³⁹Once more he went away and prayed the same thing. ⁴⁰When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to him.

⁴¹Returning the third time, he said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour^y has come. Look, the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!"

Jesus Arrested

14:43-50pp — Mt 26:47-56; Lk 22:47-50;
Jn 18:3-11

⁴³Just as he was speaking, Judas,^z one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders.

⁴⁴Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard." ⁴⁵Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Rabbi!"^a and kissed him. ⁴⁶The men seized Jesus and arrested him. ⁴⁷Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

⁴⁸"Am I leading a rebellion," said Jesus, "that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? ⁴⁹Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts,^b and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."^c ⁵⁰Then everyone deserted him and fled.^d

elders and the teachers of the law came together. ⁵⁴Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest.^e There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.^f

⁵⁵The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin^g were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. ⁵⁶Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

⁵⁷Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: ⁵⁸"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another,^h not made with hands.'" ⁵⁹Yet even then their testimony did not agree.

⁶⁰Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?" ⁶¹But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer.ⁱ

Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"^j

⁶²"I am," said Jesus. "And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven."^k

⁶³The high priest tore his clothes.^l "Why do we need any more witnesses?" he asked. ⁶⁴"You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?"

They all condemned him as worthy of death.^m ⁶⁵Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, "Prophecy!" And the guards took him and beat him.ⁿ

Jesus Before Pilate

15:2-15pp — Mt 27:11-26; Lk 23:2,3,18-25;

15 Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law^w and the whole Sanhedrin,^x made their plans. So they bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate.^y

²“Are you the king of the Jews?”^z asked Pilate.

“You have said so,” Jesus replied.

³The chief priests accused him of many things. ⁴So again Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of.”

⁵But Jesus still made no reply,^a and Pilate was amazed.

⁶Now it was the custom at the festival to release a prisoner whom the people requested. ⁷A man called Barabbas was in prison with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the uprising. ⁸The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did.

⁹“Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?”^b asked Pilate, ¹⁰knowing it was out of self-interest that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas^c instead.

¹²“What shall I do, then, with the one you call the king of the Jews?” Pilate asked them.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

¹⁶The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace^e (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. ¹⁷They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him. ¹⁸And they began to call out to him, “Hail, king of the Jews!”^f ¹⁹Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spit on him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to him. ²⁰And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out^g to crucify him.

⁸Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God,^k ⁹he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.^l ¹⁰And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshippers were praying outside.^m

¹¹Then an angelⁿ of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.^o ¹²When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear.^p ¹³But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid,^q Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear

²¹Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple. ²²When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs^b to them but remained unable to speak.

²³When his time of service was completed, he returned home. ²⁴After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. ²⁵"The Lord has done this for me," she said. "In these days he has shown his favor and taken away my disgrace^c among the people."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

²⁶In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel^d to Nazareth,^e a town in Galilee, ²⁷to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph,^f a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you."

²⁹Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid,^g Mary; you have found favor with God. ³¹You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus.^h ³²He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High.ⁱ The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, ³³and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom^j will never end."^k

³⁵The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you,^l and the power of the Most High^m will overshadow you. So the holy oneⁿ to be born will be called^a the Son of God.^o ³⁶Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be unable to conceive is in her sixth month. ³⁷For no word from God will ever fail."^p ³⁸"I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled." Then the angel left her.

The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days Caesar Augustus^c issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.^d (This was the first census that took place while^e Quirinius was governor of Syria.)^e ³And everyone went to their own town to register.

⁴So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem^f the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. ⁵He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, ⁷and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

⁸And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. ⁹An angel^g of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

¹¹Today in the town of David a Saviorⁱ has been born to you; he is the Messiah,^j the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign^k to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.”

^a 69 Horn here symbolizes a strong king.

^b 80 Or in the Spirit ^c 2 Or This census took place before

¹³Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace^l to those on whom his favor rests.”

¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

¹⁶So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising Godⁿ for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

²¹On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise the child,^o he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he was conceived.^p

Jesus Presented in the Temple

²²When the time came for the purification rites required by the Law of Moses,^q Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord ²³(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord”^a),^r ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: “a pair of doves or two young pigeons.”^{bs}

²⁵Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout.^t He was waiting for the consolation of Israel,^u and the Holy Spirit was on him. ²⁶It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. ²⁷Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. And a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

³⁶There was also a prophet,^c Anna, the daughter of Penuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, ³⁷and then was a widow until she was eighty-four.^{dd} She never left the temple but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying.^e ³⁸Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.^f

⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch.”^a

⁵Simon answered, “Master,^b we’ve worked hard all night and haven’t caught anything.^c But because you say so, I will let down the nets.”

⁶When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break.^d ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

⁸When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!”^e ⁹For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, ¹⁰and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon’s partners.

Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid;^f from now on you will fish for people.” ¹¹So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.^g

Jesus Heals a Man With Leprosy

¹²While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy.^h When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged him, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

¹³Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” And immediately the leprosy left him.

¹⁴Then Jesus ordered him, “Don’t tell anyone,ⁱ but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded^j for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralyzed Man

5:18-26pp — Mt 9:2-8; Mk 2:3-12

¹⁷One day Jesus was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law^m were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with Jesus to heal the sick.ⁿ ¹⁸Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus. ¹⁹When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

²⁰When Jesus saw their faith, he said, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”^o

²¹The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, “Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”^p

²²Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ²³Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? ²⁴But I want you to know that the Son of Man^q has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he said to the paralyzed man, “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.” ²⁵Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God. ²⁶Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God.^r They were filled with awe and said, “We have seen remarkable things today.”

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

5:33-39pp — Mt 9:14-17; Mk 2:18-22

³³They said to him, “John’s disciples^y often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours go on eating and drinking.”

³⁴Jesus answered, “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom^z fast while he is with them? ³⁵But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them;^a in those days they will fast.”

³⁶He told them this parable: “No one tears a piece out of a new garment to patch an old one. Otherwise, they will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old. ³⁷And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. ³⁸No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins. ³⁹And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for they say, ‘The old is better.’”

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

⁶On another Sabbath⁹ he went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shriveled. ⁷The Pharisees and the teachers of the law were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely^h to see if he would heal on the Sabbath.ⁱ ⁸But Jesus knew what they were thinking^j and said to the man with the shriveled hand, “Get up and stand in front of everyone.” So he got up and stood there.

⁹Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?”

¹⁰He looked around at them all, and then said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was completely restored. ¹¹But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law were furious^k and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

6:13-16pp — Mt 10:2-4; Mk 3:16-19; Ac 1:13

¹²One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.^l ¹³When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles:^m ¹⁴Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, ¹⁵Matthew,ⁿ Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, ¹⁶Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

The Wise and Foolish Builders

6:47-49pp — Mt 7:24-27

⁴⁶“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’^x and do not do what I say?^y ⁴⁷As for everyone who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice,^z I will show you what they are like. ⁴⁸They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. ⁴⁹But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete.”

7 When Jesus had finished saying all this^a to the people who were listening, he entered Capernaum. ²There a centurion’s servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. ³The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, “This man deserves to have you do this, ⁵because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue.” ⁶So Jesus went with them.

He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: “Lord, don’t trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. ⁷That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed.^b ⁸For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and that one, ‘Come,’ and he comes. I say to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

⁹When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel.” ¹⁰Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

Mk 5:21-24,35-43; Jn 11:1-44

¹¹Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. ¹²As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out — the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. ¹³When the Lord^c saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don’t cry.”

¹⁴Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!”^d ¹⁵The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶They were all filled with awe^e and praised God.^f “A great prophet^g has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.”^h ¹⁷This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.ⁱ

Jesus and John the Baptist

¹⁸John’s^j disciples^k told him about all these things. Calling two of them, ¹⁹he sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?”

²⁰When the men came to Jesus, they said, “John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?’”

²¹At that very time Jesus cured many who had diseases, sicknesses^l and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. ²²So he replied to the messengers, “Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy^a are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor.”^m ²³Blessed is anyone who does not stumble on account of me.”

³¹Jesus went on to say, “To what, then, can I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? ³²They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to each other:

“‘We played the pipe for you, and you did not dance;

These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

⁴While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, he told this parable: ⁵"A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds ate it up. ⁶Some fell on rocky ground, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown."

When he said this, he called out, "Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear."^e ⁹His disciples asked him what this parable meant. ¹⁰He said, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you,^f but to others I speak in parables, so that, though hearing, they may not understand."^g

A Lamp on a Stand

He got up and rebuked^q the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm.^r ²⁵"Where is your faith?" he asked his disciples.

Jesus Restores a Demon-Possessed Man

8:26-37pp — Mt 8:28-34

8:26-39pp — Mk 5:1-20

²⁶They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes,^a which is across the lake from Galilee. ²⁷When Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me,^s Jesus, Son of the Most High God?^t I beg you, don't torture me!" ²⁹For Jesus had commanded the impure spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places.

³⁰Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

"Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. ³¹And they begged Jesus repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss.^u

³²A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and he gave them permission. ³³When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake^v and was drowned.

³⁴When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, ³⁵and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet,^w dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ³⁶Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed^x man had been cured. ³⁷Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them,^y because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left.

Jesus Raises a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

8:40-56pp — Mt 9:18-26; Mk 5:22-43

⁴⁰Now when Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. ⁴¹Then a man named Jairus, a synagogue leader,^z came and fell at Jesus’ feet, pleading with him to come to his house ⁴²because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying.

As Jesus was on his way, the crowds almost crushed him. ⁴³And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding^a for twelve years,^a but no one could heal her. ⁴⁴She came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak,^b and immediately her bleeding stopped.

⁴⁵“Who touched me?” Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter said, “Master,^c the people are crowding and pressing against you.”

⁴⁶But Jesus said, “Someone touched me;^d I know that power has gone out from me.”^e

⁴⁷Then the woman, seeing that she could not go unnoticed, came trembling and fell at his feet. In the presence of all the people, she told why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed. ⁴⁸Then he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you.^f Go in peace.”^g

⁴⁹While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader.^h “Your daughter is dead,” he said. “Don’t bother the teacher anymore.”

⁵⁰Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed.”

⁵¹When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John and James,ⁱ and the child’s father and mother. ⁵²Meanwhile, all the people were wailing and mourning^j for her.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

9:3-5pp — Mt 10:9-15; Mk 6:8-11

9:7-9pp — Mt 14:1,2; Mk 6:14-16

9 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demonsⁿ and to cure diseases,^o ²and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God^p and to heal the sick. ³He told them: “Take nothing for the journey — no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no extra shirt.^q ⁴Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town. ⁵If people do not welcome you, leave their town and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”^r ⁶So they set out and went from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

⁷Now Herod^s the tetrarch heard about all that was going on. And he was perplexed because some were saying that John^t had been raised from the dead,^u ⁸others that Elijah had appeared,^v and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life.^w ⁹But Herod said, “I beheaded John. Who, then, is this I hear such things about?” And he tried to see him.^x

The Transfiguration

²⁸About eight days after Jesus said this, he took Peter, John and James^r with him and went up onto a mountain to pray.^s ²⁹As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. ³⁰Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in glorious splendor, talking with Jesus. ³¹They spoke about his departure,^t which he was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem. ³²Peter and his companions were very sleepy,^u but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. ³³As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, “Master,^v it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters — one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.” (He did not know what he was saying.)

³⁴While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, whom I have chosen;^w listen to him.”^x ³⁶When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to themselves and did not tell anyone at that time what they had seen.^y

⁴²Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the impure spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father. ⁴³And they were all amazed at the greatness of God.

Jesus Predicts His Death a Second Time

While everyone was marveling at all that Jesus did, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴“Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men.”^a ⁴⁵But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it,^b and they were afraid to ask him about it.

⁴⁶An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.^c ⁴⁷Jesus, knowing their thoughts,^d took a little child and had him stand beside him. ⁴⁸Then he said to them, “Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me.^e For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest.”^f

⁴⁹“Master,”^g said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us.”

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

10:25-28pp — Mt 22:34-40; Mk 12:28-31

²⁵On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”^t

²⁶“What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?”

²⁷He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’^{b,u} and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’^{c,v}

²⁸“You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”^w

²⁹But he wanted to justify himself,^x so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. ¹⁷Jesus knew their thoughts^r and said to them: “Any kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall. ¹⁸If Satan^s is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim that I drive out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your followers drive them out? So

The Sign of Jonah

²⁹As the crowds increased, Jesus said, “This is a wicked generation. Woes on the Pharisees and the Experts in the Law

³⁷When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him; so he went in and reclined at the table.^f ³⁸But the Pharisee was surprised when he noticed that Jesus did not first wash before the meal.^g

Do Not Worry

²²Then Jesus said to his disciples: “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. ²³For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. ²⁴Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them.⁵ And how much more valuable you are than birds! ²⁵Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life^a? ²⁶Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

²⁷“Consider how the wild flowers grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor^t was dressed like one of these. ²⁸If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you — you of little faith!^u ²⁹And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it. ³⁰For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father^v knows that you need them.^w ³¹But seek his kingdom,^x and these things will be given to you as well.^y

³²“Do not be afraid,^z little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom.^a ³³Sell your possessions and give to the poor.^b Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven^c that will never fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.^d ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.^e

⁴¹Peter asked, “Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?”

Interpreting the Times

⁵⁴He said to the crowd: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘It’s going to rain,’ and it does.^q ⁵⁵And when the south wind blows, you say, ‘It’s going to be hot,’ and it is. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! Repent or Perish

13 Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate^u had mixed with their sacrifices. ²Jesus answered, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way?^v ³I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish. ⁴Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam^w fell on them — do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? ⁵I tell you, no! Jesus Heals a Crippled Woman on the Sabbath

¹⁰On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues,^a ¹¹and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years.^b She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, “Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.” ¹³Then he put his hands on her,^c and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

¹⁴Indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath,^d the synagogue leader^e said to the people, “There are six days for work.^f So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath.”

¹⁵The Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Doesn’t each of you on the Sabbath untie your ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water?^g ¹⁶Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham,^h whom Satanⁱ has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?”

Jesus at a Pharisee’s House

14 One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee,^c he was being carefully watched.^d ²There in front of him was a man suffering from abnormal swelling of his body. ³Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law,^e “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?”^f ⁴But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him on his way.

⁵Then he asked them, “If one of you has a child^c or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?”^g ⁶And they had nothing to say.

⁷When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table,^h he told them this parable: ⁸“When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. ⁹If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”ⁱ

The Parable of the Great Banquet

14:16-24 Ref — Mt 22:2-14

¹⁵When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, “Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast^l in the kingdom of God.”^m

¹⁶Jesus replied: “A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests. ¹⁷At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’

¹⁸“But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, ‘I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.’

¹⁹“Another said, ‘I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’

²⁰“Still another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’

²¹“The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.’ⁿ ²²“‘Sir,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.’

²³“Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. ²⁴I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.’”^o

The Cost of Being a Disciple

²⁵Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: ²⁶“If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters — yes, even their own life — such a person cannot be my disciple.^p ²⁷And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.^q

³¹“Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won’t he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? ³²If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. ³³In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.^r

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15:4-7 pp — Mt 18:12-14

15 Now the tax collectors^v and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. ²But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”^w

³Then Jesus told them this parable:^x ⁴“Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?^y ⁵And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders ⁶and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’^z ⁷I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.^a

The Parable of the Lost Son

¹¹Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons.^d ¹²The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.'^e So he divided his property^f between them.

¹³"Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth^g in wild living. ¹⁴After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.^h ¹⁶He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

¹⁷"When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! ¹⁸I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinnedⁱ against heaven and against you. ¹⁹I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.'^j So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.^j ²¹"The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.^k I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

²⁸"The older brother became angry^p and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. ²⁹But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours who has squandered your property^q with prostitutes^r comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

16 Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions.^t ²So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

³"The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg — ⁴I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

“‘A thousand bushels^a of wheat,’ he replied.

“He told him, ‘Take your bill and make it eight hundred.’

8“The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world^u are more shrewd^v in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.^w 9I tell you, use worldly wealth^x to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.^y

10“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much,^z and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. 11So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth,^a who will trust you with true riches? 12And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?

13“No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”^b 14The Pharisees, who loved money,^c heard all this and were sneering at Jesus.^d 15He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves^e in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts.^f What people value highly is detestable in God’s sight.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19“‘There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day.^k 20At his gate was laid a beggar^l named Lazarus, covered with sores²¹ and longing to eat what fell from the rich man’s table.^m Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

22“‘The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. 23In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. 24So he called to him, ‘Father Abraham,ⁿ have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.’^o

25“‘But Abraham replied, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things,^p but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.^q 26And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.’

27“‘He answered, ‘Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my family, 28for I have five brothers. Let him warn them,^r so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’

29“‘Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses^s and the Prophets;^t let them listen to them.’

30“‘No, father Abraham,^u he said, ‘but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

31“‘He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Sin, Faith, Duty

17 Jesus said to his disciples: “Things that cause people to stumble^v are bound to come, but woe to anyone through whom they come.^w 2It would be better for them to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied around their neck than to cause one of these little ones^x to stumble.^y ³So watch yourselves.

⁴If your brother or sister^a sins against you, rebuke them;^z and if they repent, forgive them.^a ⁴Even if they sin against you seven times in a day and seven times come back to you saying ‘I repent,’ you must forgive them.”^b

⁵The apostles^c said to the Lord, ^d“Increase our faith!”

⁶He replied, “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed,^e you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.”^f

⁷“Suppose one of you has a servant plowing or looking after the sheep. Will he say to the servant when he comes in from the field, ‘Come along now and sit down to eat’? ⁸Won’t he rather say, ‘Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me^g while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink’? ⁹Will he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do? ¹⁰So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’”^h

Jesus Heals Ten Men With Leprosy

¹¹Now on his way to Jerusalem,ⁱ Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee.^j ¹²As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy^{bk} met him. They stood at a distance^l ¹³and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master,^m have pity on us!”

¹⁴When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.”ⁿ And as they went, they were cleansed.

¹⁵One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God^o in a loud voice. ¹⁶He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.^p

¹⁷Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? ¹⁸Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”^q

The Coming of the Kingdom of God

²⁰Once, on being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come,^r Jesus replied, “The coming of the kingdom of God is not something that can be observed, ²¹nor will people say, ‘Here it is,’ or ‘There it is,’^s because the kingdom of God is in your midst.”^c

²²Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man,^t but you will not see it.”^u ²³People will tell you, ‘There he is!’ or ‘Here he is!’ Do not go running off after them.^v ²⁴For the Son of Man in his day^d will be like the lightning,^w which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other. ²⁵But first he must suffer many things^x and be rejected^y by this generation.^z

²⁶“Just as it was in the days of Noah,^a so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

³⁰“It will be just like this on the day the Son of Man is revealed.^c ³¹On that day no one who is on the housetop, with possessions inside, should go down to get them. Likewise, no one in the field should go back for anything.^d ³²Remember Lot’s wife!^e ³³Whoever tries to keep their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life will preserve it.^f ³⁴I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left. ³⁵Two women will be grinding grain

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up.ⁱ

²He said: “In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought. ³And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, ‘Grant me justice^j against my adversary.’

⁴“For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, ‘Even though I don’t fear God or care what people think, ⁵yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won’t eventually come and attack me!’”^k

⁶And the Lord^l said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out^m to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? ⁸I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Manⁿ comes, ⁹will he find faith on the earth?”

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

⁹To some who were confident of their own righteousness^p and looked down on everyone else,^q Jesus told this parable: ¹⁰“Two men went up to the temple to pray,^r one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee stood by himself^s and prayed: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people — robbers, evil-doers, adulterers — or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast^t twice a week and give a tenth^u of all I get.’

¹³“But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast^v and said, ‘God, have mercy on me, a sinner.’”^w

The Little Children and Jesus

¹⁵People were also bringing babies to Jesus for him to place his hands on them. When the disciples saw this, they rebuked them. ¹⁶But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child^y will never enter it.”

The Rich and the Kingdom of God

¹⁸A certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”^z

¹⁹“Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good — except God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments: ‘You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.’”^{b”a}

²²When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor,^b and you will have treasure in heaven.^c Then come, follow me.”

²³When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was very wealthy. ²⁴Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!^d ²⁵Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶Those who heard this asked, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁷Jesus replied, “What is impossible with man is possible with God.”^e

²⁸Peter said to him, “We have left all we had to follow you!”^f

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

18:31-33pp — Mt 20:17-19; Mk 10:32-34

³¹Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, “We are going up to Jerusalem,ⁱ and everything that is written by the prophets^j about the Son of Man^k will be fulfilled. ³²He will be delivered over to the Gentiles.^l They will mock him, insult him and spit on him; ³³they will flog him^m and kill him.ⁿ On the third day^o he will rise again.”^p

³⁴The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking about.^q

A Blind Beggar Receives His Sight

18:35-43pp — Mt 20:29-34; Mk 10:46-52

³⁵As Jesus approached Jericho,^r a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. ³⁶When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. ³⁷They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”^s

³⁸He called out, “Jesus, Son of David,^t have mercy^u on me!”

³⁹Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”^v

⁴⁰Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, ⁴¹“What do you want me to do for you?”

“Lord, I want to see,” he replied.

⁴²Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”^w ⁴³Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.^x

⁷All the people saw this and began to mutter, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.”^b

The Parable of the Ten Minas

19:12-27Ref — Mt 25:14-30

¹¹While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God^h was going to appear at once.ⁱ

¹²He said: “A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. ¹³So he called ten of his servants^j and gave them ten minas.^a ‘Put this money to work,’ he said, ‘until I come back.’

¹⁴“But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We don’t want this man to be our king.’

¹⁶“The first one came and said, ‘Sir, your mina has earned ten more.’

Jesus at the Temple

19:45, 46pp — Mt 21:12-16; Mk 11:15-18;

⁴⁵When Jesus entered the temple courts, he began to drive out those who were selling. ⁴⁶“It is written,” he said to them, “‘My house will be a house of prayer’^b;^f but you have made it ‘a den of robbers.’^c”^g

⁴⁷Every day he was teaching at the temple.^h But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him.ⁱ ⁴⁸Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

20:1-8pp — Mt 21:23-27; Mk 11:27-33

20 One day as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts^j and proclaiming the good news,^k the chief priests and the teachers of the law, together with the elders, came up to him. ²“Tell us by what authority you are doing these things,” they said. “Who gave you this authority?”^l

³He replied, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me: ⁴John’s baptism^m — was it from heaven, or of human origin?”

⁵They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ ⁶But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ all the peopleⁿ will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”^o

⁷So they answered, “We don’t know where it was from.”

⁸Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

The Parable of the Tenants

20:9-19pp — Mt 21:33-46; Mk 12:1-12

⁹He went on to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard,^p rented it to some farmers and went away for a long time.^q ¹⁰At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed. ¹²He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

¹³“Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love;’ perhaps they will respect him.’

¹⁴“But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over. ‘This is the heir,’ they said. ‘Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ¹⁵So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

When the people heard this, they said, “God forbid!”

¹⁷Jesus looked directly at them and asked, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

“‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’^{a?}”^t

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”^u

Paying Taxes to Caesar

20:20-26pp — Mt 22:15-22; Mk 12:13-17

²⁰Keeping a close watch on him, they sent spies, who pretended to be sincere. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said,^x so that they might hand him over to the power and authority of the governor.^y ²¹So the spies questioned him: “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and that you do not show partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth.^z ²²Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³He saw through their duplicity and said to them, ²⁴“Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

²⁵He said to them, “Then give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s,^a and to God what is God’s.”

²⁶They were unable to trap him in what he had said there in public. And astonished by his answer, they became silent.

35Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you without purse, bag or sandals,^w did you lack anything?”

“Nothing,” they answered.

36He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one. 37It is written: ‘And he was numbered with the transgressors’^b;^x and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

22:40-46pp — Mt 26:36-46; Mk 14:32-42

39Jesus went out as usual^y to the Mount of Olives,^z and his disciples followed him. 40On reaching the place, he said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”^a 41He withdrew about a stone’s throw beyond them, knelt down^b and prayed, 42“Father, if you are willing, take this cup^c from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.”^d 43An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.^e 44And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.^a ⁴⁵When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow.

⁴⁶“Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.”^f

Jesus Arrested

22:47-53pp — Mt 26:47-56; Mk 14:43-50; Jn 18:3-11

⁴⁷While he was still speaking a crowd came up, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him, ⁴⁸but Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

⁴⁹When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with our swords?”^g ⁵⁰And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

⁵¹But Jesus answered, “No more of this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

⁵²Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard,^h and the elders, who had come for him, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs? ⁵³Every day I was with you in the temple courts,ⁱ and you did not lay a hand on me. Peter Disowns Jesus

⁵⁴Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest.^l Peter followed at a distance.^m ⁵⁵And when some there had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them. ⁵⁶A servant girl saw him seated there in the fire-light. She looked closely at him and said, “This man was with him.”

⁵⁷But he denied it. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said.

⁵⁸A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.”

The Guards Mock Jesus

22:63-65pp — Mt 26:67,68; Mk 14:65; Jn 18:22,23

³So Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

“You have said so,” Jesus replied.

⁴Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.”^b

⁵But they insisted, “He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee^c and has come all the way here.”

⁶On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean.^d ⁷When he learned that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod,^e who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

⁸When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him.^f From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform a sign of some sort. ⁹He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer.^g ¹⁰The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe,^h they sent him back to Pilate. ¹²That day Herod and Pilate became friendsⁱ — before this they had been enemies.

¹³Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, “You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him.^j ¹⁵Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. ¹⁶Therefore, I will punish him^k and then release him.” [17]^a ¹⁸But the whole crowd shouted, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!”^l ¹⁹(Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.)

and upright man,⁵¹ who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea, and he himself was waiting for the kingdom of God.⁵² Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body.⁵³ Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no one had yet been laid. ⁵⁴It was Preparation Day,^t and the Sabbath was about to begin.

⁵⁵The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee^u followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it. ⁵⁶Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes.^v But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.^w

Jesus Has Risen

24:1-10pp — Mt 28:1-8; Mk 16:1-8; Jn 20:1-8

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared^x and went to the tomb. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.^y ⁴While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning^z stood beside them. ⁵In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee:^a ⁷'The Son of Man^b must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'"^c ⁸Then they remembered his words.^d

⁹When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. ¹⁰It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them^e who told this to the apostles.^f ¹¹But they did not believe^g the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. ¹²Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves,^h and he went away,ⁱ wondering to himself what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

¹³Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles^a from Jerusalem.^j ¹⁴They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. ¹⁵As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them;^k ¹⁶but they were kept from recognizing him.^l

¹⁷He asked them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?”

They stood still, their faces downcast. ¹⁸One of them, named Cleopas,^m asked him, “Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?”

¹⁹“What things?” he asked.

“About Jesus of Nazareth,”ⁿ they replied. “He was a prophet,^o powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. ²⁰The chief priests and our rulers^p handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; ²¹but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel.^q And what is more, it is the third day^r since all this took place. ²²In addition, some of our women amazed us.^s They went to the tomb early this morning ²³but didn’t find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. ²⁴Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus.”^t

²⁵He said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?”^u ²⁷And beginning with Moses^v and all the Prophets,^w he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.^x

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word,^a and the Word was with God,^b and the Word was God.^c ²He was with God in the beginning.^d ³Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.^e ⁴In him was life,^f and that life was the light^g of all mankind. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome^a it.^h

⁶There was a man sent from God whose name was John.ⁱ ⁷He came as a witness to testify^j concerning that light, so that through him all might believe.^k ⁸He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

⁹The true light^l that gives light to everyone^m was coming into the world. ¹⁰He was in the world, and though the world was made through him,ⁿ the world did not recognize him. ¹¹He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. ¹²Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed^o in his name,^p he gave the right to become children of God^q — ¹³children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.^r

¹⁴The Word became flesh^s and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.^t

¹⁵(John testified^u concerning him. He cried out, saying, "This is the one I spoke about when I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'")^v ¹⁶Out of his fullness^w we have all received grace in place of grace already given. ¹⁷For the law was given through Moses;^x grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.^y ¹⁸No one has ever seen God,^z but the one and only Son, who

John the Baptist Denies Being the Messiah

¹⁹Now this was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders^{cb} in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. ²⁰He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, "I am not the Messiah."^c

²¹They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?"^d

He said, "I am not."

He answered, "No."

²²Finally they said, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness,^f 'Make straight the way for the Lord.'"^{dg}

²⁴Now the Pharisees who had been sent ²⁵questioned him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

²⁸This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan,ⁱ where John was baptizing.

John Testifies About Jesus

²⁹The next day John saw Jesus

³²Then John gave this testimony: “I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him.^l ³³And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water^m told me, ‘The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ⁿ ³⁴I have seen and I testify that this is God’s Chosen One.”^{ao}

John’s Disciples Follow Jesus

1:40-42pp — Mt 4:18-22; Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:2-11

³⁵The next day John^p was there again with two of his disciples. ³⁶When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”^q

³⁷When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. ³⁸Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, “What do you want?”

They said, “Rabbi”^r (which means “Teacher”), “where are you staying?”

³⁹“Come,” he replied, “and you will see.”

So they went and saw where he was staying, and they spent that day with him. It was about four in the afternoon.

⁴⁰Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. ⁴¹The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, “We have found the Messiah” (that is, the Christ).^s ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus.

Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You will be called^t Cephas” (which, when translated, is Peter^b).^u ⁴⁶“Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?”^d Nathanael asked. “Come and see,” said Philip.

⁴⁷When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, “Here truly is an Israelite^e in whom there is no deceit.”^f

⁴⁸“How do you know me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus answered, “I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you.”

⁴⁹Then Nathanael declared, “Rabbi,^g you are the Son of God;^h you are the king of Israel.”ⁱ ⁵⁰Jesus said, “You believe^c because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that.” ⁵¹He then added, “Very truly I tell you,^d you^d will see ‘heaven open,^j and the angels of God ascending and descending^k on^e the Son of Man.’^l

Jesus Changes Water Into Wine

2 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee.^m Jesus’ motherⁿ was there, ²and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. ³When the wine was gone, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no more wine.”

⁴“Woman,^{fo} why do you involve me?”^p Jesus replied. “My hour^q has not yet come.”

⁵His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”^r

⁶Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing,^s each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.⁹

⁷Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water”; so they filled them to the brim.

They did so, ⁹and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine.^t He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside ¹⁰and said, “Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now.”

¹¹What Jesus did here in Cana of Galilee was the first of the signs^u through which he revealed his glory;^v and his disciples believed in him.^w ¹²After this he went down to Capernaum^x with his mother and brothers^y and his disciples. There they stayed for a few days.

Jesus Clears the Temple Courts

2:14-16pp — Mt 21:12,13; Mk 11:15-17;
Lk 19:45,46

¹³When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover,^z Jesus went up to Jerusalem.^a ¹⁴In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money. ¹⁵So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶To those who sold doves he said, “Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father’s house^b into a market!” ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written: “Zeal for your house will consume me.”^{ac}

¹⁸The Jews then responded to him, “What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?”^d

¹⁹Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days.”^e

²⁰They replied, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?”

²¹But the temple he had spoken of was his body.^f ²²After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said.^g Then they believed the scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

3 Now there was a Pharisee, a man named Nicodemus^j who was a member of the Jewish ruling council.^k ²He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the signs^l you are doing if God were not with him.”^m

³Jesus replied, “Very truly I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born again.”ⁿ

⁵Jesus answered, “Very truly I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born of water and the Spirit.^o ⁶Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit^d gives birth to spirit.^p ⁷You should not be surprised at my saying, ‘You^e must be born again.’ ⁸The wind blows wherever it pleases. John Testifies Again About Jesus

²²After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptized.^h ²³Now John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were coming and being baptized. ²⁴(This was before John was put in prison.)ⁱ ²⁵An argument developed between some of John’s disciples and a certain Jew over the matter of ceremonial washing.^j ²⁶They came to John and said to him, “Rabbi,^k that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan — the one you testified^l about — look, he is baptizing, and everyone is going to him.”

Jesus Talks With a Samaritan Woman

4 Now Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard that he was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John^x — ²although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples. ³So he left Judea^y and went back once more to Galilee.

⁴Now he had to go through Samaria. ⁵So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph.^z ⁶Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.

⁷When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, “Will you give me a drink?”⁸ (His disciples had gone into the town^a to buy food.)

⁹The Samaritan woman said to him, “You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan^b woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.^f)

¹⁰Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks

¹¹“Sir,” the woman said, “you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? ¹²Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well^d and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?”

¹³Jesus answered, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst.^e Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water^f welling up to eternal life.”^g

¹⁵The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water so that I won’t get thirsty^h and have to keep coming here to draw water.”

¹⁶He told her, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

¹⁷“I have no husband,” she replied.

Jesus said to her, “You are right when you say you have no husband. ¹⁸The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true.”

¹⁹“Sir,” the woman said, “I can see that you are a prophet.ⁱ ²⁰Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain,^j but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.”^k

²¹“Woman,” Jesus replied, “believe me, a time is coming^l when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.^m ²²You Samaritans worship what you do not know;ⁿ we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.^o ²³Yet a time is coming and has now come^p when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit^q and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. ²⁴God is spirit,^r and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

²⁵The woman said, “I know that Messiah” (called Christ)^s “is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

The Disciples Rejoin Jesus

²⁷Just then his disciples returned^u and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you talking with her?”

²⁸Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, ²⁹“Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did.^v Could this be the Messiah?”^w ³⁰They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

³⁴“My food,” said Jesus, “is to do the will^z of him who sent me and to finish his work.^a ³⁵Don’t you have a saying, ‘It’s still four months until harvest’? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.^b ³⁶Even now the one who reaps draws a wage and harvests^c a crop for eternal life,^d so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together. ³⁷Thus the saying ‘One sows and another reaps’^e is true. ³⁸I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor.”

Many Samaritans Believe

³⁹Many of the Samaritans from that town^f believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I ever did.”^g ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. ⁴¹And because of his words many more became believers.

⁴²They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world.”^h

Jesus Heals an Official’s Son

⁴³After the two daysⁱ he left for Galilee. ⁴⁴(Now Jesus himself had pointed out that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)^j ⁴⁵When

he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival,^k for they also had been there.

⁴⁶Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine.^l And there was a certain royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum. ⁴⁷When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea,^m he went to him and begged him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.

⁴⁸“Unless you people see signs and wonders,”ⁿ Jesus told him, “you will never believe.”

⁴⁹The royal official said, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”

⁵⁰“Go,” Jesus replied, “your son will live.”

The man took Jesus at his word and departed. ⁵¹While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living. ⁵²When he inquired as to the time when his son got better, they said to him, “Yesterday, at one in the afternoon, the fever left him.”

⁵³Then the father realized that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live.” So he and his whole household^o believed.

⁵⁴This was the second sign^p Jesus performed after coming from Judea to Galilee.

The Healing at the Pool

5 Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish festivals. ²Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate^a a pool, which in Aramaic^r is called Bethesda^a and which is surrounded by five covered colonnades. ³Here a great number of disabled people used to lie—the blind, the lame, the paralyzed. [⁴]^b ⁵One who was there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to get well?”

⁷“Sir,” the invalid replied, “I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me.”

⁸Then Jesus said to him, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk.”^s ⁹At once the man was cured; he picked up his mat and walked.

The day on which this took place was a Sabbath,^t ¹⁰and so the Jewish leaders^u said to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath; the law forbids you to carry your mat.”^v

¹¹But he replied, “The man who made me well said to me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”

¹²So they asked him, “Who is this fellow who told you to pick it up and walk?”

¹³The man who was healed had no idea who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

¹⁴Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, “See, you are well again. Stop sinning^w or something worse may happen to you.”

¹⁵The man went away and told the Jewish leaders^x that it was Jesus who had made him well.

The Authority of the Son

¹⁶So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jewish leaders began to persecute him. ¹⁷In his defense Jesus said to them, “My Father is always at his work^y to this very day, and I too am working.” ¹⁸For this reason they tried all the more to kill him;^z not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.^a ¹⁹Jesus gave them this answer: “Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself;^b he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son^c and shows him all he does.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

6 Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), ²and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the signs^m he had performed by healing the sick. ³Then Jesus went up on a mountain-sideⁿ and sat down with his disciples. ⁴The Jewish Passover Festival^o was near.

⁵When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip,^p “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?” ⁶He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

⁷Philip answered him, “It would take more than half a year’s wages^c to buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!”

¹⁰Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down (about five thousand men were there). ¹¹Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks,^s and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

¹²When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." ¹³So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴After the people saw the sign^t Jesus performed, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world."^u ¹⁵Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king^v by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.^w

Jesus Walks on the Water

6:16-21pp — Mt 14:22-33; Mk 6:47-51

¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, ¹⁷where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. ¹⁸A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. ¹⁹When they had rowed about three or four miles,^a they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water;^x and they were frightened. ²⁰But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid."^y ²¹Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

²²The next day the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore of the lake^z realized that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but that they had gone away alone.^a ²³Then some boats from Tiberias^b landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.^c ²⁴Once the crowd re-

Jesus the Bread of Life

²⁵When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, "Rabbi,^d when did you get here?"

