

²⁴Then he led me to the south side and I saw the south gate. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as

The Gates to the Inner Court

²⁸Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements^r as the others. ²⁹Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.

The Rooms for the Priests

⁴⁴Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms, one^e at the side of the north gate and facing south, and another at the side of the south^f gate and facing north. ⁴⁵He said to me, “The room facing south is for the priests who guard the temple,^d ⁴⁶and the room facing north^e is for the priests who guard the altar.^f These are the sons of Zadok,^g who are the only Levites who may draw near to the LORD to minister before him.^h”

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was six cubits thick, and each side room around the temple was four cubits^o wide. ⁶The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty^p on each level. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports were not inserted into the wall of the temple.^q ⁷The side rooms all around the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple was built in ascending stages, so that the rooms widened as one went upward. A stairway^r went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle floor.

⁸I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the length of the rod, six long cubits. ⁹The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple ¹⁰and the priests’ rooms was twenty cubits wide all around the temple.

DANIEL

Daniel's Training in Babylon

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar^a king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.^b 2 And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the temple of God. These he carried off to the temple of his god in Babylonia^c and put in the treasure house of his god.^c

3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring into the king's service some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility^d — 4 young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians.^b 5 The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine^e from the king's table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king's service.^f

6 Among those who were chosen were some from Judah: Daniel,^g Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. 7 The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar;^h to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.ⁱ

8 But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way. 9 Now God had caused the official to show favor^k and compassion^l to Daniel, 10 but the official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your^c food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men your age? The king would then have my head because of you."

11 Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see." 14 So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food.^m 16 So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.ⁿ

17 To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding^o of all kinds of literature and learning.^p And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.^q

18 At the end of the time^r set by the king to bring them into his service, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. 19 The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's service.^s 20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.^t

21 And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.^u

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams;^v his mind was troubled^w and he could not sleep.^x ²So the king summoned the magicians,^y enchanters, sorcerers^z and astrologers^{aa} to tell him what he had dreamed.^b When they came in and stood before the king, ³he said to them, “I have had a dream that troubles^c me and I want to know what it means.^b”

⁴Then the astrologers answered the king,^{cd} “May the king live forever!^e Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

⁵The king replied to the astrologers, “This is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces^f and your houses turned into piles of rubble.^g ⁶But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor.^h ⁷So tell me the dream and interpret it for me.”

⁷Once more they replied, “Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

⁸Then the king answered, “I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realize that this is what I have firmly decided: ⁹If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one penaltyⁱ for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me.”^j

¹⁰The astrologers answered the king, “There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer.^k ¹¹What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods,^l and they do not live among humans.”

¹²This made the king so angry and furious^m that he ordered the executionⁿ of all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.^o

¹⁴When Arioch, the commander of the king’s guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon,

Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact. ¹⁵He asked the king’s officer, “Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?” Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel. ¹⁶At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

¹⁷Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.^p ¹⁸He urged them to plead for mercy^q from the God of heaven concerning this mystery,^r so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹During the night the mystery^s was revealed to Daniel in a vision.^t Then Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰and said:

“Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever;^u

Daniel Interprets the Dream

²⁴Then Daniel went to Arioch,^e whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him.”

^b 3 Or was ^c 4 At this point the Hebrew text has in Aramaic, indicating that the text from here through the end of chapter 7 is in Aramaic.

²⁵Arioach took Daniel to the king at once and said, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah^f who can tell the king what his dream means.”

²⁶The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar),^g “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?”

²⁷Daniel replied, “No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about,^h ²⁸but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries.ⁱ He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come.^j Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind^k as you were lying in bed are these:

²⁹“As Your Majesty was lying there, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen. ³⁰As for me, this mystery has been revealed^l to me, not because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive, but so that Your Majesty may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind.

³¹“Your Majesty looked, and there before you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue,^m awesome in appearance. ³²The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, ³³its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay. ³⁴While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands.ⁿ It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them.^o ³⁵Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were all broken to pieces and became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summer. The wind swept them away^p without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain^q and filled the whole earth.

³⁶“This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king. ³⁷Your Majesty, you are the king of kings.^r The God of heaven has given you dominion^s and power and might and glory; ³⁸in your hands he has placed all mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds in the sky. Whenever they live, he has made you ruler over them all.^t You are that head of gold.

³⁹“After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth. ⁴⁰Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others.^u ⁴¹Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. ⁴²As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.

⁴⁴“In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush^v all those kingdoms^w and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever.^x ⁴⁵This is the meaning of the vision of the rock^y cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands^z—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces.

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate^a before Daniel and paid him honor and ordered that an offering^b and incense be presented to him. ⁴⁷The king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods^c and the Lord of kings^d and a revealer of mysteries,^e for you were able to reveal this mystery.”

⁴⁸Then the king placed Daniel in a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and

The Image of Gold and the Blazing Furnace

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image^h of gold, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide,^a and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ²He then summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officialsⁱ to come to the dedication of the image he had set up. ³So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

⁴Then the herald loudly proclaimed, "Nations and peoples of every language,^j this is what you are commanded to do: ⁵As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.^k ⁶Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."^l

⁷Therefore, as soon as they heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and all kinds of music, all the nations and peoples of every language fell down and worshiped the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.^m

⁸At this time some astrologersⁿ ^b came forward and denounced the Jews. ⁹They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "May the king live forever!^o ¹⁰Your Majesty has issued a decree^p that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the image of gold,^q ¹¹and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a blazing

¹³Furious^u with rage, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, ¹⁴and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods^v or worship the image^w of gold I have set up? ¹⁵Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image I made, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god^x will be able to rescue^y you from my hand?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego^z replied to him, "King Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. ¹⁷If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver^a us from it, and he will deliver^b us^c from Your Majesty's hand. ¹⁸But even if he does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."^c

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude toward them changed. He ordered the furnace heated seven^d times hotter than usual ²⁰and commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace. ²¹So these men, wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace. ²²The king's command was so urgent and the ²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Weren't there three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?"

They replied, "Certainly, Your Majesty."

²⁵He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."

²⁶Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God,^f come out! Come here!"

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, ²⁷and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers^g crowded around them.^h They saw that the fireⁱ had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.

²⁸Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel^j and rescued his servants! They trusted^k in him and defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.^l ²⁹Therefore I decree^m that the people of any nation or language who say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be cut into pieces and their houses be turned into piles of rubble,ⁿ for no other god can save^o in this way."

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the province of Babylon.^p ⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, contented^w and prosperous. ⁵I had a dream^x that made me afraid. As I was lying in bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind^y terrified me. ⁶So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret^z the dream for me. ⁷When the magicians,^a enchanters, astrologers^b and diviners^b came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me.^c ⁸Finally, Daniel came into my presence and I told him the dream. (He is called Belteshazzar,^d after the name of my god, and the spirit of the holy gods^e is in him.)

⁹I said, "Belteshazzar, chief^f of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods^g is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you. Here is my dream; interpret it for me. ¹⁰These are the visions I saw while lying in bed:^h I looked, and there before me stood a tree in the middle of the land. Its height was enormous.ⁱ ¹¹The tree grew large and strong and its top touched the sky; it was visible to the ends of the earth. ¹²Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Under it the wild animals found shelter, and the birds lived in its branches;^j from it every creature was fed.

Daniel Interprets the Dream

¹⁹Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified^u him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries! ²⁰The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth, ²¹with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing

The Writing on the Wall

5 King Belshazzar gave a great banquet^r for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine with them. ²While Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver goblets^s that Nebuchadnezzar his father^a had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them.^t ³So they brought in the gold goblets that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them. ⁴As they drank the wine, they praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.^u

⁵Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote. ⁶His face turned pale and he was so frightened^v that his legs became weak^w and his knees were knocking.

⁷The king summoned the enchanters, astrologers^b and diviners.^x Then he said to these wise^y men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck,^z and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."^a ⁸Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant.^b ⁹So King Belshazzar became even more terrified^c and his face grew more pale. His nobles were baffled.

¹⁰The queen,^c hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall. "May the king live forever!"^d she said. "Don't be alarmed! Don't look so pale! ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom who has ¹³So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?” ¹⁴I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, intelligence and outstanding wisdom. ¹⁵The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not explain it. ¹⁶Now I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

¹⁷Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else.^k Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.

¹⁸“Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor.^l ¹⁹Because of the high position he gave him, all the nations and peoples of every language dreaded and feared him. Daniel in the Den of Lions

6^a It pleased Darius^f to appoint 120 satraps^g to rule throughout the kingdom, ²with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel.^h The satraps were made accountableⁱ to them so that the king might not suffer loss. ³Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.^j ⁴At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent. ⁵Finally these men said, “We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God.”^k

⁶So these administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and said: “May King Darius live forever!”^l ⁷The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors^m have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or human being during the next thirty days, except to you, Your Majesty, shall be thrown into the lions’ den.ⁿ ⁸Now, Your Majesty, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”^o ⁹So King Darius put the decree in writing.

¹⁰Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward^p Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees^q and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had done before.^r ¹¹Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help. ¹²So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: “Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or human being except to you,

Your Majesty, would be thrown into the lions’ den?”

The king answered, “The decree stands — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”^s

¹³Then they said to the king, “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah,^t pays no attention^u to you, Your Majesty, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day.” ¹⁴When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed;^v he was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.

¹⁵Then the men went as a group to King Darius and said to him, “Remember, Your Majesty, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed.”^w

¹⁶So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den.^x The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue^y you!”

¹⁷A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed^z it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel’s situation might not be changed. ¹⁸Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating^a and without any entertainment being brought to him. And he could not sleep.^b

¹⁹At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. ²⁰When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?”^c

²¹Daniel answered, “May the king live forever!”^d ²²My God sent his angel,^e and he shut the mouths of the lions.^f They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight.^g Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, Your Majesty.”

²³The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the ²⁴At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den,^j along with their wives and children.^k And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.^l

²⁵Then King Darius wrote to all the nations and peoples of every language in all the earth:

"May you prosper greatly!^m

²⁶"I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel.ⁿ

Daniel's Dream of Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar's king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind^t as he was lying in bed. He wrote^u down the substance of his dream.

²Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven^v churning up the great sea. ³Four great beasts,^w each different from the others, came up out of the sea.

⁴"The first was like a lion,^x and it had the wings of an eagle.^y I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a human being, and the mind of a human was given to it.

¹³“In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man,^a coming with the clouds of heaven.ⁿ He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. ¹⁴He was given authority,^o glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped him.^p His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.^q

The Interpretation of the Dream

¹⁵“I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me.^r ¹⁶I approached one of those standing there and asked him the meaning of all this.

“So he told me and gave me the interpretation^s of these things: ¹⁷“The four great beasts are four kings that will rise from the earth. ¹⁸But the holy people of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever — yes, for ever and ever.”^t

¹⁹“Then I wanted to know the meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws — the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. ²⁰I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell — the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully. ²¹As I watched, this horn was waging war against the holy people and defeating them,^u ²²until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the holy people of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.

²³“He gave me this explanation: ‘The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crush-

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me. ²In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa^d in the province of Elam;^e in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal. ³I looked up,^f and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later. ⁴I watched the ram as it charged toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased^g and became great.

