

John loved God. He wanted people to stop doing bad things. He told them to follow God instead. John lived in the desert and ate bugs and honey. But mostly, John told people about God.

John baptized people from all over.
They got baptized to show others they wanted to live God's way. John told people someone special was coming—Jesus!

Jesus asked John to baptize him in the river.

Takeaway:

You can help others choose good over bad, so they can be ready for Jesus too.

He will teach people who don't obey to be wise and do what is right. In this way, he will prepare a people who are ready for the Lord.

—Luke 1:17