²⁶Jesus answered, "Very truly I tell you, you are looking for me,^e not because you saw the signs^f I performed but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. ²⁷Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures^g to eternal life,^h which the Son of Manⁱ will give you. For on him God the Father has placed his seal^j of approval."

²⁸Then they asked him, "What must we do to do the works God requires?"

²⁹Jesus answered, "The work of God is this: to believe^k in the one he has sent."^l

³⁰So they asked him, "What sign^m then will you give that we may see it and believe you?"ⁿ What will you do? ³¹Our ancestors ate the manna^o in the wilderness; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'^b^p

³²Jesus said to them, "Very truly I tell you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is the bread that comes down from heaven^q and gives life to the world."

³⁴"Sir," they said, "always give us this bread."^r

³⁵Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life.^s Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.^t ³⁶But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. ³⁷All those the Father gives me^u will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me.^v ³⁹And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all those he has given me,^w but raise

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

⁶⁰On hearing it, many of his disciples^p said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

⁶¹Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you?^q ⁶²Then what if you see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before!^r ⁶³The Spirit gives life;^s the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you — they are full of the Spirit^b and life. ⁶⁴Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus had known^t from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him. ⁶⁵He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has enabled them."^u ⁶⁶From this time many of his disciples^v turned back and no longer followed him.

⁶⁷"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.^w

⁶⁸Simon Peter answered him,^x "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God."^y

⁷⁰Then Jesus replied, "Have I not chosen you,^z the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!"^a ⁷¹(He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, who, though one of the Twelve, was later to betray him.)

Jesus Goes to the Festival of Tabernacles

7 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee. He did not want^c to go about in Judea because the Jewish leaders^b there were looking for a way to kill him.^c ²But when the Jewish Festival of Tabernacles^d was near, ³Jesus' brothers^e said to him, "Leave Galilee and go to Judea, so that your disciples there may see the works you do. ⁴No one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world.”⁵ For even his own brothers did not believe in him.^f

⁶Therefore Jesus told them, “My time⁹ is not yet here; for you any time will do. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it hates me^h because I testify that its works are evil.ⁱ ⁸You go to the festival. I am not^a going up to this festival, because my time^j has not yet fully come.” ⁹After he had said this, he stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰However, after his brothers had left for the festival, he went also, not publicly, but in secret. ¹¹Now at the festival the Jewish leaders were watching for Jesus^k and asking, “Where is he?”

¹²Among the crowds there was widespread whispering about him. Some said, “He is a good man.”

Others replied, “No, he deceives the people.”^l ¹³But no one would say anything publicly about him for fear of the leaders.^m

Jesus Teaches at the Festival

¹⁴Not until halfway through the festival did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach.ⁿ ¹⁵The Jews^o there were amazed and asked, “How did this man get such learning^p without having been taught?”^q

¹⁶Jesus answered, “My teaching is not my own. It comes from the one who sent me.”^r ¹⁷Anyone who chooses to do the will of God will find out^s whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. ¹⁸Whoever speaks on their own does so to gain personal glory,^t but he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him. ¹⁹Has not Moses given you the law?^u Yet not one of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?^v

²⁰“You are demon-possessed,”^w the crowd answered. “Who is trying to kill you?”

²¹Jesus said to them, “I did one miracle, and you are all amazed. ²²Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision^x (though actually it did not come from Moses, but from the patriarchs),^y you circumcise a boy on

Division Over Who Jesus Is

²⁵At that point some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?” ²⁶Here he is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying a word to him. Have the authorities^a really concluded that he is the Messiah? ²⁷But we know where this man is from;^b when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from.”

²⁸Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts,^c cried out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from.^d I am not here on my own authority, but he who sent me is true.^e You do not know him, ²⁹but I know him^f because I am from him and he sent me.”

³⁰At this they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him,^g because his hour had not yet come. ³¹Still, many in the crowd believed in him.^h They said, “When the Messiah comes, will he perform more signsⁱ than this man?”

³³Jesus said, “I am with you for only a short time,^j and then I am going to the one who sent me.^k ³⁴You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.”^l

³⁵The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered^m among the Greeks,ⁿ and teach the Greeks? ³⁶What did he mean when he said, ‘You will look for me, but you will not find me,’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come?’”

³⁷On the last and greatest day of the festival,^o Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “Let anyone who is thirsty come

⁴⁰On hearing his words, some of the people said, “Surely this man is the Prophet.”^w

⁴¹Others said, “He is the Messiah.”

Still others asked, “How can the Messiah come from Galilee?”^x ⁴²Does not Scripture say that the Messiah will come from David’s descendants^y and from Bethlehem,^z the town where David lived?” ⁴³Thus the people were divided^a because of Jesus. ⁴⁴Some wanted to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.^b

Unbelief of the Jewish Leaders

⁴⁵Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and the Pharisees, who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

⁴⁶“No one ever spoke the way this man does,”^c the guards replied.

⁵⁰Nicodemus,^f who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, asked, ⁵¹“Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he has been doing?”

⁵²They replied, “Are you from Galilee, too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet does not come out of Galilee.”^g

²At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them.ⁱ ³The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group ⁴and said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. ⁵In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women.^j Now what do you say?” ⁶They were using this question as a trap,^k in order to have a basis for accusing him.^l

But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger. ⁷When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let any one of you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone^m at her.”ⁿ ⁸Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

⁹At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there. ¹⁰Jesus straightened up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

¹¹“No one, sir,” she said.

“Then neither do I condemn you,”^o Jesus declared. “Go now and leave your life of sin.”^p

Dispute Over Jesus’ Testimony

¹²When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, “I am^q the light of the world.^r Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”^s

¹³The Pharisees challenged him, “Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid.”^t

¹⁴Jesus answered, “Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going.^u But you have no idea where I come from^v or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge by human standards;^w I pass judgment on no one.^x ¹⁶But if I do judge, my decisions are true, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me.^y ¹⁷In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true.^z ¹⁸I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me.”^a

^a 37,38 Or me. And let anyone drink ³⁸who believes in me.” As Scripture has said, “Out of him (or them) will flow rivers of living water.”

¹⁹Then they asked him, “Where is your father?”

“You do not know me or my Father,”^b Jesus replied. “If you knew me, you would know my Father also.”^c ²⁰He spoke these words while teaching^d in the temple courts near the place where the offerings were put.^e Yet no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.^f

Dispute Over Who Jesus Is

²¹Once more Jesus said to them, “I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die^g in your sin. Where I go, you cannot come.”^h

²²This made the Jews ask, “Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, ‘Where I go, you cannot come?’”

²³But he continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.”ⁱ ²⁴I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am he,^j you will indeed die in your sins.”

²⁵“Who are you?” they asked.

“Just what I have been telling you from the beginning,” Jesus replied. ²⁶“I have much to say in judgment of you. But he who sent me is trustworthy,^k and what I have heard from him I tell the world.”^l

²⁷They did not understand that he was telling them about his Father. ²⁸So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up^a the Son of Man,^m then you will know that I am he and that I do nothing on my own but speak just what the Father has taught me. ²⁹The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone,ⁿ for I always do what pleases him.”^o ³⁰Even as he spoke, many believed in him.^p

Dispute Over Whose Children Jesus’ Opponents Are

³¹To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, “If you hold to my teaching,^q you are really my disciples. ³²Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”^r

³³They answered him, “We are Abraham’s descendants^s and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?”

³⁴Jesus replied, “Very truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.^t ³⁵Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever.^u ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are looking for a way to kill me,^v because you have no room for my word. ³⁸I am telling you what I have seen in the Father’s presence,^w and you are doing what you have heard from your father.^b”

³⁹“Abraham is our father,” they answered.

“If you were Abraham’s children,”^x said Jesus, “then you would^c do what Abraham did. ⁴⁰As it is, you are looking for a way to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God.^y Abraham did not do such things. ⁴¹You are doing the works of your own father.”^z

“We are not illegitimate children,” they protested. “The only Father we have is God himself.”^a ⁴²Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me,^b for I have come here from God.^c I have not come on my own;^d God sent me.^e ⁴³Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. ⁴⁴You belong to your father, the devil,^f and you want to carry out your father’s desires.^g He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.^h ⁴⁵Yet because I tell the truth,ⁱ you do not believe me! ⁴⁶Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe me? ⁴⁷Whoever belongs to God hears what God says.^j The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God.”

Jesus’ Claims About Himself

⁴⁸The Jews answered him, “Aren’t we right in saying that you are a Samaritan^k and demon-possessed?”^l

^a 28 The Greek for lifted up also means exalted.

^b 38 Or presence. Therefore do what you have heard from the Father.

^c 39 Some early manuscripts “If you are Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then

⁴⁹“I am not possessed by a demon,” said Jesus, “but I honor my Father and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰I am not seeking glory for myself;^m but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge. ⁵¹Very truly I tell you, whoever obeys my word will never see death.”ⁿ

⁵²At this they exclaimed, “Now we know that you are demon-possessed! Abraham died and so did the prophets, yet you say that whoever obeys your word will never taste death. ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham?^o He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

⁵⁴Jesus replied, “If I glorify myself,^p my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me.^q ⁵⁵Though you do not know him,^r I know him.^s If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and obey his word.^t ⁵⁶Your father Abraham^u rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it^v and was glad.”

⁵⁷“You are not yet fifty years old,” they said to him, “and you have seen Abraham!”

⁵⁸“Very truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “before Abraham was born,^w I am!”^x ⁵⁹At this, they picked up stones to stone him,^y but Jesus hid himself,^z slipping away from the temple grounds.

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, “Rabbi,^a who sinned,^b this man^c or his parents,^d that he was born blind?”

³“Neither this man nor his parents sinned,” said Jesus, “but this happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him.^e ⁴As long as it is day,^f we must do the works of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”^g

⁶After saying this, he spit^h on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man’s eyes. ⁷“Go,” he told him, “wash in the Pool of Siloam”ⁱ (this word means “Sent”). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing.^j ⁸His neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the same man who used to sit and beg?”^k ⁹Some claimed that he was.

Others said, “No, he only looks like him.”

But he himself insisted, “I am the man.”

¹⁰“How then were your eyes opened?” they asked.

¹¹He replied, “The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see.”^l

¹²“Where is this man?” they asked him.

“I don’t know,” he said.

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

¹³They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. ¹⁴Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man’s eyes was a Sabbath.^m ¹⁵Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.ⁿ “He put mud on my eyes,” the man replied, “and I washed, and now I see.”

¹⁶Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath.”^o

But others asked, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So they were divided.^p

¹⁷Then they turned again to the blind man, “What have you to say about him? It was your eyes he opened.”

The man replied, “He is a prophet.”^q

¹⁸They^r still did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they sent for the man’s parents. ¹⁹“Is this your son?” they asked. “Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?”

²⁰“We know he is our son,” the parents answered, “and we know he was born blind. ²¹But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don’t know. Ask him. He is of age; he will speak for himself.” ²²His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders,^s who already had decided that anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Messiah would be put out^t of the synagogue.^u ²³That was why his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”^v

²⁴A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. “Give glory to God by telling the truth,”^w they said. “We know this man is a sinner.”^x

²⁵He replied, “Whether he is a sinner or not, I don’t know. One thing I do know. I was blind but now I see!”

²⁶Then they asked him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

²⁷He answered, “I have told you already^y and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples too?”

²⁸Then they hurled insults at him and said, “You are this fellow’s disciple! We are disciples of Moses!^z ²⁹We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this fellow, we don’t even know where he comes from.”^a ³⁰The man answered, “Now that is remarkable! You don’t know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will.^b ³²Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind. ³³If this man were not from God,^c he could do nothing.”

³⁴To this they replied, “You were steeped in sin at birth;^d how dare you lecture us!” And they threw him out.^e

Spiritual Blindness

³⁵Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

³⁶“Who is he, sir?” the man asked. “Tell me so that I may believe in him.”^f

⁴⁰Some Pharisees who were with him heard him say this and asked, “What? Are we blind too?”^m

The Good Shepherd and His Sheep

10 “Very truly I tell you Pharisees, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ²The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.^o ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice.^p He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.” ⁶Jesus used this figure of speech,^q but the Pharisees did not understand what he was telling them.

⁷Therefore Jesus said again, “Very truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸All who have come before me^r are thieves and robbers, but the sheep have not listened to them. ⁹I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved.^b They will come in and go out, and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

¹¹“I am the good shepherd.^s The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.^t ¹²The hired hand is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away.^u Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. ¹³The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

¹⁴“I am the good shepherd;^v I know

^a 38, 39 Some early manuscripts do not have Then the man said . . . ³⁹Jesus said. ^b 9 Or kept safe

my sheep^w and my sheep know me — 15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father^x — and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 I have other sheep^y that are not of this sheep pen.
 I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock^z and one shepherd.^a 17 The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life^b — only to take it up again. 18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord.^c I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father.”^d

19 The Jews who heard these words were again divided.^e 20 Many of them said, “He is demon-possessed^f and raving mad.^g Why listen to him?”

21 But others said, “These are not the sayings of a man possessed by a demon.^h Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”ⁱ

Further Conflict Over Jesus’ Claims

22 Then came the Festival of Dedication^a at Jerusalem. It was winter, 23 and Jesus was in the temple courts walking in Solomon’s Colonnade.^j 24 The Jews^k who were there gathered around him, saying, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”^l

25 Jesus answered, “I did tell you,^m but you do not believe. The works I do in my Father’s name testify about me,ⁿ 26 but you do not believe because you are not my sheep.^o 27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them,^p and they follow me.^q 28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.^r 29 My Father, who has given them to me,^s is greater than all^b; ^t no one can snatch them out of my Father’s hand.
 30 I and the Father are one.”^u

31 Again his Jewish opponents picked up stones to stone him,^v 32 but Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father.
 For which of these do you stone me?”

33 “We are not stoning you for any good work,” they replied, “but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God.”^w

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany,^l the village of Mary and her sister Martha.^m 2 (This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair.)ⁿ 3 So the sisters sent word to Jesus, “Lord, the one you love^o is sick.”

4 When he heard this, Jesus said,
 “This sickness will not end in death.
 No, it is for God’s glory^p so that God’s Son may be glorified through it.”
 5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6 So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days,^q and then he said to his disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”^q

8 “But Rabbi,”^r they said, “a short while ago the Jews there tried to stone you,^s and yet you are going back?”

9 Jesus answered, “Are there not who walks in the daytime will not stumble, for they see by this world's light.^t ¹⁰It is when a person walks at night that they stumble, for they have no light."

¹¹After he had said this, he went on to tell them, "Our friend^u Lazarus has fallen asleep;^v but I am going there to wake him up."

¹²His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better." ¹³Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.^w

¹⁴So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, ¹⁵and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

¹⁶Then Thomas^x (also known as Didymus^o) said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

Jesus Comforts the Sisters of Lazarus

¹⁷On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.^y ¹⁸Now Bethany^z was less than two miles^b from Jerusalem, ¹⁹and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.^a ²⁰When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.^b

²¹"Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died.^c ²²But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask."^d

²³Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection^e at the last day."

²⁵Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life.^f The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; ²⁶and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷"Yes, Lord," she replied, "I believe that you are the Messiah,^g the Son of God,^h who is to come into the world."ⁱ back and called her sister Mary aside. "The Teacher^j is here," she said, "and is asking for you." ²⁹When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.^k ³¹When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her,^l noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

³²When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."^m

³³When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply movedⁿ in spirit and troubled.^o ³⁴"Where have you laid him?" he asked.

"Come and see, Lord," they replied.

³⁵Jesus wept.^p

³⁶Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"^q

³⁷But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man^r have kept this man from dying?"^s

Jesus Raises Lazarus From the Dead

³⁸Jesus, once more deeply moved,^t came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance.^u ³⁹"Take away the stone," he said.

"But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days."^v

⁴⁰Then Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believe,^w you will see the glory of God?"^x

⁴¹So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up^y and said, "Father,^z I thank you that you have heard me. ⁴²I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here,^a that they may believe that you sent me."^b

The Plot to Kill Jesus

⁴⁵Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary,^f and had seen what Jesus did,^g believed in him.^h

⁴⁶But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷Then the chief priests and the Phariseesⁱ called a meeting^j of the Sanhedrin.^k

"What are we accomplishing?" they asked. "Here is this man performing many signs.^l ⁴⁸If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation."

⁴⁹Then one of them, named Caiaphas,^m who was high priest that year,ⁿ spoke up, "You know nothing at all! ⁵⁰You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish."^o

⁵¹He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation,⁵² and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one.^p ⁵³So from that day on they plotted to take his life.^q

⁵⁵When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover,^s many went up from the country to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing^t before the Passover. ⁵⁶They kept looking for Jesus,^u and as they stood in the temple courts they asked one another, "What do you think? Isn't he coming to the festival at all?" ⁵⁷But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who found out where Jesus was should report it so that they might arrest him.

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

12:1-8Ref — Mt 26:6-13; Mk 14:3-9; Lk 7:37-39

12 Six days before the Passover,^v Jesus came to Bethany,^w where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ²Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honor. Martha served,^x while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. ³Then Mary took about a pint^a of pure nard, an expensive perfume;^y she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair.^z And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

⁴But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him,^a objected, ⁵"Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages.^b" ⁶He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag,^b he used to help himself to what was put into it.

"Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.^c ⁸You will always have the poor among you,^{cd} but you will not always have me."

⁹Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.^e ¹⁰So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well, ¹¹for on account of him^f many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and believing in him.^g

¹⁷Now the crowd that was with him^m when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word.

¹⁸Many people, because they had heard that he had performed this sign,ⁿ went out to meet him. ¹⁹So the Pharisees said to one another, “See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!”^o

Jesus Predicts His Death

²⁰Now there were some Greeks^p among those who went up to worship at the festival. ²¹They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida^q in Galilee, with a request. “Sir,” they said, “we would like to see Jesus.” ²²Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.

²³Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.^r ²⁴Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies,^s it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. ²⁵Anyone who loves their life will lose it, while anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it^t for eternal life. ²⁶Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be.^u My Father will honor the one who serves me.

²⁷“Now my soul is troubled,^v and what shall I say? ‘Father,^w save me from this hour?’^x No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven,^y “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.” ²⁹The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

Belief and Unbelief Among the Jews

³⁷Even after Jesus had performed so many signsⁿ in their presence, they still would not believe in him. ³⁸This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

“Lord, who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”^{co}

³⁹For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

⁴⁰“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they can neither see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts,
nor turn — and I would heal them.”^{dp}

⁴¹Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory^q and spoke about him.^r

⁴²Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him.^s But because of the Pharisees^t they would not openly acknowledge their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue;^u ⁴³for they loved human praise more than praise from God.^v

⁴⁴Then Jesus cried out, “Whoever believes in me does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me.”^w ⁴⁵The one who looks at me is seeing the one who sent me.^x ⁴⁶I have come into the world as a light,^y so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

⁴⁷“If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge that person. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.^z ⁴⁸There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; the very words I have spoken will condemn them^a at the last day. ⁴⁹For I did not speak on my own, but the Father who sent me commanded me^b to say all that I have spoken. ⁵⁰I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say.”

Jesus Washes His Disciples’ Feet

13 It was just before the Passover Festival.^c Jesus knew that the hour had come^d for him to leave this world and go to the Father.^e Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

²The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. ³Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power,^f and that he had come from God^g and was returning to God;^h so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. ⁵After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples’ feet,^h drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

⁶He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?”

Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

¹⁰Jesus answered, “Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean,^j though not every one of you.” ¹¹For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

¹²When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. ¹³“You call me ‘Teacher’^k and ‘Lord,’^l and rightly so, for that is what I am. ¹⁴Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet.^m ¹⁵I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.ⁿ ¹⁶Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master,^o nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.^p

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

13:37,38pp — Mt 26:33-35; Mk 14:29-31; Lk 22:33,34

³¹When he was gone, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified^f and God is glorified in him.^g ³²If God is glorified in him,^a God will glorify him at once.

³³“My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.ⁱ

³⁴“A new command^j I give you: Love one another.^k As I have loved you, so you must love one another.^l ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”^m

³⁶Simon Peter asked him, “Lord, where are you going?”

Jesus replied, “Where I am going, you cannot follow now,ⁿ but you will follow later.”^o

³⁷Peter asked, “Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

³⁸Then Jesus answered, “Will you really lay down your life for me? Very truly I tell you, before the roost-

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

14 “Do not let your hearts be troubled.^q You believe in God^b; believe also in me. ²My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there^r to prepare a place for you? ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.^s ⁴You know the way to the place where I am going.”

Jesus the Way to the Father

⁵Thomas^t said to him, “Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

⁶Jesus answered, “I am the way^u and the truth and the life.^v No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you really know me, you will know^c my Father as well.^w From now on, you do know him and have seen him.”

⁸Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.”

⁹Jesus answered: “Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.^x How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? ¹⁰Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me?^y The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority.^z Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. ¹¹Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves.^a ¹²Very truly I tell you, whoever believes^b in me will do the works I have been doing,^c and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³And I will do whatever you ask^d in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

¹⁵“If you love me, keep my commands.^e ¹⁶And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate^f to help you and be with you forever — ¹⁷the Spirit of truth.^g The world cannot accept him,^h because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be^a in you. ¹⁸I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.ⁱ ¹⁹Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me.^j Because I live, you also will live.^k ²⁰On that day you will realize that I am in my Father,^l and you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me.^m The one who loves me will be loved by my Father,ⁿ and I too will love them and show myself to them.”

²²Then Judas^o (not Judas Iscariot) said, “But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?”^p

²³Jesus replied, “Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching.^q My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.^r ²⁴Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.^s

²⁵“All this I have spoken while still with you. ²⁶But the Advocate,^t the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name,^u will teach you all things^v and will remind you of everything I have said to you.^w ²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you.^x I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

²⁸“You heard me say, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’^y If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father,^z for the Father is greater than I.^a ²⁹I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.^b ³⁰I will not say much more to you, for the prince of this world^c is coming. He has no hold over me, ³¹but he comes so that the world may learn that I love the Father and do exactly what my Father has commanded me.^d

The Vine and the Branches

15 “I am the true vine,^e and my Father is the gardener. ²He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes^b so that it will be even more fruitful. ³You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.^f ⁴Remain in me, as I also remain in you.^g No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

⁵“I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit;^h apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If you do not remain in me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned.ⁱ ⁷If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.^j ⁸This is to my Father’s glory,^k that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.^l

⁹“As the Father has loved me,^m so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. ¹⁰If you keep my commands,ⁿ you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commands and remain in his love. ¹¹I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.^o ¹²My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.^p ¹³Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.^q ¹⁴You are my friends^r if you do what I command.^s ¹⁵I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master’s business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.^t ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you^u so that you might go and bear fruit — fruit that will last — and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. ¹⁷This is my command: Love each other.^v

The World Hates the Disciples

¹⁸“If the world hates you,^w keep in mind that it hated me first. ¹⁹If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you^x out of the world. That is why the world hates you.^y ²⁰Remember what I told you: ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’^{az} If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also.^a If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. ²¹They will treat you this way because of my name,^b for they do not know the one who sent me.^c ²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.^d ²³Whoever hates me hates my Father as well. ²⁴If I had not done among them the works no one else did,^e they would not be guilty of sin. As it is, they have seen, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. ²⁵But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: ‘They hated me without reason.’^{bf}

The Work of the Holy Spirit

²⁶“When the Advocate^g comes, whom I will send to you from the Father^h—the Spirit of truthⁱ who goes out from the Father—he will testify about me.^j ²⁷And you also must testify,^k for you have been with me from the beginning.^l

16 “All this^m I have told you so that you will not fall away.ⁿ ²They will put you out of the synagogue;^o in fact, the time is coming when anyone who kills you will think they are offering a service to God.^p ³They will do such things because they have not known the Father or me.^q ⁴I have told you this, so that when their time comes you will remember^r that I warned you about them. I did not tell you this from the beginning because I was with you, ⁵but now I am going to him who sent me.^s None of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’^t ⁶Rather, you are filled

Unless I go away, the Advocate^u will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.^v ⁸When he comes, he will prove the world to be in the wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹about sin,^w because people do not believe in me; ¹⁰about righteousness,^x because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; ¹¹and about judgment, because the prince of this world^y now stands condemned.

¹²“I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear.^z ¹³But when he, the Spirit of truth,^a comes, he will guide you into all the truth.^b He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. ¹⁴He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you. ¹⁵All that belongs to the Father is mine.^c That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you.”

The Disciples’ Grief Will Turn to Joy

¹⁶Jesus went on to say, “In a little while^d you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me.”^e

¹⁷At this, some of his disciples said to one another, “What does he mean by saying, ‘In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,’^f and ‘Because I am going to the Father’?”^g ¹⁸They kept asking, “What does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

¹⁹Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, “Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, ‘In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me’? ²⁰Very truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn^h while the world rejoices. Very truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.^m ²⁴Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.ⁿ

²⁵“Though I have been speaking figuratively,^o a time is coming^p when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name.^q I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me^r and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”^s

Jesus Prays to Be Glorified

17 After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven^a and prayed:

⁴Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him,^v went out and asked them, “Who is it you want?”^w

⁵“Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied. “I am he,” Jesus said. (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.) ⁶When Jesus said, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷Again he asked them, “Who is it you want?”^x

“Jesus of Nazareth,” they said.

⁸Jesus answered, “I told you that I am he. If you are looking for me, then let these men go.” ⁹This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled: “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”^y

¹⁰Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus.)

¹¹Jesus commanded Peter, “Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup^z the Father has given me?”

Peter’s First Denial

¹⁵Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Because this disciple was known to the high priest,^d he went with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard,^e ¹⁶but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the servant girl on duty there and brought Peter in.

¹⁷“You aren’t one of this man’s disciples too, are you?” she asked Peter.

He replied, “I am not.”^f

The High Priest Questions Jesus

18:19-24pp — Mt 26:59-68; Mk 14:55-65;

¹⁹Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

²⁰“I have spoken openly to the world,” Jesus replied. “I always taught in synagoguesⁱ or at the temple,^j where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret.^k ²¹Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said.”

²²When Jesus said this, one of the officials^l nearby slapped him in the face.^m “Is this the way you answer the high priest?” he demanded.

²³“If I said something wrong,” Jesus replied, “testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?”ⁿ ²⁴Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas^o the high priest.

“But we have no right to execute anyone,” they objected. ³²This took place to fulfill what Jesus had said about the kind of death he was going to die.^x

³³Pilate then went back inside the palace,^y summoned Jesus and asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”^z

³⁴“Is that your own idea,” Jesus asked, “or did others talk to you about me?”

Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth.^d Everyone on the side of truth listens to me.”^e

³⁸“What is truth?” retorted Pilate. With this he went out again to the Jews gathered there and said, “I find no basis for a charge against him.^f ³⁹But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release ‘the king of the Jews’?”

⁶As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, "Crucify! Crucify!"

But Pilate answered, "You take him and crucify him.ⁿ As for me, I find no basis for a charge against him."^o

⁷The Jewish leaders insisted, "We have a law, and according to that law he must die,^p because he claimed to be the Son of God."^q

⁸When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid, ⁹and he went back inside the palace.^r "Where do you come from?" he asked Jesus, but Jesus gave him no answer.^s ¹⁰"Do you refuse to speak to me?" Pilate said. "Don't you realize I have power either to free you or to crucify you?"

¹¹Jesus answered, "You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above.^t Therefore the one who handed me over to you^u is guilty of a greater sin."

¹²From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free, but the Jewish leaders kept shouting, "If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king^v opposes Caesar."

¹³When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge's seat^w at a place known as the Stone Pavement (which in Aramaic^x is Gabbatha). ¹⁴It was the day of Preparation^y of the Passover; it was about noon.^z

"Here is your king,"^a Pilate said to the Jews.

¹⁵But they shouted, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!"

"Shall I crucify your king?" Pilate asked.

"We have no king but Caesar," the chief priests answered.

¹⁶Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.^b

The Crucifixion of Jesus

19:17-24pp — Mt 27:33-44; Mk 15:22-32;

So the soldiers took charge of Jesus. ¹⁷Carrying his own cross,^c he went out to the place of the Skull^d (which in Aramaic^e is called Golgotha). ¹⁸There they crucified him, and with him two others^f — one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH,^g THE KING OF THE JEWS.^h ²⁰Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city,ⁱ and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. ²¹The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews."^j

²²Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

²³When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

²⁴"Let's not tear it," they said to one another. "Let's decide by lot who will get it."

This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled^k that said,

"They divided my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment."^{al}

So this is what the soldiers did.

²⁵Near the cross^m of Jesus stood his mother,ⁿ his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.^o ²⁶When Jesus saw his mother^p there, and the disciple whom he loved^q standing nearby, he said to her, "Woman,^b here is your son," ²⁷and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

³¹Now it was the day of Preparation,^v and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jewish leaders did not want the bodies left on the crosses^w during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down.³² The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other.^x³³ But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.³⁴ Instead, one of the soldiers pierced^y Jesus’ side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.^z³⁵ The man who saw it^a has given testimony, and his testimony is true.^b He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe.³⁶ These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled:^c “Not one of his bones will be broken,”^{ad}³⁷ and, as another scripture says, “They will look on the one they have pierced.”^{be}

The Burial of Jesus

With Pilate’s permission, he came and took the body away.³⁹ He was accompanied by Nicodemus,^f the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.^c⁴⁰ Taking Jesus’ body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen.^g This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs.^h⁴¹ At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid.⁴² Because it was the Jewish day of Preparationⁱ and since the tomb was nearby,^j they laid Jesus there.

The Empty Tomb

20:1-8pp — Mt 28:1-8; Mk 16:1-8; Lk 24:1-10

20 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene^k went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance.^l² So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved,^m and said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!”ⁿ ³So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb.^o⁴ Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.⁵ He bent over and looked in^p at the strips of linen^q lying there but did not go in.⁶ Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there,⁷ as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head.^r The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen.⁸ Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first,⁵ also went inside. He saw and believed.⁹ (They still did not understand from Scripture^t that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)^u¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to where they were staying.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

¹¹Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb^v¹² and saw two angels in white,^w seated where Jesus’ body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

¹³They asked her, “Woman, why are you crying?”^x

“They have taken my Lord away,” she said, “and I don’t know where they have put him.”^y¹⁴ At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there,^z but she did not realize that it was Jesus.^a

Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.”

¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic,^c “Rabboni!”^d (which means “Teacher”).

¹⁷Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers^e and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father^f and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

¹⁸Mary Magdalene^g went to the disciples^h with the news: “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

¹⁹On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders,ⁱ Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace^j be with you!”^k ²⁰After he said this, he showed them his hands and side.^l The disciples were overjoyed^m when they saw the Lord.

²¹Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you!ⁿ As the Father has sent me,^o I am sending you.”^p ²²And with that he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.^q ²³If you forgive anyone’s sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”^r

Jesus Appears to Thomas

²⁴Now Thomas^s (also known as Didymus^a), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he said to them, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side,^t I will not believe.”^u

The Purpose of John’s Gospel

³⁰Jesus performed many other signs^a in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book.^b

³¹But these are written that you may believe^{bc} that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God,^d and that by believing you may have life in his name.^e

Jesus and the Miraculous Catch of Fish

21 Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples,^f by the Sea of Galilee.^g It happened this way: ²Simon Peter, Thomas^h (also known as Didymus^a), Nathanaelⁱ from Cana in Galilee,^j the sons of Zebedee,^k and two other disciples were together. ³“I’m going out to fish,” Simon Peter told them, and they said, “We’ll go with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.^l

⁴Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.^m

⁵He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?”

“No,” they answered.

⁶He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.ⁿ

⁷Then the disciple whom Jesus loved^o said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, “It is the Lord,” he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. ⁸The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.^a ⁹When they landed, they saw a fire^p of burning coals there with fish on it,^q and some bread.

¹⁰Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught.” ¹¹So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.^r ¹⁴This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples^s after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Reinstates Peter

¹⁵When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.”^t

Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”^u

¹⁶Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.”^v

¹⁷The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love

²⁰Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved^b was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”)^c ²¹When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

²²Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return,^d what is that to you? You must follow me.”^e

²³Because of this, the rumor spread among the believers^f that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

²⁴This is the disciple who testifies to these things^g and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.^h

²⁵Jesus did many other things as well.ⁱ If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

ACTS

Jesus Taken Up Into Heaven

1 In my former book,^a Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach^b until the day he was taken up to heaven,^c after giving instructions^d through the Holy Spirit to the apostles^e he had chosen.^f ³After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them^g over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.⁴ On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.^h ⁵For John baptized with^a water, but in a few days you will be baptized with^a the Holy Spirit.”

⁶Then they gathered around him and asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restoreⁱ the kingdom to Israel?”

⁷He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.^j ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you;^k and you will be my witnesses^l in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria,^m and to the ends of the earth.”ⁿ

¹⁰They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white^p stood beside them. ¹¹“Men of Galilee,”^q they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back^r in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

Jerusalem^s from the hill called the Mount of Olives,^t a Sabbath day's walk^b from the city. ¹³When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room^u where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.^v ¹⁴They all joined together constantly in prayer,^w along with the women^x and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.^y

¹⁵In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) ¹⁶and said, “Brothers and sisters,^c the Scripture had to be fulfilled^z in which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through David concerning Judas,^a who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷He was one of our number^b and shared in our ministry.”^c

²³So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. ²⁴Then they prayed,^j "Lord, you know everyone's heart.^k Show us which of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs." ²⁶Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.^l

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

2 When the day of Pentecost^m came, they were all togetherⁿ in one place. ²Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.^o ³They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues^{op} as the Spirit enabled them.

⁵Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing^q Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. ⁷Utterly amazed,^r they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans?"^s ⁸Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia,^t Pontus^u and Asia,^{bv} ¹⁰Phrygia^w and Pamphylia,^x Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene;^y visitors from Rome ¹¹(both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs — we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" ¹²Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

¹³Some, however, made fun of them

Peter Addresses the Crowd

¹⁴Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. ¹⁵These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning!^a ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

¹⁷"In the last days, God says,

I will pour out my Spirit on all people.^b

Your sons and daughters will prophesy,^c your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸Even on my servants, both men and women,

I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.^d

¹⁹I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke.

²⁰The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood^e
before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

²¹And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.^f

²²"Fellow Israelites, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs,^g which God did among you through him,^h as you yourselves know. ²³This man was handed over to you by God's deliberate plan and foreknowledge;ⁱ and you, with the help of wicked men,^d put him to death by nailing him to the cross.^j ²⁴But God raised him from the dead,^k freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.¹ ²⁵David said about him:

“‘I saw the Lord always before me.
Because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.

²⁶Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest in hope,

you will not let your holy one

you will fill me with joy in your

²⁹“Fellow Israelites, I can tell you confidently that the patriarchⁿ David died and was buried,^o and his tomb is here^p to this day. ³⁰But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne.^q ³¹Seeing what was to come, he spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, that he was not abandoned to the realm of the dead, nor did his body see decay.^r ³²God has raised this Jesus to life,^s and we are all witnesses^t of it. ³³Exalted^u to the right hand of God,^v he has received from the Father^w the promised Holy Spirit^x and has poured out^y what you now see and hear. ³⁴For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

“‘The Lord said to my Lord:

³⁶“Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah.”^a

³⁷When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”^b

³⁸Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized,^c every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins.^d And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹The promise is for you and your children^e ⁴⁰With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.”^g ⁴¹Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

The Fellowship of the Believers

⁴²They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.^h ⁴³Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles.ⁱ ⁴⁴All the believers were together and had everything in common.^j ⁴⁵They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.^k ⁴⁶Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts.^l They broke bread^m in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people.ⁿ And the Lord added to their number^o daily those who were being saved.

Peter Heals a Lame Beggar

3 One day Peter and John^p were going up to the temple^q at the time of prayer — at three in the afternoon.^r ²Now a man who was lame from birth^s was being carried to the temple gate^t called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg^u from those going into the temple courts. ³When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. ⁴Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, “Look at us!” ⁵So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

⁶Then Peter said, “Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth,^v walk.” ⁷Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man’s feet and ankles became strong. ⁸He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping,^w and praising

God. ⁹When all the people^x saw him walking and praising God, ¹⁰they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful,^y and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks to the Onlookers

¹¹While the man held on to Peter and John,^z all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade.^a ¹²When Peter saw this, he said to them: "Fellow Israelites, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? ¹³The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers,^b has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilate,^c though he had decided to let him go.^d ¹⁴You disowned the Holy^e and Righteous One^f and asked that a murderer be released to you.^g ¹⁵You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead.^h We are witnesses of this. ¹⁶By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has completely healed him, as you can all see.