⁵As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground. ⁶It came toward the two-horned ram I had

^a 13 The Aramaic phrase bar enash means human being. The phrase son of man is retained here because of its use in the New Testament as a title of Jesus, probably based largely on this verse. ^b 25 Or for a year, two years and half a year seen standing beside the canal and charged at it in great rage. ⁷I saw it attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; the goat knocked it to the ground and trampled on it,^h and none could rescue the ram from its power. ⁸The goat became very great, but at the height of its power the large horn was broken off,ⁱ and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.^j

⁹Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land.^k ¹⁰It grew until it reached^l the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth^m and trampledⁿ on them. ¹¹It set itself up to be as great as the commander of the army of the LORD;^o it took away the daily sacrifice^p from the LORD, and his sanctuary was thrown down.^q ¹²Because of rebellion, the LORD's people^a and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground.

¹³Then I heard a holy one^r speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled^s—the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, the surrender of the sanctuary and the trampling underfoot^t of the LORD's people?"

¹⁴He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."^u

The Interpretation of the Vision

¹⁵While I, Daniel, was watching the vision^v and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man.^w ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel,^x tell this man the meaning of the vision."

¹⁷As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell prostrate.^y "Son of man,"^b he said to me, "understand that the vision concerns the time of the end."^z

²³"In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a fierce-looking king, a master of intrigue, will arise. ²⁴He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy those who are mighty, the holy people.^f ²⁵He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. ²⁶"The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given you is true,ⁱ but seal^j up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."^k

²⁷I, Daniel, was worn out. I lay exhausted for several days. Then I got up and went about the king's business.^l I was appalled^m by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

²⁵“Know and understand this: From the time the word goes out to restore and rebuild^z Jerusalem until the Anointed One,^{da} the ruler, comes, there will be seven ‘sevens,’ and sixty-two ‘sevens.’ It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble. ²⁶After the sixty-two ‘sevens,’ the Anointed One will be put to death^b and will have nothing.^e The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood:^c War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed. ²⁷He will confirm a covenant with many for one ‘seven.’^f In the middle of the ‘seven’^f he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. the outcome will be different from what it was before. ³⁰Ships of the western coastlands^p will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant.

³¹“His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.^q ³²With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist^r him.

³³“Those who are wise will instruct^s many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.^t ³⁴When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere^u will join them. ³⁵Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined,^v purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

The King Who Exalts Himself

³⁶“The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things^w against the God of gods.^x He will be successful until the time of wrath^y is completed, for what has been determined must take place. ³⁷He will show no regard for the gods of his ancestors or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all. ³⁸Instead of them, he will honor a god of fortresses; a god unknown to his ancestors he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. ³⁹He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.^b

⁴⁰“At the time of the end the king of the South^z will engage him in battle, and the king of the North will storm^a out against him with chariots

HOSEA

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah,^a and during the reign of Jeroboam^b son of Jehoash^c king of Israel:^c

Hosea's Wife and Children

²When the LORD began to speak through Hosea, the LORD said to him, "Go, marry a promiscuous^d woman and have children with her, for like an adulterous wife this land is guilty of unfaithfulness^e to the LORD." ³So he married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call him Jezreel,^f because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. ⁵In that day I will break Israel's bow in the Valley of Jezreel.^g"

⁶Gomer^h conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call her Lo-Ruhamah (which means "not loved"), for I will no longer show love to Israel,ⁱ that I should at all forgive them. ⁷Yet I will show love to Judah; and I will save them — not by bow,^j sword or battle, or by horses and horsemen, but I, the LORD their God,^k will save them."

⁸After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, Gomer had another son. ⁹Then the LORD said, "Call him Lo-Ammi (which means "not my people"), for you are not my people, and I am not your God.^b

¹⁰"Yet the Israelites will be like the sand on the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted.^l In the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'children of the living God.'^m ¹¹The people of Judah and the people of

The Charge Against Israel

“There is no faithfulness, no love, no acknowledgment^p of God in the land.

²There is only cursing,^c lying^q and murder,^r stealings^s and adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

³Because of this the land dries up,^t and all who live in it waste away;^u the beasts of the field, the birds in the sky and the fish in the sea are swept away.^v wail because of the new wine, for it has been snatched from your lips.

⁶A nation has invaded my land, a mighty army without number;ⁱ
it has the teeth^j of a lion,
the fangs of a lioness.

⁷It has laid waste^k my vines and ruined my fig trees.^l
It has stripped off their bark and thrown it away,
leaving their branches white.

⁸Mourn like a virgin in sackcloth^m

Judgment on Israel

Witnesses Summoned Against Israel

city,
do not the people tremble?
When disaster comes to a city,
has not the LORD caused it?ⁱ

A Lament and Call to Repentance

ment^y I take up concerning you:

never to rise again,
deserted in her own land,
with no one to lift her up.^a"

3 This is what the Sovereign LORD
says to Israel:

"Your city that marches out a your town that marches out a hundred strong will have only ten left.^b"

4 This is what the LORD says to Israel:

"Seek me and live;^c

do not go to Gilgal,^d
do not journey to Beersheba.^e
For Gilgal will surely go into exile,

There are those who oppress the innocent and take bribes and deprive the poor of justice in the courts.^v

¹³Therefore the prudent keep quiet

for the times are evil.

¹⁴Seek good, not evil,
that you may live.
Then the LORD God Almighty will

¹The vision of Obadiah.

This is what the Sovereign LORD
says about Edom^a —

We have heard a message from
the LORD:

An envoy^b was sent to the nations to say, “Rise, let us go against her for battle”^c —

²“See, I will make you small among
the nations;
you will be utterly despised.

³The pride^d of your heart has deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks^a

and make your home on the heights,

you who say to yourself,
“Who can bring me down to the ground?”^e

⁴Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest^f among the stars,
from there I will bring you down,”^g

declares the LORD.^h

⁵“If thieves came to you, if robbers in the night —
oh, what a disaster awaits
you! —

would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes?ⁱ

JONAH

Jonah Flees From the LORD

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah^a son of Amittai:^b 2 “Go to the great city of Nineveh^c and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me.”

3 But Jonah ran^d away from the LORD and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa,^e where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the LORD.

4 Then the LORD sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up.^f 5 All the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship.^g

But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep. 6 The captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up and call^h on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us so that we will not perish.”ⁱ

7 Then the sailors said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity.”^j They cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah. 8 So they asked him, “Tell us, who is responsible for making all this trouble for us? What kind of work do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?”

9 He answered, “I am a Hebrew and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven,^k who made the sea and the dry land.”^l

10 This terrified them and they asked, “What have you done?” (They knew he was running away from the LORD, because he had already told them so.)

11 The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

12 “Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he replied, “and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you.”^m

13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before.ⁿ 14 Then they cried out to the LORD, “Please, LORD, do not let us die for taking this man’s life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man,^o for you, LORD, have done as you pleased.”^p 15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm.^q 16 At this the men greatly feared^r the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows to him.

Jonah’s Prayer

17 Now the LORD provided a huge fish to swallow Jonah,^s and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days 2^a and three nights. 1 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God. 2 He said:

“In my distress I called to the LORD,^t and he answered me.

From deep in the realm of the dead I called for help, and you listened to my cry.

3 You hurled me into the depths,^u into the very heart of the seas, and the currents swirled about me;

all your waves and breakers swept over me.^v

¹⁰And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry
land.

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

3 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah^f a second time: ²“Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you.”

³Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Ninevah was a very large city; it took three days to go through it. ⁴Jonah began by going a day’s journey into the city, proclaiming, “Forty more days and Nineveh will be overthrown.” ⁵The Ninevites believed God. A fast was proclaimed, and all of them, from the greatest to the least,
put on sackcloth.^g

⁶When Jonah’s warning reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust.^h ⁷This is the proclamation he issued in Nineveh:

⁸But let people and animals be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call^j urgently on God.
Let them give up their evil ways and their violence. ⁹Who knows?^k God may yet relent and with compassion turn^l from his fierce anger so that we will not perish.”

¹⁰When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he relented^m and did not bring on them the destructionⁿ he had threatened.^o

Jonah’s Anger at the LORD’s Compassion

4 But to Jonah this seemed very wrong, and he became angry.^p ²He prayed to the LORD, “Isn’t this what I said, LORD, when I was still at home? That is what I tried to forestall by fleeing to Tarshish. I knew^q that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love,^r a God who relents from sending calamity.^s ³Now, LORD, take away my life,^t for it is better for me to die^u than to live.”

⁴But the LORD replied, “Is it right for you to be angry?”^v

⁵Jonah had gone out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city. ⁶Then the LORD God provided a leafy plant^b and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the plant. ⁷But at dawn
the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the plant so that it withered.^w ⁸When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah’s head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die,

MICAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth^a during the reigns of Jotham,^b Ahaz^c and Hezekiah, kings of Judah^d — the vision^e he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, you peoples, all of you,^f

⁵All this is because of Jacob's transgression,
because of the sins of the people of Israel.

What is Jacob's transgression?
Is it not Samaria?ⁿ

What is Judah's high place?
Is it not Jerusalem?

In Beth Ophrah^b
roll in the dust.

¹¹Pass by naked^x and in shame,
you who live in Shaphir.^c

Those who live in Zaanah^d will not come out.

Beth Ezel is in mourning;
it no longer protects you.

¹²Those who live in Maroth^e writhe in pain,

waiting for relief,^y because disaster has come from
the LORD,
even to the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³You who live in Lachish,^z harness fast horses to the chariot.

You are where the sin of Daughter Zion began,
for the transgressions of Israel
were found in you.

¹⁴Therefore you will give parting gifts^a to Moresheth Gath.

The town of Akzib^b will prove deceptive^c
to the kings of Israel.

^a 10 Gath sounds like the Hebrew for tell.

^b 10 Beth Ophrah means house of dust.

^c 11 Shaphir means pleasant. ^d 11 Zaanah sounds like the Hebrew for come out.

^e 12 Maroth sounds like the Hebrew for bitter.

^f 14 Akzib means deception.

¹⁵I will bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah.^{ad}
 The nobles of Israel will flee to Adullam.^e ¹⁶Shave^f your head in mourning for the children in whom you delight;
 make yourself as bald as the vulture,
 for they will go from you into exile.

Human Plans and God's Plans

2 Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil on their beds!^g
 At morning's light they carry it out
 because it is in their power to do it.
²They covet fields^h and seize them,
 and houses, and take them.
 They defraudⁱ people of their homes,
 they rob them of their inheritance.
³Therefore, the LORD says:
 "I am planning disaster^j against this people,
 from which you cannot save yourselves.
 You will no longer walk proudly,^k
 for it will be a time of calamity.
⁴In that day people will ridicule
 you;
 they will taunt you with this mournful song:
 'We are utterly ruined;^l
 my people's possession is divided up.
 He takes it from me!
 He assigns our fields to traitors.'"

⁵Therefore you will have no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land^m by lot.

 like an enemy.
 You strip off the rich robe from those who pass by without a care,
 like men returning from battle.
⁹You drive the women of my people from their pleasant homes.^r
 You take away my blessing from their children forever.
¹⁰Get up, go away!
 For this is not your resting place,^s
 because it is defiled,^t
 it is ruined, beyond all remedy.
¹¹If a liar and deceiver^u comes and says,
 'I will prophesy for you plenty of wine and beer,'
 that would be just the prophet for this people!^v

Deliverance Promised

¹²"I will surely gather all of you,
 Jacob;
 I will surely bring together the remnant^w of Israel.
 I will bring them together like sheep in a pen,
 like a flock in its pasture;
 the place will throng with
 people.
¹³The One who breaks open the way will go up before^x them;
 they will break through the gate and go out.
 Their King will pass through before them,
 the LORD at their head."

