How to Use This Journal and Other Tools

First, please visit thebiblerecap.com/start. It will tell you all you need to know to join our reading plan and podcast. Then, we recommend doing the following steps each day, in this order:

1. Do your daily Bible reading according to The Bible Recap reading plan you've chosen: whole Bible (Old Testament and New Testament) or New Testament only.
2. Use this journal during your reading. For each day, you'll find three writing prompts, including space to record your "God Shot"—where you see God's attributes on display in that day's reading. It's called a God Shot because it's a snapshot of God's character. He's on every page of Scripture, so keep your eyes peeled for things that reveal Him to you—what He says and does, what He loves and hates, and what motivates Him to do what He does.
3. Use The Bible Recap Study Guide after (or during) each day's reading. There's room underneath the questions where you can write your answers in the guide itself, which is sold separately.
4. Listen to the corresponding podcast episode or read the entry in The Bible Recap book for more information, insights, and answers.

5. And lastly, use the Weekly Discussion Guide, available at thebiblerecap.com, in group conversations about that week's reading plan. Since these questions are intended for group discussion, we did not aim to create space for answering in the weekly guide itself.

This journal is intended to be self-guided, while the daily and weekly guides offer a higher level of challenge and connection. You don't have to have both guides (The Bible Recap Study Guide and the Weekly Discussion Guide), but we created them with the intention of complementing each other.

Before you read God's Word each day, seek His help with these five prayers:

1. Give me wisdom, knowledge, and understanding.
2. Let any knowledge I gain serve to help me love You and others more, and not puff me up.
3. Help me see something new about You I've never seen before.
4. Correct any lies I believe about You or anything I misunderstand.
5. Direct my steps according to Your Word.
