

God's first friends

In the beginning, the world was dark and empty.
But God said, 'Let there be light!'
Next God made beautiful flowers and trees,
and all sorts of amazing animals.
Then God made people, to be his friends and to look after his wonderful world!