¹⁷"Now, fellow Israelites, I know that you acted in ignorance,ⁱ as did your leaders.^j ¹⁸But this is how God fulfilled what he had foretold^k through all the prophets,^l saying that his Messiah would suffer.^m ¹⁹Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out,ⁿ that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, ²⁰and that he may send the Messiah, who has been appointed for you—even Jesus. ²¹Heaven must receive him^o until the time comes for God to restore everything,^p as he promised long ago through his holy prophets.^q ²²For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything he tells you.'^r ²³Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from their people.'^{as}

Peter and John Before the Sanhedrin

4 The priests and the captain of the temple guard^z and the Sadducees^a came up to Peter and John while they were speaking to the people. ²They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people, proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead.^b ³They seized Peter and John and, because it was evening, they put them in jail^c until the next day. ⁴But many who heard the message believed; so the number of men who believed grew^d to about five thousand.

⁵The next day the rulers,^e the elders and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. ⁶Annas the high priest was there, and so were Caiaphas,^f John, Alexander and others of the high priest's family. ⁷They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people!^g ⁹If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame^h and are being asked how he was healed, ¹⁰then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead,ⁱ that this man stands before you healed. ¹¹Jesus is

¹³When they saw the courage of Peter and John^l and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men,^m they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. ¹⁴But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say. ¹⁵So they ordered them to withdraw from the Sanhedrinⁿ and then conferred together. ¹⁶“What are we going to do with these men?”^o they asked. “Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed a notable sign,^p and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn them to speak no longer to anyone in this name.”

¹⁸Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.^q ¹⁹But Peter and John replied, “Which is right in God’s eyes: to listen to you, or to him?^r You be the judges! ²⁰As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

²¹After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people^s were praising God^t for what had happened. ²²For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

The Believers Pray

²³On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. “Sovereign Lord,” they said, “you made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them. ²⁵You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:^u

The Believers Share Their Possessions

³²All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had.^f ³³With great power the apostles continued to testify^g to the resurrection^h of the Lord Jesus. And God’s grace was so powerfully at work in them all ³⁴that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them,ⁱ brought the money from the sales ³⁵and put it at the apostles’ feet,^j and it was distributed to anyone who had need.^k

³⁶Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas^l (which means “son of encouragement”), ³⁷sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles’ feet.^m

Ananias and Sapphira

5 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. ²With his wife’s full knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself,

^a 26 That is, Messiah or Christ

^b 26 Psalm 2:1,2

but brought the rest and put it at the apostles' feet.ⁿ

³Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan^o has so filled your heart^p that you have lied to the Holy Spirit^q and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? ⁴Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied just to human beings but to God."

⁵When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died.^r And great fear^s seized all who heard what had happened. ⁶Then some young men came forward, wrapped up his body,^t and carried him out and buried him.

⁷About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"

"Yes," she said, "that is the price."^u

⁹Peter said to her, "How could you conspire to test the Spirit of the Lord?^v Listen! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

¹⁰At that moment she fell down at his feet and died.^w Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹Great fear^x seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

The Apostles Heal Many

¹²The apostles performed many signs and wonders^y among the people. And all the believers used to meet together^z in Solomon's Colonnade.^a ¹³No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people.^b ¹⁴Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number. ¹⁵As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.^c ¹⁶Crowds gathered also from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing

The Apostles Persecuted

¹⁷Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the party^e of the Sadducees,^f were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.^g ¹⁹But during the night an angel^h of the Lord opened the doors of the jailⁱ and brought them out. ²⁰"Go, stand in the temple courts," he said, "and tell the people all about this new life."^j

When the high priest and his associates^k arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin^l—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles. ²²But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they went back and reported, ²³"We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside." ²⁴On hearing this report, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests^m were at a loss, wondering what this might lead to.

²⁵Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people." ²⁶At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the peopleⁿ would stone them.

²⁷The apostles were brought in and made to appear before the Sanhedrin^o to be questioned by the high priest. ²⁸"We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name,"^p he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."^q

to his own right hand^v as Prince and Savior^w that he might bring Israel to repentance and forgive their sins.^x ³²We are witnesses of these things,^y and so is the Holy Spirit,^z whom God has given to those who obey him.”

³³When they heard this, they were furious^a and wanted to put them to death. ³⁴But a Pharisee named Gamaliel,^b a teacher of the law,^c who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while. ³⁵Then he addressed the Sanhedrin: “Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men. ³⁶Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. ³⁷After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census^d and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered. ³⁸Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail.^e ³⁹But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.”^f

⁴⁰His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them flogged.^g Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

⁴¹The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing^h because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name.ⁱ ⁴²Day after day, in the temple courts^j and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

The Choosing of the Seven

6 In those days when the number of disciples was increasing,^k the Hellenistic Jews^{al} among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows^m were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.ⁿ ²So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said,

“It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. ³Brothers and sisters,^o choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them ⁴and will give our attention to prayer^p and the ministry of the word.”

⁵This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen,^q a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit;^r also Philip,^s Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. ⁶They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed^t and laid their hands on them.^u ⁷So the word of God spread.^v The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen Seized

⁸Now Stephen, a man full of God’s grace and power, performed great wonders and signs^w among the people. ⁹Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called)—Jews of Cyrene^x and Alexandria as well as the provinces of Cilicia^y and Asia^z—who began to argue with Stephen. ¹⁰But they could not stand up against the wisdom the Spirit gave him as he spoke.^a

¹¹Then they secretly^b persuaded some men to say, “We have heard Stephen speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God.”^c

¹²So they stirred up the people and the elders and the teachers of the law. They seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin.^d ¹³They produced false witnesses, who testified, “This fellow never stops speaking against this holy place^e and against the law. ¹⁴For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”^f

¹⁵All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin^g looked intently at Stephen,

^a 1 That is, Jews who had adopted the Greek language and culture and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech to the Sanhedrin

7 Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are these charges true?"

²To this he replied: "Brothers and fathers,^h listen to me! The God of gloryⁱ appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Harran.^j ³'Leave your country and your people,' God said, 'and go to the land I will show you.'^{ak}

⁴"So he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Harran. After the death of his father, God sent him to this land where you are now living.^l ⁵He gave him no inheritance here, not even enough ground to set his foot on. But God promised him that he and his descendants after him would possess the land,^m even though at that time Abraham had no child. ⁶God spoke to him in this way: 'For four hundred years your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated.ⁿ ⁷But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,' God said, 'and afterward they will come out of that country and worship me in this place.'^{bo} ⁸Then he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision.^p And Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him eight days after his birth.^q Later Isaac became the father of Jacob,^r and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.^s

⁹"Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph,^t they sold him as a slave into Egypt.^u But God was with him^v ¹⁰and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the goodwill of Pharaoh king of Egypt. So Pharaoh made him ruler over Egypt and all his palace.^w

¹¹"Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our ancestors could not find food.^x ¹²When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers on their first visit.^y ¹³On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was,^z and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family. ¹⁴After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family,^a seventy-five in all.^b ¹⁵Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our ancestors died.^c ¹⁶Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a certain sum of money.^d

¹⁷"As the time drew near for God to fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt had greatly increased.^e ¹⁸Then 'a new king, to whom Joseph meant nothing, came to power in Egypt.'^{cf} ¹⁹He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our ancestors by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die.^g

²⁰"At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child.^d For three months he was cared for by his family.^h ²¹When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son.ⁱ ²²Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians^j and was powerful in speech and action.

²³"When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites. ²⁴He saw one of them being mistreated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defense and avenged him by killing the Egyptian. ²⁵Moses thought that his own people would realize that God was using him to rescue them, but they did not. ²⁶The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting. He tried to reconcile them by saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you want to hurt each other?'

²⁷"But the man who was mistreating the other pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us? ²⁸Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'^e ²⁹When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he settled as a foreigner and had two sons.^k

angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. ³¹When he saw this, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to get a closer look, he heard the Lord say:^l ³²‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.’^a Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.^m

³³“Then the Lord said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.’ⁿ ³⁴I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.’^{bo}

³⁵“This is the same Moses they had rejected with the words, ‘Who made you ruler and judge?’^p He was sent to be their ruler and deliverer by God himself, through the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶He led them out of Egypt^q and performed wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea^r and for forty years in the wilderness.

³⁷“This is the Moses who told the Israelites, ‘God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your own people.’^{cs} ³⁸He was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel^t who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors;^u and he received living words^v to pass on to us.^w

³⁹“But our ancestors refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt.^x ⁴⁰They told Aaron, ‘Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt — we don’t know what has happened to him!’^{dy} ⁴¹That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and reveled in what their own hands had made.^z ⁴²But God turned away from them^a and gave them over to the worship of the sun, moon and stars.^b This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets:

⁵⁷At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him,⁵⁸ dragged him out of the city^t and began to stone him.^u Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their coats^v at the feet of a young man named Saul.^w

⁵⁹While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”^x ⁶⁰Then he fell on his knees^y and cried out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.”^z When he had said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul^a approved of their killing him.

The Church Persecuted and Scattered

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered^b throughout Judea and Samaria.^c ²Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. ³But Saul^d began to destroy the church.^e Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

⁴Those who had been scattered^f preached the word wherever they went.^g ⁵Philip^h went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. ⁶When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. ⁷For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many,ⁱ and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed.^j ⁸So there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer

⁹Now for some time a man named Simon had practiced sorcery^k in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He boasted that he was someone great,^l ¹⁰and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and exclaimed, “This man is rightly called the Great Power of God.”^m ¹¹They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his sorcery. ¹²But when they believed Philip as he proclaimed the good news of the kingdom of Godⁿ and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized,^o both men and women. ¹³Simon himself believed and was baptized. And he followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles^p he saw.

¹⁴When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria^q had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John^r to Samaria. ¹⁵When they arrived, they prayed for the new believers there that they might receive the Holy Spirit,^s ¹⁶because the Holy Spirit had not yet come on any of them;^t they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.^u ¹⁷Then Peter and John placed their hands on them,^v and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸When Simon saw that the Spirit was given at the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money ¹⁹and said, “Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit.”

²⁰Peter answered: “May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money!^w ²¹You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right^x before God. ²²Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord in the hope that he may forgive you for having such a thought in your heart. ²³For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin.”

²⁴Then Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord for me^y so that nothing you have said may happen to me.”

desert road — that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.”²⁷ So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian^{ab} eunuch,^c an important official in charge of all the treasury of the Kandake (which means “queen of the Ethiopians”). This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship,^d and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the Book of Isaiah the prophet. ²⁹The Spirit told^e Philip, “Go to that chariot and stay near it.”

³⁰Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. “Do you understand what you are reading?” Philip asked.

³¹“How can I,” he said, “unless someone explains it to me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

³²This is the passage of Scripture the eunuch was reading:

“He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
³³In his humiliation he was deprived of justice.
Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the ³⁴The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?”

³⁵Then Philip began^g with that very passage of Scripture^h and told him the good news about Jesus.

³⁶As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water. What can stand in the way of my being baptized?”ⁱ [37]^c ³⁸And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away,^j and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns^k until he reached Caesarea.^l

Saul's Conversion

9:1-19pp — Ac 22:3-16; 26:9-18

9 Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples.^m He went to the high priestⁿ and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way,ⁿ whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. ³As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.^o ⁴He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?”

⁵“Who are you, Lord?” Saul asked.

“I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,” he replied. ⁶“Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”^p

⁷The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound^q but did not see anyone.^r ⁸Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. ⁹For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything.

¹⁰In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision,^s “Ananias!”

“Yes, Lord,” he answered.

¹¹The Lord told him, “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus^t named Saul, for he is praying. ¹²In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on^u him to restore his sight.”

¹³“Lord,” Ananias answered, “I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your holy people^v in Jerusalem.^w ¹⁴And he has come here with authority from the chief priests^x to arrest all who call on your name.”

¹⁵But the Lord said to Ananias, “Go! This man is my chosen instrument^y to proclaim my name to the Gentiles^z ¹⁷Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on^c Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord — Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here — has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” ¹⁸Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, ¹⁹and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul spent several days with the disciples^d in Damascus.^e ²⁰At once he began to preach in the synagogues^f that Jesus is the Son of God.^g ²¹All those who heard him were astonished and asked, “Isn’t he the man who raised havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name?”^h And hasn’t he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?”ⁱ ²²Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Messiah.^j

²³After many days had gone by, there was a conspiracy among the Jews to kill him, ²⁴but Saul learned of their plan.^k Day and night they kept close watch on the city gates in order to kill him. ²⁵But his followers took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.^l

²⁶When he came to Jerusalem,^m he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabasⁿ took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to him,^o and how in Damascus he had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.^p ²⁸So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹He talked and debated with the Hellenistic Jews,^q but they tried to kill him.^r ³⁰When the believ-

Aeneas and Dorcas

³²As Peter traveled about the country, he went to visit the Lord’s people^w who lived in Lydda. ³³There he found a man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and had been bedridden for eight years. ³⁴“Aeneas,” Peter said to him, “Jesus Christ heals you.”^x Get up and roll up your mat.” Immediately Aeneas got up. ³⁵All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon^y saw him and turned to the Lord.^z

³⁶In Joppa^a there was a disciple named Tabitha (in Greek her name is Dorcas); she was always doing good^b and helping the poor. ³⁷About that time she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.^c ³⁸Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples^d heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, “Please come at once!”

³⁹Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows^e stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

⁴⁰Peter sent them all out of the room;^f then he got down on his knees^g and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, “Tabitha, get up.” She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up. ⁴¹He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called for the believers, especially the widows, and presented her to them alive. ⁴²This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord. ⁴³Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.^h

Cornelius Calls for Peter

10 At Caesarea¹ there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. ²He and all his family were devout and God-fearing;^j he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. ³One day at about three in the afternoon^k he had a vision.^l He distinctly saw an angel^m of God, who came to him and said, “Cornelius!”

⁴Cornelius stared at him in fear. “What is it, Lord?” he asked.

The angel answered, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offeringⁿ before God.^o ⁵Now send men to Joppa^p to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. ⁶He is staying with Simon the tanner,^q whose house is by the sea.”

⁷When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants. ⁸He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa.^r

Peter’s Vision

10:9-32Ref — Ac 11:5-14

⁹About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof^s to pray. ¹⁰He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.^t ¹¹He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. ¹²It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds. ¹³Then a voice told him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.”

¹⁴“Surely not, Lord!”^u Peter replied. “I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.”^v

¹⁶This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

¹⁷While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius^x found out where Simon’s house was and stopped at the gate. ¹⁸They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there.

¹⁹While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said^y to him, “Simon, three^a men are looking for you. ²⁰So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them.”^z

²¹Peter went down and said to the men, “I’m the one you’re looking for. Why have you come?”

²²The men replied, “We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man,^a who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told him to ask you to come to his house so that he could hear what you have to say.”^b ²³Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests.

Peter at Cornelius’s House

The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the believers^c from Joppa went along.^d ²⁴The following day he arrived in Caesarea.^e Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence. ²⁶But Peter made him get up. “Stand up,” he said, “I am only a man myself.”^f

²⁷While talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people. ²⁸He said to them: “You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with or visit a Gentile.^g But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean.^h ²⁹So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I ask why you sent for me?”

³⁰Cornelius answered: “Three days ago I was in my house praying at this hour, at three in the afternoon. Suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me ³¹and said, ‘Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor. ³²Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. the tanner, who lives by the sea.’³³ So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

³⁴Then Peter began to speak: “I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism!¹ ³⁵but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right.¹ ³⁶You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, announcing the good news^k of peace^l through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.^m ³⁷You know what has happened throughout the province of Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached — ³⁸how God anointedⁿ Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing^o all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him.^p

³⁹“We are witnesses^q of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a cross,^r ⁴⁰but God raised him from the dead^s on the third day and caused him to be seen. ⁴¹He was not seen by all the people,^t but by witnesses whom God had already chosen — by us who ate^u and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people^v and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead.^w ⁴³All the prophets testify about him^x that everyone^y who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on^z all who heard the message. ⁴⁵The circumcised believers who had come with Peter^a were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out^b even on Gentiles.^c ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking in tongues^{ad} and praising God.

Then Peter said, ⁴⁷“Surely no one can stand in the way of their being baptized with water.^e They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have.”^f ⁴⁸So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.^g Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Peter Explains His Actions

11 The apostles and the believers^h throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believersⁱ criticized him ³and said, “You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them.”^j

⁴Starting from the beginning, Peter told them the whole story: ⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision.^k I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was. ⁶I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles and birds. ⁷Then I heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.’

⁹“The voice spoke from heaven a second time, ‘Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.’^l ¹⁰This happened three times, and then it was all pulled up to heaven again.

¹¹“Right then three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying. ¹²The Spirit told^m me to have no hesitation about going with them.ⁿ These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man’s house. ¹³He told us how he had seen an angel appear in his house and say, ‘Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. ¹⁴He will bring you a message through which you and all your household^o will be saved.’

¹⁵“As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on^p them as he had come on us at the beginning.^q ¹⁶Then I remembered what the Lord had said: ‘John baptized with^b water, but you will be baptized with^b the Holy Spirit.’^r ¹⁷So if God gave them the same gift he gave us^s who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could stand in God’s way?”

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹Now those who had been scattered by the persecution that broke out when Stephen was killed^u traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch,^v spreading the word only among Jews. ²⁰Some of them, however, men from Cyprus^w and Cyrene,^x went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus. ²¹The Lord’s hand was with them,^y and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.^z

²²News of this reached the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas^a to Antioch. ²³When he arrived and saw what the grace of God had done,^b he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.^c ²⁴He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.^d

²⁵Then Barnabas went to Tarsus^e to look for Saul,^f and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples^g were called Christians first^h at Antioch.

²⁷During this time some prophets^h came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸One of them, named Agabus,ⁱ stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world.^j (This happened during the reign of Claudius.)^k ²⁹The disciples,^l as each one was able, decided to provide help^m for the brothers and sistersⁿ living in Judea. ³⁰This they did, sending their gift to the elders^o by Barnabas and Saul.^p longed to the church, intending to persecute them. ²He had James, the brother of John,^q put to death with the sword. ³When he saw that this met with approval among the Jews,^r he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Festival of Unleavened Bread.^s ⁴After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.^t

⁶The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains,^u and sentries stood guard at the entrance. ⁷Suddenly an angel^v of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. “Quick, get up!” he said, and the chains fell off Peter’s wrists.^w

It opened for them by itself,^y and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹Then Peter came to himself^z and said, “Now I know without a doubt that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me^a from Herod’s clutches and from everything the Jewish people were hoping would happen.”

ran back without opening it and exclaimed, “Peter is at the door!”

¹⁵“You’re out of your mind,” they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, “It must be his angel.”^f

¹⁶But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. ¹⁷Peter motioned with his hand^g for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. “Tell James^h and the other brothers and sistersⁱ about this,” he said, and then he left for another place.

¹⁸In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. ¹⁹After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed.^j

Herod’s Death

Then Herod went from Judea to Caesarea^k and stayed there. ²⁰He had been quarreling with the people of Tyre and Sidon;^l they now joined together and sought an audience with him. After securing the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king’s country for their food supply.^m and Saul. ²While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said,^w “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work^x to which I have called them.”^y ³So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them^z and sent them off.^a

²¹On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people. ²²They shouted, “This is the voice of a god, not of a man.” ²³Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down,ⁿ and he was eaten by worms and died.

On Cyprus

⁴The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Spirit,^b went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. ⁵When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues.^d John^e was with them as their helper.

⁶They traveled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer^f and false prophet^g named Bar-Jesus,⁷ who was an attendant of the proconsul,^h Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the sorcererⁱ (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul^j from the faith.^k ⁹Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit,^l looked straight at Elymas and said, ¹⁰“You are a child of the devil^m and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?ⁿ ¹¹Now the hand of the Lord is against you.^o You are going to be blind for a time, not even able to see the light of the sun.”

Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹²When the proconsul^p saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

In Pisidian Antioch

¹³From Paphos,^q Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John^r left them to return to Jerusalem. ¹⁴From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch.^s ⁵On the Sabbath^t they entered the synagogue^u and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading from the Law^v and the Prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a word of exhortation for the people, please speak."

¹⁶Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand^w and said: "Fellow Israelites and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me! ¹⁷The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt; with mighty power he led them out of that country;^x ¹⁸for about forty years he endured their conduct^{ay} in the wilderness;^z ¹⁹and he overthrew seven nations in Canaan,^a giving their land to his people^b as their inheritance. ²⁰All this took about 450 years.

"After this, God gave them judges^c until the time of Samuel the prophet.^d ²¹Then the people asked for a king,^e and he gave them Saul^f son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin,^g who ruled forty years. ²²After removing Saul,^h he made David their king.ⁱ God testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart;^j he will do everything I want him to do.'

²³"From this man's descendants^k God has brought to Israel the Savior^l Jesus,^m as he promised.ⁿ ²⁴Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel.^o ²⁵As John was completing his work,^p he said: 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not the one you are looking for.^q But there is one coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'^r

²⁶"Fellow children of Abraham and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation^s has been sent. ²⁷The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus,^t yet in condemning him they fulfilled the words of the prophets^u that are read every Sabbath. ²⁸Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed.^v ²⁹When they had carried out all that was written about him,^w they took him down from the cross^x and laid him in a tomb.^y ³⁰But God raised him to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.^m

⁴⁴On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. They began to contradict what Paul was sayingⁿ and heaped abuse^o on him.

⁴⁶Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: “We had to speak the word of God to you first.^p Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles.^q ⁴⁷For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

“‘I have made you^a a light for the Gentiles,^r that you^a may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.’^b”^s

⁴⁸When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed.

⁴⁹The word of the Lord spread through the whole region. ⁵⁰But the Jewish leaders incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.^t ⁵¹So they shook the dust off their feet^u as a warning to them and went to Iconium.^v ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

In Iconium

14 At Iconium^w Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue. There they spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. ²But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the other Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. ³So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly^x for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders.^y ⁴The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles.^z ⁵There was a plot afoot among both Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, to mistreat them and stone them.^a ⁶But they found out about it and fled^b to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country, ⁷where they continued to preach^c the gospel.^d

In Lystra and Derbe

⁸In Lystra there sat a man who was lame. He had been that way from birth^e and had never walked. ⁹He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed^f ¹⁰and called out, “Stand up on your feet!” At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.^g

¹¹When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!”^h ¹²Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes because he was the chief speaker. ¹³The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

¹⁴But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothesⁱ and rushed out into the crowd, shouting: ¹⁵“Friends, why are you doing this? We too are only human,^j like you. We are bringing you good news,^k telling you to turn from these worthless things^l to the living God,^m who made the heavens and the earthⁿ and the sea and everything in them.^o ¹⁶In the past, he let^p all nations go their own way.^q ¹⁷Yet he has not left himself without testimony.^r He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons;^s he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy.” ¹⁸Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹Then some Jews^t came from Antioch and Iconium^u and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul^v and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead. ²⁰But after the disciples^w had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

²¹They preached the gospel in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium^x and Antioch, ²²strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith.^y “We must go through many hardships^z to enter the kingdom of God,” they said. ²³Paul and Barnabas appointed elders^{aa} for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting,^b committed them to the Lord,^c in whom they had put their trust. ²⁴After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia, ²⁵and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

²⁶From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch,^d where they had been committed to the grace of God^e for the work they had now completed.^f ²⁷On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them^g and how he had opened a door^h of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

The Council at Jerusalem

15 Certain peopleⁱ came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the believers: “Unless you are circumcised,^j according to the custom taught by Moses,^k you cannot be saved.” ²This brought Paul and Barnabas into sharp dispute and debate with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem^l to see the apostles and elders^m about this question. ³The church sent them on their way, and as they traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told how the Gentiles had been converted.ⁿ This news made all the believers very glad. ⁴When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and el-

⁵Then some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, “The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to keep the law of Moses.”

⁶The apostles and elders met to consider this question. ⁷After much discussion, Peter got up and addressed them: “Brothers, you know that some time ago God made a choice among you that the Gentiles might hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe. ⁸God, who knows the heart,^p showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them,^q just as he did to us. ⁹He did not discriminate between us and them,^r for he purified their hearts by faith.^s ¹⁰Now then, why do you try to test God by putting on the necks of Gentiles a yoke^t that neither we nor our ancestors have been able to bear? ¹¹No! We believe it is through the grace^u of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are.”

¹²The whole assembly became silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul telling about the signs and wonders^v God had done among the Gentiles through them.^w ¹³When they finished, James^x spoke up. “Brothers,” he said, “listen to me. ¹⁴Simon^b has described to us how God first intervened to choose a people for his name from the Gentiles. ¹⁵The words of the prophets are in agreement with this, as it is written:

¹⁶ “After this I will return and rebuild David’s fallen tent.

The Council's Letter to Gentile Believers

²²Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas,^d men who were leaders among the believers. ²³With them they sent the following letter:

The apostles and elders, your brothers,

To the Gentile believers in Antioch,^e Syria and Cilicia:^f

Greetings.^g

²⁴We have heard that some went out from us without our authorization and disturbed you, troubling your minds by what they said.^h ²⁵So we all agreed to choose some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul—²⁶men who have risked their livesⁱ for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas to confirm by word of mouth what we are writing. ²⁸It seemed good to the Holy Spirit^j and to us not to burden you with anything beyond the following requirements: ²⁹You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality.^k You will do well to avoid these things.

³⁰So the men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter. ³¹The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message. ³²Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers. ³³After spending some time there, they were sent off by the believers with the blessing of peace^l to return to those who had sent them. [34]^a ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached^m the word of the Lord.

Disagreement Between Paul and Barnabas

³⁶Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the believers in all the townsⁿ where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing.” ³⁷Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark,^o with them, ³⁸but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them^p in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. ³⁹They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, ⁴⁰but Paul chose Silas^q and left, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord.^r ⁴¹He went through Syria^s and Cilicia,^t strengthening the churches.^u

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Paul came to Derbe and then to Lystra,^v where a disciple named Timothy^w lived, whose mother was Jewish and a believer but whose father was a Greek. ²The believers^x at Lystra and Iconium^y spoke well of him. ³Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.^z ⁴As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders^a in Jerusalem^b for the people to obey.^c ⁵So the churches were strengthened^d in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

Paul's Vision of the Man of Macedonia

⁶Paul and his companions traveled throughout the region of Phrygia^e and Galatia,^f having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia.^g ⁷When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus^h would not allow them to. ⁸So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.ⁱ ⁹During the night Paul had a vision^j of a man of Macedonia^k standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." ¹⁰After Paul had seen the vision, we^l got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel^m to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

¹¹From Troasⁿ we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day we went on to Neapolis. ¹²From there we traveled to Philippi,^o a Roman colony and the leading city of that district^a of Macedonia.^p And we stayed there several days.

¹³On the Sabbath^q we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there. ¹⁴One of those listening was a woman from the city of Thyatira^r named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth. She was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart^s to respond to Paul's message. ¹⁵When she and the members of her household^t were baptized, she invited us to her home. "If you consider me a believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶Once when we were going to the place of prayer,^u we were met by a female slave who had a spirit^v by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷She followed

Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God,^w who are telling you the way to be saved." ¹⁸She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so annoyed that he turned around and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" At that moment the spirit left her.^x

¹⁹When her owners realized that their hope of making money^y was gone, they seized Paul and Silas^z and dragged^a them into the marketplace to face the authorities. ²⁰They brought them before the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar^b ²¹by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans^c to accept or practice."^d

²²The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten with rods.^e ²³After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer^f was commanded to guard them carefully. ²⁴When he received these orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.^g

²⁵About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns^h to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken.ⁱ At once all the prison doors flew open,^j and everyone's chains came loose.^k ²⁷The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped.^l ²⁸But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

²⁹The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"^m

³¹They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved — you and your household."ⁿ ³²Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house.³³ At that hour of the night^o the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptized.³⁴ The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he^p was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God — he and his whole household.

³⁵When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: “Release those men.”

³⁶The jailer^q told Paul, “The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace.”^r

³⁷But Paul said to the officers: “They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens,^s and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out.”

³⁸The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed.^t ³⁹They came to appease them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city.^u ⁴⁰After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia’s house,^v where they met with the brothers and sisters^w and encouraged them. Then they left.

In Thessalonica

17 When Paul and his companions had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica,^x where there was a Jewish synagogue.² As was his custom, Paul went into the synagogue,^y and on three Sabbath^z days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,^a ³explaining and proving that the Messiah had to suffer^b and rise from the dead.^c “This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Messiah,”^d he said. ⁴Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas,^e as did a large number of God-fearing Greeks and quite a few prominent women.

⁵But other Jews were jealous; so they rounded up some bad characters from the marketplace, formed a mob and started a riot in the city.^f They rushed to Jason’s^g house in search of Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.^a ⁶But when they did not find them, they dragged^h Jason and some other believers before the city officials, shouting: “These men who have caused trouble all over the worldⁱ have now come here,^j ⁷and Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all defying Caesar’s decrees, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus.”^k ⁸When they heard this, the crowd and the city officials were thrown into turmoil. ⁹Then they made Jason^l and the others post bond and let them go.

In Berea

¹⁰As soon as it was night, the believers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea.^m On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹Now the Berean Jews were of more noble character than those in Thessalonica,ⁿ for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures^o every day to see if what Paul said was true. ¹²As a result, many of them believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men.

¹³But when the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea, some of them went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up. ¹⁴The believers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas^p and Timothy^q stayed at Berea. ¹⁵Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens^r and then left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.^s

In Athens

¹⁶While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷So he reasoned in the synagogue^t with both Jews and God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the marketplace day by day with those who happened to be there. ¹⁸A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to debate with him. Some of them asked, “What is

They said this because Paul was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.^u ¹⁹Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus,^v where they said to him, "May we know what this new teaching^w is that you are presenting? ²⁰You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we would like to know what they mean." ²¹(All the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

²²Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. ²³For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. So you are ignorant of the very thing you worship^x — and this is what I am going to proclaim to you.

²⁴"The God who made the world and everything in it^y is the Lord of heaven and earth^z and does not live in temples built by human hands.^a ²⁵And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything. Rather, he himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else.^b ²⁶From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands.^c ²⁷God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us.^d ²⁸"For in him we live and move and have our being."^{ae} As some of your own poets have said, "We are his offspring."^b with justice^k by the man he has appointed.^l He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead."^m

³²When they heard about the resurrection of the dead,ⁿ some of them sneered, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject." ³³At that, Paul left the Council. ³⁴Some of the people became followers of Paul and believed. Among them was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus,^o also a woman named Damaris, and a number of others.

In Corinth

18 After this, Paul left Athens^p and went to Corinth.^q ²There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla,^r because Claudius^s had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, ³and because he was a tentmaker as they were, he stayed and worked with them.^t ⁴Every Sabbath^u he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

⁵When Silas^v and Timothy^w came from Macedonia,^x Paul devoted himself exclusively to preaching, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah.^y ⁶But when they opposed Paul and became abusive,^z he shook out his clothes in protest and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads!^a I am innocent of it.^b From now on I will go to the Gentiles."^c

⁷Then Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titus Justus, a worshiper of God.^d ⁸Crispus,^e the synagogue leader,^f and his entire household^g believed in the Lord; and many of the Corinthians who heard Paul believed and were baptized.

⁹One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. ¹⁰For I am with you,^h and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city." ¹¹So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God.

^a 28 From the Cretan philosopher Epimenides

^b 28 From the Cilician Stoic philosopher Aratus

¹²While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia,ⁱ the Jews of Corinth made a united attack on Paul and brought him to the place of judgment. ¹³“This man,” they charged, “is persuading the people to worship God in ways contrary to the law.”

¹⁴Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to them, “If you Jews were making a complaint about some misdemeanor or serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you. ¹⁵But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law^j—settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things.” ¹⁶So he drove them off. ¹⁷Then the crowd there turned on Sosthenes^k the synagogue leader and beat him in front of the proconsul; and Gallio showed no concern whatever.

Priscilla, Aquila and Apollos

¹⁸Paul stayed on in Corinth for some time. Then he left the brothers and sisters^l and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchreae^m because of a vow he had taken. ¹⁹They arrived at Ephesus,^o where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. ²⁰When they asked him to spend more time with them, he declined. ²¹But as he left, he promised, “I will come back if it is God’s will.”^p Then he set sail from Ephesus. ²²When he landed at Caesarea,^q he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church and then went down to Antioch.^r

²³After spending some time in Antioch, Paul set out from there and traveled from place to place throughout the region of Galatia^s and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.^t

²⁴Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos,^u a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, with a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. ²⁵He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spoke with great fervor^{av} and taught about Jesus accurately, though he knew only the baptism of John.^w ²⁶He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they invited him to their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately.

²⁷When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia,^x the brothers and sisters^y encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. When he arrived, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. ²⁸For he vigorously refuted his Jewish opponents in public debate, proving from the Scriptures^z that Jesus was the Messiah.^a

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was at Corinth,^b Paul took the road through the interior and arrived at Ephesus.^c There he found some disciples² and asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when^b you believed?”

They answered, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

³So Paul asked, “Then what baptism did you receive?”

“John’s baptism,” they replied.

⁴Paul said, “John’s baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus.”^d ⁵On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶When Paul placed his hands on them,^e the Holy Spirit came on them,^f and they spoke in tongues^g and prophesied. ⁷There were about twelve men in all.

⁸Paul entered the synagogue^h and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God.ⁱ ⁹But some of them^j became obstinate; they refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way.^k So Paul left them. He took the disciples^l with him and had discussions daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰This went on for two years,^m so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asiaⁿ heard the word of the Lord.

¹¹God did extraordinary miracles^o through Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and their illnesses were cured^p and the evil spirits left them.

¹³Some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits^q tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demon-possessed. They would say, “In the name of the Jesus^r whom Paul preaches, I command you to come out.” ¹⁴Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. ¹⁵One day the evil spirit answered them, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know about, but who are you?” ¹⁶Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding.

¹⁷When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus,^s they were all seized with fear,^t and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. ¹⁸Many of those who believed now came and openly confessed what they had done. ¹⁹A number who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they calculated the value of the scrolls, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas.^u ²⁰In this way the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power.^u ²¹After all this had happened, Paul decided^b to go to Jerusalem,^v passing through Macedonia^w and Achaia.^x “After I have been there,” he said, “I must visit Rome also.”^y ²²He sent two of his helpers,^z Timothy^a and Erastus,^b to Macedonia, while he stayed in the province of Asia^c a little longer.

The Riot in Ephesus

²³About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way.^d ²⁴A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought in a lot of business for the craftsmen there. ²⁵He called them together, along with the workers in related trades, and said: “You know, my friends, that we receive a good income from this business.^e ²⁶And you see and hear how this fellow Paul has convinced and led astray large numbers of people here in Ephesus^f and in practically the whole province of Asia. He says that gods made by human hands are no gods at all.⁹ ²⁷There is danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited; and the goddess herself, who is worshiped throughout the province of Asia and the world, will be robbed of her divine majesty.”

²⁸When they heard this, they were furious and began shouting: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”^h ²⁹Soon the whole city was in an uproar. The people seized Gaiusⁱ and Aristarchus,^j Paul’s traveling companions from Macedonia,^k and all of them rushed into the theater together. ³⁰Paul wanted to appear before the crowd, but the disciples would not let him. ³¹Even some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, sent him a message begging him not to venture into the theater.

³²The assembly was in confusion: Some were shouting one thing, some another.^l Most of the people did not even know why they were there. ³³The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander to the front, and they shouted instructions to him. He motioned^m for silence in order to make a defense before the people. ³⁴But when they realized he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

³⁵The city clerk quieted the crowd and said: “Fellow Ephesians,ⁿ doesn’t all the world know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven? ³⁶Therefore, since these facts are undeniable, you ought to calm down and not do anything rash. ³⁷You have brought these men here, though they have neither robbed temples^o nor blasphemed our goddess. ³⁸If, then, Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a grievance against anybody, the courts are open and there are proconsuls.^p They can press charges. ³⁹If there is anything further you want to bring up, it must be settled in a legal assembly. ⁴⁰As it is, we are in danger of being charged with rioting because of what happened today. In that case we would not be able to account for this commotion, since there is no reason for it.”⁴¹ After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Through Macedonia and Greece

20 When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples^q and, after encouraging them, said goodbye and set out for Macedonia.^r ²He traveled through that area, speaking many words of encouragement to the people, and finally arrived in Greece,³ where he stayed three months. Because some Jews had plotted against him^s just as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia.^t ⁴He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus^u and Secundus from Thessalonica,^v Gaius^w from Derbe, Timothy^x also, and Tychicus^y and Trophimus^z from the province of Asia. ⁵These men went on ahead and waited for us^a at Troas.^b ⁶But we sailed from Philippi^c after the Festival of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined the others at Troas,^d where we stayed seven days.

