EVERYONE.

An illustration of two rabbits sitting at a table, painting Easter eggs. The larger rabbit on the left is wearing a red and white plaid apron and is dipping a wooden spoon into a bowl of blue paint. The smaller rabbit on the right is wearing a purple shirt with white stars and is dipping a wooden spoon into a bowl of red paint. On the table, there are two bowls of paint (one blue, one red), a bottle of red paint, a bottle of blue paint, a purple paint palette, and an orange crayon. In the background, there is a yellow wall with small yellow dots, a wooden shelf with a blue cloth and a jar, and a wicker basket with blue fabric. The text is located in the bottom left corner of the illustration.