Leaders and Prophets Rebuked

 who chop them up like meat for the pan, like flesh for the pot?^c"

⁴ Then they will cry out to the LORD,
 but he will not answer them.^d
 At that time he will hide his face^e from them
 because of the evil they have done.

⁵ This is what the LORD says:
 "As for the prophets who lead my people astray,^f
 they proclaim 'peace'
 if they have something to eat, but prepare to wage war against anyone who refuses to feed them.

⁶ Therefore night will come over you,

 The sun will set for the prophets,^h and the day will go dark for them.

⁷ The seers will be ashamedⁱ and the diviners disgraced.^j
 They will all cover their faces because there is no answer from God."

⁸ But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD,
 and with justice and might,
 to declare to Jacob his transgression, to Israel his sin.^k

 you rulers of Israel,
 who despise justice

kingship will come to Daughter Jerusalem."

⁹Why do you now cry aloud — have you no king^{bl}?
Has your ruler^c perished,
that pain seizes you like that of a woman in labor?^m

¹⁰Writhe in agony, Daughter Zion, like a woman in labor,
for now you must leave the city
to camp in the open field.
You will go to Babylon;ⁿ
there you will be rescued.
There the LORD will redeem^o you out of the hand of your enemies.

¹¹But now many nations
are gathered against you.
They say, "Let her be defiled, let our eyes gloat^p over Zion!"

¹²But they do not know

2^b An attacker^b advances against you, Nineveh.

Guard the fortress,
watch the road,
brace yourselves,
marshal all your strength!

²The LORD will restore^c the splendor^d of Jacob like the splendor of Israel,

HABAKKUK

1 The prophecy^a that Habakkuk the prophet received.

Habakkuk's Complaint

²How long, LORD, must I call for help,

but you do not listen?^b

Or cry out to you, "Violence!"

but you do not save?^c

³Why do you make me look at injustice?

Why do you tolerate^d wrongdoing?

Destruction and violence^e are before me;

there is strife,^f and conflict
abounds.

⁴Therefore the law^g is paralyzed,
and justice never prevails.

The wicked hem in the righteous,
so that justice is perverted.^h

The LORD's Answer

⁵"Look at the nations and watch — and be utterly amazed.ⁱ

For I am going to do something in your days

that you would not believe,
even if you were told.^j

⁶I am raising up the Babylonians,^{ak} that ruthless and impetuous
people,

who sweep across the whole earth
to seize dwellings not their own.^l

⁷They are a feared and dreaded people;^m

they are a law to themselves and promote their own honor.

⁸Their horses are swifterⁿ than leopards,

fiercer than wolves at dusk.

Their cavalry gallops headlong;
their horsemen come from afar.

They fly like an eagle swooping to

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

¹²LORD, are you not from you, my Rock, have ordained

Why are you silent while the wicked
swallow up those more

The cry on the day of the LORD is bitter;
the Mighty Warrior shouts his battle cry.

¹⁵That day will be a day of wrath —
a day of distress and anguish,
a day of trouble and ruin,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness^b —

¹⁶a day of trumpet and battle cry^c

HAGGAI

A Call to Build the House of the LORD

1 In the second year of King Darius,^a on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai^b to Zerubbabel^c son of Shealtiel, governor^d of Judah, and to Joshua^e son of Jozadak,^{af} the high priest:

²This is what the LORD Almighty says: “These people say, ‘The time has not yet come to rebuild the LORD’s house.’”

³Then the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai:⁹ ⁴“Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your paneled houses,^h while this house remains a ruin?ⁱ”

⁵Now this is what the LORD Almighty says: “Give careful thought^j to your ways. ⁶You have planted much, but harvested little.^k You eat, but never have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You put on clothes, but are not warm. You earn wages,^l only to put them in a purse with holes in it.”

⁷This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Give careful thought to your ways. ⁸Go up into the mountains and bring down timber and build my house, so that I may take pleasure^m in it and be honored,” says the LORD. ⁹“You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home, I blew away. Why?” declares the LORD Almighty. “Because of my house, which remains a ruin,ⁿ while each of you is busy with your own house. ¹⁰Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth its crops.^o ¹¹I called for a drought^p on the fields and the mountains, on the grain, the new wine, the olive oil and everything else the ground produces, on people and livestock, and on all the labor of your hands.^q”

¹³Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, gave this message of the LORD to the people: “I am with^v you,” declares the LORD. ¹⁴So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel^w son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of the whole remnant^x of the people. They came and began to work on the house of the LORD Almighty, their God, ¹⁵on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month.^y

The Promised Glory of the New House

In the second year of King Darius, 2 ¹on the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: ²“Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jozadak,^b the high priest, and to the remnant of the people. Ask them, ³‘Who of you is left who saw this house^z in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not seem to you like nothing?’^a ⁴But now be strong, Zerubbabel,’ declares the LORD. ‘Be strong,^b Joshua son of Jozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,’ declares the LORD, ‘and work. For I am with^c you,’ declares the LORD Almighty. ⁵‘This is what I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt.^d And my Spirit^e remains among you. Do not fear.’

Blessings for a Defiled People

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month,^j in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai: ¹¹“‘This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Ask the priests^k what the law says: ¹²If someone carries consecrated meat in the fold of their garment, and that fold touches some bread or stew, some wine, olive oil or other food, does it become consecrated?’”

The priests answered, “No.”

¹³Then Haggai said, “If a person defiled by contact with a dead body touches one of these things, does it become defiled?”

“Yes,” the priests replied, “it becomes defiled.”^m

¹⁴Then Haggai said, “‘So it is with this people and this nation in my sight,’ declares the LORD. ‘Whatever they do and whatever they offerⁿ there is defiled.

ZECHARIAH

A Call to Return to the LORD

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius,^a the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah^b son of Berekiah,^c the son of Iddo:^d

²“The LORD was very angry^e with your ancestors. ³Therefore tell the people: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Return to me,’ declares the LORD Almighty, ‘and I will return to you,’^f says the LORD Almighty. ⁴Do not be like your ancestors,^g to whom the earlier prophets proclaimed: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Turn from your evil ways^h and your evil practices.’ But they would not listen or pay attention to me,ⁱ declares the LORD. ⁵Where are your ancestors now? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But did not my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, overtake your ancestors?

“Then they repented and said, ‘The LORD Almighty has done to us what our ways and practices deserve,^j just as he determined to do.’”

The Man Among the Myrtle Trees

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah, the son of Iddo.

⁸During the night I had a vision, and there before me was a man mounted on a red^k horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.^l

the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.”ⁿ

¹¹And they reported to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.”^o

¹²Then the angel of the LORD said, “LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy^p years?” ¹³So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.^q

¹⁴Then the angel who was speaking to me said, “Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘I am very jealous^r for Jerusalem and Zion,¹⁵ and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure.^s I was only a little angry, but they went too far with the punishment.’^t

¹⁶“Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I will return^u to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line^v will be stretched out over Jerusalem,’ declares the LORD Almighty.

Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

¹⁸Then I looked up, and there before me were four horns. ¹⁹I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these?”

2^b Then I looked up, and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand. ²I asked, “Where are you going?”

He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.”^c

³While the angel who was speaking to me was leaving, another angel came to meet him ⁴and said to him: “Run, tell that young man, ‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls^d because of the great number^e of people and animals in it. ⁵And I myself will be a wall^f of fire around it,’ declares the LORD, ‘and I will be its glory^g within.’

¹⁰“Shout and be glad, Daughter Zion.^m For I am coming,ⁿ and I will live among you,”^o declares the LORD. ¹¹“Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. Clean Garments for the High Priest

3 Then he showed me Joshua^s the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan^{dt} standing at his right side to accuse him. ²The LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you,^u Satan! The LORD, who has chosen^v Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”^w

³Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. ⁴The angel said to those who were standing before him, “Take off his filthy clothes.”

Then he said to Joshua, “See, I have taken away your sin,^x and I will put fine garments^y on you.”

⁵Then I said, “Put a clean turban^z on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.

⁶The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: ⁷“This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘If you will walk in obedience to me and keep my requirements, then you will govern my house^a and have charge of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.

⁸“Listen, High Priest Joshua, you and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic^b of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch.^c ⁹See, the stone I have set in front of Joshua! There are seven eyes^e on that one stone,^d and I will engrave an inscription on it,’ says the LORD Almighty, ‘and I will remove the sin^e of this land in a single day.

¹⁰“In that day each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree,^f declares the LORD Almighty.”

The Gold Lampstand and the Two Olive Trees

4 Then the angel who talked with me returned and woke^g me up, like someone awakened from sleep.^h ²He asked me, “What do you see?”ⁱ

I answered, "I see a solid gold lampstand^j with a bowl at the top and seven lamps^k on it, with seven channels to the lamps. ³Also there are two olive trees^l by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

⁴I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵He answered, "Do you not know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I replied.^m

⁶So he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel:ⁿ 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,'^o says the LORD Almighty.

⁷"What are you, mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground.^p Then he will bring out the capstone^q to shouts of 'God bless it! God bless it!'"

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation^r of this temple; his hands will also complete it.^s Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me^t to you.

¹⁰"Who dares despise the day of small things,^u since the seven eyes^v of the LORD that range throughout the earth will rejoice when they see the chosen capstone^a in the hand of Zerubbabel?"

¹¹Then I asked the angel, "What are these two olive trees^w on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

¹²Again I asked him, "What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that pour out golden oil?"

¹³He replied, "Do you not know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I said.

¹⁴So he said, "These are the two who are anointed^x to^b serve the Lord of all the earth."

The Flying Scroll

5 I looked again, and there before me was a flying scroll.^y

²He asked me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.^c"

³And he said to me, "This is the curse^z that is going out over the whole land; for according to what

The Woman in a Basket

⁵Then the angel who was speaking to me came forward and said to me, "Look up and see what is appearing."

⁶I asked, "What is it?"

He replied, "It is a basket." And he added, "This is the iniquity^d of the people throughout the land."

⁷Then the cover of lead was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman! ⁸He said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and pushed its lead cover down on it.^d

⁹Then I looked up — and there before me were two women, with the wind in their wings! They had wings like those of a stork,^e and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

¹⁰"Where are they taking the basket?" I asked the angel who was speaking to me.

¹¹He replied, "To the country of Babylonia^{ef} to build a house^g for it. When the house is ready, the basket will be set there in its place."^h

Four Chariots

6 I looked up again, and there before me were four chariotsⁱ coming out from between two mountains — mountains of bronze. ²The first chariot had red horses, the second black,^j ³the third white,^k and the fourth dappled — all of them powerful. ⁴I asked the angel who was speaking to me, "What are these, my lord?"

A Crown for Joshua

⁹The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁰“Take silver and gold from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon.^o Go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹Take the silver and gold and make a crown,^p and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua^q son of Jozadak.^{c†} ¹²Tell him this is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Here is the man whose name is the Branch,^s and he will branch out from his place and build the temple of the LORD.^t ¹³It is he who will build the temple of the LORD, and he will be clothed with majesty and will sit and rule on his throne. And he^d will be a priest^u on his throne. And there will be harmony between the two.’ ¹⁴The crown will be given to Heldai,^e Tobijah, Jedaiah and Hen^f son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁵Those who are far away will come and help to build the temple of the LORD,^v and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.^w This will happen if you diligently obey^x the LORD your God.”

Justice and Mercy, Not Fasting

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev.^y ²The people of Bethel had sent Shazerer and Regem-Melek, together with their men, to entreat^z the LORD ³by asking the priests of the house of

Mic 5:8; 7:2-6

⁷So I shepherded the flock marked for slaughter, particularly the oppressed of the flock. Then I took two staffs and called one Favor and the other Union, and I shepherded the flock. ⁸In one month I got rid of the three shepherds.