Eutychus Raised From the Dead at Troas

⁷On the first day of the week^e we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. ⁸There were many lamps in the upstairs room^f where we were meeting. ⁹Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third story and was picked up dead. ¹⁰Paul went down, threw himself on the young man^g and put his arms around him. “Don’t be alarmed,” he said. “He’s alive!”^h ¹¹Then he went upstairs again and broke breadⁱ and ate. After talking until daylight, he left. ¹²The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders

¹³We went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we were going to take Paul aboard. He had made this arrangement because he was going there on foot. ¹⁴When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene. ¹⁵The next day we set sail from there and arrived off Chios. The day after that we crossed over to Samos, and on the following day arrived at Miletus.^j ¹⁶Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus^k to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, for he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem,^l if possible, by the day of Pentecost.^m

¹⁷From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the eldersⁿ of the church. ¹⁸When they arrived, he said to them: “You know how I lived the whole time I was with you,^o from the first day I came into the province of Asia. ¹⁹I served the Lord with great humility and with tears and in the midst of severe testing by the plots of my Jewish opponents.^p ²⁰You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything^q that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. ²¹I have declared to both Jews^r and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance^s and have faith in our Lord Jesus.^t

²²“And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem,^u not knowing what will happen to me there. ²³I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me^v that prison and hardships are facing me.^w ²⁴However, I consider my life worth nothing to me;^x my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task^y the Lord Jesus has given me^z — the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace.

²⁵“Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again.^a ²⁶Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of any of you.^b ²⁷For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.^c ²⁸Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers.^d

Be shepherds of the church of God,^a which he bought with his own blood.^b ²⁹I know that after I leave, savage wolves^c will come in among you and will not spare the flock.^f ³⁰Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples^g after them. ³¹So be on your guard! Remember that for three years^h I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.ⁱ

³²“Now I commit you to God^j and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance^k among all those who are sanctified.^l ³³I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing.^m ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.ⁿ ³⁵In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

³⁶When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.^o ³⁷They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him.^p ³⁸What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again.^q Then they accompanied him to the ship.

On to Jerusalem

21 After we^r had torn ourselves away from them, we put out to sea and sailed straight to Kos. The next day we went to Rhodes and from there to Patara. ²We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia,^s went on board and set sail. ³After sighting Cyprus and passing to the south of it, we sailed on to Syria. We landed at Tyre, where our ship was to unload its cargo. ⁴We sought out the disciples^t there and stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit^u they urged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem. ⁵When it was time to leave, we left and continued on our way. All of them, including wives and children, accompanied us out of the city, and there on the beach we knelt to pray.^v ⁶After saying goodbye to each other, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.

⁷We continued our voyage from Tyre^w and landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters^x and stayed with them for a day. ⁸Leaving the next day, we reached Caesarea^y and stayed at the house of Philip^z the evangelist,^a one of the Seven. ⁹He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.^b

¹⁰After we had been there a number of days, a prophet named Agabus^c came down from Judea. ¹¹Coming over to us, he took Paul’s belt, tied his own hands and feet with it and said, “The Holy Spirit says, ‘In this way the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem will bind^d the owner of this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.’”^e

¹²When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, “Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die^f in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”^g ¹⁴When he would not be dissuaded, we gave up and said, “The Lord’s will be done.”

¹⁵After this, we started on our way up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea^h accompanied us and brought us to the home of Mnason, where we were to stay. He was a man from Cyprusⁱ and one of the early disciples.

Paul’s Arrival at Jerusalem

¹⁷When we arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters received us warmly.^j ¹⁸The next day Paul and the rest of us went to see James,^k and all the elders^l were present. ¹⁹Paul greeted them and reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles^m through his ministry.ⁿ

²⁰When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul: “You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous^o for the law.^p ²¹They have been informed that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses,⁴ telling them not to circumcise their children^r or live according to our customs.⁵ ²²What shall we do? They will certainly hear that you have come, ²³so do what we tell you. There are four men with us who have made a vow.^t ²⁴Take these men, join in their purification rites^u and pay their expenses, so that they can have their heads shaved.^v Then everyone will know there is no truth in these reports about you, but that you yourself are living in obedience to the law. ²⁵As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality.”^w

²⁶The next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. Then he went to the temple to give notice of the date when the days of purification would end and the offering would be made for each of them.^x

Paul Arrested

²⁷When the seven days were nearly over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,^y ²⁸shouting, “Fellow Israelites, help us! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people and our law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place.”^z ²⁹(They had previously seen Trophimus^a the Ephesian^b in the city with Paul and assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple.)

³⁰The whole city was aroused, and the people came running from all directions. Seizing Paul,^c they dragged him^d from the temple, and immediately the gates were shut. ³¹While they were trying to kill him, news reached the commander of the Roman troops that the whole city of Jerusalem was in an uproar. ³²He at once took some officers and soldiers and ran down to the crowd. When the rioters saw the commander and his soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.^e

³³The commander came up and arrested him and ordered him to be bound^f with two^g chains.^h Then he asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another,ⁱ and since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken into the barracks.^j ³⁵When Paul reached the steps,^k the violence of the mob was so great he had to be carried by the soldiers. ³⁶The crowd that followed kept shouting, “Get rid of him!”^l

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

22:3-16pp — Ac 9:1-22; 26:9-18

³⁷As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks,^m he asked the commander, “May I say something to you?”

“Do you speak Greek?” he replied. ³⁸“Aren’t you the Egyptian who started a revolt and led four thousand terrorists out into the wildernessⁿ some time ago?”^o

³⁹Paul answered, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus^p in Cilicia,^q a citizen of no ordinary city. Please let me speak to the people.”

⁴⁰After receiving the commander’s permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned^r to the crowd. When they were all silent, he said to them 22 in Aramaic:^s ¹“Brothers and fathers,^t listen now to my defense.”

²When they heard him speak to them in Aramaic,^u they became very quiet.

Then Paul said: ³“I am a Jew,^v born in Tarsus^w of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. I studied under^x Gamaliel^y and was thoroughly trained in the law of our ancestors.^z I was just as zealous^a for God as any of you are today. ⁴I persecuted^b the followers of this Way to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison,^c ⁵as the high priest and all the Council^d can themselves testify. I even obtained letters from them to their associates^e in Damascus,^f and went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.

⁶“About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me.⁹ ⁷I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, ‘Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?’

⁸“Who are you, Lord?” I asked.

⁹“I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,” he replied. ⁹My companions saw the light,^h but they did not understand the voiceⁱ of him who was speaking to me.

¹⁰“What shall I do, Lord?” I asked.

¹¹“Get up,” the Lord said, “and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do.”^j

¹¹My companions led me by the hand into Damascus, because the brilliance of the light had blinded me.^k

¹²“A man named Ananias came to see me.^l He was a devout observer of the law and highly respected by all the Jews living there.^m ¹³He stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ And at that very moment I was able to see him.

¹⁴“Then he said: ‘The God of our ancestorsⁿ has chosen you to know his will and to see^o the Righteous One^p and to hear words from his mouth. ¹⁵You will be his witness^q to all people of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized^r and wash your sins away,^s calling on his name.’^t

¹⁷“When I returned to Jerusalem^u and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance^v ¹⁸and saw the Lord speaking to me. ‘Quick!’ he said. ‘Leave Jerusalem immediately, because the people here will not accept your testimony about me.’

¹⁹“‘Lord,’ I replied, ‘these people know that I went from one synagogue to another to imprison^w and beat^x those who believe in you. ²⁰And when the blood of your martyr^a Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.’^y

²¹“Then the Lord said to me, ‘Go; I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”^z

Paul the Roman Citizen

²²The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, “Rid the earth of him!”^a He’s not fit to live!”^b

²³As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks^c and flinging dust into the air,^d ²⁴the commander ordered that Paul be taken into the barracks.^e He directed^f that he be flogged and interrogated in order to find out why the people were shouting at him like this. ²⁵As they stretched him out to flog him, Paul said to the centurion standing there, “Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been found guilty?”^g

²⁶When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it. “What are you going to do?” he asked. “This man is a Roman citizen.”

²⁷The commander went to Paul and asked, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes, I am,” he answered.

²⁸Then the commander said, “I had to pay a lot of money for my citizenship.”

“But I was born a citizen,” Paul replied.

²⁹Those who were about to interrogate him withdrew immediately. The commander himself was alarmed when he realized that he had put Paul, a Roman citizen,^h in chains.

Paul Before the Sanhedrin

³⁰The commander wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews.ⁱ So the next day he released him^j and ordered the chief priests and all the members of the Sanhedrin^k to assemble. Then he brought Paul and had him stand before them.

23 Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin^l and said, “My brothers,^m I have fulfilled my duty to God in all good conscienceⁿ to this day.” ²At this the high priest Ananias^o ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.^p ³Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you,

⁵Paul replied, “Brothers, I did not realize that he was the high priest; for it is written: ‘Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.’^a”^s

⁶Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, “My brothers,^t I am a Pharisee,^u descended from Pharisees. I stand on trial because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead.”^v ⁷When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸(The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection,^w and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees believe all these things.)

⁹There was a great uproar, and some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees^x stood up and argued vigorously. “We find nothing wrong with this man,”^y they said. “What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”^z ¹⁰The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them. He ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force and bring him into the barracks.^a

¹¹The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Take courage!^b As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.”^c

The Plot to Kill Paul

¹²The next morning some Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.^d ¹³More than forty men were involved in this plot. ¹⁴They went to the chief priests and the elders and said, “We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul.”^e ¹⁵Now then, you and the Sanhedrin^f petition the commander to bring him before you on the pretext of wanting ¹⁶But when the son of Paul’s sister heard of this plot, he went into the barracks^g and told Paul.

¹⁷Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him.” ¹⁸So he took him to the commander.

The centurion said, “Paul, the prisoner,^h sent for me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

¹⁹The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside and asked, “What is it you want to tell me?”

²⁰He said: “Some Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul before the Sanhedrinⁱ tomorrow on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about him.^j ²¹Don’t give in to them, because more than forty^k of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him.^l They are ready now, waiting for your consent to their request.”

²²The commander dismissed the young man with this warning: “Don’t tell anyone that you have reported this to me.”

Paul Transferred to Caesarea

²³Then he called two of his centurions and ordered them, “Get ready a detachment of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen^b to go to Caesarea^m at nine tonight.” ²⁴Provide horses for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix.”^o

²⁵He wrote a letter as follows:

I also ordered his accusers^z to present to you their case against him.

³¹So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul with them during the night and brought him as far as Antipatris. ³²The next day they let the cavalry^a go on with him, while they returned to the barracks.^b ³³When the cavalry^c arrived in Caesarea,^d they delivered the letter to the governor^e and handed Paul over to him. ³⁴The governor read the letter and asked what province he was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia,^f ³⁵he said, “I will hear your case when your accusers^g get here.” Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard^h in Herod’s palace.

Paul’s Trial Before Felix

24 Five days later the high priest Ananiasⁱ went down to Caesarea with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought their charges^j against Paul before the governor.^k ²When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented his case before Felix: “We have enjoyed a long period of peace under you, and your foresight has brought about reforms in this nation. ³Everywhere and in every way, most excellent^l Felix, we acknowledge this with profound gratitude. ⁴But in order not to weary you further, I would request that you be kind enough to hear us briefly.

sect^p and even tried to desecrate the temple;^q so we seized him. ^[7]^a ⁸By examining him yourself you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him.”

⁹The other Jews joined in the accusation,^r asserting that these things were true.

¹⁰When the governor^s motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: “I know that for a number of years you have been a judge over this nation; so I gladly make my defense. ¹¹You can easily verify that no more than twelve days^t ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹²My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple,^u or stirring up a crowd^v in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. ¹³And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me.^w ¹⁴However, I admit that I worship the God of our ancestors^x as a follower of the Way,^y which they call a sect.^z I believe everything that is in accordance with the Law and that is written in the Prophets,^a ¹⁵and I have the same hope in God as these men themselves have, that there will be a resurrection^b of both the righteous and the wicked.^c ¹⁶So I strive always to keep my conscience clear^d before God and man.

¹⁷“After an absence of several years, I came to Jerusalem to bring my people gifts for the poor^e and to present offerings. ¹⁸I was ceremonially clean^f when they found me in the temple courts doing this. There was no crowd with me, nor was I involved in any disturbance.^g ¹⁹But there are some Jews from the province of Asia, who ought to be here before you and bring charges if they have anything against me.^h ²⁰Or these who are here should state what crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin — ²¹unless it was this one thing I shouted as I stood in their presence: ‘It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.’”ⁱ

^a 6-8 Some manuscripts include here him, and we would have judged him in accordance with our law. ⁷But the commander Lysias came and took him from us with much violence, ⁸ordering his accusers to come before you.

²²Then Felix, who was well acquainted with the Way, adjourned the proceedings. “When Lysias the commander comes,” he said, “I will decide your case.” ²³He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard^j but to give him some freedom^k and permit his friends to take care of his needs.^l

²⁴Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him as he spoke about faith in Christ Jesus.^m ²⁵As Paul talked about righteousness, self-controlⁿ and the judgment^o to come, Felix was afraid and said, “That’s enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you.” ²⁶At the same time he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him.

²⁷When two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus,^p but because Felix wanted to grant a favor to the Jews,^q he left Paul in prison.^r

Paul’s Trial Before Festus

25 Three days after arriving in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea^s to Jerusalem, ²where the chief priests and the Jewish leaders appeared before him and presented the charges against Paul.^t ³They requested Festus, as a favor to them, to have Paul transferred to Jerusalem, for they were preparing an ambush to kill him along the way. ⁴Festus answered, “Paul is being held^u at Caesarea, and I myself am going there soon. ⁵Let some of your leaders come with me, and if the man has done anything wrong, they can press charges against him there.”

⁶After spending eight or ten days with them, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day he convened the court^v and ordered that Paul be brought before him. ⁷When Paul came in, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him. They brought many serious charges against him,^w but they could not prove them.^x

⁸Then Paul made his defense: “I have done nothing wrong against the Jewish law or against the temple^y or against Caesar.”

⁹Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor,^z said to Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there on these charges?”^a

¹⁰Paul answered: “I am now standing before Caesar’s court, where I ought to be tried. I have not done any wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well. ¹¹If, however, I am guilty of doing anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges brought against me by these Jews are not true, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!”^b

¹²After Festus had conferred with his council, he declared: “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!”

Festus Consults King Agrippa

¹³A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea^c to pay their respects to Festus. ¹⁴Since they were spending many days there, Festus discussed Paul’s case with the king. He said: “There is a man here whom Felix left as a prisoner.^d ¹⁵When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges against him^e and asked that he be condemned.

¹⁶“I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over anyone before they have faced their accusers and have had an opportunity to defend themselves against the charges.^f

¹⁷When they came here with me, I did not delay the case, but convened the court the next day and ordered the man to be brought in.^g ¹⁸When his accusers got up to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. ¹⁹Instead, they had some points of dispute^h with him about their own religionⁱ and about a dead man named Jesus who Paul claimed was alive. ²⁰I was at a loss how to investigate such matters; so I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there on these charges.^j ²¹But when Paul made his appeal to be held over for the

Paul Before Agrippa

26:12-18pp — Ac 9:3-8; 22:6-11

²³The next day Agrippa and Bernice^m came with great pomp and entered the audience room with the high-ranking military officers and the prominent men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. ²⁴Festus said: "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man! The whole Jewish communityⁿ has petitioned me about him in Jerusalem and here in Caesarea, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.^o ²⁵I found he had done nothing deserving of death,^p but because he made his appeal to the Emperor^q I decided to send him to Rome. ²⁶But I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that as a result of this investigation I may have something to write. ²⁷For I think it is unreasonable to send a prisoner on to Rome without specifying the charges against him."

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself."^r

So Paul motioned with his hand and began his defense: ²"King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you today as I make my defense against all the accusations of the Jews, ³and especially so because you are well acquainted with all the Jewish customs^s and controversies.^t Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴"The Jewish people all know the way I have lived ever since I was a child,^u from the beginning of my life in my own country, and also in Jerusalem. ⁵They have known me for a long time^v and can testify, if they are willing, that I conformed to the strictest sect of our religion, living as a Pharisee.^w ⁶And now it is because of my hope^x in what God has promised our ancestors^y that I am on trial today. ⁷This is the promise our twelve tribes^z are hoping to see fulfilled as they earnestly serve God day and night.^a King Agrippa, it is because of this hope that these Jews are accusing me.^b ⁸Why should any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?^c

⁹"I too was convinced^d that I ought to do all that was possible to oppose^e the name of Jesus of Nazareth.^f ¹⁰And that is just what I did in Jerusalem. On the authority of the chief priests I put many of the Lord's people^g in prison,^h and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.ⁱ ¹¹Many a time I went from one synagogue to another to have them punished,^j and I tried to force them to blaspheme. I was so obsessed with persecuting them that I even hunted them down in foreign cities.

¹²"On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. ¹³About noon, King Agrippa, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, blazing around me and my companions. ¹⁴We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice^k saying to me in Aramaic,^a 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

¹⁵"Then I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,' the Lord replied. ¹⁶'Now get up and stand on your feet.^l I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen and will see of me.^m ¹⁷I will rescue youⁿ from your own people and from the Gentiles.^o I am sending you to them¹⁸ to open their eyes^p and turn them from darkness to light,^q and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins^r and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'^s

¹⁹"So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the vision from heaven.²⁰ First to those in Damascus,^t then to those in Jerusalem^u and in all Judea, and then to the Gentiles,^v I preached that they should repent^w and turn to God and demonstrate their repentance by their deeds.^x ²¹That is why some Jews seized me^y in the temple courts and tried to kill me.^z ²²But God has helped me to this very day; so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen^a — ²³that the Messiah would suffer and, as the first to rise from the dead,^b would bring the message of light to his own people and to the Gentiles.^c

²⁴At this point Festus interrupted Paul's defense. "You are out of your mind,^d Paul!" he shouted. "Your great learning^e is driving you insane."

²⁵"I am not insane, most excellent^f Festus," Paul replied. "What I am saying is true and reasonable. ²⁶The king is familiar with these things,^g and I can speak freely to him. I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do."

²⁸Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?"^h

²⁹Paul replied, "Short time or long — I pray to God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains."ⁱ

³⁰The king rose, and with him the governor and Bernice^j and those sitting with them. ³¹After they left the room, they began saying to one another, "This man is not doing anything that deserves death or imprisonment."^k

³²Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free^l if he had not appealed to Caesar."^m

iment.^p ²We boarded a ship from Adramyttium about to sail for ports along the coast of the province of Asia,^q and we put out to sea. Aristarchus,^r a Macedonian^s from Thessalonica,^t was with us.

³The next day we landed at Sidon;^u and Julius, in kindness to Paul,^v allowed him to go to his friends so they might provide for his needs.^w ⁴From there we put out to sea again and passed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us.^x ⁵When we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia^y and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia. ⁶There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship^z sailing for Italy^a and put us on board. ⁷We made slow headway for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. When the wind did not allow us to hold our course,^b we sailed to the lee of Crete,^c opposite Salmone. ⁸We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

⁹Much time had been lost, and sailing had already become dangerous because by now it was after the Day of Atonement.^d So Paul warned them, ¹⁰"Men, I can see that our voyage is going to be disastrous and bring great loss to ship and cargo, and to our own lives also."^e ¹¹But the centurion, instead of listening to what Paul said, followed the advice of the pilot and of the owner of the ship. ¹²Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided that we should sail on, hoping to reach Phoenix and winter there. This was a harbor in Crete, facing both southwest and northwest.

The Storm

¹³When a gentle south wind began to blow, they saw their opportunity; so they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete. ¹⁴Before very long, a wind of hurricane force,^f called the Northeaster, swept down from the island. ¹⁵The ship was caught by the storm and could not head into the wind; so we gave way to it and were driven along. ¹⁶As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat secure, ¹⁷so the men hoisted it aboard. Then they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Because they were afraid they would run aground⁹ on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor^a and let the ship be driven along. ¹⁸We took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard.^h ¹⁹On the third day, they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands. ²⁰When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

²¹After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: "Men, you should have taken my adviceⁱ not to sail from Crete;^j then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss. ²²But now I urge you to keep up your courage,^k because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed. ²³Last night an angel^l of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve^m stood beside meⁿ ²⁴and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar;^o and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'^p ²⁵So keep up your courage,^q men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me.^r ²⁶Nevertheless, we must run aground^s on some island."^t

The Shipwreck

²⁷On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic^b Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. ²⁸They took soundings and found that the water was a hundred and twenty feet^c deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet^d deep. ²⁹Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight. ³⁰In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat^u down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow. ³¹Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."^v ³²So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it drift away.

³³Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. "For the last fourteen days," he said, "you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food — you haven't eaten anything. ³⁴Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head."^w ³⁵After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it^x and began to eat. ³⁶They were all encouraged^y and ate some food themselves. ³⁷Altogether there were 276 of us on board. ³⁸When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.^z

⁴²The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. ⁴³But the centurion wanted to spare Paul's life^d and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴The rest were to get there on planks or on other pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely.^e

Paul Ashore on Malta

28 Once safely on shore, we^f found out that the island^g was called Malta. ²The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold. ³Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand. ⁴When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand,^h they said to each other, “This man must be a murderer; for though he escaped from the sea, the goddess Justice has not allowed him to live.”ⁱ ⁵But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects.^j ⁶The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead; but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.^k ⁷There was an estate nearby that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and showed us generous hospitality for three days. ⁸His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and, after prayer,^l placed his hands on him and healed him.^m ⁹When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured. ¹⁰They honored us in many ways; and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Paul’s Arrival at Rome

¹¹After three months we put out to sea in a ship that had wintered in the island — it was an Alexandrian shipⁿ with the figurehead of the twin gods Castor and Pollux. ¹²We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days. ¹³From there we set sail and arrived at Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up, and on the following day we reached Puteoli. ¹⁴There we found some brothers and sisters^o who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵The brothers and sisters^p there had heard that we were coming, and they traveled as far as the Forum of Ap-

Paul Preaches at Rome Under Guard

¹⁷Three days later he called together the local Jewish leaders.^r When they had assembled, Paul said to them: “My brothers,^s although I have done nothing against our people^t or against the customs of our ancestors,^u I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. ¹⁸They examined me^v and wanted to release me,^w because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death.^x ¹⁹The Jews objected, so I was compelled to make an appeal to Caesar.^y I certainly did not intend to bring any charge against my own people. ²⁰For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you. It is because of the hope of Israel^z that I am bound with this chain.”^a

²¹They replied, “We have not received any letters from Judea concerning you, and none of our people^b who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you. ²²But we want to hear what your views are, for we know that people everywhere are talking against this sect.”^c

²³They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and came in even larger numbers to the place where he was staying. He witnessed to them from morning till evening, explaining about the kingdom of God,^d and from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets^e he tried to persuade them about Jesus.^f ²⁴Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe.^g ²⁵They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your ancestors when he said through Isaiah the prophet:

ROMANS

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle^a and set apart^b for the gospel of God^c — ²the gospel he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures^d ³regarding his Son, who as to his earthly life^{ae} was a descendant of David, ⁴and who through the Spirit of holiness was appointed the Son of God in power^b by his resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord. ⁵Through him we received grace and apostleship to call all the Gentiles^f to the obedience that comes from^c faith^g for his name's sake. ⁶And you also are among those Gentiles who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.^h

⁷To all in Rome who are loved by Godⁱ and called to be his holy people:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.^j

Paul's Longing to Visit Rome

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you,^k because your faith is being reported all over the world.^l ⁹God, whom I serve^m in my spirit in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witnessⁿ how constantly I remember you ¹⁰in my prayers at all times; and I pray that now at last by God's will the way may be opened for me to come to you.^o

¹¹I long to see you^p so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong — ¹²that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith. ¹³I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,^d that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now)^q in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

¹⁴I am obligated^r both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.^s

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel,^t because it is the power of God^u that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew,^v then to the Gentile.^w ¹⁷For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed^x — a righteousness that is by faith from first to last,^e just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."^{fy}

God's Wrath Against Sinful Humanity

¹⁸The wrath of God^z is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness, ¹⁹since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.^a ²⁰For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities — his eternal power and divine nature — have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made,^b so that people are without excuse.

²¹For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.^c ²²Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools^d ²³and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images^e made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

^a 3 Or who according to the flesh ^b 4 Or was declared with power to be the Son of God
^c 5 Or that is ^d 13 The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God's family; also in 7:1, 4; 8:12, 29; 10:1; 11:25; 12:1; 15:14, 30; 16:14, 17. ^e 17 Or is from faith to faith
^f 17 Hab. 2:4

²⁴Therefore God gave them over^f in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another.^g ²⁵They exchanged the truth about God for a lie,^h and worshiped and served created thingsⁱ rather than the Creator—who is forever praised.^j Amen.

²⁶Because of this, God gave them over^k to shameful lusts.^l Even their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones.^m ²⁷In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.ⁿ

²⁸Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over^o to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done. ²⁹They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips,^p ³⁰slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;^q ³¹they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love,^r no mercy. ³²Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death,^s they not only continue to do these very things but also approve^t of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 You, therefore, have no excuse,^u you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge another, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things.^v ²Now we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. ³So when you, a mere human being, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? ⁴Or do you show contempt for the riches^w of his kindness,^x forbearance^y and patience,^z not realizing that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repentance?^a

⁵But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment^b will be revealed. ⁶God "will repay each person according to what they have done."^{ac} ⁷To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor^d and immortality,^e he will give eternal life. ⁸But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil,^f there will be wrath and anger. ⁹There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile;^g ¹⁰but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.^h ¹¹For God does not show favoritism.ⁱ

¹²All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law^j will be judged by the law. ¹³For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey^k the law who will be declared righteous. ¹⁴(Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law,^l they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law. ¹⁵They show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts sometimes accusing them and at other times even defending them.) ¹⁶This will take place on the day when God judges people's secrets^m through Jesus Christ,ⁿ as my gospel^o declares.

The Jews and the Law

¹⁷Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and boast in God;^p ¹⁸if you know his will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; ¹⁹if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in the dark, ²⁰an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of little children, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth — ²¹you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?^q ²²You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?^r ²³You who boast in the law,^s do you dishonor God by breaking the law? ²⁴As it is written: “God’s name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”^{at}

^a 6 Psalm 62:12; Prov. 24:12

²⁵Circumcision has value if you observe the law,^u but if you break the law, you have become as though you had not been circumcised.^v ²⁶So then, if those who are not circumcised keep the law’s requirements,^w will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised?^x ²⁷The one who is not circumcised physically and yet obeys the law will condemn you^y who, even though you have the^b written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.

²⁸A person is not a Jew who is one only outwardly,^z nor is circumcision merely outward and physical.^a ²⁹No, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit,^b not by the written code.^c Such a person’s praise is not from other people, but from God.^d

God’s Faithfulness

3 What advantage, then, is there in being a Jew, or what value is there in circumcision? ²Much in every way! First of all, the Jews have been entrusted with the very words of God.^e ³What if some were unfaithful?^f Will their unfaithfulness nullify God’s faithfulness?^g ⁴Not at all! Let God be true,^h and every human being a liar.ⁱ As it is written:

“So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge.”^{cj}

⁵But if our unrighteousness brings out God’s righteousness more clearly, what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath on us? (I am using a human argument.)^k ⁶Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world?^l ⁷Someone might argue, “If my falsehood enhances God’s truthfulness and so increases his glory,^m why am I still condemned as a sinner?” ⁸Why not say — as some slanderously claim that we say — “Let us do evil that good may result?”ⁿ Their condemnation is just!

No One Is Righteous

⁹What shall we conclude then? Do we have any advantage? Not at all! For we have already made the charge that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin.^o ¹⁰As it is written:

“There is no one righteous, not even one;

¹¹ there is no one who understands; there is no one who seeks God.

¹² All have turned away, they have together become worthless;

there is no one who does good, not even one.”^{dp}

¹³ “Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit.”^{eq}

“The poison of vipers is on their lips.”^{fr}

¹⁴ “Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”^{gs}

¹⁵ “Their feet are swift to shed blood;

¹⁶ ruin and misery mark their ways,

¹⁷ and the way of peace they do not know.”^h

¹⁸ “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”^{it}

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the law says,^u it says to those who are under the law,^v so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. ²⁰Therefore no one will be declared righteous in God’s sight by the works of the law;^w rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin.^x

Righteousness Through Faith

²¹But now apart from the law the righteousness of God^y has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify.^z ²²This righteousness is given through faith^a in^a Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile,^b ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,²⁴ and all are justified freely by his grace^c through the redemption^d that came by Christ Jesus. ²⁵God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement,^{be} through the shedding of his blood^f — to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished^g — ²⁶he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

²⁷Where, then, is boasting?^h It is excluded. Because of what law? The law that requires works? No, because of the law that requires faith. ²⁸For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.ⁱ ²⁹Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too,^j ³⁰since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.^k ³¹Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, discovered in this matter? ²If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about — but not before God.^l ³What does Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^{cm}

⁴Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a giftⁿ but as an obligation. ⁵However, to the one who does not work but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness. ⁶David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the one to whom

God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷“Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

⁸Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will never count against them.”^{do}

⁹Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised?^p We have been saying that Abraham’s faith was credited to him as righteousness.^q ¹⁰Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before! ¹¹And he received circumcision as a sign, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised.^r So then, he is the father^s of all who believe^t but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. ¹²And he is then also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

¹³It was not through the law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise^u that he would be heir of the world,^v but through the righteousness that comes by faith. ¹⁴For if those who depend on the law are heirs, faith means nothing and the promise is worthless,^w ¹⁵because the law brings wrath.^x And where there is no law there is no transgression.^y

¹⁶Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace^z and may be guaranteed^a to all Abraham’s offspring — not only to those who are of the law but also to those who have the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.”^{eb} He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed — the God who gives life^c to the dead and ¹⁸Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations,^f just as it had been said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”^g ¹⁹Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead^h—since he was about a hundred years oldⁱ—and that Sarah’s womb was also dead.^j ²⁰Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God,^k ²¹being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.^l ²²This is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.”^m ²³The words “it was credited to him” were written not for him alone, ²⁴but also for us,ⁿ to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him^o who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.^p ²⁵He was delivered over to death for our sins^q and was raised to life for our justification.

Peace and Hope

5 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith,^r we^b have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have gained access^s by faith into this grace in which we now stand.^t And we^c boast in the hope^u of the glory of God. ³Not only so, but we^c also glory in our sufferings,^v because we know that suffering produces perseverance;^w ⁴perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵And hope^x does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit,^y who has been given to us.

⁶You see, at just the right time,^z when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.^a ⁷Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. ⁸But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.^b shall we be saved from God’s wrath^d through him! ¹⁰For if, while we were God’s enemies,^e we were reconciled^f to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!^g ¹¹Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Death Through Adam, Life Through Christ

¹³To be sure, sin was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not charged against anyone’s account where there is no law.^j ¹⁴Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who is a pattern of the one to come.^k

¹⁵But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man,^l how much more did God’s grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ,^m overflow to the many! ¹⁶Nor can the gift of God be compared with the result of one man’s sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. ¹⁷For if, by the trespass of the one man, deathⁿ reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God’s abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

¹⁸Consequently, just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people,^o so also one righteous act resulted in justification^p and life for all people. ¹⁹For just as through the disobedience of the one man^q the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience^r of the one man the many will be made righteous.

²⁰The law was brought in so that the trespass might increase.⁵ But where sin increased, grace increased all the more,^t ²¹so that, just as sin reigned in death,^u so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive in Christ

6 What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase?^v ²By no means! We are those who have died to sin;^w how can we live in it any longer? ³Or don't you know that all of us who were baptized^x into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead^y through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.^z

⁵For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly also be united with him in a resurrection like his.^a ⁶For we know that our old self^b was crucified with him^c so that the body ruled by sin^d might be done away with,^a that we should no longer be slaves to sin — ⁷because anyone who has died has been set free from sin.

⁸Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead,^e he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him.^f ¹⁰The death he died, he died to sin^g once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

¹¹In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin^h but alive to God in Christ Jesus. ¹²Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. ¹³Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness,ⁱ but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness.^j ¹⁴For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law,^k but under grace.^l

Slaves to Righteousness

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶Don't you know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey — whether you are slaves to sin,^m which leads to death,ⁿ or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God^o that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching^p that has now claimed your allegiance. ¹⁸You have been set free from sin^q and have become slaves to righteousness.

¹⁹I am using an example from everyday life^r because of your human limitations. Just as you used to offer yourselves as slaves to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer yourselves as slaves to righteousness^s leading to holiness. ²⁰When you were slaves to sin,^t you were free from the control of righteousness. ²¹What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death!^u ²²But now that you have been set free from sin^v and have become slaves of God,^w the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death,^x but the gift of God is eternal life^y in^b Christ Jesus our Lord.

Released From the Law, Bound to Christ

7 Do you not know, brothers and sisters^z — for I am speaking to those who know the law — that the law has authority over someone only as long as that person lives? ²For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law that binds her to him.^a ³So then, if she has sexual relations with another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.

⁴So, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law^b through the body of Christ,^c that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God. ⁵For when we were in the realm of the flesh,^a the sinful passions aroused by the law^d were at work in us,^e so that we bore fruit for death. ⁶But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.^f

The Law and Sin

⁷What shall we say, then? Is the law sinful? Certainly not! Nevertheless, I would not have known what sin was had it not been for the law.^g For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, “You shall not covet.”^h ⁸But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment,ⁱ produced in me every kind of coveting. For apart from the law, sin was dead.^j ⁹Once I was alive apart from the law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. ¹⁰I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life^k actually brought death. ¹¹For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me,^l and through the commandment put me to death. ¹²So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.^m ¹³Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! Nevertheless, in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

¹⁴We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual,ⁿ sold^o as a slave to sin. ¹⁵I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do.^p ¹⁶And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.^q ¹⁷As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.^r ¹⁸For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature.^{cs} For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. ¹⁹For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do — this I keep on doing.^t ²⁰Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.^u

²¹So I find this law at work:^v Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. ²²For in my inner being^w I delight in God's law;^x ²³but I see another law at work in me, waging war^y against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. ²⁴What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?^z ²⁵Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my sinful nature^d a slave to the law of sin.

Life Through the Spirit

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation^a for those who are in Christ Jesus,^b ²because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life^c has set you^e free^d from the law of sin^e and death. ³For what the law was powerless^f to do because it was weakened by the flesh,^f God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh^g to be a sin offering.^{gh} And so he condemned sin in the flesh,ⁱ in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.ⁱ

⁵Those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on what the flesh desires;^j but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires.^k ⁶The mind governed by the flesh is death, but the mind governed by the Spirit is life^l and peace. ⁷The mind governed by the flesh is hostile to God;^m it does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. ⁸Those who are in the realm of the flesh cannot please God.

⁹You, however, are not in the realm of the flesh but are in the realm of the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you.ⁿ And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ,^o they do not belong to Christ. ¹⁰But if Christ is in you,^p then even though your body is subject to death because of sin, the Spirit gives life^a because of righteousness. ¹¹And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead^q is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies^r because of^b his Spirit who lives in you.

¹²Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation — but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live.^s

¹⁴For those who are led by the Spirit of God^t are the children of God.^u ¹⁵The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again;^v rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship.^c And by him we cry, “Abba,^d Father.”^w ¹⁶The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit^x that we are God's children. ¹⁷Now if we are children, then we are heirs^y — heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.^z

Present Suffering and Future Glory

¹⁸I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.^a ¹⁹For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it,^b in hope ²¹that^e the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay^c and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.

²²We know that the whole creation has been groaning^d as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. ²³Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit,^e groan^f inwardly as we wait eagerly^g for our adoption to sonship, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in this hope we were saved.^h But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

²⁶In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for usⁱ through wordless groans. ²⁷And he who searches our hearts^j knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

²⁸And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who^k have been called^k according to his purpose. ²⁹For those God foreknew^l he also predestined^m to be conformed to the image of his Son,ⁿ that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰And those he predestined,^o he also called; those he called, he also justified;^p those he justified, he also glorified.^q

More Than Conquerors

³¹What, then, shall we say in response to these things?^r If God is for us, who can be against us?^s ³²He who did not spare his own Son,^t but gave him up for us all — how will he not also, along with him, graciously give

Paul's Anguish Over Israel

9 I speak the truth in Christ — I am not lying,^e my conscience confirms^f it through the Holy Spirit — ²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself^g were cursed^h and cut off from Christ for the sake of my people, those of my own race,ⁱ ⁴the people of Israel. Theirs is the adoption to sonship;^j theirs the divine glory, the covenants,^k the receiving of the law,^l the temple worship^m and the promises.ⁿ ⁵Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of the Messiah,^o who is God over all,^p forever praised!^q Amen.

