

"How can God hear our thoughts?"
Little Pup asked.

"Well, God made us. He made our bodies and our minds. He knows every part of us! So we can speak to him silently or whisper—"

"Or shout?" Little Pup yelled.

"Or shout," she said with a giggle.
"Or sing. No matter how we pray, God hears us."