The flock detested me, and I grew weary of them ⁹and said, "I will not be your shepherd. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish.^x Let those who are left eat one another's flesh."

¹⁰Then I took my staff called Favor^y and broke it, revoking^z the covenant I had made with all the nations. ¹¹It was revoked on that day, and so the oppressed of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the LORD.

¹²I told them, "If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver.^a ¹³And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter" — the handsome price at which they valued me! So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter at the house of the LORD.^b ¹⁴Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the family bond between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵Then the LORD said to me, "Take again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For I am going to raise up a shepherd over the land who will not care for the lost, or seek the young, or heal the injured, or feed the healthy, but will eat the meat of the choice sheep, tearing off their hooves.

¹⁷"Woe to the worthless shepherd,^c who deserts the flock!

May the sword strike his arm^d and his right eye!

May his arm be completely withered,

his right eye totally blinded!"^e

The LORD Comes and Reigns

14 A day of the LORD^t is coming, Jerusalem, when your possessions will be plundered and divided up within your very walls.

²I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem to fight against it; the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city.^u ³Then the LORD will go out and fight^v against those nations, as he fights on a day of battle. ⁴On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives,^w east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. ⁵You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake^{cx} in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come,^y and all the holy ones with him.^z

⁶On that day there will be neither sunlight^a nor cold, frosty darkness. ⁷It will be a unique^b day—a day known only to the LORD—with no distinction between day and night.^c When evening comes, there will be light.^d

⁸On that day living water^e will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it east^f to the Dead Sea and half of it west to the Mediterranean Sea, in summer and in winter.

⁹The LORD will be king over the whole earth.^g On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.^h

¹²This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.^m ¹³On that day people will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will seize each other by the hand and attack one another.ⁿ ¹⁴Judah^o too will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected^p — great quantities of gold and silver and clothing. ¹⁵A similar plague^q will strike the horses and mules, the camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

MALACHI

1 A prophecy:^a The word^b of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.^a

Israel Doubts God's Love

²"I have loved^c you," says the LORD. "But you ask, 'How have you loved us?'"

"Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob,^d ³but Esau I have hated, and I have turned his hill country into a wasteland^e and left his inheritance to the desert jackals.^f"

⁴Edom may say, "Though we have been crushed, we will rebuild^g the ruins."

But this is what the LORD Almighty says: "They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Wicked Land, a people always under the wrath of the LORD.^h ⁵You will see it with your own eyes and say, 'Greatⁱ is the LORD — even beyond the borders of Israel!'"

Breaking Covenant Through Blemished Sacrifices

⁶"A son honors his father, and a slave his master. If I am a father, where is the honor due me? If I am a master, where is the respect^k due me?" says the LORD Almighty.^l

"It is you priests who show contempt for my name.

"But you ask, 'How have we shown contempt for your name?'"

⁷"By offering defiled food^m on my altar.

"But you ask, 'How have we defiled you?'"

"By saying that the LORD's table is contemptible. ⁸When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not wrong? When you sacrifice lame or diseased animals,ⁿ is that not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would ¹⁰"Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not light useless fires on my altar! I am not pleased^q with you," says the LORD Almighty, "and I will accept no offering^r from your hands. ¹¹My name will be great among the nations, from where the sun rises to where it sets. In every place incense^s and pure offerings will be brought to me, because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD Almighty.

¹²"But you profane it by saying, 'The Lord's table is defiled,' and, 'Its food^t is contemptible.' ¹³And you say, 'What a burden!'^u and you sniff at it contemptuously," says the LORD Almighty.

"When you bring injured, lame or diseased animals and offer them as sacrifices, should I accept them from your hands?" says the LORD. ¹⁴"Cursed is the cheat who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but then sacrifices a blemished animal^v to the Lord. For I am a great king,^w" says the LORD Almighty, "and my name is to be feared among the nations.

Additional Warning to the Priests

2 "And now, you priests, this warning is for you.^x ²If you do not listen, and if you do not resolve to honor my name," says the LORD Almighty, "I will send a curse^y on you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have already cursed them, because you have not resolved to honor me.

your descendants^a; I will smear on your faces the dung^z from your festival sacrifices, and you will be carried off with it.^a ⁴And you will know that I have sent you this warning so that my covenant with Levi^b may continue,” says the LORD Almighty. ⁵“My covenant was with him, a covenant^c of life and peace,^d and I gave them to him; this called for reverence and he revered me and stood in awe of my name. ⁶True instruction^e was in his mouth and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many from sin.^f

⁷“For the lips of a priest^g ought to preserve knowledge, because he is the messenger^h of the LORD Almighty and people seek instruction from his mouth.ⁱ ⁸But you have turned from the way and by your teaching have caused many to stumble;^j you have violated the covenant with Levi,” says the LORD Almighty. ⁹“So I have caused you to be despised^k and humiliated before all the people, because you have not followed my ways but have shown partiality in matters of the law.”

Breaking Covenant Through Divorce

¹⁰Do we not all have one Father^{b?}¹ Did not one God create us? Why do we profane the covenant^m of our ancestors by being unfaithful to one another?

¹¹Judah has been unfaithful. A detestable thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the sanctuary the LORD loves by marryingⁿ women who worship a foreign god.^o ¹²As for the man who does this, whoever he may be, may the LORD remove^p him from the tents of Jacob^c — even though he brings an offering^q to the LORD Almighty.

¹³Another thing you do: You flood the LORD’s altar with tears. You weep and wail because he no longer looks with favor^r on your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands.¹⁴You ask, “Why?” It is because the LORD is the witness between you ¹⁵Has not the one God made you?^t You belong to him in body and spirit. And what does the one God seek? Godly offspring.^{du} So be on your guard, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.

¹⁶“The man who hates and divorces his wife,^v” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “does violence to the one he should protect,”^e says the LORD Almighty.

So be on your guard, and do not be unfaithful.

Breaking Covenant Through Injustice

¹⁷You have wearied^w the LORD with your words.

“How have we wearied him?” you ask.

By saying, “All who do evil are good in the eyes of the LORD, and he is pleased with them” or “Where is the God of justice?”

3 “I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me.^x Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,” says the LORD Almighty.

²But who can endure^y the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire^z or a launderer’s soap. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver;^a he will purify^b the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then the LORD will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness, ⁴and the offerings^c of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to the LORD, as in days gone by, as in former years.^d

^a 3 Or will blight your grain ^b 10 Or father
^c 12 Or ¹²May the LORD remove from the tents of Jacob anyone who gives testimony in behalf of the man who does this ^d 15 The meaning of the Hebrew for the first part of this verse is uncertain. ^e 16 Or “I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “because the man who divorces his wife covers his garment with violence.”

I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers and perjurers,^e against those who defraud laborers of their wages,^f who oppress the widows^g and the fatherless, and deprive the foreigners among you of justice, but do not fear me,” says the LORD Almighty.

Breaking Covenant by Withholding Tithes

⁶“I the LORD do not change.^h So you, the descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed. ⁷Ever since the time of your ancestors you have turned awayⁱ from my decrees and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,”^j says the LORD Almighty.

“But you ask, ‘How are we to return?’

⁸“Will a mere mortal rob God? Yet you rob me.

“But you ask, ‘How are we robbing you?’

“In tithes^k and offerings. ⁹You are under a curse — your whole nation — because you are robbing me. ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse,^l that there may be food in my house. Test me in this,” says the LORD Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates^m of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it. ¹¹I will prevent pests from devouring your crops, and the vines in your fields will not drop their fruit before it is ripe,” says the LORD Almighty. ¹²“Then all the nations will call you blessed,ⁿ for yours will be a delightful land,”^o says the LORD Almighty.

Israel Speaks Arrogantly Against God

The Faithful Remnant

¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD talked with each other, and the LORD listened and heard.^t A scroll^u of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the LORD and honored his name.

¹⁷“On the day when I act,” says the LORD Almighty, “they will be my treasured possession.^v I will spare^w them, just as a father has compassion and spares his son who serves him. ¹⁸And you will again see the distinction between the righteous^x and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.

Judgment and Covenant Renewal

4^a “Surely the day is coming;^y it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble,^z and the day that is coming will set them on fire,” says the LORD Almighty. “Not a root or a branch will be left to them. ²But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness^a will rise with healing^b in its rays. And you will go out and frolic^c like well-fed calves. ³Then you will trample^d on the wicked; they will be ashes^e under the soles of your feet on the day when I act,” says the LORD Almighty.

¹⁷ Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Messiah.

Joseph Accepts Jesus as His Son

¹⁸ This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about^d: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit.^o ¹⁹ Because

^a 1 Or is an account of the origin ^b 1 Or Jesus Christ. Messiah (Hebrew) and Christ (Greek) both mean Anointed One; also in verse 18. ^c 11 That is, Jehoiahin; also in verse 12 ^d 18 Or The origin of Jesus the Messiah was like this

Joseph her husband was faithful to the law, and yet^a did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce^p her quietly.

²⁰But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus,^{bq} because he will save his people from their sins.”^r

²²All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: ²³“The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel”^{cs} (which means “God with us”).

²⁴When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. ²⁵But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.^t

The Magi Visit the Messiah

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea,^u during the time of King Herod,^v Magi^d from the east came to Jerusalem ²and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews?^w We saw his star^x when it rose and have come to worship him.”

³When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴When he had called together all the people’s chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵“In Bethlehem^y in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written:

⁶“But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come a ruler
who will shepherd my people Israel.”^{e”z}

⁷Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the ⁹After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. ¹¹On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him.^a Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts^b of gold, frankincense and myrrh. ¹²And having been warned^c in a dream^d not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

¹³When they had gone, an angel^e of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream.^f “Get up,” he said, “take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.”

¹⁴So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, ¹⁵where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: “Out of Egypt I called my son.”^{fg}

¹⁶When Herod realized that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi. ¹⁷Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”^{gh}

The Return to Nazareth

¹⁹After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream¹ to Joseph in Egypt ²⁰and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were trying to take the child’s life are dead.”

²¹So he got up, took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel. ²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream,^j he withdrew to the district of Galilee,^k ²³and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth.^l So was fulfilled^m what was said through the prophets, that he would be called a Nazarene.ⁿ

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3:1-12pp — Mk 1:3-8; Lk 3:2-17

3 In those days John the Baptist^o came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea ²and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven^p has come near.” ³This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

“A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.’”^{aq}

⁴John’s clothes were made of camel’s hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist.^r His food was locusts^s and wild honey. ⁵People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. ⁶Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: “You brood of vipers!^t Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?^u ⁸Produce fruit in keeping with repentance.^v ⁹And do not think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰The ax is al-

The Baptism of Jesus

3:13-17pp — Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21,22; Jn 1:31-34

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John.^a ¹⁴But John tried to deter him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?”

¹⁵Jesus replied, “Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John consented.

¹⁶As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God^b descending like a dove and alighting on him. ¹⁷And a voice from heaven^c said, “This is my Son,^d whom I love; with him I am well pleased.”^e

Jesus Is Tested in the Wilderness

4:1-11pp — Mk 1:12,13; Lk 4:1-13

4 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted^c by the devil. ²After fasting forty days and forty nights,^f he was hungry. ³The tempter^g came to him and said, “If you are the Son of God,^h tell these stones to become bread.”