God's Sovereign Choice

⁶It is not as though God's word had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel.^r ⁷Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham's children. On the contrary, “It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.”^{ds} ⁸In other words, it is not the children by physical descent who are God's children,^t shame.”^{ez}

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. ²For I can testify about them that they are zealous^a for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. ³Since they did not know the righteousness of God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness.^b ⁴Christ is the culmination of the law^c so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.^d

⁵Moses writes this about the righteousness that is by the law: “The person who does these things will live by them.”^{fe} ⁶But the righteousness that is by faith^f says: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’”^g ⁷(that is, to bring Christ down) ^{7a}or ‘Who will descend into the deep?’”^h (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,”^h that is, the message concerning faith that we proclaim: ⁹If you declareⁱ with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead,^j you will be saved. ¹⁰For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved. ¹¹As Scripture says, “Anyone who believes in him will never be put to shame.”^{jk} ¹²For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile^l — the same Lord is Lord of all^m and richly blesses all who call on him, ¹³for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lordⁿ will be saved.”^{ko}

¹⁴How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? ¹⁵And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”^{ap} ¹⁶But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”^{bq} ¹⁷Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message,^r and the message is heard through the word about Christ.^s ¹⁸But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did:

“Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.”^{ct}

¹⁹Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says,

“I will make you envious^u by those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a nation that has no understanding.”^{dv}

²⁰And Isaiah boldly says,

“I was found by those who did not seek me;
I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me.”^{ew}

²¹But concerning Israel he says,

“All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.”^{fx}

The Remnant of Israel

11 I ask then: Did God reject his people? By no means!^y I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham,^z from the tribe of Benjamin.^a ²God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew.^b Don’t you know what Scripture says in the passage about Elijah — how he appealed to God against Israel: ³“Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me”^{g?c} ⁴And what was God’s answer to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”^{hd} ⁵So too, at the present time there is a remnant^e chosen by grace. ⁶And if by grace, then it cannot be based on works;^f if it were, grace would no longer be grace.

⁷What then? What the people of Israel sought so earnestly they did not obtain.^g The elect among them did, but the others were hardened,^h as it is written:

“God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that could not see and ears that could not hear,ⁱ to this very day.”^{jj}

⁹And David says:

“May their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them.

¹⁰May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see,
and their backs be bent forever.”^{jk}

Ingrafted Branches

¹¹Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all!^l Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles^m to make Israel envious.ⁿ ¹²But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles,^o how much greater riches will their full inclusion bring!

¹³I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles,^p I take pride in my ministry ¹⁴in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy^q and save^r some of them. ¹⁵For if their rejection brought reconciliation^s to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?^t ¹⁶If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits^u is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷If some of the branches have been broken off,^v and you, though a

If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.^x ¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.” ²⁰Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith.^y Do not be arrogant,^z but tremble.^a ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either.

²²Consider therefore the kindness^b and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue^c in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.^d ²³And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.^e ²⁴After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

All Israel Will Be Saved

²⁵I do not want you to be ignorant^f of this mystery,^g brothers and sisters, so that you may not be conceited:^h Israel has experienced a hardeningⁱ in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in,^j ²⁶and in this way^a all Israel will be saved. As it is written:

he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

A Living Sacrifice

12 Therefore, I urge you,^y brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,^z holy and pleasing to God — this is your true and proper worship. ²Do not conform^a to the pattern of this world,^b but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.^c Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is^d — his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Humble Service in the Body of Christ

³For by the grace given me^e I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. ⁴For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all

Love in Action

⁹Love must be sincere.^m Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰Be devoted to one another in love.ⁿ Honor one another above yourselves.^o ¹¹Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor,^p serving the Lord. ¹²Be joyful in hope,^q patient in affliction,^r faithful in prayer. ¹³Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.^s

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you;^t bless and do not curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn.^u ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another.^v Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position.^c Do not be conceited.^w

¹⁷Do not repay anyone evil for evil.^x Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone.^y ¹⁸If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone.^z ¹⁹Do not take revenge,^a my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay,"^{db} says the Lord. ²⁰On the contrary:

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
if he is thirsty, give him something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head."^{ec}

²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

is no authority except that which God has established.^e The authorities that exist have been established by God. ²Consequently, whoever rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves. ³For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and you will be commended.^f ⁴For the one in authority is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for rulers do not bear the sword for no reason. They are God's servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.^g ⁵Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also as a matter of conscience.

⁶This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing. ⁷Give to everyone what you owe them: If you owe taxes, pay taxes;^h if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor.

Love Fulfills the Law

⁸Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law.ⁱ ⁹The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet,"^{fi} and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."^{gk} ¹⁰Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.^l nearer now than when we first believed. ¹²The night is nearly over; the day is almost here.^o So let us put aside the deeds of darkness^p and put on the armor^q of light. ¹³Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy.^r ¹⁴Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ,^s and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.^a

The Weak and the Strong

14 Accept the one whose faith is weak,^t without quarreling over disputable matters. ²One person's faith allows them to eat anything, but another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. ³The one who eats everything must not treat with contempt^u the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge^v the one who does, for God has accepted them. ⁴Who are you to judge someone else's servant?^w To their own master, servants stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

⁵One person considers one day more sacred than another;^x another considers every day alike. Each of them should be fully convinced in their own mind. ⁶Whoever regards one day as special does so to the Lord. Whoever eats meat does so to the Lord, for they give thanks to God;^y and whoever abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives for ourselves alone,^z and none of us dies for ourselves alone. ⁸If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.^a ⁹For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life^b so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.^c

¹⁰You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister^{b?} Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.^d ¹¹It is written:

“‘As surely as I live,’ says the Lord, ‘every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God.’”^{ce}

¹²So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.^f

¹³Therefore let us stop passing judgment^g on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in the way of a brother or sister. ¹⁴I am convinced, being fully persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself.^h But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for that person it is unclean.ⁱ ¹⁵If your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love.^j Do not by your eating destroy someone for whom Christ died.^k ¹⁶Therefore do not let what you know is good be spoken of as evil.^l ¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking,^m but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit,ⁿ ¹⁸because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and receives human approval.^o

¹⁹Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace^p and to mutual edification.^q ²⁰Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food.^r All food is clean, but it is wrong for a person to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble.^s ²¹It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother or sister to fall.^t

²²So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn^u himself by what he approves. ²³But whoever has doubts^v is condemned if they eat, because their eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.^d

^a 14 In contexts like this, the Greek word for flesh (sarx) refers to the sinful state of human beings, often presented as a power in opposition to the Spirit. ^b 10 The Greek word for brother or sister (adelphos) refers here to a believer, whether man or woman, as part of God's family; also in verses 13, 15 and 21.

^c 11 Isaiah 45:23 ^d 23 Some manuscripts place 16:25-27 here; others after 15:33.

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak^w and not to please ourselves. ²Each of us should please our neighbors for their good,^x to build them up.^y ³For even Christ did not please himself^z but, as it is written: “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”^{aa} ⁴For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us,^b so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

⁵May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind^c toward each other that Christ Jesus had, ⁶so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father^d of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷Accept one another,^e then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. ⁸For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews^{b^f} on behalf of God’s truth, so that the promises^g made to the patriarchs might be confirmed ⁹and, moreover, that the Gentiles^h might glorify Godⁱ for his mercy. As it is written:

“Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing the praises of your name.”^{cj}

¹⁰Again, it says,

“Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.”^{dk}

¹¹And again,

“Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him.”^{el}

¹²And again, Isaiah says,

“The Root of Jesse^m will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations;
in him the Gentiles will have hope.”^{fn}

¹³May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace^o as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.^p

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

¹⁴I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness,^a filled with knowledge^r and competent to instruct one another. ¹⁵Yet I have written you quite boldly on some points to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me^s ¹⁶to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles.^t He gave me the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God,^u so that the Gentiles might become an offering^v acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷Therefore I glory in Christ Jesus^w in my service to God.^x ¹⁸I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles^y to obey God^z by what I have said and done — ¹⁹by the power of signs and wonders,^a through the power of the Spirit of God.^b ²⁰So from Jerusalem^c all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ. ²¹It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else’s foundation.^d ²²Rather, as it is written:

“Those who were not told about him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand.”^{ge}

²²This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.^f

Paul’s Plan to Visit Rome

²³But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have been longing for many years to visit you,^g ²⁴I plan to do so when I go to Spain.^h I hope to see you while passing through and to have you assist me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalemⁱ in the service^j of the Lord’s people there.

²⁶For Macedonia^k and Achaia^l were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the Lord's people in Jerusalem. ²⁷They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings.^m ²⁸So after I have completed this task and have made sure that they have received this contribution, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way. ²⁹I know that when I come to you,ⁿ I will come in the full measure of the blessing of Christ.

³⁰I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit,^o to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me.^p ³¹Pray that I may be kept safe^q from the unbelievers in Judea and that the contribution I take to Jerusalem may be favorably received by the Lord's people there, ³²so that I may come to you^r with joy, by God's will,^s and in your company be refreshed.^t ³³The God of peace^u be with you all. Amen.

Personal Greetings

16 I commend^v to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon^{a,b} of the church in Cenchreae.^w ²I ask you to receive her in the Lord^x in a way worthy of his people and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been the benefactor of many people, including me.

³Greet Priscilla^c and Aquila,^y my co-workers in Christ Jesus.^z ⁴They risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.

⁵Greet also the church that meets at their house.^a

Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert^b to Christ in the province of Asia.

⁶Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.

⁷Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews^c who have been in prison with me. They are outstanding among^d the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

⁸Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

A Church Divided Over Leaders

¹⁰I appeal to you, brothers and sisters,^o in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought. ¹¹My brothers and sisters, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. ¹²What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul";^o another, "I follow Apollos";^p another, "I follow Cephas"^q; ¹³still another, "I follow Christ."

Christ Crucified Is God's Power and Wisdom

¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness^x to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.^y ¹⁹For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise;
the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."^z

²⁰Where is the wise person?^a Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish^b the wisdom of the world? ²¹For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. ²²Jews demand signs^c and Greeks look for wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block^d to Jews and foolishness^e to Gentiles, ²⁴but to those whom God has called,^f both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.^g ²⁵For the foolishness^h of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weaknessⁱ of God is stronger than human strength.

²⁶Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. ²⁷But God chose^j the foolish^k things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. ²⁸God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things — and the things that are not^l — to nullify the things that are, ²⁹so that no one may boast before him. ³⁰It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God — that is, our righteousness,ⁿ holiness and redemption. ³¹Therefore, as it is written: “Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord.”^{ap}

2 And so it was with me, brothers and sisters. When I came to you, I did not come with eloquence or human wisdom^q as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God.^b ²For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.^r ³I came to you^s in weakness with great fear and trembling. ⁴My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power,^t ⁵so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom, but on God’s power.^u

God’s Wisdom Revealed by the Spirit

⁶We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature,^v but not the wisdom of this age^w or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷No, we declare God’s wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began. ⁸None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.^x ⁹However, as it is written:

and what no human mind has conceived”^c — the things God has prepared for those who love him — ^y

¹⁰these are the things God has revealed^z to us by his Spirit.^a

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. ¹¹For who knows a person’s thoughts^b except their own spirit^c within them? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²What we have received is not the spirit^d of the world,^e but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. ¹³This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom^f but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words.^d ¹⁴The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness,^g and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit. ¹⁵The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments,^h ¹⁶for,

“Who has known the mind of the

so as to instruct him?”^{eh}

But we have the mind of Christ.ⁱ

The Church and Its Leaders

3 Brothers and sisters, I could not address you as people who live by the Spirit^j but as people who are still worldly^k — mere infants^l in Christ. ²I gave you milk, not solid food,^m for you were not yet ready for it.ⁿ Indeed, you are still not ready. ³You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarreling^o among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans? ⁴For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,”^p are you not mere human beings?

^a 31 Jer. 9:24 ^b 1 Some manuscripts

⁵What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe — as the Lord has assigned to each his task. ⁶I planted the seed,^a Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow. ⁷So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. ⁸The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor.^r ⁹For we are co-workers in God's service;^s you are God's field,^t God's building.^u

¹⁰By the grace God has given me,^v I laid a foundation^w as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. ¹¹For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.^x ¹²If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw,¹³their work will be shown for what it is,^y because the Day^z will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work. ¹⁴If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward. ¹⁵If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved — even though only as one escaping through the flames.^a ¹⁶Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple^b and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

¹⁸Do not deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise^c by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness^d in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness"^{a,e} ²⁰and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."^{bf} ²¹So then, no more boasting about human leaders!^g All things are yours,^h ²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas^{ci} or the world or life or death or the present or the future^j — all are yours, ²³and you are of Christ,^k and Christ is of God.

The Nature of True Apostleship

4 This, then, is how you ought to regard us: as servants of Christ and as those entrusted^l with the mysteries^m God has revealed. ²Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful. ³I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself. ⁴My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent.ⁿ It is the Lord who judges me. ⁵Therefore judge nothing^o before the appointed time; wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of the heart. At that time each will receive their praise from God.^p

⁶Now, brothers and sisters, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written."^q Then you will not be puffed up in being a follower of one of us over against the other.^r ⁷For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive?^s And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

⁸Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich!^t You have begun to reign — and that without us! How I wish that you really had begun to reign so that we also might reign with you! ⁹For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like those condemned to die^u in the arena. We have been made a spectacle^v to the whole universe, to angels as well as to human beings. ¹⁰We are fools for Christ,^w but you are so wise in Christ!^x We are weak, but you are strong!^y You are honored, we are dishonored! ¹¹To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are brutally treated, we are homeless.^z ¹²We work hard with our own hands.^a When we are cursed, we bless;^b when we are persecuted, we endure it; ¹³when we are slandered,

Paul's Appeal and Warning

¹⁴I am writing this not to shame you but to warn you as my dear children.^d ¹⁵Even if you had ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.^e ¹⁶Therefore I urge you to imitate me.^f ¹⁷For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, my son^g whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.^h ¹⁸Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.ⁱ ¹⁹But I will come to you very soon,^j if the Lord is willing,^j and then I will find out not only how these arrogant people are talking, but what power they have. ²⁰For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. ²¹What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod of discipline,^k or shall I come in love and with a gentle spirit?

Dealing With a Case of Incest

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that even pagans do not tolerate: A man is sleeping with his father's wife.¹ ²And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have gone into mourning^m and have put out of your fellowship the man who has been doing this? ³For my part, even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit.ⁿ As one who is present with you in this way, I have already passed judgment in the name of our Lord Jesus^o on the one who has been doing this. ⁴So when you are assembled and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, ⁵hand this man over^p to Satan for the destruction of the flesh,^{a, b} so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

new unleavened batch — as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.^t ⁸Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old bread leavened with malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread^u of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in my letter not to associate^v with sexually immoral people — ¹⁰not at all meaning the people of this world^w who are immoral, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. ¹¹But now I am writing to you that you must not associate with anyone who claims to be a brother or sister^c but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater^x or slanderer, a drunkard or swindler. Do not even eat with such people.

¹²What business is it of mine to judge those outside^y the church? Are you not to judge those inside?^z ¹³God will judge those outside. “Expel the wicked person from among you.”^{da}

Lawsuits Among Believers

6 If any of you has a dispute with another, do you dare to take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the Lord's people?^b ²Or do you not know that the Lord's people will judge the world?^c And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? ³Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life! ⁴Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, do you ask for a ruling from those whose way of life is scorned in the church? ⁵I say this to shame you.^d Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers?^e ⁶But instead, one brother takes another to court — and this in front of unbelievers!^f

Why not rather be cheated?⁹ ⁸Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers and sisters.^h ⁹Or do you not know that wrongdoers will not inherit the kingdom of God?ⁱ Do not be deceived.^j Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor men who have sex with men^a ¹⁰nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And that is what some of you were.^k But you were washed,^l you were sanctified,^m you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Sexual Immorality

¹²“I have the right to do anything,” you say — but not everything is beneficial.ⁿ “I have the right to do anything” — but I will not be mastered by anything. ¹³You say, “Food for the stomach and the stomach for food, and God will destroy them both.”^o The body, however, is not meant for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also.^p ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ himself?^q Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, “The two will become one flesh.”^{br} ¹⁷But whoever is united with the Lord is one with him in spirit.^{cs}

¹⁸Flee from sexual immorality.^t All other sins a person commits are outside the body, but whoever sins sexually, sins against their own body.^u ¹⁹Do you not know that your bodies are temples^v of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own;^w ²⁰you were bought at a price.^x Therefore honor God with your bodies.

to have sexual relations with a woman.”^y ²But since sexual immorality is occurring, each man should have sexual relations with his own wife, and each woman with her own husband. ³The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife,^z and likewise the wife to her husband. ⁴The wife does not have authority over her own body but yields it to her husband. In the same way, the husband does not have authority over his own body but yields it to his wife. ⁵Do not deprive each other except perhaps by mutual consent and for a time,^a so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan^b will not tempt you^c because of your lack of self-control. ⁶I say this as a concession, not as a command.^d ⁷I wish that all of you were as I am.^e But each of you has your own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.^f

⁸Now to the unmarried^d and the widows I say: It is good for them to stay unmarried, as I do.^g ⁹But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry,^h for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

¹⁰To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband.ⁱ ¹¹But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

¹²To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord):^j If any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. ¹³And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified through her believing husband. Concerning Change of Status

¹⁷Nevertheless, each person should live as a believer in whatever situation the Lord has assigned to them, just as God has called them.^o This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.^p ¹⁸Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.^q ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing.^r Keeping God's commands is what counts. ²⁰Each person should remain in the situation they were in when God called them.^s

²¹Were you a slave when you were called? Don't let it trouble you — although if you can gain your freedom, do so. ²²For the one who was a slave when called to faith in the Lord is the Lord's freed person;^t similarly, the one who was free when called is Christ's slave.^u ²³You were bought at a price;^v do not become slaves of human beings. ²⁴Brothers and sisters, each person, as responsible to God, should remain in the situation they were in when God called them.^w

Concerning the Unmarried

²⁵Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord,^x but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy^y is trustworthy. ²⁶Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for a man to remain as he is.^z ²⁷Are you pledged to a woman? Do not seek to be released. Are you free from such a commitment? Do not look for a wife. ²⁸But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

For this world in its present form is passing away.^b

³²I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs^c — how he can please the Lord. ³³But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world — how he can please his wife — ³⁴and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit.^d But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world — how she can please her husband. ³⁵I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided^e devotion to the Lord.

³⁶If anyone is worried that he might not be acting honorably toward the virgin he is engaged to, and if his passions are too strong^a and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning.^f They should get married. ³⁷But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind not to marry the virgin — this man also does the right thing. ³⁸So then, he who marries the virgin does right,^g but he who does not marry her does better.^b

^a 36 Or if she is getting beyond the usual age for marriage ^b 36-38 Or ^{36f}if anyone thinks he is not treating his daughter properly, and if she is getting along in years (or if her passions are too strong), and he feels she ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. He should let her get married. ³⁷But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind to keep the virgin unmarried — this man also does the right thing. ³⁸So then, he who gives his virgin in marriage does right, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

Concerning Food Sacrificed to Idols

8 Now about food sacrificed to idols:^k We know that “We all possess knowledge.”^l But knowledge puffs up while love builds up. ²Those who think they know something^m do not yet know as they ought to know.ⁿ ³But whoever loves God is known by God.^o

⁴So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols:^p We know that “An idol is nothing at all in the world”^q and that “There is no God but one.”^r ⁵For even if there are so-called gods,^s whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”), ⁶yet for us there is but one God, the Father,^t from whom all things came^u and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord,^v Jesus Christ, through whom all things came^w and through whom we live.

⁷But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat sacrificial food they think of it as having been sacrificed to a god, and since their conscience is weak,^x it is defiled. ⁸But food does not bring us near to God;^y we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

⁹Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block^z to the weak.^a ¹⁰For if someone with a weak conscience sees you, with all your knowledge, eating in an idol’s temple, won’t that person be emboldened to eat what is sacrificed to idols? ¹¹So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed^b by your knowledge. ¹²When you sin against them^c in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. ¹³Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will

Paul’s Rights as an Apostle

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle?^e Have I not seen Jesus our Lord?^f Are you not the result of my work in the Lord?^g ²Even though I may not be an apostle to others, surely I am to you! For you are the seal^h of my apostleship in the Lord.

³This is my defense to those who sit in judgment on me. ⁴Don’t we have the right to food and drink?ⁱ ⁵Don’t we have the right to take a believing wife^j along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord’s brothers^k and Cephas^b? ⁶Or is it only I and Barnabas^l who lack the right to not work for a living?

⁷Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard^m and does not eat its grapes? Who tends a flock and does not drink the milk? ⁸Do I say this merely on human authority? Doesn’t the Law say the same thing? ⁹For it is written in the Law of Moses: “Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.”^{cn} Is it about oxen that God is concerned?^o ¹⁰Surely he says this for us, doesn’t he? Yes, this was written for us,^p because whoever plows and threshes should be able to do so in the hope of sharing in the harvest.^q ¹¹If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap a material harvest from you?^r ¹²If others have this right of support from you, shouldn’t we have it all the more?

But we did not use this right.^s On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder^t the gospel of Christ.

¹³Don’t you know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple, and that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar?^u ¹⁴In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.^v

^a 2,3 An early manuscript and another ancient witness think they have knowledge do not yet know as they ought to know. ³But whoever loves truly knows. ^b 5 That is, Peter

^c 9 Deut. 25:4

¹⁵But I have not used any of these rights.^w And I am not writing this in the hope that you will do such things for me, for I would rather die than allow anyone to deprive me of this boast.^x ¹⁶For when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, since I am compelled to preach.^y Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷If I preach voluntarily, I have a reward;^z if not voluntarily, I am simply discharging the trust committed to me.^a ¹⁸What then is my reward? Just this: that in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge,^b and so not make full use of my rights as a preacher of the gospel.

Paul's Use of His Freedom

¹⁹Though I am free^c and belong to no one, I have made myself a slave to everyone,^d to win as many as possible.^e ²⁰To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews.^f To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. ²¹To those not having the law I became like one not having the law^g (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. ²²To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people^h so that by all possible means I might save some.ⁱ ²³I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

The Need for Self-Discipline

²⁴Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run^j in such a way as to get the prize. ²⁵Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a crown that will last forever.^k ²⁶Therefore I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. ²⁷No, I strike a blow to my body^l and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud^m and that they all passed through the sea.ⁿ ²They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³They all ate the same spiritual food ⁴and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock^o that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.^p

⁶Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. ⁷Do not be idolaters,^q as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry."^{ar} ⁸We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did — and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died.^s ⁹We should not test Christ,^b as some of them did — and were killed by snakes.^t ¹⁰And do not grumble, as some of them did^u — and were killed^v by the destroying angel.^w

¹¹These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the culmination of the ages has come.^x ¹²So, if you think you are standing firm,^y be careful that you don't fall! ¹³No temptation^c has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful;^z he will not let you be tempted^c beyond what you can bear.^a But when you are tempted,^c he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

Idol Feasts and the Lord's Supper

¹⁴Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?^b ¹⁷Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body,^c for we all share the one loaf.

¹⁸Consider the people of Israel: Do

^a 7 Exodus 32:6 ^b 9 Some manuscripts test the Lord ^c 13 The Greek for temptation and tempted can also mean testing and tested.

not those who eat the sacrifices^d participate in the altar? ¹⁹Do I mean then that food sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?^e ²⁰No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons,^f not to God, and I do not want you to be participants with demons. ²¹You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons.^g ²²Are we trying to arouse the Lord's jealousy?^h Are we stronger than he?ⁱ

The Believer's Freedom

²³"I have the right to do anything," you say—but not everything is beneficial.^j "I have the right to do anything"—but not everything is constructive. ²⁴No one should seek their own good, but the good of others.^k

²⁵Eat anything sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience,^l ²⁶for, "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it."^m

²⁷If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat whatever is put before youⁿ without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸But if someone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, both for the sake of the one who told you and for the sake of conscience.^o

²⁹I am referring to the other person's conscience, not yours. For why is my freedom^p being judged by another's conscience? ³⁰If I take part in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I thank God for?^q

³¹So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.^r ³²Do not cause anyone to stumble,^s whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God^t— ³³even as I try to please everyone in every way.^u For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many, so that they may 11 be saved.^v ¹Follow my example,^w as I follow the example of Christ.

that the head of every man is Christ,^a and the head of the woman is man,^{bb} and the head of Christ is God.^c ⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵But every woman who prays or prophesies^d with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is the same as having her head shaved.^e ⁶For if a woman does not cover her head, she might as well have her hair cut off; but if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, then she should cover her head.

⁷A man ought not to cover his head,^c since he is the image^f and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. ⁸For man did not come from woman, but woman from man;^g ⁹neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.^h ¹⁰It is for this reason that a woman ought to have authority over her own^d head, because of the angels. ¹¹Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. ¹²For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.ⁱ

¹³Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴Does not the very nature of things teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,¹⁵ but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For long hair is given to her as a covering. ¹⁶If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no other practice—nor do the churches of God.^j no praise for you,^k for your meetings do more harm than good.¹⁸ In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions^l among you, and to some extent I believe it.¹⁹ No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval.^m ²⁰So then, when you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat, ²¹for when you are eating, some of you go ahead with your own private suppers.ⁿ As a result, one person remains hungry and another gets drunk.²² Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God^o by humiliating those who have nothing?^p What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you?^q Certainly not in this matter!

²³For I received from the Lord^r what I also passed on to you:^s The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, ²⁴and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant^t in my blood;^u do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

²⁷So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.^v ²⁸Everyone ought to examine themselves^w before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup. ²⁹For those who eat and drink without discerning the body of Christ eat and drink judgment on themselves. ³⁰That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep. ³¹But if we were more discerning with regard to ourselves, we would not come under such judgment.^x ³²Nevertheless, when we are judged in this way by the Lord, we are being disciplined^y so that we will not be finally condemned with the world.

³³So then, my brothers and sisters, when you gather to eat, you should

Concerning Spiritual Gifts

12 Now about the gifts of the Spirit,^c brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. ²You know that when you were pagans,^d somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols.^e ³Therefore I want you to know that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed,"^f and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord,"^g except by the Holy Spirit.^h

⁴There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spiritⁱ distributes them. ⁵There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. ⁶There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God^j at work.

⁷Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.^k ⁸To one there is given through the Spirit a message of wisdom,^l to another a message of knowledge^m by means of the same Spirit, ⁹to another faithⁿ by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing^o by that one Spirit, ¹⁰to another miraculous powers,^p to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits,^q to another speaking in different kinds of tongues,^{qr} and to still another the interpretation of tongues.^a ¹¹All these are the work of one and the same Spirit,^s and he distributes them to each one, just as he determines.

Unity and Diversity in the Body

¹²Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body,^t so it is with Christ.^u ¹³For we were all baptized by^b one Spirit^v so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free^w—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.^x ¹⁴Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

^a 10 Or languages; also in verse 28

^b 13 Or with; or in

¹⁵Now if the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸But in fact God has placed^y the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. ¹⁹If they were all one part, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many parts, but one body.^a ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!" ²²On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, ²⁴while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it, ²⁵so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. ²⁶If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ,^b and each one of you is a part of it.^c ²⁸And God has placed in the church^d first of all apostles,^e second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing,^f of helping, of guidance,^g and of different kinds of tongues.^h ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues?^a ³¹Do all interpret? ³¹Now eagerly desireⁱ the greater gifts.

have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ²If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries^l and all knowledge, and if I have a faith^m that can move mountains,ⁿ but do not have love, I am nothing. ³If I give all I possess to the poor^o and give over my body to hardship that I may boast,^c but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴Love is patient,^q love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking,^r it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶Love does not delight in evil^s but rejoices with the truth.^t ⁷It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸Love never fails. But where there are prophecies,^u they will cease; where there are tongues,^v they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹For we know in part^w and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰but when completeness comes,^x what is in part disappears. ¹¹When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹²For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face.^y Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.^z

¹³And now these three remain: faith, hope and love.^a But the greatest of these is love.^b

Intelligibility in Worship

14 Follow the way of love^c and eagerly desire^d gifts of the Spirit,^e especially prophecy. ²For anyone who speaks in a tongue^{df} does not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no one understands them; they utter mysteries^g by the Spirit. ³But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening,^h encouraging and comfort. ⁴Anyone who speaks in a tongueⁱ edifies themselves, but the one who prophesies^j edifies the church. ⁵I would like every one of you to speak in tongues,^a but I would rather have you prophesy.^k The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues,^a unless someone interprets, so that the church may be edified.

⁶Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation^l or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction?^m ⁷Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the pipe or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes? ⁸Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle?ⁿ ⁹So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air. ¹⁰Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning. ¹¹If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker is a foreigner to me. ¹²So it is with you. Since you are eager for gifts of the Spirit, try to excel in those that build up the church.

¹³For this reason the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that they may interpret what they say. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my understanding; I will sing^o with my spirit, but I will also sing with my understanding. ¹⁶Otherwise when you are praising God in the Spirit, how can someone else, who is now put in the position of an inquirer,^b say “Amen”^p to your thanksgiving,^q since they do not know what you are saying? ¹⁷You are giving thanks well enough, but no one else is edified.

¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹But in the church I would rather speak five intelligible words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers and sisters, stop think-

“With other tongues and through the lips of foreigners
I will speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to me,^u
says the Lord.”^c

²²Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy,^v however, is not for unbelievers but for believers. ²³So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and inquirers or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?^w ²⁴But if an unbeliever or an inquirer comes in while everyone is prophesying, they are convicted of sin and are brought under judgment by all, ²⁵as the secrets of their hearts are laid bare. So they will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, “God is really among you!”^x

Good Order in Worship

²⁶What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you^y has a hymn,^z or a word of instruction,^a a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up.^b ²⁷If anyone speaks in a tongue, two — or at the most three — should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. ²⁸If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and to God.

²⁹Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said.^c ³⁰And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop. ³¹For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. ³²The spirits of prophets are subject to the

³⁴Women^a should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission,^g as the law^h says. ³⁵If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home; for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.^b

³⁹Therefore, my brothers and sisters, be eager^k to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly^l way.

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel^m I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. ²By this gospel you are saved,ⁿ if you hold firmly^o to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

³For what I received^p I passed on to you^q as of first importance^d: that Christ died for our sins^r according to the Scriptures,^s ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised^t on the third day^u according to the Scriptures,^v ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas,^{ew} and then to the Twelve.^x ⁶After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles,^y ⁸and last of all he appeared to me also,^z as to one abnormally born.

⁹For I am the least of the apostles^a and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted^b the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me^c was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them^d — yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.^e ¹¹Whether, then, it is I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

¹²But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?^f ¹³If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁴And if Christ has not been raised,^g our preaching is useless and so is your faith. ¹⁵More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead.^h But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. ¹⁷And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.ⁱ ¹⁸Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. ¹⁹If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.^j

²⁰But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead,^k the firstfruits^l of those who have fallen asleep.^m ²¹For since death came through a man,ⁿ the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. ²²For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.^o ²³But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits;^p then, when he comes,^q those who belong to him. ²⁴Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom^r to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power.^s ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.^t ²⁶The last enemy to be destroyed is death.^u ²⁷For he “has put everything under his feet.”^{fv} Now when it says that “everything” has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ.^w ²⁸When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him,^x so that God may be all in all.^y

²⁹Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them? ³⁰And as for us, why do we endanger ourselves every hour?^z ³¹I face death every day^a — yes, just as surely as I boast about you in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³²If I fought wild beasts^b in Ephesus^c with no more than human hopes, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised,

for tomorrow we die.”^{ad}

³³Do not be misled: “Bad company corrupts good character.”^b ³⁴Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God — I say this to your shame.

The Resurrection Body

³⁵But someone will ask,^e “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?”^f ³⁶How foolish!^g What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.^h ³⁷When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else. ³⁸But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body.ⁱ ³⁹Not all flesh is the same: People have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another. ⁴⁰There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is another. ⁴¹The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendor.

⁴²So will it be^j with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; ⁴³it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory;^k it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; ⁴⁴it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body.^l

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So it is written: “The first man Adam became a living being”^c; ^mthe last Adam,ⁿ a life-giving spirit.^o ⁴⁶The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man was of the dust of the earth;^p the second man is of heaven.^q ⁴⁸As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the heavenly man, so also are those who are of heaven.^r ⁴⁹And just as we have borne the image of the earthly man,^s so shall we^d bear the image of the heavenly man.^t

⁵⁰I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood^u cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. ⁵¹Listen, I tell you a mystery:^v We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed^w — ⁵²in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound,^x the dead^y will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. ⁵³For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable,^z and the mortal with immortality. ⁵⁴When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: “Death has been swallowed up in victory.”^{ea}

⁵⁵“Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?”^{fb}

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin,^c and the power of sin is the law.^d ⁵⁷But thanks be to God!^e He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.^f

⁵⁸Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord,^g because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

The Collection for the Lord's People

16 Now about the collection^h for the Lord's people:ⁱ Do what I told the Galatian^j churches to do. ²On the first day of every week,^k each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made.^l ³Then, when I arrive, I will give letters of introduction to the men you approve^m and send them with your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴If it seems advisable for me to go also, they will accompany me.

Personal Requests

⁵After I go through Macedonia, I will come to youⁿ — for I will be going through Macedonia.^o ⁶Perhaps I will stay with you for a while, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey,^p wherever I go. ⁷For I do not want to see you now and make only a passing visit; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits.^q ⁸But I will stay on at Ephesus^r until Pentecost,^s ⁹because a great door for effective work has opened to me,^t and there are many who oppose me.

¹⁰When Timothy^u comes, see to it that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is carrying on the work of the Lord,^v just as I am. ¹¹No one, then, should treat him with contempt.^w Send him on his way in peace^x so that he may return to me. I am expecting him along with the brothers.

¹⁵You know that the household of Stephanas^c were the first converts^d in Achaia,^e and they have devoted themselves to the service of the Lord's people. I urge you, brothers and sisters, ¹⁶to submit^f to such people and to everyone who joins in the work and labors at it. ¹⁷I was glad when Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you.^g ¹⁸For they refreshed^h my spirit and yours also. Such men deserve recognition.ⁱ

Final Greetings

¹⁹The churches in the province of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla^{aj} greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house.^k ²⁰All the brothers and sisters here send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.^l

²¹I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand.^m

²²If anyone does not love the Lord,ⁿ let that person be cursed!^o Come, Lord!^b^p

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.^q

²⁴My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.^c

2 CORINTHIANS

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,^a and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God^b in Corinth, together with all his holy people throughout Achaia:^c

²Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.^d

Praise to the God of All Comfort

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,^e the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, ⁴who comforts us^f in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God. ⁵For just as we share abundantly in the sufferings of Christ,^g so also our comfort abounds through Christ. ⁶If we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation;^h if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer. ⁷And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings,ⁱ so also you share in our comfort.

⁸We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters,^a about the troubles we experienced^j in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired of life itself. ⁹Indeed, we felt we had received the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God,^k who raises the dead. ¹⁰He has delivered us from such a deadly peril,^l and he will deliver us again. On him we have set our hope that he will continue to deliver us, ¹¹as you help us by your prayers.^m Then many will give thanksⁿ on our behalf for the gracious favor granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul's Change of Plans

¹²Now this is our boast: Our conscience^o testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, with integrity^b and godly sincerity.^p We have done so, relying not on worldly wisdom^q but on God's grace. ¹³For we do not write you anything you cannot read or understand. And I hope that, ¹⁴as you have understood us in part, you will come to understand fully that you can boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of the Lord Jesus.^r

¹⁵Because I was confident of this, I wanted to visit you^s first so that you might benefit twice.^t ¹⁶I wanted to visit you on my way^u to Macedonia and to come back to you from Macedonia, and then to have you send me on my way to Judea. ¹⁷Was I fickle when I intended to do this? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner^v so that in the same breath I say both "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

¹⁸But as surely as God is faithful,^w our message to you is not "Yes" and "No." ¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us — by me and Silas^c and Timothy — was not "Yes" and "No," but in him it has always^x been "Yes." ²⁰For no matter how many promises^y God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through him the "Amen"^z is spoken by us to the glory of God. ²¹Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed^a us, ²²set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.^b

^a 8 The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God's family; also in 8:1; 13:11.

²³I call God as my witness^c — and I stake my life on it — that it was in order to spare you^d that I did not return to Corinth. ²⁴Not that we lord it over^e your faith, but we work with you for your joy, because it is by faith 2 you stand firm.^f ¹So I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you.^g ²For if I grieve you,^h who is left to make me glad but you whom I have grieved? ³I wrote as I did,ⁱ so that when I came I would not be distressed^j by those who should have made me rejoice. I had confidence^k in all of you, that you would all share my joy. ⁴For I wrote you^l out of great distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to grieve you but to let you know the depth of my love for you.

Forgiveness for the Offender

⁵If anyone has caused grief,^m he has not so much grieved me as he has grieved all of you to some extent — not to put it too severely. ⁶The punishmentⁿ inflicted on him by the majority is sufficient. ⁷Now instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him,^o so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸I urge you, therefore, to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹Another reason I wrote you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything.^p ¹⁰Anyone you forgive, I also forgive. And what I have forgiven — if there was anything to forgive — I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, ¹¹in order that Satan^q might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.^r

Ministers of the New Covenant

¹²Now when I went to Troas^s to preach the gospel of Christ^t and found that the Lord had opened a door^u for me, ¹³I still had no peace of mind,^v because I did not find my brother Titus^w there. So I said goodbye to them and went on to Macedonia.

edge of him everywhere. ¹⁵For we are to God the pleasing aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing.^z ¹⁶To the one we are an aroma that brings death;^a to the other, an aroma that brings life. And who is equal to such a task?^b ¹⁷Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit.^c On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity,^d as those sent from God.^e

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves^f again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation^g to you or from you? ²You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone.^h ³You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stoneⁱ but on tablets of human hearts.^j

⁴Such confidence^k we have through Christ before God. ⁵Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God.^l ⁶He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant^m — not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.ⁿ

The Greater Glory of the New Covenant

⁷Now if the ministry that brought death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory,^o transitory though it was, ⁸will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? ⁹If the ministry that brought condemnation^p was glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness!^q ¹⁰For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory. ¹¹And if what was transitory came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

¹²Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.^r ¹³We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face^s to prevent the Israelites from seeing the end of what was passing away.¹⁴ But their minds were made dull,^t for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant^u is read.^v It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away.¹⁵ Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts.¹⁶ But whenever anyone turns to the Lord,^w the veil is taken away.^x ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit,^y and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.^z ¹⁸And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate^{aa} the Lord's glory,^b are being transformed into his image^c with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Present Weakness and Resurrection Life

4 Therefore, since through God's mercy^d we have this ministry, we do not lose heart.² Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways;^e we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God.^f On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience^g in the sight of God.³ And even if our gospel^h is veiled,ⁱ it is veiled to those who are perishing.^j ⁴The god^k of this age has blinded^l the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel that displays the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.⁵ For what we preach is not ourselves,^m but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servantsⁿ for Jesus' sake.⁶ For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness,"^{bo} made his light shine in our hearts^p to give us the light of the knowledge of God's glory displayed in the face of Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in jars of clay^q to show that this all-surpassing power is from God^r and not from us.⁸ We are hard pressed on every side,^s but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair;⁹ persecuted,^t but not abandoned;^u struck down, but not destroyed.^v ¹⁰We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.^w ¹¹For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake,^x so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body.¹² So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.^y

¹³It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken."^{cz} Since we have that same spirit of^d faith, we also believe and therefore speak,¹⁴ because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus^a and present us with you to himself.^b ¹⁵All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving^c to overflow to the glory of God.

¹⁶Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly^d we are being renewed^e day by day.¹⁷ For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.^f ¹⁸So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen,^g since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Awaiting the New Body

5 For we know that if the earthly^h tentⁱ we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.² Meanwhile we groan,^j longing to be clothed instead with our heavenly dwelling,^k ³because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.⁴ For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed instead with our heavenly dwelling,^l so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.⁵ Now the one who has fashioned us for this very purpose is God, who has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.^m

⁶Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord.⁷ For we live by faith, not by sight.ⁿ ⁸We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.^o ⁹So we make it our goal to please him,^p whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us^q for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

^a 18 Or reflect ^b 6 Gen. 1:3

^d 13 Or Spirit-given

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹¹Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord,^r we try to persuade others. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience.^s ¹²We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again,^t but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us,^u so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. ¹³If we are “out of our mind,”^v as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For Christ’s love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died.^w ¹⁵And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves^x but for him who died for them and was raised again.

¹⁶So from now on we regard no one from a worldly^y point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation^z has come:^a The old has gone, the new is here!^a ¹⁸All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ^b and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: ¹⁹that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people’s sins against them.^c And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰We are therefore Christ’s ambassadors,^d as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ’s behalf: Be reconciled to God. ²¹God made him who had no sin^e to be sin^b for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.^f

6 As God’s co-workers^g we urge you not to receive God’s grace in vain. ²For he says,

“In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you.”^{ch}

I tell you, now is the time of God’s favor, now is the day of salvation.

Paul’s Hardships

³We put no stumbling block in anyone’s path,¹ so that our ministry will not be discredited. ⁴Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses; ⁵in beatings, imprisonments¹ and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger;^k ⁶in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit^l and in sincere love; ⁷in truthful speech^m and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousnessⁿ in the right hand and in the left; ⁸through glory and dishonor,^o bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors;^p ⁹known, yet regarded as unknown; dying,^q and yet we live on;^r beaten, and yet not killed; ¹⁰sorrowful, yet always rejoicing;^s poor, yet making many rich;^t having nothing, and yet possessing everything.^u

¹¹We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you.^v ¹²We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. ¹³As a fair exchange — I speak as to my children^w — open wide your hearts also.

Warning Against Idolatry

¹⁴Do not be yoked together^x with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?^y ¹⁵What harmony is there between Christ and Belial^d? Or what does a believer^z have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple^a of the living God. As God has said:

^a 17 Or Christ, that person is a new creation.

^b 21 Or be a sin offering ^c 2 Isaiah 49:8

^d 15 Greek Belial, a variant of Belial

"I will live with them and walk among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be my people."^{ab}

¹⁷Therefore,

"Come out from them^c and be separate,
says the Lord.
Touch no unclean thing,
and I will receive you."^{bd}

¹⁸And,

"I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters,^e
says the Lord Almighty."^c

7 Therefore, since we have these promises,^f dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.

Paul's Joy Over the Church's Repentance

²Make room for us in your hearts.^g We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have exploited no one. ³I do not say this to condemn you; I have said before that you have such a place in our hearts^h that we would live or die with you. ⁴I have spoken to you with great frankness; I take great pride in you. I am greatly encouraged; in all our troubles my joy knows no bounds.ⁱ

⁵For when we came into Macedonia,^j we had no rest, but we were harassed at every turn^k—conflicts on the outside, fears within.^l ⁶But God, who comforts the downcast,^m comforted us by the coming of Titus,ⁿ ⁷and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you had given him. He told us about your longing for me, your deep sorrow, your ardent concern for me, so that my joy was greater than ever.

⁸Even if I caused you sorrow by my letter,^o I do not regret it. Though I did regret it—I see that my letter hurt you, but only for a little while—⁹yet now I am happy, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led you to repentance.

For you became sorrowful as God intended and so were not harmed in any way by us. ¹⁰Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation^p and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. ¹¹See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern,^q what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. ¹²So even though I wrote to you,^r it was neither on account of the one who did the wrong^s nor on account of the injured party, but rather that before God you could see for yourselves how devoted to us you are. ¹³By all this we are encouraged.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus^t was, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴I had boasted to him about you,^u and you have not embarrassed me. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting about you to Titus^v has proved to be true as well. ¹⁵And his affection for you is all the greater when he remembers that you were all obedient,^w receiving him with fear and trembling.^x ¹⁶I am glad I can have complete confidence in you.^y

8 And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian^z churches. ²In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. ³For I testify that they gave as much as they were able,^a and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, ⁴they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service^b to the Lord's people.^c ⁵And they exceeded our expectations: They gave themselves first of all to the Lord, and then by the will of God also to us. ⁶So we urged^d Titus,^e just as he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion^f this act of grace on your part. ⁷But since you excel in everything^g—in faith, in speech, in knowledge,^h in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you^a—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

⁸I am not commanding you,ⁱ but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,^j that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor,^k so that you through his poverty might become rich.

¹⁰And here is my judgment^l about what is best for you in this matter. Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so.^m ¹¹Now finish the work, so that your eager willingnessⁿ to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. ¹²For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has,^o not according to what one does not have.

¹³Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. ¹⁴At the present time your plenty will supply what they need,^p so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality,^q as it is written: “The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”^{bq}

Titus Sent to Receive the Collection

¹⁶Thanks be to God,^r who put into the heart^s of Titus^t the same concern I have for you. ¹⁷For Titus not only welcomed our appeal, but he is coming to you with much enthusiasm and on his own initiative.^u ¹⁸And we are sending along with him the brother^v who is praised by all the churches^w for his service to the gospel.^x ¹⁹What is more, he was chosen by the churches to accompany us^y as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honor the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help.^z ²⁰We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this liberal gift. ²¹For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of man.^a ²²In addition, we are sending with them our brother who has often proved to us in many ways that he is zealous, and now even more so because of his great confidence in you. ²³As for Titus, he is my partner^b and co-worker^c among you; as for our brothers,^d they are representatives of the churches and an honor to Christ. ²⁴Therefore show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our pride in you,^e so that the churches can see it.

9 There is no need^f for me to write to you about this service to the Lord's people.^g ²For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting^h about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last yearⁱ you in Achaia^j were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action. ³But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be.^k ⁴For if any Macedonians^l come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to say anything about you—would be ashamed of having been so confident. ⁵So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift,^m not as one grudgingly given.ⁿ

Generosity Encouraged

⁶Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.^o ⁷Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give,^p not reluctantly or under compulsion,^q for God loves a cheerful giver.^r ⁸And God is able^s to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need,^t you will abound in every good work. ⁹As it is written:

“They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever.”^{au}

¹⁰Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food^v will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.^w ¹¹You will be enriched^x in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.^y

¹²This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs^z of the Lord’s people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.^a ¹³Because of the service^b by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God^c for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ,^d and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. ¹⁴And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. ¹⁵Thanks be to God^e for his indescribable gift!^f

Paul’s Defense of His Ministry

10 By the humility and gentleness^g of Christ, I appeal to you — I, Paul,^h who am “timid” when face to face with you, but “bold” toward you when away! ²I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as boldⁱ as I expect to be toward some people who think that we live by the standards of this world. ³For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴The weapons we fight with^j are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power^k to demolish strongholds.^l ⁵We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God,^m and we take captive every thought to make it obedientⁿ to Christ. ⁶And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.^o

⁷You are judging by appearances.^{bp} If anyone is confident that they belong to Christ,^a they should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as they do.^t ⁸So even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up rather than tearing you down,^s I will not be ashamed of it. ⁹I do not want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters. ¹⁰For some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he is unimpressive^t and his speaking amounts to nothing.”^u ¹¹Such people should realize that what we are in our letters when we are absent, we will be in our actions when we are present.

¹²We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves.^v When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise. ¹³We, however, will not boast beyond proper limits, but will confine our boasting to the sphere of service God himself has assigned to us,^w a sphere that also includes you. ¹⁴We are not going too far in our boasting, as would be the case if we had not come to you, for we did get as far as you^x with the gospel of Christ.^y ¹⁵Neither do we go beyond our limits by boasting of work done by others.^z Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow,^a our sphere of activity among you will greatly expand,¹⁶ so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you.^b For we do not want to boast about work already done in someone else’s territory. ¹⁷But, “Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord.”^{cc} ¹⁸For it is not the one who commends himself^d who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.^e

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I hope you will put up with^f me in a little foolishness.^g Yes, please put up with me! ²I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband,^h to Christ, so that I might present youⁱ as a pure virgin to him. ³But I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning,^j your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ. ⁴For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached,^k or if you receive a different spirit^l from the Spirit you received, or a different gospel^m from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough.

^a 9 Psalm 112:9 ^b 7 Or Look at the obvious facts ^c 17 Jer. 9:24

⁵I do not think I am in the least inferior to those "super-apostles."^{an} ⁶I may indeed be untrained as a speaker,^o but I do have knowledge.^p We have made this perfectly clear to you in every way. ⁷Was it a sin^q for me to lower myself in order to elevate you by preaching the gospel of God to you free of charge?^r ⁸I robbed other churches by receiving support from them^s so as to serve you. ⁹And when I was with you and needed something, I was not a burden to anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed. I have kept myself from being a burden to you^t in any way, and will continue to do so. ¹⁰As surely as the truth of Christ is in me,^u nobody in the regions of Achaia^v will stop this boasting^w of mine. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!^x

¹²And I will keep on doing what I am doing in order to cut the ground from under those who want an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things they boast about. ¹³For such people are false apostles,^y deceitful^z workers, masquerading as apostles of Christ.^a ¹⁴And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.^b

Paul Boasts About His Sufferings

¹⁶I repeat: Let no one take me for a fool.^c But if you do, then tolerate me just as you would a fool, so that I may do a little boasting. ¹⁷In this self-confident boasting I am not talking as the Lord would,^d but as a fool.

Paul's Vision and His Thorn

12 I must go on boasting.^y Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations^z from the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up^a to the third heaven.^b Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know — God knows.^c ³And I know that this man — whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows — ⁴was caught up to paradise^d and heard inexpressible things, things that no one is permitted to tell. ⁵I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. ⁶Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool,^e because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say, ⁷or because of these surpassingly great revelations. Therefore, in order to keep me from becoming conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh,^f a messenger of Satan, to torment me. ⁸Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me.^g ⁹But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power^h is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. ¹⁰That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships,ⁱ in persecutions,^j in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.^k is not your possessions but you. After all, children should not have to save up for their parents,^s but parents for their children.^t ¹⁵So I will very gladly spend for you everything I have and expend myself as well.^u If I love you more, will you love me less? ¹⁶Be that as it may, I have not been a burden to you.^v Yet, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you by trickery! ¹⁷Did I exploit you through any of the men I sent to you? ¹⁸I urged^w Titus to go to you and I sent our brother^x with him. Titus did not exploit you, did he? Did we not walk in the same footsteps by the same Spirit?

¹⁹Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God^y as those in Christ; and everything we do, dear friends, is for your strengthening.^z ²⁰For I am afraid that when I come^a I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be.^b I fear that there may be discord,^c jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition,^d slander, gossip,^e arrogance and disorder.^f ²¹I am afraid that when I come again my God will humble me before you, and I will be grieved^g over many who have sinned earlier^h and have not repented of the impurity, sexual sin and debauchery in which they have indulged.

Final Warnings

13 This will be my third visit to you.ⁱ “Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”^{bj} ²I already gave you a warning when I was with you the second time. I now repeat it while absent: On my return I will not spare^k those who sinned earlier^l or any of the others,³ since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me.^m He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. ⁴For to be sure, he was crucified in weakness,ⁿ yet he lives by God’s power.^o Likewise, we are weak^p in him, yet by God’s power we will live with him in our dealing with you.

No Other Gospel

⁶I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who calledⁱ you to live in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel^j — ⁷which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion^k and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you,^l let them be under God's curse!^m ⁹As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted,ⁿ let them be under God's curse!

¹⁰Am I now trying to win the approval of human beings, or of God? Or am I trying to please people?^o If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul Called by God

¹¹I want you to know, brothers and sisters,^p that the gospel I preached is not of human origin. ¹²I did not receive it from any man,^q nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation^r from Jesus Christ.

Later I returned to Damascus.

¹⁸Then after three years,^z I went up to Jerusalem^a to get acquainted with Cephas^b and stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹I saw none of the other apostles — only James,^b the Lord's brother. ²⁰I assure you before God that what I am writing you is no lie.^c

Paul Accepted by the Apostles

been running my race^j in vain. ³Yet not even Titus,^k who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek.^l ⁴This matter arose because some false believers^m had infiltrated our ranks to spy onⁿ the freedom^o we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves. ⁵We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel^p might be preserved for you.

⁶As for those who were held in high esteem^q—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism^r—they added nothing to my message. ⁷On the contrary, they recognized that I had been entrusted with the task^s of preaching the gospel to the uncircumcised,^{at} just as Peter^u had been to the circumcised.^b ⁸For God, who was at work in Peter as an apostle^v to the circumcised, was also at work in me as an apostle to the Gentiles. ⁹James, Cephas^{cw} and John, those esteemed as pillars,^x gave me and Barnabas^y the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me.^z They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor,^a the very thing I had been eager to do all along.

Paul Opposes Cephas

¹¹When Cephas^b came to Antioch,^c I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles.^d But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group.^e ¹³The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas^f was led astray.

¹⁴When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel,^g I said to Cephas^h in front of them all, “You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew.ⁱ How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?

person is not justified by the works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ.^l So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in^d Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no one will be justified.

¹⁷“But if, in seeking to be justified in Christ, we Jews find ourselves also among the sinners,^m doesn’t that mean that Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not!ⁿ ¹⁸If I rebuild what I destroyed, then I really would be a lawbreaker.

¹⁹“For through the law I died to the law^o so that I might live for God.^p ²⁰I have been crucified with Christ^q and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me.^r The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God,^s who loved me^t and gave himself for me.^u ²¹I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law,^v Christ died for nothing!”^e

Faith or Works of the Law

3 You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you?^w Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified.^x ²I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by believing what you heard?^y ³Are you so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are you now trying to finish by means of the flesh?^z ⁴Have you experienced^g so much in vain—if it really was in vain?⁵ So again I ask, does God give you his Spirit and work miracles^z among you by the works of the law, or by your believing what you heard? ⁶So also Abraham “believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^{ha}

⁷Understand, then, that those who have faith^b are children of Abraham. ⁸Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: “All nations will be blessed through you.”^{ac} ⁹So those who rely on faith^d are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

¹⁰For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse, as it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.”^{be} ¹¹Clearly no one who relies on the law is justified before God, because “the righteous will live by faith.”^{cf} ¹²The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, it says, “The person who does these things will live by them.”^{dg} ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law^h by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a pole.”^{ei} ¹⁴He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus,ⁱ so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.^k

The Law and the Promise

¹⁵Brothers and sisters, let me take an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or add to a human covenant that has been duly established, so it is in this case. ¹⁶The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed.^l Scripture does not say “and to seeds,” meaning many people, but “and to your seed,”^f meaning one person, who is Christ. ¹⁷What I mean is this: The law, introduced 430 years^m later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise. ¹⁸For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on the promise;ⁿ but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

¹⁹Why, then, was the law given at all? It was added because of transgressions^o until the Seed^p to whom the promise referred had come. The law was given through angels^q and entrusted to a mediator.^r ²⁰A mediator,^s however, implies more than one party; but God is one.

²¹Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not!^t For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.^u ²²But Scripture has locked up everything under the control of sin,^v so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

Children of God

²³Before the coming of this faith,^g we were held in custody^w under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. ²⁴So the law was our guardian until Christ came^x that we might be justified by faith.^y ²⁵Now that this faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

²⁶So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God^z through faith, ²⁷for all of you who were baptized into Christ^a have clothed yourselves with Christ.^b ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free,^c nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.^d ²⁹If you belong to Christ,^e then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.^f

4 What I am saying is that as long as an heir is underage, he is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate. ²The heir is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father. ³So also, when we were underage, we were in slavery^g under the elemental spiritual forces^h of the world.^h ⁴But when the set time had fully come,ⁱ God sent his Son, born of a woman,ⁱ born under the law,^k ⁵to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption^l to sonship.ⁱ ⁶Because you are his sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts,^m the Spirit who calls out, “Abba,^a Father.”ⁿ ⁷So you are no longer a slave, but God’s child; and since you are his child, God has made you also an heir.^o

Paul’s Concern for the Galatians

⁸Formerly, when you did not know God,^p you were slaves to those who by nature are not gods.^q ⁹But now that you know God — or rather are known by God^r — how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable forces^{b?} Do you wish to be enslaved^s by them all over again?^t ¹⁰You are observing special days and months and seasons and years!^u ¹¹I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.^v

¹²I plead with you, brothers and sisters,^w become like me, for I became like you. You did me no wrong. ¹³As you know, it was because of an illness^x that I first preached the gospel to you, ¹⁴and even though my illness was a trial to you, you did not treat me with contempt or scorn. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, as if I were Christ Jesus himself.^y ¹⁵Where, then, is your blessing of me now? I can testify that, if you could have done so, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?^z

¹⁷Those people are zealous to win you over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate you from us, so that you may have zeal for them. ¹⁸It is fine to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always, not just when I am with you.^a ¹⁹My dear children,^b for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,^c ²⁰how I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you!

Hagar and Sarah

²¹Tell me, you who want to be under the law, are you not aware of what the law says? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman^d and the other by the free woman.^e ²³His son by the slave woman was born according to the flesh,^f but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a divine promise.^g ²⁴These things are being taken figuratively: The women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. ²⁵Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem that is above^h is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷For it is written:

“Be glad, barren woman,
you who never bore a child;
shout for joy and cry aloud,
you who were never in labor;
because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband.”^{ci}

²⁸Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹At that time the son born according to the flesh^j persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit.^k It is the same now. ³⁰But what does Scripture say? “Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman’s son.”^{dl} ³¹Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Freedom in Christ

5 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free.^m Stand firm,ⁿ then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.^o

²Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised,^p Christ will be of no value to you at all. ³Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law.^q ⁴You who are trying to be justified by the law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.^r ⁵For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope.^s ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value.^t The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.^u

⁷You were running a good race.^v Who cut in on you^w to keep you from obeying the truth? ⁸That kind of persuasion does not come from the one who calls you.^x ⁹"A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough."^y ¹⁰I am confident^z in the Lord that you will take no other view.^a The one who is throwing you into confusion,^b whoever that may be, will have to pay the penalty. ¹¹Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted?^c In that case the offense^d of the cross has been abolished. ¹²As for those agitators,^e I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!

Life by the Spirit

¹³You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh^q; rather, serve one another⁹ humbly in love. ¹⁴For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."^{bh} ¹⁵If you bite and devour each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

¹⁶So I say, walk by the Spirit,ⁱ and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.^j ¹⁷For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh.^k They are in conflict with each other, so that you are not to do whatever^c you want.^l ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.^m

¹⁹The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality,ⁿ impurity and debauchery; ²⁰idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions ²¹and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like.^o I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²But the fruit^p of the Spirit is love,^q joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness and self-control.^r Against such things there is no law. ²⁴Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh^s with its passions and desires.^t ²⁵Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. ²⁶Let us not become conceited,^u provoking and envying each other.

Doing Good to All

6 Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit^v should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. ²Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.^w ³If anyone thinks they are something^x when they are not, they deceive themselves. ⁴Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, ⁵for each one should carry their own load. ⁶Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor.^y

⁷Do not be deceived:^z God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.^a ⁸Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction;^b whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.^c ⁹Let us not become weary in doing good,^d for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.^e ¹⁰Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good^f to all people, especially to those who belong to the family⁹ of believers.

Praise for Spiritual Blessings in Christ

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,^e who has blessed us in the heavenly realms^f with every spiritual blessing in Christ. ⁴For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless^g in his sight. In love^h ⁵he^b predestinedⁱ us for adoption to sonship^c through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure^j and will — ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves.^k ⁷In him we have redemption^l through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace ⁸that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and understanding, ⁹he^d made known to us the mystery^m of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, ¹⁰to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillmentⁿ — to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ.^o

¹¹In him we were also chosen,^e having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose^p of his will, ¹²in order that we, who were the first to put our hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory.^q ¹³And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth,^r the gospel of your salvation. Thanksgiving and Prayer

¹⁵For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people,^u ¹⁶I have not stopped giving thanks for you,^v remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father,^w may give you the Spirit^f of wisdom^x and revelation, so that you may know him better. ¹⁸I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened^y in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people,¹⁹ and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power^z is the same as the mighty strength^a ²⁰he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead^b and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, ²¹far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name^c that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. ²²And God placed all things under his feet^d and appointed him to be head^e over everything for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way.

Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath. ⁴But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, ⁵made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions^k—it is by grace you have been saved.^l ⁶And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him^m in the heavenly realmsⁿ in Christ Jesus, ⁷in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness^o to us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For it is by grace you have been saved,^p through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—⁹not by works,^q so that no one can boast.^r ¹⁰For we are God’s handiwork, created^s in Christ Jesus to do good works,^t which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Jew and Gentile Reconciled Through Christ

¹¹Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called “uncircumcised” by those who call themselves “the circumcision” (which is done in the body by human hands)^u—¹²remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise,^v without hope^w and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near^x by the blood of Christ.^y

¹⁴For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one^z and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility,¹⁵ by setting aside in his flesh^a the law with its commands and regulations.^b His purpose was to create in himself one^c new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, ¹⁶and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the

God’s Marvelous Plan for the Gentiles

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner^o of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

²Surely you have heard about the administration of God’s grace that was given to me^p for you, ³that is, the mystery^q made known to me by revelation,^r as I have already written briefly. ⁴In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight^s into the mystery of Christ, ⁵which was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God’s holy apostles and prophets.^t ⁶This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs^u together with Israel, members together of one body,^v and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.

⁷I became a servant of this gospel^w by the gift of God’s grace given me through the working of his power.^x ⁸Although I am less than the least of all the Lord’s people,^y this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the boundless riches of Christ, ⁹and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery,^z which for ages past was kept hidden in God,

A Prayer for the Ephesians

¹⁴For this reason I kneel^f before the Father, ¹⁵from whom every family^g in heaven and on earth derives its name. ¹⁶I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power^g through his Spirit in your inner being,^h ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your heartsⁱ through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted^j and established in love, ¹⁸may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep^k is the love of Christ, ¹⁹and to know this love that surpasses knowledge — that you may be filled^l to the measure of all the fullness of God.^m

²⁰Now to him who is ableⁿ to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, ²¹to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.^o

Unity and Maturity in the Body of Christ

4 As a prisoner^p for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy^q of the calling you have received. ²Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another^r in love.^s ³Make every effort to keep the unity^t of the Spirit through the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit,^u just as you were called to one hope when you were called; ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.^v

and gave gifts to his people.”^{cz}

⁹(What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions^{d?} ¹⁰He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) ¹¹So Christ himself gave the apostles,^a the prophets, the evangelists,^b the pastors and teachers, ¹²to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ^c may be built up ¹³until we all reach unity^d in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature,^e attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

¹⁴Then we will no longer be infants,^f tossed back and forth by the waves,^g and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming.^h ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head,ⁱ that is, Christ. ¹⁶From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows^j and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Instructions for Christian Living

¹⁷So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking.^k ¹⁸They are darkened in their understanding^l and separated from the life of God^m because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts.ⁿ ¹⁹Having lost all sensitivity,^o they have given themselves over^p to sensuality^q so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, and they are full of greed.

He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church—³⁰for we are members of his body.^l ³¹“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”^{am} ³²This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church. ³³However, each one of you also must love his wifeⁿ as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.^o ²“Honor your father and mother”—which is the first commandment with a promise—³“so that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.”^{bp}

⁴Fathers,^c do not exasperate your children;^q instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.^r

⁵Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect^s and fear, and with sincerity of heart,^t just as you would obey Christ.^u ⁶Obey them not only to win their favor when their eye is on you, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart. ⁷Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people,^v ⁸because you know that the Lord will reward each one for whatever good they do,^w whether they are slave or free.

⁹And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that he who is both their Master and yours^x is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

PHILIPPIANS

1 Paul and Timothy,^a servants of Christ Jesus,

To all God's holy people^b in Christ Jesus at Philippi,^c together with the overseers^d and deacons^e:

²Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.^f

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³I thank my God every time I remember you.^g ⁴In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray^h with joy ⁵because of your partnershipⁱ in the gospel from the first day^j until now, ⁶being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.^k

⁷It is right^l for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart^m and, whether I am in chainsⁿ or defending^o and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. ⁸God can testify^p how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

⁹And this is my prayer: that your love^q may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, ¹⁰so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ,^r ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness^s that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Chains Advance the Gospel

¹²Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters,^b that what has happened to me has actually served to advance the gospel. ¹³As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard^c and to everyone else that I am in chains^t for Christ. ¹⁴And because of my chains,^u most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the

Yet what shall I choose? Life Worthy of the Gospel

²⁷Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy^h of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firmⁱ in the one Spirit,^a striving togetherⁱ as one for the faith of the gospel ²⁸without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved — and that by God. ²⁹For it has been granted to you^k on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to sufferⁱ for him, ³⁰since you are going through the same struggle^m you sawⁿ I had, and now hear^o that I still have.

Imitating Christ's Humility

2 Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit,^p if any tenderness and compassion,^q ²then make my joy complete^r by being like-minded,^s having the same love, being one^t in spirit and of one mind. ³Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit.^u Rather, in humility value others above yourselves,^v ⁴not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

⁵In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:^w

⁶Who, being in very nature^b God,^x did not consider equality with God^y something to be used to his own advantage;

⁷rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature^c of a servant,^z being made in human likeness.^a

Do Everything Without Grumbling

¹²Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed — not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence — continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling,^h ¹³for it is God who works in youⁱ to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose.

¹⁴Do everything without grumbling^j or arguing, ¹⁵so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God^k without fault in a warped and crooked generation.”^d ¹⁶Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky ^{16a}as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.^m ¹⁷But even if I am being poured out like a drink offeringⁿ on the sacrifice^o and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

¹⁹I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon,^p that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. ²⁰I have no one else like him,^q who will show genuine concern for your welfare. ²¹For everyone looks out for their own interests,^r not those of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father^s he has served with me in the work of the gospel. ²³I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me.^t ²⁴And I am confident^u in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

²⁵But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker^v and fellow soldier,^w who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs.^x ²⁶For he longs for all of you^y and is distressed because you heard he was ill. ²⁷Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety. ²⁹So then, welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him,^z ³⁰because he almost died for the work of Christ. He risked his life to make up for the help you yourselves could not give me.^a

No Confidence in the Flesh

3 Further, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you. ²Watch out for those dogs,^b those evildoers, those mutilators of the flesh. ³For it is we who are the circumcision,^c we who serve God by his Spirit, who boast in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh — ⁴though I myself have reasons for such confidence.

If someone else thinks they have reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: ⁵circumcised^d on the eighth day, of the people of Israel,^e of the tribe of Benjamin,^f a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee;^g ⁶as for zeal, persecuting the church;^h as for righteousness based on the law,ⁱ faultless.

⁷But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss^j for the sake of Christ. ⁸What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing^k Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ^l and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law,^l but that which is through faith in^a Christ — the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of ¹²Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal,^q but I press on to take hold^r of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.^s ¹³Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind^t and straining toward what is ahead, ¹⁴I press on^u toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called^v me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

Following Paul's Example

¹⁵All of us, then, who are mature^w should take such a view of things.^x And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. ¹⁶Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

¹⁷Join together in following my example,^y brothers and sisters, and just as you have us as a model, keep your eyes on those who live as we do. ¹⁸For, as I have often told you before and now tell you again even with tears,^z many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.^a ¹⁹Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach,^b and their glory is in their shame.^c Their mind is set on earthly things.^d ²⁰But our citizenship^e is in heaven.^f And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ,^g ²¹who, by the power^h that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodiesⁱ so that they will be like his glorious body.^j share in the inheritance^v of his holy people in the kingdom of light. ¹³For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness^w and brought us into the kingdom^x of the Son he loves,^y ¹⁴in whom we have redemption,^z the forgiveness of sins.^a

The Supremacy of the Son of God

¹⁵The Son is the image^b of the invisible God,^c the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶For in him all things were created:^d things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities;^e all things have been created through him and for him.^f ¹⁷He is before all things,^g and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head^h of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead,ⁱ so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹For God was pleased^j to have all his fullness^k dwell in him, ²⁰and through him to reconcile^l to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven,^m by making peace through his blood,ⁿ shed on the cross.

²¹Once you were alienated from God and were enemies^o in your minds^p because of^q your evil behavior. ²²But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body^q through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation^r — ²³if you continue in your faith, established^s and firm, and do not move from the hope^t held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven,^u and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.^v

Paul's Labor for the Church

²⁴Now I rejoice in what I am suffering for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions,^w for the sake of his body, which is the church. ²⁵I have become its servant^x by the commission God gave me^y to present to you the word of God in its fullness—²⁶the mystery^z that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the Lord's people. ²⁷To them God has chosen to make known^a among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

²⁸He is the one we proclaim, admonishing^b and teaching everyone with all wisdom,^c so that we may present everyone fully mature^d in Christ. ²⁹To this end I strenuously^e contend^f with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me.^g

2 I want you to know how hard I am contending^h for you and for those at Laodicea,ⁱ and for all who have not met me personally. ²My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart^j and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, ³in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.^k ⁴I tell you this so that no one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments.^l ⁵For though I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit^m and delight to see how disciplinedⁿ you are and how firm^o your faith in Christ is.

Spiritual Fullness in Christ

⁶So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord,^p continue to live your lives in him, ⁷rooted^q and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

⁸See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy,^r which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces^a of this world^s rather than on Christ.

⁹For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form,¹⁰ and in Christ you have been brought to fullness. He is the head^t over every power and authority. ¹¹In him you were also circumcised^u with a circumcision not performed by human hands. Your whole self ruled by the flesh^{bv} was put off when you were circumcised by^c Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him^w through your faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.^x

¹³When you were dead in your sins^y and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you^d alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, ¹⁴having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness,^z which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross.^a ¹⁵And having disarmed the powers and authorities,^b he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them^c by the cross.^e

Freedom From Human Rules

¹⁶Therefore do not let anyone judge you^d by what you eat or drink,^e or with regard to a religious festival,^f a New Moon celebration^g or a Sabbath day.^h ¹⁷These are a shadow of the things that were to come;ⁱ the reality, however, is found in Christ. ¹⁸Do not let anyone who delights in false humility^j and the worship of angels disqualify you.^k Such a person also goes into great detail about what they have seen; they are puffed up with idle notions by their unspiritual mind. ¹⁹They have lost connection with the head,^l from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.^m

^a 8 Or the basic principles; also in verse 20

^e 15 Or them in him

²⁰Since you died with Christ to the elemental spiritual forces of this world,ⁿ why, as though you still belonged to the world, do you submit to its rules:^o ²¹“Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!”? ²²These rules, which have to do with things that are all destined to perish^p with use, are based on merely human commands and teachings.^q ²³Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Living as Those Made Alive in Christ

3 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ²Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things.^r ³For you died,^s and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ, who is your^a life, appears,^t then you also will appear with him in glory.^u

⁵Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed,^v which is idolatry.^w ⁶Because of these, the wrath of God^x is coming.^b ⁷You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived.^y ⁸But now you must also rid yourselves^z of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander,^a and filthy language from your lips.^b ⁹Do not lie to each other,^c since you have taken off your old self with its practices¹⁰ and have put on the new self, which is being renewed^d in knowledge in the image of its Creator.^e ¹¹Here there is no Gentile or Jew,^f circumcised or uncircumcised,^g barbarian, Scythian, slave or free,^h but Christ is all,ⁱ and is in all.

¹²Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility,^j gentleness and patience.^k ¹³Bear with each other^l and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.^m ¹⁴And over

Instructions for Christian Households

3:18 – 4:1pp — Eph 5:22 – 6:9

¹⁹Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

²¹Fathers,^c do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged.

²²Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything; and do it, not only when their eye is on you and to curry their favor, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord. ²³Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, ²⁴since you know that you will receive an inheritance^w from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving. ²⁵Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for their wrongs, and there is no favoritism.^x

4 Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Further Instructions

²Devote yourselves to prayer,^y being watchful and thankful. ³And pray for us, too, that God may open a door^z for our message, so that we

To the church of the Thessalonians^b in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace to you.^c

Thanksgiving for the Thessalonians' Faith

²We always thank God for all of you^d and continually mention you in our prayers. ³We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith,^e your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴For we know, brothers and sisters^b loved by God, that he has chosen you, ⁵because our gospel^f came to you not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake. ⁶You became imitators of us^g and of the Lord, for you welcomed the message in the midst of severe suffering^h with the joy given by the Holy Spirit.ⁱ ⁷And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸The Lord's message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia — your faith in God has become known everywhere.^j ⁹Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, ⁹for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols^k to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead^l — Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.^m with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in the face of strong opposition. ³For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives,^p nor are we trying to trick you. ⁴On the contrary, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel.^q We are not trying to please people^r but God, who tests our hearts. ⁵You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed^s — God is our witness.^t ⁶We were not looking for praise from people, not from you or anyone else, even though as apostles^u of Christ we could have asserted our authority. ⁷Instead, we were like young children^c among you.

Just as a nursing mother cares for her children,^v ⁸so we cared for you. Because we loved you so much, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well.^w ⁹Surely you remember, brothers and sisters, our toil and hardship; we worked^x night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone^y while we preached the gospel of God to you. ¹⁰You are witnesses,^z and so is God, of how holy,^a righteous and blameless we were among you who believed. ¹¹For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children,^b ¹²encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy^c of God, who calls you into his kingdom and glory.

¹³And we also thank God continually^d because, when you received the word of God,^e which you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is indeed at work in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's churches in Judea,^f which are in Christ Jesus: You suffered from your own people⁹ the same things those churches suffered from the Jews¹⁵ who killed the Lord Jesus^h and the prophetsⁱ and also drove us out. They displease God and are hostile to everyone¹⁶ in their effort to keep us from speaking to the Gentilesⁱ so that they may be saved. In this way they always heap up their sins to the limit.^k The wrath of God has come upon them at last.^a

Paul's Longing to See the Thessalonians

¹⁷But, brothers and sisters, when we were orphaned by being separated from you for a short time (in person, not in thought),^l out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you.^m ¹⁸For we wanted to come to you — certainly I, Paul, did, again and again — but Satanⁿ blocked our way.^o ¹⁹For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown^p in which we will glory^q in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes?^r Is it not you? ²⁰Indeed, you are our glory^s and joy.