⁴Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”^dⁱ

⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city^j and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. ⁶“If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down. For it is written:

^a 3 Isaiah 40:3 ^b 11 Or in ^c 1 The Greek for tempted can also mean tested. ^d 4 Deut. 8:3

“He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.”^{a”k}

⁷Jesus answered him, “It is also written: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”^{b”l}

⁸Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. ⁹“All this I will give you,” he said, “if you will bow down and worship me.”

¹⁰Jesus said to him, “Away from me, Satan!^m For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’”^{c”n}

¹¹Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.^o

Jesus Begins to Preach

¹²When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison,^p he withdrew to Galilee. ¹³Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum,^q which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali — ¹⁴to fulfill what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵“Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles — ¹⁶the people living in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death
a light has dawned.”^{ds}

¹⁷From that time on Jesus began to preach, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven^t has come near.”

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

4:18-22pp — Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:2-11; Jn 1:35-42

¹⁸As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee,^u he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter^v and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹“Come, follow me,”^w Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for

Giving to the Needy

6 “Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them.^a If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

²“So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. ³But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.^b

Prayer

6:9-13pp — Lk 11:2-4

⁵“And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing^c in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father,^d who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. ⁷And when you pray, do not keep on babbling^e like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.^f ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need^g before you ask him.

⁹“This, then, is how you should pray:

“‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,

your will be done,ⁱ

¹⁴For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.ⁿ ¹⁵But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.^o

Fasting

¹⁶“When you fast, do not look somber^p as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show others they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. ¹⁷But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.^q

Treasures in Heaven

6:22,23pp — Lk 11:34-36

¹⁹“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,^r where moths and vermin destroy,^s and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven,^t where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.^u ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.^v

²²“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy,^a your whole body will be full of light. ²³But if your eyes are unhealthy,^b your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

²⁴“No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.^w

Do Not Worry

6:25-33pp — Lk 12:22-31

²⁵“Therefore I tell you, do not worry^x about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them.^y Are you not much more valuable than they?^z ²⁷Can any

They do not labor or spin. ²⁹Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor^b was dressed like one of these. ³⁰If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you — you of little faith?^c ³¹So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³²For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.^d ³³But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.^e ³⁴Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Judging Others

7:3-5pp — Lk 6:41,42

7 “Do not judge, or you too will be judged.^f ²For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.^g

³“Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? ⁴How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

The Narrow and Wide Gates

¹³“Enter through the narrow gate.^l For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. ¹⁴But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

True and False Prophets

¹⁵“Watch out for false prophets.^m They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.ⁿ ¹⁶By their fruit you will recognize them.^o Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?^p ¹⁷Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. ¹⁸A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. ¹⁹Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.^q ²⁰Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

Jesus Heals a Man With Leprosy

8:2-4pp — Mk 1:40-44; Lk 5:12-14

8 When Jesus came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him. ²A man with leprosy^{az} came and knelt before him^a and said, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

³Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. ⁴Then Jesus said to him, “See that you don’t tell anyone.^b But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift Moses commanded,^c as a testimony to them.”

The Faith of the Centurion

8:5-13pp — Lk 7:1-10

⁵When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help. ⁶“Lord,” he said, “my servant lies at home paralyzed, suffering terribly.”

⁷Jesus said to him, “Shall I come and heal him?”

⁸The centurion replied, “Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.^d ⁹For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, ‘Go,’

Jesus Heals Many

8:14-16pp — Mk 1:29-34; Lk 4:38-41

¹⁴When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. ¹⁵He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him.

¹⁶When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick.^k ¹⁷This was to fulfill^l what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

"He took up our infirmities and bore our diseases."^m

The Cost of Following Jesus

8:19-22pp — Lk 9:57-60

¹⁸When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake.ⁿ ¹⁹Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

²⁰Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man^o has no place to lay his head."

²¹Another disciple said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

²²But Jesus told him, "Follow me,^p and let the dead bury their own dead."

²⁶He replied, "You of little faith,^q why are you so afraid?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.^r

²⁷The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!"

Jesus Restores Two Demon-Possessed Men

8:28-34pp — Mk 5:1-17; Lk 8:26-37

²⁸When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes,^b two demon-possessed^s men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. ²⁹"What do you want with us,^t Son of God?" they shouted. "Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?"^u

³⁰Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding. ³¹The demons begged Jesus, "If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

³²He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water. ³³Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.^v

The Calling of Matthew

9:9-13pp — Mk 2:14-17; Lk 5:27-32

⁹As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

¹⁰While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew’s house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with him and his disciples. ¹¹When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”^f go, proclaim this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven^l has come near.’ ⁸Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy,^a drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.

Jesus and John the Baptist

11:2-19pp — Lk 7:18-35

11 After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples,^s he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.^c

²When John, who was in prison,^t heard about the deeds of the Messiah, he sent his disciples ³to ask him, “Are you the one who is to come,^u or should we expect someone else?”

⁴Jesus replied, “Go back and report to John what you hear and see: ⁵The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy^d are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor.^v ⁶Blessed is anyone who does not stumble on account of me.”^w

⁷As John’s^x disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ⁸If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings’ palaces. ⁹Then what did you go out to see? A prophet?^y Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is the one about whom it is written:

“‘I will send my messenger ahead

who will prepare your way

Woe on Unrepentant Towns

11:21-23pp — Lk 10:13-15

²⁰Then Jesus began to denounce the towns in which most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. ²¹“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida!^f For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon,^g they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.^h ²²But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.ⁱ ²³And you, Capernaum,^j will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades.^{ak} For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. ²⁴But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”^l

The Father Revealed in the Son

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12:1-8pp — Mk 2:23-28; Lk 6:1-5

12:9-14pp — Mk 3:1-6; Lk 6:6-11

12 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some heads of grain^v and eat them. ²When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”^w

³He answered, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?^x ⁴He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread — which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests.^y ⁵Or haven’t you read in the Law that the priests on Sabbath duty in the temple desecrate the Sabbath^z and yet are innocent? ⁶I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.^a ⁷If you had known what these words mean, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’^{bb} you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man^c is Lord of the Sabbath.”

⁹Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, ¹⁰and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to bring charges against Jesus, they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”^d

¹¹He said to them, “If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out?^e ¹²How much more valuable is a person than a sheep!^f Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

^a 23 That is, the realm of the dead

^b 7 Hosea 6:6

¹³Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.⁹

God’s Chosen Servant

¹⁵Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. A large crowd followed him, and he healed all who were ill.^h ¹⁶He warned them not to tell others about him.ⁱ ¹⁷This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁸“Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight;^j

I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to
the nations.

¹⁹He will not quarrel or cry out;
no one will hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out,
till he has brought justice through to victory.

²¹ In his name the nations will put their hope.”^{ak}

Jesus and Beelzebul

12:25-29pp — Mk 3:23-27; Lk 11:17-22

²²Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see.^l ²³All the people were astonished and said, “Could this be the Son of David?”^m

²⁴But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, “It is only by Beelzebul,ⁿ the prince of demons, that this fellow drives out demons.”^o

²⁵Jesus knew their thoughts^p and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶If Satan^q drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your people^r drive them out? So then,

The Sign of Jonah

12:39-42pp — Lk 11:29-32

12:43-45pp — Lk 11:24-26

³⁸Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”^z

³⁹He answered, “A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.^a ⁴⁰For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish,^b so the Son of Man^c will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.^d ⁴¹The men of Nineveh^e will

⁴³"When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. ⁴⁴Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first.^h That is how it will be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

12:46-50pp — Mk 3:31-35; Lk 8:19-21

⁴⁶While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his motherⁱ and brothers^j stood outside, wanting to speak to him. ⁴⁷Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you."

⁴⁸He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" ⁴⁹Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven^k is my brother and sister and mother."

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house^l and sat by the lake. ²Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat^m and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. ³Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. ⁶But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop — a hundred,ⁿ sixty or thirty times what was sown. ⁹Whoever has ears, let them hear."^o

¹⁰The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

¹¹He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you,^p but not to them. ¹²Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.^q ¹³This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand."

¹⁴In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

¹⁵For this people's heart has become calloused;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them."^{as}

¹⁶But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.^t ¹⁷For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see^u but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

¹⁸"Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: ¹⁹When anyone hears the message about the kingdom^v and does not understand it, the evil one^w comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path. ²⁰The seed falling on rocky ground refers to someone who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. ²¹But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.^x ²²The seed falling among the thorns refers to someone who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth^y choke the word, making it unfruitful. ²³But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”^z

The Parable of the Weeds

²⁴Jesus told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like^a a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. ²⁶When the wheat sprouted and formed heads, then the weeds also appeared.

²⁷“The owner’s servants came to him and said, ‘Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?’

²⁸“‘An enemy did this,’ he replied.

“The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’

²⁹“‘No,’ he answered, ‘because while you are pulling the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them. ³⁰Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.’”^b

³³He told them still another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like^f yeast that a woman took and mixed into about sixty pounds^a of flour^g until it worked all through the dough.”^h

³⁴Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable.ⁱ ³⁵So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

“I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world.”^{bj}

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

³⁶Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable^k of the weeds in the field.”

³⁷He answered, “The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.^l ³⁸The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one,^m ³⁹and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvestⁿ is the end of the age,^o and the harvesters are angels.^p

⁴⁰“As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. ⁴¹The Son of Man^q will send out his angels,^r and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. ⁴²They will throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.^s ⁴³Then the righteous will shine like the sun^t in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let them hear.”^u

The Parable of the Net

⁴⁷“Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like^y a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds^z of fish. ⁴⁸When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous^a ⁵⁰and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.^b ⁵¹“Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked.

“Yes,” they replied.

⁵²He said to them, “Therefore every teacher of the law who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old.”

A Prophet Without Honor

13:54-58pp — Mk 6:1-6

⁵³When Jesus had finished these parables,^c he moved on from there. ⁵⁴Coming to his hometown, he began teaching the people in their synagogue,^d and they were amazed.^e “Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?” they asked. ⁵⁵“Isn’t this the carpenter’s son?^f Isn’t his mother’s^g name Mary, and aren’t his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? ⁵⁶Aren’t all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?” ⁵⁷And they took offense^h at him.

But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town and in his own home.”ⁱ ⁵⁸And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

⁶On Herod’s birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for the guests and pleased Herod so much ⁷that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. ⁸Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.” ⁹The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted ¹⁰and had John beheaded^q in the prison. ¹¹His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother. ¹²John’s disciples came and took his body and buried it.^r Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Walks on the Water

14:22-33pp — Mk 6:45-51; Jn 6:16-21
14:34-36pp — Mk 6:53-56

²²Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. ²³After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray.^w Later that night, he was there alone, ²⁴and the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

²⁵Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. ²⁶When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost,”^x they said, and cried out in fear.

²⁷But Jesus immediately said to them: “Take courage!^y It is I. Don’t be afraid.”^z

²⁸“Lord, if it’s you,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to you on the water.”

²⁹“Come,” he said.

Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!”

³¹Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,”^a he said, “why did you doubt?”

³²And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. ³³Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”^b

That Which Defiles

15:1-20pp — Mk 7:1-23

15 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, ²“Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!”^d ³Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’^{ae} and ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother is to be put to death.’^{bf} ⁵But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’ ⁶they are not to ‘honor their father or mother’ with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. ⁷You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

⁸“These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

⁹They worship me in vain;
their teachings are merely human rules.”^g^{ch}

¹⁰Jesus called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand. ¹¹What goes into someone’s mouth does not defile them,ⁱ but what comes out of their mouth, that is what defiles them.”^j

¹²Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?”

¹³He replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted^k will be pulled up by the roots. ¹⁴Leave them; they are blind guides.^l If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.”^m

“Seven,” they replied, “and a few small fish.”

³⁵He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. ³⁶Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them^b and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. ³⁷They all ate and were satisfied. The Demand for a Sign

¹⁵“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Jesus Predicts His Death

16:21-28pp — Mk 8:31 – 9:1; Lk 9:22-27

²¹From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things^v at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day^w be raised to life.^x

²²Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. “Never, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to you!”

²³Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan!^y You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

²⁴Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ²⁵For whoever wants to save their life^d will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it. ²⁶What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul? ²⁷For the Son of Man^b is going to come^c in his Father’s glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what they have done.”

²⁸“Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

⁹As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone^h what you have seen, until the Son of Manⁱ has been raised from the dead.”^j

¹⁰The disciples asked him, “Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

The Temple Tax

²⁴After Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma temple tax^w came to Peter and asked, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

²⁵“Yes, he does,” he replied.

When Peter came into the house, Jesus was the first to speak. “What do you think, Simon?” he asked. “From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes^x — from their own children or from others?”

²⁶“From others,” Peter answered.

“Then the children are exempt,” Jesus said to him. ²⁷“But so that we may not cause offense,^y go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours.”

Causing to Stumble

⁶“If anyone causes one of these little ones — those who believe in me — to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.^d ⁷Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to stumble! Such things must come, but woe to the person through whom they come!^e ⁸If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble,^f cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. ⁹And if your eye causes you to stumble,^g gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.^h

The Parable of the Wandering Sheep

18:12-14pp — Lk 15:4-7

¹⁰“See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angelsⁱ in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven. [11]^a ¹²“What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? ¹³And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off. ¹⁴In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish.

Dealing With Sin in the Church

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

Divorce

19:1-9pp — Mk 10:1-12

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things,^y he left Galilee and went into the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan. ²Large crowds followed him, and he healed them^z there.

³Some Pharisees came to him to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife^a for any and every reason?”

⁴“Haven’t you read,” he replied, “that at the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female,’^{ab} ⁵and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’^b?”^c ⁶So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

⁷“Why then,” they asked, “did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?”^d

⁸Jesus replied, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. ⁹I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality,

The Little Children and Jesus

19:13-15pp — Mk 10:13-16; Lk 18:15-17

¹³Then people brought little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them^g and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs^h to such as these.”ⁱ ¹⁵When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

The Rich and the Kingdom of God

19:16-29pp — Mk 10:17-30; Lk 18:18-30

¹⁶Just then a man came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?”^k

¹⁷“Why do you ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments.”^l

¹⁸“Which ones?” he inquired.

Jesus replied, “‘You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery,^m you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, ¹⁹honor your father and mother,’^{cn} and ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’^d”^o

²²“You don’t know what you are asking,” Jesus said to them. “Can you drink the cup^r I am going to drink?”

“We can,” they answered.

²³Jesus said to them, “You will indeed drink from my cup,^s but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father.”

²⁴When the ten heard about this, they were indignant^t with the two brothers. ²⁵Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. ²⁶Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,^u ²⁷and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—²⁸just as the Son of Man^v did not come to be served, but to serve,^w and to give his life as a ransom^x for many.”

³²Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

21:1-9pp — Mk 11:1-10; Lk 19:29-38

21:4-9pp — Jn 12:12-15

21 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives,^z Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away.”

⁴This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

⁵“Say to Daughter Zion, ‘See, your king comes to you,
gentle and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’”^{aa}

⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. ⁸A very large crowd spread their cloaks^b on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted,

“Hosanna^b to the Son of David!”^c

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”^{cd}

“Hosanna^b in the highest

¹⁰When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?”

Jesus Curses a Fig Tree

21:18-22pp — Mk 11:12-14, 20-24

¹⁸Early in the morning, as Jesus was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹Seeing a fig tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Immediately the tree withered.^q

²⁰When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?” they asked.

²¹Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt,^r not only can you do what was done to the fig tree, but also you can say to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and it will be done. ²²If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for^s in prayer.”

²⁸“What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’^v

²⁹“‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

³⁰“Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

³¹“Which of the two did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors^w and the prostitutes^x are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. ³²For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness,^y and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors^z and the prostitutes^a did. ⁴⁰“Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

⁵“But they paid no attention and went off — one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers^u and burned their city.

⁸“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹So go to the street corners^v and invite to the banquet anyone you find.’ ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good,^w and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²He asked, ‘How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?’ The man was speechless.

Paying the Imperial Tax to Caesar

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. ¹⁶They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians.^a “Teacher,” they said, “we know that you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren’t swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are. ¹⁷Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay the imperial tax^{c?} to Caesar or not?”

Marriage at the Resurrection

²³That same day the Sadducees,^e who say there is no resurrection,^f came to him with a question. ²⁴“Teacher,” they said, “Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and raise up offspring for him.⁹ ²⁵Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. ²⁶The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh. ²⁷Finally, the woman died. ²⁸Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?”

²⁹Jesus replied, “You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures^h or the power of God. ³⁰At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage;ⁱ they will be like the angels in heaven. ³¹But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you, ³²‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’^a?^j He is not the God of the dead but of the living.”

³³When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.^k

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

22:41-46pp — Mk 12:35-37; Lk 20:41-44

⁴¹While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, ⁴²“What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

“The son of David,”^q they replied.

⁴³He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says,

The Destruction of the Temple and Signs of the End Times

24:1-51pp — Mk 13:1-37; Lk 21:5-36

24 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. ²"Do you see all these things?" he asked. "Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another;ⁱ every one will be thrown down."

³As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives,^j the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

⁴Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah,' and will deceive many.^k ⁶You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁷Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.^l There will be famines^m and earthquakes in various places. ⁸All these are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹"Then you will be handed over to be persecutedⁿ and put to death,^o and you will be hated by all nations because of me. ¹⁰At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, ¹¹and many false prophets^p will appear and deceive many people. ¹²Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, ¹³but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved.^q ¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom^r will be preached in the whole world^s as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

The Day and Hour Unknown

³⁶“But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,^b but only the Father.^l ³⁷As it was in the days of Noah,^m so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage,ⁿ up to the day Noah entered the ark; ³⁹and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.^o ⁴¹Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.^p ⁴²“Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.^q ⁴³But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming,^r he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴So you also must be ready,^s because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

⁹“‘No,’ they replied, ‘there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

bag,^a each according to his ability.^h Then he went on his journey. ¹⁶The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. ¹⁷So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. ¹⁸But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

¹⁹"After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.ⁱ ²⁰The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.'

²¹"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things.^j Come and share your master's happiness!'

²⁶"His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? ²⁷Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.'

²⁸"So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. ²⁹For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have,

The Plot Against Jesus

26:2-5pp — Mk 14:1,2; Lk 22:1,2

26 When Jesus had finished saying all these things,^e he said to his disciples, ²“As you know, the Passover^f is two days away — and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled^g in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas,^h ⁴and they schemed to arrest Jesus secretly and kill him.ⁱ ⁵“But not during the festival,” they said, “or there may be a riot^j among the people.”

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

26:6-13pp — Mk 14:3-9

26:6-13Ref — Lk 7:37,38; Jn 12:1-8

⁶While Jesus was in Bethany^k in the home of Simon the Leper, ⁷a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.

⁸When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked. ⁹“This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.”

¹⁰Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ¹¹The poor you will always have with you,^{al} but you will not always have me. ¹²When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.^m ¹³Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

26:14-16pp — Mk 14:10,11; Lk 22:3-6

¹⁴Then one of the Twelve — the one called Judas Iscariotⁿ — went to the chief priests ¹⁵and asked, “What are you willing to give me if I deliver him over to you?” So they counted out for him thirty pieces of silver.^o ¹⁶From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

¹⁷On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread,^p the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

¹⁸He replied, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My appointed time^q is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.’”

¹⁹So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

²⁰When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve.

²¹And while they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.”^r

²²They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, “Surely you don’t mean me, Lord?”

²³Jesus replied, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.”^s ²⁴The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him.^t But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

²⁵Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, “Surely you don’t mean me, Rabbi?”^u

Jesus answered, “You have said so.”

²⁶While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it^v and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.”

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

26:31-35pp — Mk 14:27-31; Lk 22:31-34

³¹Then Jesus told them, “This very night you will all fall away on account of me,^a for it is written:

“‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’^{bb}

³²But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”^c

³³Peter replied, “Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will.”

³⁴“Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “this very night, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.”^d ³⁵But Peter declared, “Even if I have to die with you,^e I will never disown you.” And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane

³⁶Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” ³⁷He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee^f along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸Then he said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow^g to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”^h

³⁹Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cupⁱ be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.”^j

⁴²He went away a second time and prayed, “My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done.”

⁴³When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴So he left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.

⁴⁵Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour^m has come, and the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Rise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Jesus Arrested

26:47-56pp — Mk 14:43-50; Lk 22:47-53

⁴⁷While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him.” ⁴⁹Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!”ⁿ and kissed him.

⁵⁰Jesus replied, “Do what you came for, friend.”^{co}

Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. ⁵¹With that, one of Jesus’ companions reached for his sword,^p drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.^q

⁵²“Put your sword back in its place,” Jesus said to him, “for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.”^r ⁵³Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?^s ⁵⁴But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled^t that say it must happen in this way?”

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

⁵⁷Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas^w the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled. ⁵⁸But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest.^x He entered and sat down with the guards^y to see the outcome.

⁵⁹The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin^z were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death. ⁶⁰But they did not find any, though many false witnesses^a came forward.

Finally two^b came forward ⁶¹and declared, “This fellow said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”^c

⁶²Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?” ⁶³But Jesus remained silent.^d

The high priest said to him, “I charge you under oath^e by the living God:^f Tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

⁶⁴“You have said so,” Jesus replied. “But I say to all of you: From now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One^g and coming on the clouds of heaven.”^{ah}

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his clothesⁱ and said, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think?”

“He is worthy of death,”^j they answered.

⁶⁷Then they spit in his face and struck him with their fists.^k Others slapped him ⁶⁸and said, “Prophecy to us, Messiah. Who hit you?”^l

Peter Disowns Jesus

26:69-75pp — Mk 14:66-72; Lk 22:55-62;
 Jn 18:16-18, 25-27

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him. “You also were with Jesus of Galilee,” she said.

⁷⁰But he denied it before them all. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

⁷¹Then he went out to the gateway, where another servant girl saw him and said to the people there, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

⁷²He denied it again, with an oath: “I don’t know the man!”

⁷³After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, “Surely you are one of them; your accent gives you away.”

⁷⁴Then he began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know the man!”

Immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: “Before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.”^m And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Judas Hangs Himself

27 Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people made their plans how to have Jesus executed.ⁿ ²So they bound him, led him away and handed him over^o to Pilate the governor.^p

³When Judas, who had betrayed him,^q saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver^r to the chief priests and the elders. ⁴“I have sinned,” he said, “for I have betrayed innocent blood.”

“What is that to us?” they replied. “That’s your responsibility.”^s

⁵So Judas threw the money into the temple^t and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.^u

⁶The chief priests picked up the coins and said, “It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money.” ⁷So they decided to use the money to buy the potter’s field as

Jesus Before Pilate

27:11-26pp — Mk 15:2-15; Lk 23:2,3,18-25;
Jn 18:29 – 19:16

¹¹Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”^y “You have said so,” Jesus replied.

¹²When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer.^z ¹³Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?”^a ¹⁴But Jesus made no reply,^b not even to a single charge — to the great amazement of the governor.

¹⁵Now it was the governor’s custom at the festival to release a prisoner^c chosen by the crowd. ¹⁶At that time they had a well-known prisoner whose name was Jesus^b Barabbas. ¹⁷So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which one do you want me to release to you: Jesus Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?”^d ¹⁸For he knew it was out of self-interest that they had handed Jesus over to him.