3 So when we could stand it no longer,^t we thought it best to be left by ourselves in Athens.^u ²We sent Timothy, who is our brother and co-worker in God's service in spreading the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith,³ so that no one would be unsettled by these trials. For you know quite well that we are destined for them.^v ⁴In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would be persecuted. And it turned out that way, as you well know.^w ⁵For this reason, when I could stand it no longer,^x I sent to find out about your faith. I was afraid that in some way the tempter^y had tempted you and that our labors might have been in vain.^z long to see us, just as we also long to see you. ⁷Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith. ⁸For now we really live, since you are standing firm^c in the Lord. ⁹How can we thank God enough for you^d in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you? ¹⁰Night and day we pray^e most earnestly that we may see you again^f and supply what is lacking in your faith.

¹¹Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you. ¹²May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other⁹ and for everyone else, just as ours does for you. ¹³May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless^h and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comesⁱ with all his holy ones.

Living to Please God

4 As for other matters, brothers and sisters,^j we instructed you how to live in order to please God,^k as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

³It is God's will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality;^l ⁴that each of you should learn to control your own body^{bm} in a way that is holy and honorable, ⁵not in passionate lustⁿ like the pagans,^o who do not know God; ⁶and that in this matter no one should wrong or take advantage of a brother or sister.^{cp} The Lord will punish all those who commit such sins,^q as we told you and warned you before. ⁷For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life.^r ⁸Therefore, anyone who rejects this instruction does not reject a human being but God, the very God who gives you his Holy Spirit.^s

^a 16 Or them fully ^b 4 Or learn to live with your own wife; or learn to acquire a wife

^c 6 The Greek word for brother or sister (adelphos) refers here to a believer, whether man or woman, as part of God's family.

⁹Now about your love for one another^t we do not need to write to you,^u for you yourselves have been taught by God to love each other.^v ¹⁰And in fact, you do love all of God's family throughout Macedonia.^w Yet we urge you, brothers and sisters, to do so more and more,^x ¹¹and to make it your ambition to lead a quiet life: You should mind your own business and work with your hands,^y just as we told you, ¹²so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders^z and so that you will not be dependent on anybody.

Believers Who Have Died

¹³Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope.^a ¹⁴For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.^b ¹⁵According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.^c ¹⁶For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God,^d and the dead in Christ will rise first.^e ¹⁷After that, we who are still alive and are left^f will be caught up together with them in the clouds^g to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord^h forever. ¹⁸Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 Now, brothers and sisters, about times and datesⁱ we do not need to write to you,^j ²for you know very well that the day of the Lord^k will come like a thief in the night.^l ³While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

⁴But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness^m so that this day should surprise you like a thief. ⁵You are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong

Final Instructions

¹²Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to acknowledge those who work hard among you, who care for you in the Lord^u and who admonish you. ¹³Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.^v ¹⁴And we urge you, brothers and sisters, warn those who are idle^w and disruptive, encourage the disheartened, help the weak,^x be patient with everyone. ¹⁵Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong,^y but always strive to do what is good for each other^z and for everyone else.

¹⁶Rejoice always,^a ¹⁷pray continually, ¹⁸give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit.^b ²⁰Do not treat prophecies^c with contempt ²¹but test them all;^d hold on to what is good, ²²reject every kind of evil.

²³May God himself, the God of peace,^e sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴The one who calls you is faithful,^f and he will do it.

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³We ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters,^b and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love all of you have for one another is increasing.^c ⁴Therefore, among God's churches we boast^d about your perseverance and faith^e in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.^f

⁵All this is evidence^g that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering. ⁶God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you^h and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels.ⁱ ⁸He will punish those who do not know God^j and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.^k ⁹They will be punished with everlasting destruction^l and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might^m ¹⁰on the dayⁿ he comes to be glorified^o in his holy people and to be marveled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.^p

¹¹With this in mind, we constantly pray for you, that our God may make you worthy^q of his calling, and that by his power he may bring to fruition your every desire for goodness and

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him,^t we ask you, brothers and sisters, ²not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by the teaching allegedly from us — whether by a prophecy or by word of mouth or by letter^u — asserting that the day of the Lord^v has already come. ³Don't let anyone deceive you^w in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness^d is revealed,^x the man doomed to destruction. ⁴He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God^y or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.^z

⁵Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things? ⁶And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. ⁷For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. ⁸And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth^a and destroy by the splendor of his coming. ⁹The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders^b that serve the lie,¹⁰ and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing.^c They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. ¹¹For this reason God sends them^d a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie¹² and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.^e

Stand Firm

¹³But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you as firstfruits^{af} to be saved^g through the sanctifying work of the Spirit^h and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵So then, brothers and sisters, stand firmⁱ and hold fast to the teachings^b we passed on to you,^j whether by word of mouth or by letter.

¹⁶May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us^k and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, ¹⁷encourage^l your hearts and strengthen^m you in every good deed and word.

Request for Prayer

3 As for other matters, brothers and sisters,ⁿ pray for us^o that the message of the Lord^p may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you. ²And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people,^q for not everyone has faith. ³But the Lord is faithful,^r and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.^s ⁴We have confidence^t in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command. ⁵May the Lord direct your hearts^u into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

Warning Against Idleness

⁶In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,^v we command you, brothers and sisters, to keep away from^w every believer who is idle and disruptive^x and does not live according to the teaching^c you received from us.^y ⁷For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example.^z ²We were not idle when we were with you,⁸ nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked^a night and day, laboring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help,^b but in order to offer ourselves as a model for you to imitate.^c ¹⁰For even when we were with you,^d we gave you this rule: "The one who is unwilling to work^e shall not eat."

¹¹We hear that some among you are idle and disruptive. They are not busy; they are busybodies.^f ¹²Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ^g to settle down and earn the food they eat.^h ¹³And as for you, brothers and sisters, never tire of doing what is good.ⁱ

¹⁴Take special note of anyone who does not obey our instruction in this letter. Do not associate with them,^j in order that they may feel ashamed. ¹⁵Yet do not regard them as an enemy, but warn them as you would a fellow believer.^k

Final Greetings

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace^l himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.^m ¹⁷I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand,ⁿ which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.

Timothy Charged to Oppose False Teachers

³As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus^e so that you may command certain people not to teach false doctrines^f any longer ⁴or to devote themselves to myths^g and endless genealogies. Such things promote controversial speculations^h rather than advancing God's work — which is by faith. ⁵The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heartⁱ and a good conscience and a sincere faith.^j ⁶Some have departed from these and have turned to meaningless talk. ⁷They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.

⁸We know that the law is good^k if one uses it properly. ⁹We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels,^l the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰for the sexually immoral, for those practicing homosexuality, for slave traders and liars and perjurers — and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine^m ¹¹that conforms to the gospel concerning the glory of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.ⁿ

The Charge to Timothy Renewed

¹⁸Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you,^y so that by recalling them you may fight the battle well,^z ¹⁹holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith.^a ²⁰Among them are Hymenaeus^b and Alexander,^c whom I have handed over to Satan^d to be taught not to blaspheme.

Instructions on Worship

2 I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people — ²for kings and all those in authority,^e that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. ³This is good, and pleases God our Savior, ⁴who wants^f all people^g to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.^h ⁵For there is one Godⁱ and one mediator^j between ⁸Therefore I want the men everywhere to pray, lifting up holy hands^o without anger or disputing. ⁹I also want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, adorning themselves, not with elaborate hairstyles or gold or pearls or expensive clothes,^p ¹⁰but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

¹¹A woman^a should learn in quietness and full submission.^q ¹²I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man;^b she must be quiet. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve.^r ¹⁴And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner.^s ¹⁵But women^c will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love^t and holiness with propriety.

Qualifications for Overseers and Deacons

3 Here is a trustworthy saying:^u Whoever aspires to be an overseer^v desires a noble task. ²Now the overseer is to be above reproach,^w faithful to his wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable,^x able to teach,^y ³not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome,^z not a lover of money.^a ⁴He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him, and he must do so in a manner worthy of full^d respect.^b ⁵(If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God's church?)^c ⁶He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited^d and fall under the same judgment as the devil. ⁷He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap.^e

¹²A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well.^j ¹³Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

Reasons for Paul's Instructions

¹⁴Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these instructions so that, ¹⁵if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church^k of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶Beyond all question, the mystery^l from which true godliness springs is great:

He appeared in the flesh,^m was vindicated by the Spirit,^g was seen by angels, was preached among the nations,ⁿ was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.^o

4 The Spirit^p clearly says that in later times^q some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits^r and things taught by demons. ²Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron.^s ³They forbid people to marry^t and order them to abstain from certain foods,^u which God created^v to be received with thanksgiving^w by those who believe and who know the truth. ⁴For everything God created is good,^x and nothing is to be

⁶If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters,^a you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith^y and of the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales;^z rather, train yourself to be godly. ⁸For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things,^a holding promise for both the present life^b and the life to come. ⁹This is a trustworthy saying^c that deserves full acceptance. ¹⁰That is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, and especially of those who believe.

¹¹Command and teach these things.^d ¹²Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example^e for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith^f and in purity. ¹³Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy^g when the body of elders laid their hands on you.^h

¹⁵Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. ¹⁶Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Widows, Elders and Slaves

5 Do not rebuke an older manⁱ harshly,^j but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men^k as brothers, ²older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.

³Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need.^l ⁴But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents,^m for this is pleasing to God.ⁿ ⁵The widow who is really in need^o

and left all alone puts her hope in God^p and continues night and day to pray^q and to ask God for help. ⁶But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.^r ⁷Give the people these instructions,^s so that no one may be open to blame. ⁸Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied^t the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband,¹⁰ and is well known for her good deeds,^u such as bringing up children, showing hospitality, washing the feet^v of the Lord's people, helping those in trouble^w and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds.

¹¹As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry. ¹²Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge. ¹³Besides, they get into the habit of being idle and going about from house to house. And not only do they become idlers, but also busybodies^x who talk nonsense, saying things they ought not to. ¹⁴So I counsel younger widows to marry,^y to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander.^z ¹⁵Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.^a

¹⁶If any woman who is a believer has widows in her care, she should continue to help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.^b

¹⁷The elders^c who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor,^d especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. ¹⁸For Scripture says, "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,"^{be} and "The worker deserves his wages."^{cf} ¹⁹Do not entertain an accusation against an

elder⁹ unless it is brought by two or three witnesses.^h ²⁰But those elders who are sinning you are to reproveⁱ before everyone, so that the others may take warning.^j ²¹I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus^k and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favoritism.

²²Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands,^l and do not share in the sins of others.^m Keep yourself pure.

²³Stop drinking only water, and use a little wineⁿ because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

²⁴The sins of some are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them. ²⁵In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not obvious cannot remain hidden forever.

6 All who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their masters worthy of full respect,^o so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered.^p ²Those who have believing masters should not show them disrespect just because they are fellow believers.^q Instead, they should serve them even better because their masters are dear to them as fellow believers and are devoted to the welfare^a of their slaves.

False Teachers and the Love of Money

These are the things you are to teach and insist on.^r ³If anyone teaches otherwise^s and does not agree to the sound instruction^t of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, ⁴they are conceited and understand nothing. They have an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words^u that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions ⁵and constant friction between people of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth^v and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

⁶But godliness with contentment^w is great gain.^x ⁷For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it.^y ⁸But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that.^z ⁹Those who want to get rich^a fall into temptation and a trap^b and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money^c is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith^d and pierced themselves with many griefs.

Final Charge to Timothy

¹¹But you, man of God,^e flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love,^f endurance and gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight^g of the faith. Take hold of^h the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, who while testifying before Pontius Pilateⁱ made the good confession, I charge you^j ¹⁴to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵which God will bring about in his own time — God, the blessed^k and only Ruler,^l the King of kings and Lord of lords,^m ¹⁶who alone is immortalⁿ and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see.^o To him be honor and might forever. Amen.

¹⁷Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth,^p which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God,^q who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.^r ¹⁸Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds,^s and to be generous and willing to share.^t ¹⁹In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves^u as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

²⁰Timothy, guard what has been entrusted^v to your care. Turn away from godless chatter^w and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge, ²¹which some have professed and in so doing have departed from the faith.^x

Grace be with you all.^y

2 TIMOTHY

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,^a in keeping with the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,^b

²To Timothy,^c my dear son:^d

Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Thanksgiving

³I thank God,^e whom I serve, as my ancestors did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers.^f ⁴Recalling your tears,^g I long to see you,^h so that I may be filled with joy.ⁱ ⁵I am reminded of your sincere faith,^j which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice^k and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.

Appeal for Loyalty to Paul and the Gospel

⁶For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.^k ⁷For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid,^l but gives us power, love and self-discipline. ⁸So do not be ashamed^m of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner.ⁿ Rather, join with me in suffering for the gospel,^o by the power of God. ⁹He has saved us and called^p us to a holy life — not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, ¹⁰but it has now been revealed^q through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death^r and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. ¹¹And of this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher.^s ¹²That is why I am suffering as I am. Examples of Disloyalty and Loyalty

¹⁵You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me,^y including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus,^z because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. ¹⁷On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You know very well in how many ways he helped me^a in Ephesus.

The Appeal Renewed

2 You then, my son, be strong^b in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ²And the things you have heard me say^c in the presence of many witnesses^d entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others. ³Join with me in suffering, like a good soldier^e of Christ Jesus. ⁴No one serving as a soldier gets entangled in civilian affairs, but rather tries to please his commanding officer. ⁵Similarly, anyone who competes as an athlete does not receive the victor's crown^f except by competing according to the rules. ⁶The hard-working farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops. ⁷Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this.

If we disown him,

Dealing With False Teachers

¹⁴Keep reminding God's people of these things. Warn them before God against quarreling about words;^q it is of no value, and only ruins those who listen. ¹⁵Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.^r ¹⁶Avoid godless chatter,^s because those who indulge in it will become more and more ungodly. ¹⁷Their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus^t and Philetus,^u who have departed from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.^v ¹⁹Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm,^v sealed with this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his,"^w and, "Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord^x must turn away from wickedness."

²⁰In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for special purposes and some for common use.^y ²¹Those who cleanse themselves from the latter will be instruments for special purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.^z

²³Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels.

²⁴And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful.^c

²⁵Opponents must be gently instructed, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth,^d ²⁶and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil,^e who has taken them captive to do his will.

3 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days.^f ²People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money,^g boastful, proud,^h abusive, disobedient to their parents,ⁱ ungrateful, unholy, ³without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, ⁴treacherous, rash, conceited,^j lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God — ⁵having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with such people.

⁶They are the kind who worm their way^k into homes and gain control over gullible women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires,⁷ always learning but never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. ⁸Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses,^l so also these teachers oppose^m the truth. They are men of depraved minds,ⁿ who, as far as the faith is concerned, are rejected. ⁹But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men,^o their folly will be clear to everyone.

A Final Charge to Timothy

¹⁰You, however, know all about my teaching,^p my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, ¹¹persecutions, sufferings — what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch,^q Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured.^r Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them.^s

¹²In fact, everyone who wants to live

a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted,^t ¹³while evildoers and impostors will go from bad to worse,^u deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it,^v ¹⁵and how from infancy^w you have known the Holy Scriptures,^x which are able to make you wise^y for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed^z and is useful for teaching,^a rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that the servant of God^{ab} may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.^c

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead,^d and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge:^e ²Preach^f the word;^g be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke^h and encourage — with great patience and careful instruction. ³For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine.ⁱ Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. ⁴They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.^j ⁵But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship,^k do the work of an evangelist,^l discharge all the duties of your ministry.

⁶For I am already being poured out like a drink offering,^m and the time for my departure is near.ⁿ ⁷I have fought the good fight,^o I have finished the race,^p I have kept the faith. ⁸Now there is in store for me^q the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day^r — and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Appointing Elders Who Love What Is Good

1:6-8Ref — 1Ti 3:2-4

⁵The reason I left you in Crete^j was that you might put in order what was left unfinished and appoint^a elders^k in every town, as I directed you. ⁶An elder must be blameless,^l faithful to his wife, a man whose children believe^b and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient. ⁷Since an overseer^m manages God's household,ⁿ he must be blameless — not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. ⁸Rather, he must be hospitable,^p one who loves what is good,^q who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. ⁹He must hold firmly^r to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine^s and refute those who oppose it.

Therefore rebuke^y them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith^z ¹⁴and will pay no attention to Jewish myths^a or to the merely human commands^b of those who reject the truth. ¹⁵To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure.^c In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted. ¹⁶They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him.^d They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.

Doing Good for the Sake of the Gospel

2 You, however, must teach what is appropriate to sound doctrine.^e ²Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith,^f in love and in endurance.

³Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine,^g but to teach what is good. ⁴Then they can urge the younger women to love their husbands and children, ⁵to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands,^h so that no one will malign the word of God.ⁱ

what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness ⁸and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.¹

⁹Teach slaves to be subject to their masters in everything,^m to try to please them, not to talk back to them,¹⁰ and not to steal from them, but to show that they can be fully trusted, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive.ⁿ

¹¹For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people.^o ¹²It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions,^p and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives^q in this present age, ¹³while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ,^r ¹⁴who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own,^s eager to do what is good.^t

¹⁵These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.

Saved in Order to Do Good

God our Savior appeared,^y ⁵he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done,^z but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal^a by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom he poured out on us^b generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷so that, having been justified by his grace,^c we might become heirs^d having the hope^e of eternal life.^f ⁸This is a trustworthy saying.^g And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good.^h These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

⁹But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrelsⁱ about the law, because these are unprofitable and useless. ¹⁰Warn a divisive person once, and then warn them a second time. After that, have nothing to do with them.^j ¹¹You may be sure that such people are warped and sinful; they are self-condemned.

Final Remarks

¹²As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus^k to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there.^l ¹³Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos^m on their way and see that they have everything they need. ¹⁴Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good,ⁿ in order to provide for urgent needs and not live unproductive lives.

PHILEMON

¹Paul, a prisoner^a of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,^b

To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker^c — ²also to Apphia our sister and Archippus^d our fellow soldier^e — and to the church that meets in your home:^f ³Grace and peace to you^g from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

⁴I always thank my God^g as I remember you in my prayers, ⁵because I hear about your love for all his holy people^h and your faith in the Lord Jesus. ⁶I pray that your partnership with us in the faith may be effective in deepening your understanding of every good thing we share for the sake of Christ. ⁷Your love has given me great joy and encouragement,ⁱ because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the Lord's people.

Paul's Plea for Onesimus

⁸Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, ⁹yet I prefer to appeal to you on the basis of love. It is as none other than Paul — an old man and now also a prisoner^k of Christ Jesus — ¹⁰that I appeal to you for my son^l Onesimus,^{b,m} who became my son while I was in chains. ¹¹Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

¹²I am sending him — who is my very heart — back to you. ¹³I would have liked to keep him with me

so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel. ¹⁴But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do would not seem forcedⁿ but would be voluntary. ¹⁵Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back forever — ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear brother.^o He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a fellow man and as a brother in the Lord.

¹⁷So if you consider me a partner,^p welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me. ¹⁹I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back — not to mention that you owe me your very self. ²⁰I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh^q my heart in Christ. ²¹Confident^r of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

HEBREWS

God's Final Word: His Son

1 In the past God spoke^a to our ancestors through the prophets^b at many times and in various ways,^c but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir^d of all things, and through whom^e also he made the universe.³ The Son is the radiance of God's glory^f and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things^g by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins,^h he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.ⁱ ⁴ So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.^j

The Son Superior to Angels

⁵ For to which of the angels did God ever say,

“You are my Son;
today I have become your Father”^{a?k}

Or again,

“I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”^{b?l}

⁶ And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world,^m he says,

“Let all God's angels worship him.”^{c n}

⁷ In speaking of the angels he says,

“He makes his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire.”^{d o}

⁸ But about the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever;
a scepter of justice will be the scepter of your kingdom.

⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;

¹⁰ He also says,

“In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

¹¹ They will perish, but you remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.^r

¹² You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed.

But you remain the same,^s and your years will never end.”^t

¹³ To which of the angels did God ever say,

“Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies
a footstool^u for your feet”^{g?v}

¹⁴ Are not all angels ministering spirits^w sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?^x

Warning to Pay Attention

2 We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. ² For since the message spoken^y through angels^z was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment,^a ³ how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation?^b This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord,^c

Jesus Made Fully Human

⁵It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. ⁶But there is a place where someone has testified:

“What is mankind that you are mindful of them, a son of man that you care for him?”^h

⁷You made them a little^a lower than the angels;
you crowned them with glory and honor

⁸ and put everything under their feet.”^{b,ci}

In putting everything under them,^d God left nothing that is not subject to them.^d Yet at present we do not see everything subject to them.^d ⁹But we do see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while, now crowned with glory and honor^j because he suffered death,^k so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.^l

¹⁰In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists,^m should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered.ⁿ ¹¹Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy^o are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.^{ep} ¹²He says,

“I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters;
in the assembly I will sing your praises.”^{fq}

¹³And again,

“I will put my trust in him.”^{gr}

And again he says,

has given me.”^{hs}

Jesus Greater Than Moses

3 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters,^c who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus, whom we acknowledge^d as our apostle and high priest.^e ²He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in all God’s house.^f ³Jesus has been found worthy of greater honor than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house itself. ⁴For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything. ⁵“Moses was faithful as a servant^g in all God’s house,”^h bearing witness to what would be spoken by God in the future. ⁶But Christ is faithful as the Sonⁱ over God’s house. And we are his house,^j if indeed we hold firmly^k to our confidence and the hope^l in which we glory.

Warning Against Unbelief

I said, “Their hearts are always going astray,
and they have not known my ¹¹So I declared on oath in my anger,

¹²See to it, brothers and sisters, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God. ¹³But encourage one another daily,^a as long as it is called “Today,” so that none of you may be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness.^r ¹⁴We have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold^s our original conviction firmly to the very end. ¹⁵As has just been said:

“Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts
as you did in the rebellion.”^{bt}

¹⁶Who were they who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those Moses led out of Egypt?^u ¹⁷And with whom was he angry for forty years?
Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies perished in the wilderness?^v ¹⁸And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest^w if not to those who disobeyed?^x ¹⁹So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.^y

A Sabbath-Rest for the People of God

4 Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it.^z ²For we also have had the good news proclaimed to us, just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, because they did not share the faith of those who obeyed.^{ca} ³Now we who have believed enter that rest,
just as God has said,

anger,

And yet his works have been finished since the creation of the world. ⁴For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in these words: “On the seventh day God rested from all his works.”^{ec} ⁵And again in the passage above he says, “They shall never enter my rest.”^d

⁶Therefore since it still remains for some to enter that rest, and since those who formerly had the good news proclaimed to them did not go in because of their disobedience,^e
⁷God again set a certain day, calling it “Today.” This he did when a long time later he spoke through David, as in the passage already quoted:

“Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts.”^{ff}

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest,^g
God would not have spoken^h later about another day. ⁹There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; ¹⁰for anyone who enters God’s rest also rests from their works,^g just as God did from his.ⁱ ¹¹Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will perish by following their example of disobedience.^j

¹²For the word of God^k is alive and active.^l Sharper than any double-edged sword,^m it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.ⁿ ¹³Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight.^o Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

hold firmly to the faith we profess.⁴
¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are^r — yet he did not sin.⁵
¹⁶Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

5 Every high priest is selected from among the people and is appointed to represent the people in matters related to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices^t for sins.^u ²He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray,^v since he himself is subject to weakness.^w ³This is why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.^x ⁴And no one takes this honor on himself, but he receives it when called by God, just as Aaron was.^y

⁵In the same way, Christ did not take on himself the glory^z of becoming a high priest. But God said^a to him,

“You are my Son;
 today I have become your Father.”^{ab}

⁶And he says in another place,

“You are a priest forever,
 in the order of Melchizedek.”^{bc}

⁷During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with fervent cries and tears^d to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.^e ⁸Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered^f ⁹and, once made perfect,^g he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him ¹⁰and was designated by God to be high priest^h in the order of Melchizedek.ⁱ

6 Therefore let us move beyond^o the elementary teachings^p about Christ and be taken forward to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death,^q and of faith in God, ²instruction about cleansing rites,^{dr} the laying on of hands,^s the resurrection of the dead,^t and eternal judgment. ³And God permitting,^u we will do so.

The Certainty of God's Promise

¹³When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself,⁹ ¹⁴saying, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants."^a^h ¹⁵And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.ⁱ

¹⁶People swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument.^j ¹⁷Because God wanted to make the unchanging^k nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised,^l he confirmed it with an oath. ¹⁸God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie,^m we who have fled to take hold of the hopeⁿ set before us may be greatly encouraged. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,^o ²⁰where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf.^p He has become a high priest^q forever, in the order of Melchizedek.^r

Melchizedek the Priest

7 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High.^s He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him,^t ²and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, the name Melchizedek means "king of righteousness"; then also, "king of Salem" means "king of peace."³ Without father or mother, without genealogy,^u without beginning of days or end of life, resembling the Son of God,^v he remains a priest forever.

⁴Just think how great he was: Even the patriarch^w Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder!^x ⁵Now the law requires the descendants of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people^y — that is, from their fellow Israelites — even though they also are descended from Abraham. ⁶This man, however, did not trace his descent from Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed^z him who had the promises.^a ⁷And without doubt the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸In the one case, the tenth is collected by people who die; but in the other case, by him who is declared to be living.^b ⁹One might even say that Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham, ¹⁰because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the body of his ancestor.

Jesus Like Melchizedek

¹¹If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood — and indeed the law given to the people^c established that priesthood — why was there still need for another priest to come,^d one in the order of Melchizedek,^e not in the order of Aaron? ¹²For when the priesthood is changed, the law must be changed also. ¹³He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe,^f and no one from that tribe has ever served at the altar.^g ¹⁴For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah,^h and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests. ¹⁵And what we have said is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears, ¹⁶one who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For it is declared:

"You are a priest forever,
in the order of Melchizedek."^{bi}

¹⁸The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and uselessⁱ ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect),^k and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.^l

²⁰And it was not without an oath! Others became priests without any oath, ²¹but he became a priest with an oath when God said to him:

"The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:^m
'You are a priest forever.'"^{bn}

²²Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantor of a better covenant.^o

²³Now there have been many of those priests, since death prevented

^a 14 Gen. 22:17 ^b 17,21 Psalm 110:4

them from continuing in office;²⁴ but because Jesus lives forever, he has a permanent priesthood.^p ²⁵Therefore he is able to save completely^a those who come to God^q through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.^r ²⁶Such a high priest truly meets our need — one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners,^s exalted above the heavens.^t ²⁷Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices^u day after day, first for his own sins,^v and then for the sins of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all^w when he offered himself.^x ²⁸For the law appoints as high priests men in all their weakness;^y but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son,^z who has been made perfect^a forever.

The High Priest of a New Covenant

8 Now the main point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest,^b who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, ²and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle^c set up by the Lord, not by a mere human being.

³Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices,^d and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.^e ⁴If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already priests who offer the gifts prescribed by the law.^f ⁵They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy^g and shadow^h of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warnedⁱ when he was about to build the tabernacle: “See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”^{bj} ⁶But in fact the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant^k of which he is mediator^l is superior to the old one, since the new covenant is established on better promises.

⁷For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another.^m ⁸But God found fault with the people and said^c:

¹⁰This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel after that time, declares the Lord.

I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.^p

I will be their God, and they will be my people.^q

¹³By calling this covenant “new,” he has made the first one obsolete;^u and what is obsolete and outdated will soon disappear.

Worship in the Earthly Tabernacle

9 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary.^v ²A tabernacle^w was set up. In its first room were the lampstand^x and the table^y with its consecrated bread;^z this was called the Holy Place. ³Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place,^a ⁴which had the golden altar of incense^b and the gold-covered ark of the covenant.^c This ark contained the gold jar of manna,^d

Aaron's staff that had budded,^e and the stone tablets of the covenant.⁵ Above the ark were the cherubim of the Glory,^f overshadowing the atonement cover. But we cannot discuss these things in detail now.

⁶When everything had been arranged like this, the priests entered regularly^g into the outer room to carry on their ministry. ⁷But only the high priest entered^h the inner room, and that only once a year,ⁱ and never without blood, which he offered for himself^j and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance. ⁸The Holy Spirit was showing^k by this that the way^l into the Most Holy Place had not yet been disclosed as long as the first tabernacle was still functioning. ⁹This is an illustration for the present time, indicating that the gifts and sacrifices being offered^m were not able to clear the conscience of the worshiper. ¹⁰They are only a matter of foodⁿ and drink^o and various ceremonial washings — external regulations^p applying until the time of the new order.

The Blood of Christ

¹¹But when Christ came as high priest^q of the good things that are now already here,^{qr} he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle^s that is not made with human hands, that is to say, is not a part of this creation. ¹²He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves;^t but he entered the Most Holy Place^u once for all^v by his own blood, thus obtaining^b eternal redemption. ¹³The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer^w sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean. ¹⁴How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit^x offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences^y from acts that lead to death,^z so that we may serve the living God!

¹⁵For this reason Christ is the mediator^a of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance — now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.^b

¹⁶In the case of a will,^d it is necessary to prove the death of the one who made it, ¹⁷because a will is in force only when somebody has died; it never takes effect while the one who made it is living. ¹⁸This is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.^c ¹⁹When Moses had proclaimed every command of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves, together with water, scarlet wool and branches of hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people.^d ²⁰He said, "This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep."^{ee} ²¹In the same way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and everything used in its ceremonies. ²²In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood,^f and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.^g

²³It was necessary, then, for the copies^h of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with human hands that was only a copy of the true one;ⁱ he entered heaven itself, now to appear for us in God's presence. ²⁵Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the Most Holy Place^j every year with blood that is not his own.^k ²⁶Otherwise Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world.^l But he has appeared once for all^m at the culmination of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷Just as people are destined to die once,ⁿ and after that to face judgment,^o ²⁸so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many; and he will appear a second time,^p not to bear sin,^q but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.^r

Christ's Sacrifice Once for All

10 The law is only a shadow^s of the good things^t that are coming — not the realities themselves.^u For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect^v those who draw near to worship. ²Otherwise, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshipers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins. ³But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins.^w ⁴It is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats^x to take away sins.

⁵Therefore, when Christ came into the world,^y he said:

“Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,
but a body you prepared for me;^z

⁶with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased.

⁷Then I said, ‘Here I am — it is written about me in the scroll^a —

I have come to do your will, my God.’^{ab}

⁸First he said, “Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them”^c — though they were offered in accordance with the law. ⁹Then he said, “Here I am, I have come to do your will.”^d He sets aside the first to establish the second. ¹⁰And by that will, we have been made holy^e through the sacrifice of the body^f of Jesus Christ once for all. ⁹

¹¹Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices,^h which can never take away sins.ⁱ ¹²But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³and since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool.^j ¹⁴For by one sacrifice he has made perfect^k forever those who are being made holy.

¹⁵The Holy Spirit also testifies^l to us about this. First he says:

A Call to Persevere in Faith

¹⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place^o by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by a new and living way^p opened for us through the curtain,^q that is, his body, ²¹and since we have a great priest^r over the house of God, ²²let us draw near to God^s with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience^t and having our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold unswervingly to the hope^u we profess, for he who promised is faithful.^v ²⁴And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, ²⁵not giving up meeting together,^w as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another^x — and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

²⁶If we deliberately keep on sinning^y after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, ²⁷but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire^z that will consume the enemies of God. ²⁸Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.^a ²⁹How much more severely do you think someone deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God underfoot,^b who has treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant^c that sanctified them, and who has insulted the Spirit^d of

^a 7 Psalm 40:6-8 (see Septuagint)

^b 16 Jer. 31:33 ^c 17 Jer. 31:34

grace?^e ³⁰For we know him who said, “It is mine to avenge; I will repay,”^{af} and again, “The Lord will judge his people.”^{bg} ³¹It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.^h ³²Remember those earlier days after you had received the light,ⁱ when you endured in a great conflict full of suffering.^j ³³Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution;^k at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated.^l ³⁴You suffered along with those in prison^m and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.ⁿ ³⁵So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded.

³⁶You need to persevere^o so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. ³⁷For,

“In just a little while, he who is coming^p will come and will not delay.”^{cq}

³⁸And,

“But my righteous^d one will live by faith.^f
And I take no pleasure in the one who shrinks back.”^e

³⁹But we do not belong to those who shrink back and are destroyed, but to those who have faith and are saved.

Faith in Action

11 Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.⁵ ²This is what the ancients were commended for.^t

³By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God’s command,^u so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

⁴By faith Abel brought God a better offering than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous, when God spoke well of his offerings.^v And by faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.^w

For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him^y must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

⁷By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark^z to save his family.^a By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with faith.

⁸By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance,^b obeyed and went,^c even though he did not know where he was going. ⁹By faith he made his home in the promised land^d like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents,^e as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.^f ¹⁰For he was looking forward to the city^g with foundations,^h whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age,ⁱ was enabled to bear children^j because she^g considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹²And so from this one man, and he as good as dead,^k came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.^l

¹³All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised;^m they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance,ⁿ admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth.^o ¹⁴People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.^p ¹⁶Instead, they were longing for a better country — a heavenly one.^q Therefore God is not

²³By faith Moses’ parents hid him for three months after he was born,^a because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king’s edict.^b

²⁴By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh’s daughter.^c ²⁵He chose to be mistreated^d along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶He regarded disgrace^e for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.^f ²⁷By faith he left Egypt,^g not fearing the king’s anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith he kept the Passover and the application of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.^h

²⁹By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.ⁱ

³¹By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient.^{bk}

³²And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barak,^l Samson and Jephthah, about David^m and Samuelⁿ and the prophets, ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms,^o administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions,^p ³⁴quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength;^q and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies.^r ³⁵Women received back their dead, raised to life again.^s There were others who were tortured, refusing to be released so that they might gain an even better resurrection. ³⁶Some faced jeers and flogging,^t and even chains and imprisonment.^u ³⁷They were put to death by stoning;^{cv} they were sawed in two; they were killed by the sword.^w They went about in sheepskins and goat-skins,^x destitute, persecuted and mistreated — ³⁸the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves^y and in holes in the ground.

³⁹These were all commended^z for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised,^a ⁴⁰since God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect.

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run^b with perseverance^c the race marked out for us, ²fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross,^d scorning its shame,^e and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary^f and lose heart.

God Disciplines His Children

⁴In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of

^a 18 Gen. 21:12 ^b 31 Or Unbelieving

shedding your blood.⁹ ⁵And have you completely forgotten this word of encouragement that addresses you as a father addresses his son? It says,

“My son, do not make light of the Lord’s discipline, and do not lose heart when he rebukes you, ⁶because the Lord disciplines the one he loves,^h and he chastens everyone he accepts as his son.”^{ai}

⁷Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as his children.^j For what children are not disciplined by their father? ⁸If you are not disciplined — and everyone undergoes discipline^k — then you are not legitimate, not true sons and daughters at all. ⁹Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits^l and live!^m ¹⁰They disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, in order that we may share in his holiness.ⁿ ¹¹No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace^o for those who have been trained by it.

¹²Therefore, strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees.^p ¹³“Make level paths for your feet,”^{bq} so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.^r

Warning and Encouragement

¹⁴Make every effort to live in peace with everyone^s and to be holy;^t without holiness no one will see the Lord.^u ¹⁵See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God^v and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. ¹⁶See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son.^w ¹⁷Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. Even though he sought the blessing with tears,^x he could not change what he had done.

The Mountain of Fear and the Mountain of Joy

¹⁸You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire; to darkness, gloom and storm;^y ¹⁹to a trumpet blast^z or to such a voice speaking words that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them,^a ²⁰because they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death.”^{cb} ²¹The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, “I am trembling with fear.”^d

²²But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city^c of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem.^d You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, ²³to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven.^e You have come to God, the Judge of all,^f to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,^g ²⁴to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.^h

²⁵See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks. If they did not escape when they refused him who warnedⁱ them on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven?^j ²⁶At that time his voice shook the earth,^k but now he has promised, “Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens.”^{el} ²⁷The words “once more” indicate the removing of what can be shaken^m — that is, created things — so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

²⁸Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken,ⁿ let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe,^o ²⁹for our “God is a consuming fire.”^{fp}

Concluding Exhortations

13 Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters.^q ²Do not

^b 13 Prov. 4:26 ^c 20 Exodus 19:12, 13 ^d 21 See Deut. 9:19. ^e 26 Haggai 2:6 ^f 29 Deut. 4:24 forget to show hospitality to strangers,¹ for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.² ³Continue to remember those in prison^t as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.