¹⁹While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat,^e his wife sent him this message: “Don’t have anything to do with that innocent^f man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream^g because of him.”

²⁰But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.^h

²¹“Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” asked the governor.

“Barabbas,” they answered.

²²“What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called the Messiah?”ⁱ Pilate asked.

They all answered, “Crucify him!”

²³“Why? What crime has he committed?” asked Pilate.

But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify him!”

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27:27-31pp — Mk 15:16-20

²⁷Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium^p and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him. ²⁸They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him,^q ²⁹and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand. Then they knelt in front of him and mocked him. “Hail, king of the Jews!” they said.^r ³⁰They spit on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again.^s ³¹After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.^t

The Crucifixion of Jesus

27:33-44pp — Mk 15:22-32; Lk 23:33-43;
Jn 19:17-24

³²As they were going out,^u they met a man from Cyrene,^v named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.^w ³³They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”).^x ³⁴There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall;^y but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. ³⁵When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots.^z ³⁶And sitting down, they kept watch^a over him there. ³⁷Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

^a 10 See Zech. 11:12,13; Jer. 19:1-13; 32:6-9.

^b 16 Many manuscripts do not have Jesus; also in verse 17.

³⁸Two rebels were crucified with him,^b one on his right and one on his left. ³⁹Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads^c and saying, “You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days,^d save yourself!^e Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!”^f ⁴¹In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him. ⁴²“He saved others,” they said, “but he can’t save himself! He’s the king of Israel!”^g Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe^h in him. ⁴³He trusts in God. Let God rescue himⁱ now if he wants him, for he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” ⁴⁴In the same way the rebels who were crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

The Death of Jesus

27:45-56pp — Mk 15:33-41; Lk 23:44-49;
Jn 19:29-30

⁴⁵From noon until three in the afternoon darkness^j came over all the land. ⁴⁶About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli,^a lema sabachthani?” (which means “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”).^{bk}

⁴⁷When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.”

⁴⁸Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar,^l put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink. ⁴⁹The rest said, “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”

⁵⁰And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.^m

⁵¹At that moment the curtain of the templeⁿ was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, the rocks split^o ⁵²and the tombs broke open. The bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. ⁵³They came out of the tombs after Jesus’ resurrection and^c went into the holy city^p and appeared to many people.

⁵⁴When the centurion and those with him who were guarding^q Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, “Surely he was the Son of God!”^r

⁵⁵Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs.^s ⁵⁶Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph,^d and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.^t

The Burial of Jesus

27:57-61pp — Mk 15:42-47; Lk 23:50-56;
Jn 19:38-42

⁵⁷As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. ⁵⁹Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰and placed it in his own new tomb^u that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

⁶²The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³“Sir,” they said, “we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, ‘After three days I will rise again.’”^v ⁶⁴So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first.”

⁶⁵“Take a guard,”^w Pilate answered. “Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how.” ⁶⁶So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal^x on the stone^y and posting the guard.^z

Magdalene and the other Mary^a went to look at the tomb.

²There was a violent earthquake,^b for an angel^c of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.

³His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.^d

⁵The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid,^e for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.^f Come and see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples: ‘He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee.^g There you will see him.’ Now I have told you.”

⁸So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹Suddenly Jesus met them.^h “Greetings,” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothersⁱ to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

way, some of the guards^j went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. ¹²When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, ¹³telling them, “You are to say, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.’ ¹⁴If this report gets to the governor,^k we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.” ¹⁵So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

¹⁶Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go.^l ¹⁷When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. ¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.^m ¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations,ⁿ baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,^o ²⁰and teaching^p them to obey everything I have commanded you. MARK

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1:2-8pp — Mt 3:1-11; Lk 3:2-16

1 The beginning of the good news about Jesus the Messiah,^a the Son of God,^{ba} ²as it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

“I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way”^{cb} — ³“a voice of one calling in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.’”^{dc}

⁴And so John the Baptist^d appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance^e for the forgiveness of sins.^f ⁵The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. ⁶John wore clothing made of camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts^g and wild honey. ⁷And this was his message: “After me comes the one more powerful than I, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.^h ⁸I baptize you with^e water, but he will baptize you with^e the Holy Spirit.”ⁱ

The Baptism and Testing of Jesus

1:9-11pp — Mt 3:13-17; Lk 3:21,22
1:12,13pp — Mt 4:1-11; Lk 4:1-13

⁹At that time Jesus came from Nazareth^j in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.^k ¹¹And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son,^l whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

¹²At once the Spirit sent him out into the wilderness, ¹³and he was in the wilderness forty days, being

Jesus Announces the Good News

1:16-20pp — Mt 4:18-22; Lk 5:2-11; Jn 1:35-42

¹⁴After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee,ⁿ proclaiming the good news of God.^o ¹⁵“The time has come,”^p he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”^q

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

¹⁶As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷“Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.” ¹⁸At once they left their nets and followed him.

¹⁹When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, preparing their nets. ²⁰Without delay he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Jesus Drives Out an Impure Spirit

1:21-28pp — Lk 4:31-37

²¹They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.^r ²²The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law.^s ²³Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an impure spirit cried out, ²⁴“What do you want with us,^t Jesus of Nazareth?”^u Have you come to 27 The people were all so amazed^y that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching — and with authority! He even gives orders to impure spirits and they obey him.” 28 News about him spread quickly over the whole region^z of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many

1:29-31pp — Mt 8:14,15; Lk 4:38,39

1:32-34pp — Mt 8:16,17; Lk 4:40,41

29 As soon as they left the synagogue,^a they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. 30 Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they immediately told Jesus about her. 31 So he went to her, took her hand and helped her up.^b The fever left her and she began to wait on them.

32 That evening after sunset the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed.^c 33 The whole town gathered at the door, 34 and Jesus healed many who had various diseases.^d He also drove out many demons, but he would not let the demons speak because they knew who he was.^e

Jesus Prays in a Solitary Place

1:35-38pp — Lk 4:42,43

35 Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.^f 36 Simon and his companions went to look for him, 37 and when they found him, they exclaimed: “Everyone is looking for you!”

38 Jesus replied, “Let us go somewhere else — to the nearby villages — so I can preach there also. That is why I have come.”^g 39 So he traveled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues^h and driving out demons.ⁱ

43 Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: “44 See that you don’t tell this to anyone.^k But go, show yourself to the priest^l and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing,^m as a testimony to them.” 45 Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralyzed Man

2 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home. 2 They gathered in such large numbers^p that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them. 3 Some men came, bringing to him a paralyzed man,^q carried by four of them. 4 Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus by digging through it and then lowered the mat the man was lying on. 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”^r

6 Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, 7 “Why does this fellow talk like that? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”^s

8 Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, “Why are you thinking these things? 9 Which is easier: to say to this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins

Jesus Calls Levi and Eats With Sinners

2:14-17pp — Mt 9:9-13; Lk 5:27-32

¹³Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him,^w and he began to teach them. ¹⁴As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me,"^x Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵While Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. ¹⁶When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees^y saw him eating with the sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"^z

¹⁷On hearing this, Jesus said to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."^a

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

2:18-22pp — Mt 9:14-17; Lk 5:33-38

¹⁸Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting.^b Some people came and asked Jesus, "How is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees are fasting, but yours are not?"

¹⁹Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? They cannot, so long as they have him with them. ²⁰But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them,^c and on that day they will fast.

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

2:23-28pp — Mt 12:1-8; Lk 6:1-5
3:1-6pp — Mt 12:9-14; Lk 6:6-11

²³One Sabbath Jesus was going through the grainfields, and as his disciples walked along, they began to pick some heads of grain.^d ²⁴The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"^e

²⁵He answered, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need? ²⁶In the days of Abiathar the high priest,^f he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which is lawful only for priests to eat.^g And he also gave some to his companions."^h

²⁷Then he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man,ⁱ not man for the Sabbath.^j ²⁸So the Son of Man^k is Lord even of the Sabbath."

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

3 Another time Jesus went into the synagogue,^l and a man with a shriveled hand was there. ²Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely^m to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath.ⁿ ³Jesus said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand up in front of everyone."

⁴Then Jesus asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they remained silent.

⁵He looked around at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored. ⁶Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians^o how they might kill Jesus.^p

Jesus Appoints the Twelve

3:16-19pp — Mt 10:2-4; Lk 6:14-16; Ac 1:13

¹³Jesus went up on a mountain-side and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him.^w ¹⁴He appointed twelve^{ax} that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach¹⁵ and to have authority to drive out demons.^y ¹⁶These are the twelve he appointed: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter),^z ¹⁷James son of Zebedee and his brother John (to them he gave the name Boanerges, which means “sons of thunder”), ¹⁸Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

³⁰He said this because they were saying, “He has an impure spirit.”

4:1-12pp — Mt 13:1-15; Lk 8:4-10

4 Again Jesus began to teach by the lake.^l The crowd that gathered around him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it out on the lake, while all the people were along the shore at the water’s edge. ²He taught them many things by parables,^m and in his teaching said: ³“Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed.ⁿ ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. ⁶But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants,

How then will you understand any parable? ¹⁴The farmer sows the word.^t ¹⁵Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan^u comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. ¹⁶Others, like seed sown on rocky places, hear the word and at once receive it with joy. ¹⁷But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. ¹⁸Still others, like seed sown among thorns, hear the word; ¹⁹but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth^v and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful. ²⁰Others, like seed sown on good soil, hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—some thirty, some sixty, some a hundred times what was sown.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

²⁶He also said, “This is what the kingdom of God is like.^b A man scatters seed on the ground. ²⁷Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. ²⁸All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. ²⁹As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come.”^c

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰Again he said, “What shall we say the kingdom of God is like,^d or what parable shall we use to describe it? ³¹It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds on earth. ³²Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds can perch in its shade.”

³³With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand.^e ³⁴He did not say anything to them without using a parable.^f But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

Jesus Calms the Storm

4:35-41pp — Mt 8:18,23-27; Lk 8:22-25

³⁵That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, “Let us go over to the other side.” ³⁶Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat.^g There were also other boats with him. ³⁷A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped. ³⁸Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?”

Jesus Restores a Demon-Possessed Man

5:1-17pp — Mt 8:28-34; Lk 8:26-37

5:18-20pp — Lk 8:38,39

5 They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes.^a ²When Jesus got out of the boat,ⁱ a man with an impure spirit^j came from the tombs to meet him. ³This man lived in the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain. ⁴For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

⁶When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him. ⁷He shouted at the top of his voice, “What do you want with me,^k Jesus, Son of the Most High God?^l In God’s name don’t torture me!” ⁸For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of this man, you impure spirit!”

⁹Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

“My name is Legion,”^m he replied, “for we are many.” ¹⁰And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.

¹¹A large herd of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside. ¹²The demons begged Jesus, “Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them.” ¹³He gave them permission, and the impure spirits came out and went into the pigs. The herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

¹⁴Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. ¹⁵When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legionⁿ of demons,^o sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ¹⁶Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man — and told about the pigs as well. ¹⁷Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

¹⁸As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him.

¹⁹Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your own people and tell them^p how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.” ²⁰So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis^q how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Jesus Raises a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

²¹When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake,^r a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the lake.^s ²²Then one of the synagogue leaders,^t named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. ²³He pleaded earnestly with him, “My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on^u her so that she will be healed and live.” ²⁴So Jesus went with him.

A large crowd followed and pressed around him. ²⁵And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding^v for twelve years. ²⁶She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. ²⁷When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸because she thought, “If I just touch his clothes,^w I will be healed.” ²⁹Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.^x

³²But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. ³³Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. ³⁴He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you.² Go in peace^a and be freed from your suffering.”

³⁵While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader.^b “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the teacher anymore?”

³⁶Overhearing^a what they said, Jesus told him, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.”

³⁷He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James.^c ³⁸When they came to the home of the synagogue leader,^d Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. ³⁹He went in and said to them, “Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep.”^e ⁴⁰But they laughed at him.

After he put them all out, he took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹He took her by the hand^f and said to her, “Talitha koum!” (which means “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”).^g ⁴²Immediately the girl stood up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished. ⁴³He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this,^h and told them to give her something to eat.

⁴Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town, among his relatives and in his own home.”^o ⁵He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on^p a few sick people and heal them. ⁶He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

6:7-11pp — Mt 10:1,9-14; Lk 9:1,3-5

Then Jesus went around teaching from village to village.^q ⁷Calling the Twelve to him,^r he began to send them out two by two^s and gave them authority over impure spirits.^t

⁸These were his instructions: “Take nothing for the journey except a staff — no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. ⁹Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. ¹⁰Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. ¹¹And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet^u as a testimony against them.”

¹²They went out and preached that people should repent.^v ¹³They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil^w and healed them.

¹⁶But when Herod heard this, he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised from the dead!”

¹⁷For Herod himself had given orders to have John arrested, and he had him bound and put in prison.^b He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, whom he had married. ¹⁸For John had been saying to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”^c ¹⁹So Herodias nursed a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she was not able to, ²⁰because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man.^d When Herod heard John, he was greatly puzzled^e; yet he liked to listen to him.

²¹Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday Herod gave a banquet^e for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.^f ²²When the daughter of^g Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests.

The king said to the girl, “Ask me for anything you want, and I’ll give it to you.” ²³And he promised her with an oath, “Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom.”^g

²⁴She went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask for?”

“The head of John the Baptist,” she answered.

²⁵At once the girl hurried in to the king with the request: “I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

²⁶The king was greatly distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷So he immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John’s head. The man went, beheaded John in the prison, ²⁸and brought back his head on a platter. He presented it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. ²⁹On hearing of this, John’s disciples came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁵By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. “This is a remote place,” they said, “and it’s already very late. ³⁶Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat.”

³⁸“How many loaves do you have?” he asked. “Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five — and two fish.”ⁿ

²⁴Jesus left that place and went to the vicinity of Tyre.^a ²⁵He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it; yet he could not keep his presence secret. ²⁶In fact, as soon as she heard about him, a woman whose little daughter was possessed by an impure spirit^q came and fell at his feet. ²⁷The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

²⁸“First let the children eat all they want,” he told her, “for it is not right to take the children’s bread and toss it to the dogs.”

²⁹“Lord,” she replied, “even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

³⁰Then he told her, “For such a reply, you may go; the demon has left your daughter.”

When he had taken the seven loaves and given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people, and they did so. ⁷They had a few small fish as well; he gave thanks for them also and told the disciples to distribute them.^c ⁸The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.^d ⁹About four thousand were present. After he had sent them away,¹⁰ he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹The Pharisees came and began to question Jesus. To test him, they asked him for a sign from heaven.^e

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

¹⁴The disciples had forgotten to bring bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. ¹⁵“Be careful,” Jesus warned them. “Watch out for the yeast^g of the Pharisees^h and that of Herod.”ⁱ

¹⁶They discussed this with one another and said, “It is because we have no bread.”

¹⁷Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked them: “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened?”^j ¹⁸Do you have eyes but fail to see, and ears but fail to hear? And don’t you remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did you pick up?”

“Twelve,”^k they replied.

²⁴He looked up and said, “I see people; they look like trees walking around.”

²⁵Once more Jesus put his hands on the man’s eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. ²⁶Jesus sent him home, saying, “Don’t even go into^a the village.”

Peter Declares That Jesus Is the Messiah

8:27-29pp — Mt 16:13-16; Lk 9:18-20

²⁷Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

²⁸They replied, “Some say John the Baptist;^r others say Elijah;^s and still others, one of the prophets.”

²⁹“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Messiah.”^t

³³But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. “Get behind me, Satan!”^c he said. “You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

The Way of the Cross

The Transfiguration

9:2-13pp — Mt 17:1-13

²After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John^k with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. ³His clothes became dazzling white,^l whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

⁵Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi,^m it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” ⁶(He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

⁷Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud:ⁿ “This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!”^o ⁸Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

⁹As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone^p what they had seen until the Son of Man^q had risen from the dead. ¹⁰They kept the matter to themselves, discussing what “rising from the dead” meant.

¹¹And they asked him, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

¹²Jesus replied, “To be sure, Elijah does come first, and restores all things. Why then is it written that the Son of Man^r must suffer much^s and be rejected?^t ¹³But I tell you, Elijah has come,^u and they have done to him everything they wished, just as it is written about him.”

¹⁶“What are you arguing with them about?” he asked.

¹⁷A man in the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. ¹⁸Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not.”

²⁰So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.^v

²¹Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has he been like this?”

“From childhood,” he answered. ²²“It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us.”

²³“If you can?” said Jesus. “Everything is possible for one who believes.”^w

²⁴Immediately the boy’s father exclaimed, “I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!”

²⁵When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene,^x he rebuked the impure spirit. “You deaf and mute spirit,” he said, “I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.”

²⁶The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, “He’s dead.” ²⁷But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.

Divorce

²Some Pharisees^d came and tested him by asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

³“What did Moses command you?” he replied.

⁵“It was because your hearts were hard^f that Moses wrote you this law,” Jesus replied. ⁶“But at the beginning of creation God ‘made them male and female.’^g ⁷“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife,^d ⁸and the two will become one flesh.’^{eh} So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

⁴¹When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. ⁴²Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. ⁴³Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,^p ⁴⁴and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve,^q and to give his life as a ransom for many.”^r

⁴⁸Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁹Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.”

So they called to the blind man, “Cheer up! On your feet! He’s calling you.” ⁵⁰Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

⁵¹“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked him.

⁴They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway.^a As they untied it, ⁵some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” ⁶They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. ⁷When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. ⁸Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. ⁹Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted,

Bethany, Jesus was hungry. ¹³Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. ^e ¹⁴Then he said to the tree, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard him say it.

¹⁵On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, ¹⁶and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. ¹⁷And as he taught them, he said, “Is it not written: ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations’^a? But you have made it ‘a den of robbers.’^b”⁹

¹⁸The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him,^h because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.ⁱ

¹⁹When evening came, Jesus and his disciples^c went out of the city.^j

²⁰In the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots. ²¹Peter remembered and said to Jesus, “Rabbi,^k look! The fig tree you cursed has withered!”

²²“Have faith in God,” Jesus answered. ²³“Truly^d I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and does not doubt in their heart but believes that what they say will happen, it will be done for them.”^l ²⁴Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.^m ²⁵And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive them, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.”ⁿ [26]^e

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

²⁹Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ³⁰John’s baptism — was it from heaven, or of human origin? Tell me!”

³¹They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’” ³²But if we say, ‘Of human origin’ . . .” (They feared the people, for everyone held that John really was a prophet.)^o

³³So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

The Parable of the Tenants

12:1-12pp — Mt 21:33-46; Lk 20:9-19

12 Jesus then began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard.^p He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and moved to another place. ²At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. ³But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully. ⁵He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed.”

⁶“He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all,^q saying, ‘They will respect my son.’”

⁷“But the tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ⁸So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.”

Paying the Imperial Tax to Caesar

¹³Later they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians^v to Jesus to catch him^w in his words. ¹⁴They came to him and said, “Teacher, we know that you are a man of integrity. You aren’t swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are; but you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay the imperial tax^b to Caesar or not? ¹⁵Should we pay or shouldn’t we?”

But Jesus knew their hypocrisy. “Why are you trying to trap me?” he asked. “Bring me a denarius and let me look at it.” ¹⁶They brought the coin, and he asked them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

¹⁷Then Jesus said to them, “Give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s.”^x

And they were amazed at him.

Marriage at the Resurrection

12:18-27pp — Mt 22:23-33; Lk 20:27-38

¹⁸Then the Sadducees,^y who say there is no resurrection,^z came to him with a question. ¹⁹“Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother.^a ²⁰Now there were seven brothers. The first one married and died without leaving any children.

²⁴Jesus replied, “Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures^b or the power of God? ²⁵When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.^c ²⁶Now about the dead rising — have you not read in the Book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’^d?^d ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are badly mistaken!”

The Greatest Commandment

²⁸One of the teachers of the law^e came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

²⁹“The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.’^e ³⁰Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’^{ff} ³¹The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’^{gg} There is no commandment greater than these.”

³²“Well said, teacher,” the man replied. “You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him.^h ³³To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”ⁱ

³⁷David himself calls him ‘Lord.’ How then can he be his son?”

The large crowd^p listened to him with delight.

Warning Against the Teachers of the Law

³⁸As he taught, Jesus said, “Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, ³⁹and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.^q ⁴⁰They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. ⁴³Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. ⁴⁴They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything — all she had to live on.”^s

The Destruction of the Temple and Signs of the End Times

13:1-37pp — Mt 24:1-51; Lk 21:5-36

13 As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!”

“Do you see all these great buildings?” replied Jesus. “Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”^t

³As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives^u opposite the temple, Peter, James, John^v and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?”

⁵Jesus said to them: “Watch out that no one deceives you.”^w ⁶Many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am he,’ and will deceive many. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁸Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹“You must be on your guard. You will be handed over to the local councils and flogged in the synagogues.^x On account of me you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be preached to all nations. ¹¹Whenever you are arrested and brought to trial, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Just say whatever is given you at the time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.^y ¹²“Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death.^z ¹³Everyone will hate you because of me,^a but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved.^b ²⁰“If the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom he has chosen, he has shortened them. ²¹At that time if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘Look, there he is!’ do not believe it.^g ²²For false messiahs and false prophets^h will appear and perform signs and wondersⁱ to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²³So be on your guard;^j I have told you everything ahead of time.

14 Now the Passover^u and the Festival of Unleavened Bread were only two days away, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were scheming to arrest Jesus secretly and kill him.^v ²“But not during the festival,” they said, “or the people may riot.”

³While he was in Bethany,^w reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.^x ⁴Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, “Why this waste of perfume? ⁵It could have been sold for more than a year’s wages^d and the money given to the poor.” And they rebuked her harshly.

⁶“Leave her alone,” said Jesus. “Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷The poor you will always have with you,^e and you can help them any time you want.^y But you will not always have me. ⁸She did what she could. The Last Supper

14:22-25pp — 1Co 11:23-25

¹²On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb,^d Jesus’ disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

¹³So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴Say to the owner of the house he enters, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’ ¹⁵He will show you a large room upstairs,^e furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

¹⁶The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. ¹⁸While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me — one who is eating with me.”

¹⁹They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, “Surely you don’t mean me?”

²⁰“It is one of the Twelve,” he replied, “one who dips bread into the bowl with me.^f ²¹The Son of Man^g will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

²²While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it^h and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this is my body.”

²³Then he took a cup, and when he

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

“‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’^{bm}

²⁸But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”ⁿ

²⁹Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

³¹But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with you,^p I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

Gethsemane

³²They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³He took Peter, James and John^q along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled. ³⁴“My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,”^r he said to them. “Stay here and keep watch.”

³⁵Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour^s might pass from him. ³⁶“Abba,^d Father,”^t he said, “everything is possible for you. Take this cup^u from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.”^v ³⁷Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” he said to Peter, “are you asleep?