⁴Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral.^u ⁵Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have,^v because God has said,

“Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.”^{aw}

⁶So we say with confidence,

“The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.
What can mere mortals do to me?”^b

⁷Remember your leaders,^x who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate^y their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.^z

⁹Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings.^a It is good for our hearts to be strengthened^b by grace, not by eating ceremonial foods,^c which is of no benefit to those who do so. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who minister at the tabernacle have no right to eat.^d

¹¹The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place as a sin offering, but the bodies are burned outside the camp.^e ¹²And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate^f to make the people holy through his own blood. ¹³Let us, then, go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore.^g ¹⁴For here we do not have an enduring city, but ¹⁵Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrificeⁱ of praise — the fruit of lips^j that openly profess his name. ¹⁶And do not forget to do good and to share with others,^k for with such sacrifices^l God is pleased.

¹⁷Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you^m as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.

¹⁸Pray for us.ⁿ We are sure that we have a clear conscience^o and desire to live honorably in every way. ¹⁹I particularly urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you soon.^p

Benediction and Final Greetings

²⁰Now may the God of peace,^q who through the blood of the eternal covenant^r brought back from the dead^s our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep,^t ²¹equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us^u what is pleasing to him,^v through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.^w

²²Brothers and sisters, I urge you to bear with my word of exhortation, for in fact I have written to you quite briefly.^x

²³I want you to know that our brother Timothy^y has been released. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you.

²⁴Greet all your leaders^z and all the Lord's people. Those from Italy^a send you their greetings.

JAMES

1 James,^a a servant of God^b and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes^c scattered^d among the nations:

Greetings.

Trials and Temptations

²Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters,^a whenever you face trials of many kinds,^e ³because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. ⁴Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. ⁵If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God,^f who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. ⁶But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt,^h because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸Such a person is double-mindedⁱ and unstable in all they do.

⁹Believers in humble circumstances ought to take pride in their high position. ¹⁰But the rich should take pride in their humiliation — since they will pass away like a wild flower.^j ¹¹For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers^k the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed.^l In the same way, the rich will fade away even while they go about their business.

¹²Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life^m that the Lord has promised to those who love him.ⁿ

¹³When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone;¹⁴ but each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own evil desire and enticed. ¹⁵Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin;^o and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.^p

¹⁶Don't be deceived,^q my dear brothers and sisters.^r ¹⁷Every good and perfect gift is from above,^s coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change^t like shifting shadows. ¹⁸He chose to give us birth^u through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits^v of all he created.

Listening and Doing

¹⁹My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak^w and slow to become angry, ²⁰because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. ²¹Therefore, get rid of^x all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you,^y which can save you.

²²Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. ²³Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror ²⁴and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. ²⁵But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom,^z and continues in it — not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it — they will be blessed in what they do.^a

^a ² The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God's family; also in verses 16 and 19; and in 2:1, 5, 14; 3:10, 12; 4:11; 5:7, 9, 10, 12, 19.

Favoritism Forbidden

2 My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious^f Lord Jesus Christ must not show favoritism.^g ²Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in filthy old clothes also comes in. ³If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, “Here’s a good seat for you,” but say to the poor man, “You stand there” or “Sit on the floor by my feet,” ⁴have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges^h with evil thoughts?

⁵Listen, my dear brothers and sisters:ⁱ Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world^j to be rich in faith^k and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him?^l ⁶But you have dishonored the poor.^m Is it not the rich who are exploiting you? Are they not the ones who are dragging you into court?ⁿ ⁷Are they not the ones who are blaspheming the noble name of him to whom you belong?

⁸If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,”^o you are doing right. ⁹But if you show favoritism,^p you sin and are convicted by the law as lawbreakers.^q ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it.^r ¹¹For he who said, “You shall not commit adultery,”^{bs} also said, “You shall not murder.”^{ct} If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.

¹²Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom,^u ¹³because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful.^v Mercy triumphs over judgment.

sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds?^w Can such faith save them? ¹⁵Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food.^x ¹⁶If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?^y ¹⁷In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Show me your faith without deeds,^z and I will show you my faith by my deeds.^a ¹⁹You believe that there is one God.^b Good! Even the demons believe that^c — and shudder.

²⁰You foolish person, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless?^d ²¹Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?^e ²²You see that his faith and his actions were working together,^f and his faith was made complete by what he did.^g ²³And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,”^{eh} and he was called God’s friend.ⁱ ²⁴You see that a person is considered righteous by what they do and not by faith alone.

²⁵In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction?^j ²⁶As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.^k

Taming the Tongue

3 Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow believers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. ²We all stumble^l in many ways. Anyone who is never at fault in what they say^m is perfect,ⁿ able to keep their whole body in check.^o

³When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal.^p ⁴Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. ⁵Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts.^a Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. ⁶The tongue also is a fire,^r a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole body,^s sets the whole course of one's life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

^a 8 Lev. 19:18 ^b 11 Exodus 20:14; Deut. 5:18

⁷All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and sea creatures are being tamed and have been tamed by mankind, ⁸but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.^t ⁹With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings, who have been made in God's likeness.^u ¹⁰Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be. ¹¹Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? ¹²My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs?^v Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

Two Kinds of Wisdom

¹³Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it^w by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. ¹⁴But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition^x in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.^y ¹⁵Such "wisdom" does not come down from heaven^z but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.^a ¹⁶For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

¹⁷But the wisdom that comes from heaven^b is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy^c and good fruit, impartial and sincere.^d ¹⁸Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness.^e

you? ²You desire but do not have, so you kill. You covet but you cannot get what you want, so you quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask God. ³When you ask, you do not receive,^h because you ask with wrong motives,ⁱ that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

⁴You adulterous people,^a don't you know that friendship with the world^j means enmity against God?^k Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.^l ⁵Or do you think Scripture says without reason that he jealously longs for the spirit he has caused to dwell in us?^b ⁶But he gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says:

humble."^{cm}

⁷Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil,ⁿ and he will flee from you. ⁸Come near to God and he will come near to you.^o Wash your hands,^p you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.^q ⁹Grieve, mourn and wail. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom.^r ¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

¹¹Brothers and sisters, do not slander one another.^s Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister^d or judges them^t speaks against the law and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it,^u but sitting in judgment on it. ¹²There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy.^v But you—who are you to judge your neighbor?^w

You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.^y ¹⁵Instead, you ought to say, “If it is the Lord’s will,^z we will live and do this or that.” ¹⁶As it is, you boast in your arrogant schemes. Warning to Rich Oppressors

5 Now listen, you rich people,^c weep and wail because of the misery that is coming on you. ²Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.^d ³Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.^e ⁴Look! The wages you failed to pay the workers^f who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries^g of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty.^h ⁵You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselvesⁱ in the day of slaughter.^{aj} ⁶You have condemned and murdered the innocent one,^k who was not opposing you.

Patience in Suffering

⁷Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord’s coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains.^l ⁸You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord’s coming is near.^m ⁹Don’t grumble against one another, brothers and sisters,ⁿ or you will be judged. Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

Praise to God for a Living Hope

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!⁹ In his great mercy^h he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,ⁱ ⁴and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you,^j ⁵who through faith are shielded by God's power^k until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In all this you greatly rejoice,^l though now for a little while^m you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.ⁿ ⁷These have come so that the proven genuineness^o of your faith — of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire^p — may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.^q ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him^r and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.⁵

Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

¹³Therefore, with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming. ¹⁴As obedient children, do not conform^x to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance.^y ¹⁵But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do;^z ¹⁶for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."^{aa}

¹⁷Since you call on a Father who judges each person's work impartially,^b live out your time as foreigners here in reverent fear. ¹⁸For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed^d from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb^e without blemish or defect. ²⁰He was chosen before the creation of the world,⁹ but was revealed in these last times^h for your sake. ²¹Through him you believe in God,ⁱ who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

²²Now that you have purified^j yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply,^k from the heart. ²³For you have been born the grass withers and the flowers fall,

²⁵ but the word of the Lord

And this is the word that was preached to you.

2 Therefore, rid yourselves^o of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander^p of every kind. ²Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk,^q so that by it you may grow up^r in your salvation, ³now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.^s

The Living Stone and a Chosen People

⁷Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,^a

“The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”^{db}

Living Godly Lives in a Pagan Society

¹¹Dear friends, I urge you, as foreigners and exiles, to abstain from sinful desires,ⁱ which wage war against your soul.^j ¹²Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds^k and glorify God^l on the day he visits us.

¹³Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every human authority:^m whether to the emperor, as the supreme authority, ¹⁴or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrongⁿ and to commend those who do right.^o ¹⁵For it is God’s will^p that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people.^q ¹⁶Live as free people,^r but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as God’s slaves.^s ¹⁷Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers,^t fear God, honor the emperor.^u

¹⁸Slaves, in reverent fear of God submit yourselves to your masters,^v not only to those who are good and considerate,^w but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are conscious of God.^x ²⁰But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.^y ²¹To this^z you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example,^a that you should follow in his steps.

and no deceit was found in his mouth.”^{fb}

3 Wives, in the same way submit yourselvesⁱ to your own husbands^k so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over^l without words by the behavior of their wives, ²when they see the purity and reverence of your lives. ³Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as elaborate hairstyles and the wearing of gold jewelry or fine clothes.^m ⁴Rather, it should be that of your inner self,ⁿ the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God’s sight. ⁵For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God^o used to adorn themselves. They submitted themselves to their own husbands, ⁶like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her lord.^p You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

⁷Husbands,^q in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

⁸Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another,^r be compassionate and humble.^s ⁹Do not repay evil with evil^t or insult with insult.^u On the contrary, repay evil with blessing, because to this^v you were called so that you may inherit a blessing.^w ¹⁰For, they must seek peace and pursue it.

¹³Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?^y ¹⁴But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed.^z “Do not fear their threats^c; do not be frightened.”^{da} ¹⁵But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer^b to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, ¹⁶keeping a clear conscience,^c so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.^d ¹⁷For it is better, if it is God’s will,^e to suffer for doing good^f than for doing evil. ¹⁸For Christ also suffered once for sins,^g the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body^h but made alive in the Spirit.ⁱ ¹⁹After being made alive,^e he went and made proclamation to the imprisoned spirits^l — ²⁰to those who were disobedient long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built.^k In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved^l through water, ²¹and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you^m also — not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God.^f It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,ⁿ ²²who has gone into heaven and is at God’s right hand^o — with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.^p

Living for God

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because whoever suffers in the body is done with sin.² As a result, they do not live the rest of their earthly lives for evil human desires,^a but rather for the will of God. ³For you have spent enough time in the past^r doing what pagans choose to do — living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry. ⁴They are surprised that you do not join them in their reckless, wild living, and they heap abuse on you.⁵ But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.^t ⁶For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead,^u so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

⁷The end of all things is near.^v Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. ⁸Above all, love each other deeply,^w because love covers over a multitude of sins.^x ⁹Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.^y ¹⁰Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others,^z as faithful^a stewards of God's grace in its various forms. ¹¹If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides,^b so that in all things God may be praised^c through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for Being a Christian

¹²Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that has come on you^d to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³But rejoice inasmuch as you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.^e ¹⁴If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed,^f for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. ¹⁵If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler. ¹⁶However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.^g ¹⁷For it is time for judgment to begin with God's household;^h and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?ⁱ ¹⁸And,

“If it is hard for the righteous to be saved,
what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?”^{aj}

¹⁹So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

To the Elders and the Flock

5 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder^k and a witness^l of Christ's sufferings who also will share in the glory to be revealed:^m ²Be shepherds of God's flockⁿ that is under your care, watching over them — not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not pursuing dishonest gain,^o but eager to serve;³ not lording it over^p those entrusted to you, but being examples^q to the flock. ⁴And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory^r that will never fade away.

⁵In the same way, you who are younger, submit yourselves^s to your elders. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because,

“God opposes the proud
but shows favor to the humble.”^{bt}

⁶Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.^u ⁷Cast all your anxiety on him^v because he cares for you.^w

⁸Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around^x like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. ⁹Resist him,^y standing firm in the faith,^z because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings.^a

2 PETER

1 Simon Peter, a servant^a and apostle of Jesus Christ,^b

To those who through the righteousness^c of our God and Savior Jesus Christ^d have received a faith as precious as ours:

²Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.^e

Confirming One's Calling and Election

³His divine power^f has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us^g by his own glory and goodness. ⁴Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises,^h so that through them you may participate in the divine nature,ⁱ having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.^j

⁵For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;^k ⁶and to knowledge, self-control;^l and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness;^m ⁷and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love.ⁿ ⁸For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive^o in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹But whoever does not have them is nearsighted and blind,^p forgetting that they have been cleansed from their past sins.^q

¹⁰Therefore, my brothers and sisters,^a make every effort to confirm your calling and election. For if you do these things, you will never stumble,^r ¹¹and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

these things,^s even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have. ¹³I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body,^t ¹⁴because I know that I will soon put it aside,^u as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.^v ¹⁵And I will make every effort to see that after my departure^w you will always be able to remember these things.

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we told you about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in power, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.^x ¹⁷He received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."^y ¹⁸We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.^z

¹⁹We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light^a shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star^b rises in your hearts. ²⁰Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things. ²¹For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God^c as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.^d

False Teachers and Their Destruction

2 But there were also false prophets^e among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you.^f They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord⁹ who bought them^h—bringing swift destruction on themselves. ²Many will follow their depraved conduct and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. ³In their greed these teachers will exploit youⁱ with fabricated stories. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

⁴For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell,^a putting them in chains of darkness^b to be held for judgment;^j ⁵if he did not spare the ancient world^k when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;^l ⁶if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes,^m and made them an exampleⁿ of what is going to happen to the ungodly; ⁷and if he rescued Lot,^o a righteous man, who was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless^p ⁸(for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)— ⁹if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials^q and to hold the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment. ¹⁰This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire^r of the flesh^c and despise authority.

Bold and arrogant, they are not afraid to heap abuse on celestial beings;^s ¹¹yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not heap abuse on such beings when bringing judgment on them from^d the Lord.^t ¹²But these people blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like unreasoning animals, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like animals they too will perish.^u

¹³They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight.^v They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their pleasures while they feast with you.^{ew} ¹⁴With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce^x the unstable; they are experts in greed^y—an accursed brood!^z ¹⁵They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam^a son of Bezer,^f who loved the wages of wickedness. ¹⁶But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—an animal without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.^b

¹⁷These people are springs without water^c and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them.^d ¹⁸For they mouth empty, boastful words^e and, by appealing to the lustful desires of the flesh, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error. ¹⁹They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for “people are slaves to whatever has mastered them.”^f ²⁰If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing^g our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and are overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.^h ²¹It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them.ⁱ ²²Of them the proverbs are true: “A dog returns to its vomit,”^g ⁹ⁱ and, “A sow that is washed returns to her wallowing in the mud.”

The Day of the Lord

1 JOHN

The Incarnation of the Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning,^a which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes,^b which we have looked at and our hands have touched^c — this we proclaim concerning the Word of life. ²The life appeared;^d we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us. ³We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.^e ⁴We write this^f to make our^g joy complete.^g

Light and Darkness, Sin and Forgiveness

⁵This is the message we have heard^h from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. ⁶If we claim to have fellowship with him and yet walk in the darkness,ⁱ we lie and do not live out the truth.^j ⁷But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all^b sin.^k

⁸If we claim to be without sin,^l we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.^m ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sinsⁿ and purify us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar^o and his word is not in us.^p

2 My dear children,^q I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have an advocate^r with the Father — Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. ²He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins,^s and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

Love and Hatred for Fellow Believers

³We know that we have come to know him if we keep his commands.^t ⁴Whoever says, “I know him,” but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in that person.^u ⁵But if anyone obeys his word,^v love for God^c is truly made complete in them.^w This is how we know we are in him: ⁶Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did.^x

⁷Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning.^y This old command is the message you have heard. ⁸Yet I am writing you a new command;^z its truth is seen in him and in you, because the darkness is passing^a and the true light^b is already shining.^c

⁹Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister^d is still in the darkness. ¹⁰Anyone who loves their brother and sister^e lives in the light,^d and there is nothing in them to make them stumble. ¹¹But anyone who hates a brother or sister is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness. They do not know where they are going, because the darkness has blinded them.^e

On Not Loving the World

¹⁵Do not love the world or anything in the world.^j If anyone loves the world, love for the Father^a is not in them.^k ¹⁶For everything in the world — the lust of the flesh,^l the lust of the eyes,^m and the pride of life — comes not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷The world and its desires pass away,ⁿ but whoever does the will of God lives forever.

Warnings Against Denying the Son

¹⁸Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming,^o even now many antichrists have come.^p This is how we know it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us,^q but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.^r

²⁰But you have an anointing^s from the Holy One,^t and all of you know the truth.^{bu} ²¹I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it^v and because no lie comes from the truth. ²²Who is the liar? It is whoever denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist — denying the Father and the Son.^w ²³No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.^x ²⁶I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray.^z ²⁷As for you, the anointing^a you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit — just as it has taught you, remain in him.

God's Children and Sin

²⁸And now, dear children,^b continue in him, so that when he appears^c we may be confident^d and unashamed before him at his coming.^e

²⁹If you know that he is righteous,^f you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him.

3 See what great love^g the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!^h And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.ⁱ ²Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears,^c we shall be like him,^j for we shall see him as he is.^k ³All who have this hope in him purify themselves,^l just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness.^m ⁵But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins. And in him is no sin.ⁿ ⁶No one who lives in him keeps on sinning.^o No one who continues to sin has either seen him^p or known him.^q

⁷Dear children,^r do not let anyone lead you astray.^s The one who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.^t ⁸The one who does what is sinful is of the devil,^u because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God

^a 15 Or world, the Father's love ^b 20 Some manuscripts and you know all things

^c 2 Or when it is made known appeared was to destroy the devil's work. ⁹No one who is born of God^v will continue to sin,^w because God's seed^x remains in them; they cannot go on sinning, because they have been born of God. ¹⁰This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not God's child, nor is anyone who does not love^y their brother and sister.

More on Love and Hatred

¹¹For this is the message you heard^z from the beginning: We should love one another.^a ¹²Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother.^b And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. ¹³Do not be surprised, my brothers and sisters,^a if the world hates you.^c ¹⁴We know that we have passed from death to life,^d because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death.^e ¹⁵Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer,^f and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him.^g

¹⁶This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.^h ¹⁷If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them,ⁱ how can the love of God be in that person?^j ¹⁸Dear children,^k let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.^l

¹⁹This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence: ²⁰If our hearts condemn us, we know that God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. ²¹Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God^m ²²and receive from him anything we ask,ⁿ because we keep his commands and do what pleases him.^o ²³And this is his command: to believe^p in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us.^q ²⁴The one who keeps God's commands lives in him,^r and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit he gave us.^s

On Denying the Incarnation

4 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.^t ²This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh^u is from God,^v ³but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist,^w which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.

⁴You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you^x is greater than the one who is in the world.^y ⁵They are from the world^z and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us.^a This is how we recognize the Spirit^b of truth^b and the spirit of falsehood.

God's Love and Ours

⁷Dear friends, let us love one another,^c for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.^d ⁸Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.^e ⁹This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.^f ¹⁰This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us^g and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.^h ¹¹Dear friends, since God so loved us,ⁱ we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God;^j but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.^k

¹³This is how we know that we live

^a 13 The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God's family; also in verse 16.

^b 6 Or spirit

in him and he in us: He has given us of his Spirit.^l ¹⁴And we have seen and testify^m that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.ⁿ ¹⁵If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God,^o God lives in them and they in God. ¹⁶And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.

God is love.^p Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them.^q ¹⁷This is how love is made complete^r among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus. ¹⁸There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear,^s because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

¹⁹We love because he first loved us.^t ²⁰Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister^u is a liar.^v For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen,^w cannot love God, whom they have not seen.^x ²¹And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.^y

Faith in the Incarnate Son of God

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ^z is born of God,^a and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well.^b ²This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. ³In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands.^c And his commands are not burdensome,^d ⁴for everyone born of God overcomes^e the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

⁶This is the one who came by water and blood^f — Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.^g ⁷For there are three^h that testify: ⁸the^a Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement. ⁹We accept human testimony,ⁱ but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God,^j which he has given about his Son. ¹⁰Whoever believes in the Son of God accepts this testimony.^k Whoever does not believe God has made him out to be a liar,^l because they have not believed the testimony God has given about his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.^m ¹²Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.ⁿ

Concluding Affirmations

¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God^o so that you may know that you have eternal life.^p ¹⁴This is the confidence^q we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.^r ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us — whatever we ask — we know^s that we have what we asked of him.

¹⁶If you see any brother or sister commit a sin that does not lead to death, you should pray and God will give them life.^t I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death.^u I am not saying that you should pray about that.^v ¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin,^w and there is sin that does not lead to death.^x

¹⁸We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the One who was born of God keeps them safe, and the evil one cannot harm them.^y ¹⁹We know that we are children of God,^z and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.^a ²⁰We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding,^b so that we may know him who is true.^c And we are in him who is true by being in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.^d

The Sin and Doom of Ungodly People

³Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share,^e I felt compelled to write and urge you to contend^f for the faith that was once for all entrusted to God's holy people. ⁴For certain individuals whose condemnation was written about^b long ago have secretly slipped in among you.⁹ They are ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.^h

⁵Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord^c at one time delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.ⁱ ⁶And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their proper dwelling — these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day.^j ⁷In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns^k gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.^l

⁸In the very same way, on the strength of their dreams these ungodly people pollute their own bodies, reject authority and heap abuse on celestial beings.^m ⁹But even the archangel Michael,ⁿ when he was

REVELATION

Prologue

1 The revelation from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel^a to his servant John, ²who testifies to everything he saw — that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ^b³Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it,^c because the time is near.

Greetings and Doxology

⁴John,

To the seven churches in the province of Asia:

Grace and peace to you from him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits^{ad} before his throne, ⁵and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness,^e the firstborn from the dead,^f and the ruler of the kings of the earth.^g

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, ⁶and has made us to be a kingdom and priests^h to serve his God and Father — to him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.ⁱ

⁷“Look, he is coming with the clouds,”^{bj} and “every eye will see him, even those who pierced him”; and all peoples on earth “will mourn^k because of him.”^c So shall it be! Amen.

⁸“I am the Alpha and the Omega,”^l says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.”^m and that you are now doing more than you did at first.

²⁰Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel,^v who calls herself a prophet. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. ²¹I have given her time^w to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling.^x ²²So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery^y with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. ²³I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds,^z and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

²⁴Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, to you who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned Satan's so-called deep secrets, 'I will not impose any other burden on you,^a ²⁵except to hold on to what you have^b until I come.'

²⁶To the one who is victorious and does my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations^c — ²⁷that one 'will rule them with an iron scepter^d and will dash them to pieces like pottery'^{ae} — just as I have received authority from my Father. ²⁸I will also give that one the morning star.^f ²⁹Whoever has ears, let them hear^g what the Spirit says to the churches.

And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet^u said, “Come up here,^v and I will show you what must take place after this.”^w ²At once I was in the Spirit,^x and there before me was a throne in heaven^y with someone sitting on it. ³And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and ruby. A rainbow^z that shone like an emerald encircled the throne. ⁴Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders.^a They were dressed in white^b and had crowns of gold on their heads. ⁵From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder.^c In front of the throne, seven lamps^d were blazing. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures,^g and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back. ⁷The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle.^h ⁸Each of the four living creatures had six wingsⁱ and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. The Scroll and the Lamb

5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne^r a scroll with writing on both sides^s and sealed^t with seven seals. ²And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?” ³But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. ⁴I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. ⁵Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! See, the Lion^u of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David,^v has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

⁶Then I saw a Lamb,^w looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes,^x which are the seven spirits^a of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷He went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne.^y ⁸And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp^z and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers^a of God’s people. ⁹And they sang a new song, saying:^b

“You are worthy^c to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood^d you purchased^e for God persons from every tribe and language and people and nation.

The Trumpets

⁶Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets² prepared to sound them.

⁷The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there came hail and fire^a mixed with blood, and it was hurled down on the earth. A third^b of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.^c

⁸The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a huge mountain,^d all ablaze, was thrown into the sea. A third^e of the sea turned into blood,^f ⁹a third^g of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from the sky^h on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waterⁱ — ¹¹the name of the star is Wormwood.^c A third^j of the waters turned bitter, and many people died from the waters that had become bitter.^k

¹²The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third^l of them turned dark.^m A third of the day was without light, and also a third of the night.

¹³As I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying in midairⁿ call out in a loud voice: “Woe! Woe! Woe^o to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!”

9 The fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth.^p The star was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss.^q ²When he opened the Abyss, smoke rose from it like the smoke from a gigantic furnace.^r The sun and sky were darkened^s by the smoke from the Abyss. ³And out of the smoke locusts^t came down on the earth and were given power like that of scorpions^u of the earth. ⁴They were told not to harm^v the grass of the earth or any ⁷The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle.^b On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces resembled human faces.^c ⁸Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.^d ⁹They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle.^e ¹⁰They had tails with stingers, like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.^f ¹¹They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss,^g whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon and in Greek is Apollyon (that is, Destroyer).

¹²The first woe is past; two other woes are yet to come.^h

¹³The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice coming from the four hornsⁱ of the golden altar that is before God.^j ¹⁴It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."^k ¹⁵And the four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour and day and month and year were released to kill a third of mankind.^l ¹⁶The number of the mounted troops was twice ten thousand times ten thousand. I heard their number.^m

¹⁷The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouthsⁿ came fire, smoke and sulfur.^o ¹⁸A third of mankind was killed^p by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulfur^q that came out of their mouths. ¹⁹The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like ²⁰The rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the work of their hands;^r they did not stop worshiping demons,^s and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood — idols that cannot see or hear or walk.^t ²¹Nor did they repent^u of their murders, their magic arts,^v their sexual immorality^w or their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another mighty angel^x coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head; his face was like the sun,^y and his legs were like fiery pillars.^z ²He was holding a little scroll, which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,³ and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders^a spoke. ⁴And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down."^b

⁵Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.^c ⁶And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it,^d and said, "There will be no more delay!^e ⁷But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery^f of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets."

⁸Then the voice that I had heard from heaven^g spoke to me once more: "Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it. It will turn your stomach sour, but 'in your mouth it will be as sweet as

The Two Witnesses

11 I was given a reed like a measuring rod^j and was told, "Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, with its worshipers. ²But exclude the outer court;^k do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles.^l They will trample on the holy city^m for 42 months.ⁿ ³And I will appoint my two witnesses,^o and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth."^p ⁴They are "the two olive trees"^q and the two lampstands, and "they stand before the Lord of the earth."^{br} ⁵If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies.^s This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die.^t ⁶They have power to shut up the heavens so that it will not rain during the time they are prophesying; and they have power to turn the waters into blood^u and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they want.

⁷Now when they have finished their testimony, the beast^v that comes up from the Abyss will attack them,^w and overpower and kill them. ⁸Their bodies will lie in the public square of the great city—which is figuratively called Sodom^x and Egypt—where also their Lord was crucified.^y ⁹For three and a half days some from every people, tribe, language and nation will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial.^z ¹⁰The inhabitants of the earth^a will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts,^b because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.

¹¹But after the three and a half days the breath^c of life from God entered them,^c and they stood on their feet, and terror struck those who saw them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵The seventh angel sounded his trumpet,^j and there were loud voices^k in heaven, which said:

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah,^l and he will reign for ever and ¹⁶And the twenty-four elders,ⁿ who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying:

"We give thanks to you, Lord God

the One who is and who was, because you have taken your

the dead, and for rewarding your servants the prophets^r

¹⁹Then God's temple^t in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and a severe hailstorm.^u ⁷Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon,^d and the dragon and his angels fought back. ⁸But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. ⁹The great dragon was hurled down — that ancient serpent^e called the devil,^f or Satan, who leads the whole world astray.^g He was hurled to the earth,^h and his angels with him.

The Beast out of the Earth

¹¹Then I saw a second beast, coming out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon. ¹²It exercised all the authority^u of the first beast on its behalf,^v and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast,^w whose fatal wound had been healed.^x ¹³And it performed great signs,^y even causing fire to come down from heaven^z to the earth in full view of the people. ¹⁴Because of the signs^a it was given power to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived^b the inhabitants of the earth. It ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. ¹⁵The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.^c ¹⁶It also forced all people, great and small,^d rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads,^e ¹⁷so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark,^f which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.^g

Harvesting the Earth and Trampling the Winepress

¹⁴I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man^{ak} with a crown^l of gold on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵Then another angel came out of the temple and called in a loud voice to him who was sitting on the cloud, “Take your sickle^m and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvestⁿ of the earth is ripe.” ¹⁶So he who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, “Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth’s vine, because its grapes are ripe.” ¹⁹The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God’s wrath.^o ²⁰They were trampled in the winepress^p outside the city,^q and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses’ bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia.^b

15“Look, I come like a thief!
Blessed is the one who stays awake^o and remains clothed, so as not to go naked and be shamefully exposed.”

¹⁶Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew^p is called Armageddon.^q

¹⁷The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air,^r and out of the temple^s came a loud voice^t from the throne, saying, “It is done!”^u ¹⁸Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder^v and a severe earthquake.^w No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth,^x so tremendous was the quake. ¹⁹The great city^y split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered^z Babylon the Great^a and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath.^b ²⁰Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found.^c ²¹From the sky huge hailstones,^d each weighing about a hundred pounds,^e fell on people. And they cursed God on account of the plague of hail,^e because the plague was so terrible.

Babylon, the Prostitute on the Beast

17 One of the seven angels^f who had the seven bowls^g came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment^h of the great prostitute,ⁱ who sits by many waters.^j ²With her the kings of the earth committed adultery, and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.”^k

³Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness.^l There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names^m and had seven heads and ten horns.ⁿ ⁴The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls.^o She held a golden cup^p in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries. ⁵The name written on her forehead was a mystery:

^a 21 Or about 45 kilograms

BABYLON THE GREAT^a
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

⁶I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God's holy people,^r the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus.

When I saw her, I was greatly astonished. ⁷Then the angel said to me: "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery^s of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.^t ⁸The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and yet will come up out of the Abyss and go to its destruction.^u The inhabitants of the earth^v whose names have not been written in the book of life^w from the creation of the world will be astonished^x when they see the beast, because it once was, now is not, and yet will come.

⁹"This calls for a mind with wisdom.^y The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits. ¹⁰They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for only a little while. ¹¹The beast who once was, and now is not,^z is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.

¹²"The ten horns^a you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour^b will receive authority as kings along with the beast. ¹³They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.^c ¹⁴They will wage war^d against the Lamb, but the Lamb will triumph over them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings^e—and with him will be his called, chosen^f and faithful followers."

¹⁵Then the angel said to me, "The waters^g you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.^h ¹⁶The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruinⁱ and leave her naked;^j they will eat her flesh^k and burn her with fire.^l ¹⁷For God has put it into their hearts

Lament Over Fallen Babylon

18 After this I saw another angel^o coming down from heaven.^p He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor.^q ²With a mighty voice he shouted:

"Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!"^{ar}

She has become a dwelling for demons and a haunt for every impure spirit,

a haunt for every unclean bird, a haunt for every unclean and detestable animal.^s

³For all the nations have drunk
the maddening wine of her adulteries.^t

The kings of the earth committed adultery with her,^u and the merchants of the earth grew rich^v from her excessive luxuries."^w

Warning to Escape Babylon's Judgment

⁴Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

"Come out of her, my people,"^{bx} so that you will not share in her sins,

so that you will not receive any of her plagues;
⁵for her sins are piled up to heaven,^y and God has remembered^z her crimes.

⁶Give back to her as she has given;
pay her back^a double for what she has done.

Pour her a double portion from her own cup.^b

The Thousand Years

The Judgment of the Dead

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne^e and him who was seated on it. The earth and the heavens fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. ¹²And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened.^f Another book was opened, which is the book of life.^g The dead were judged according to what they had done^h as recorded in the books. ¹³The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hadesⁱ gave up the dead^j that were in them, and each person was judged according to what they had done. ¹⁴Then death^k and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. ¹⁵Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life^l was thrown into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

The New Jerusalem, the Bride of the Lamb

John and the Angel

⁶The angel said to me,^f “These words are trustworthy and true.^g The Lord, the God who inspires the prophets,^h sent his angelⁱ to show his servants the things that must soon take place.”

⁷“Look, I am coming soon!^j Blessed^k is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy written in this scroll.”

⁸I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things.^l And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet^m of the angel who had been showing them to me.⁹ But he said to me, “Don’t do that! I am a fellow servant with you and with your fellow prophets and with all who keep the words of this scroll.ⁿ Worship God!”^o

¹⁰Then he told me, “Do not seal up^p the words of the prophecy of this scroll, because the time is near.^q ¹¹Let the one who does wrong continue to do wrong; let the vile person continue to be vile; let the one who does right continue to do right; and let the holy person continue to be holy.”^r

TABLE OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

	BIBLICAL UNIT	APPROXIMATE AMERICAN EQUIVALENT	APPROXIMATE METRIC EQUIVALENT
Weights	talent (60 minas)	75 pounds	34 kilograms
	mina (50 shekels)	1 ¹ / ₄ pounds	560 grams
	shekel (2 bekas)	² / ₅ ounce	11.5 grams
	pim (² / ₃ shekel)	¹ / ₄ ounce	7.8 grams
	beka (10 gerahs)	¹ / ₅ ounce	5.7 grams
	gerah	¹ / ₅₀ ounce	0.6 gram
	daric	¹ / ₃ ounce	8.4 grams
Length	cubit	18 inches	45 centimeters
	span	9 inches	23 centimeters
	handbreadth	3 inches	7.5 centimeters
	stadion (pl. stadia)	600 feet	183 meters
Capacity
Dry Measure
	cor [homer] (10 ephahs)	6 bushels	220 liters
	lethek (5 ephahs)	3 bushels	110 liters
	ephah (10 omers)	³ / ₅ bushel	22 liters
	seah (¹ / ₃ ephah)	7 quarts	7.5 liters
	omer (¹ / ₁₀ ephah)	2 quarts	2 liters
	cab (¹ / ₁₈ ephah)	1 quart	1 liter
Liquid Measure bath (1 ephah)	6 gallons	22 liters
	hin (¹ / ₆ bath)	1 gallon	3.8 liters

The figures of the table are calculated on the basis of a shekel equaling 11.5 grams, a cubit equaling 18 inches and an ephah equaling 22 liters. The quart referred to is either a dry quart (slightly larger than a liter) or a liquid quart (slightly smaller than a liter), whichever is applicable. The ton referred to in the footnotes is the American ton of 2,000 pounds. These weights are calculated relative to the particular commodity involved. Accordingly, the same measure of capacity in the text may be converted into different weights in the footnotes.

This table is based upon the best available information, but it is not intended to be mathematically precise; like the measurement equivalents in the footnotes, it merely gives approximate amounts and distances. Weights and measures differed somewhat at various times and places in the ancient world. There is uncertainty particularly about the ephah and the bath; further discoveries may shed more light on these units of capacity.

CONCORDANCE

The NIV Concordance, created by John R. Kohlenberger III, has been developed specifically for use with the New International Version (NIV). Like all concordances, it is a special index that contains an alphabetical listing of words used in the Bible text.

This concordance contains 2,474 word entries, with more than 10,000 Scripture references. Each word entry is followed by significant Scripture references in which that particular word is found, as well as by a brief excerpt from the surrounding context. In the context, the entry word is abbreviated by its first letter in bold print. Other forms of the entry word and related words indexed in this concordance are in parentheses.

This concordance also contains 155 biographical entries for significant people in the Bible. The descriptive phrases replace the brief context surrounding each occurrence of the name. In those instances where more than one Bible character has the same name, that name is placed under one block entry, and each person is given a number (1), (2), etc.

Two entries are marked with an asterisk (). LORD and LORD'S* list occurrences of the proper name of God, Yahweh, spelled "LORD" and "LORD'S" in the NIV. These entries are distinguished from LORD and LORD's, which list occurrences of the title "Lord" and "Lord's."

This concordance is a valuable tool for Bible study. While one of its key purposes is to help the reader find forgotten references to familiar verses, it can also be used to do word studies and to locate and trace biblical themes. Whenever you find a significant context, be sure to read at least the whole verse in the NIV to discover its fuller meaning in its larger context.

A NOTE REGARDING THE TYPE

This Bible was set in the Zondervan NIV Typeface, commissioned by Zondervan, a division of HarperCollins Christian Publishing, and designed in Aarhus, Denmark by Klaus Krogh and Magnus Gaarde of 2K/DENMARK. The design takes inspiration from the vision of the New International Version (NIV) to be a modern translation that gives the reader the most accurate Bible text possible, reflects the very best of biblical scholarship, and uses contemporary global English. The designers of the Zondervan NIV Typeface sought to reflect this rich, half-century-old tradition of accuracy, readability, and clarity while also embodying the best advancements in modern Bible typography. The result is a distinctive Bible typeface that is uncompromisingly beautiful, clear, readable at any size, and perfectly suited to the New International Version.
