

The Kids laughed and played while exploring the land.
They spotted a trail of fresh tracks in the sand.

Jackrabbit peeked out with her wiggling nose,
while Dove fluttered down in her very best pose.

Each Kid took a snapshot of Sammy—or two!
Then they scurried to find other fun things to do.

"If I tiptoed like Tortoise,
I'd creep all around.

Or with Bat's mighty claws,
I could sleep upside down.

If I climbed rocky cliffs,
I would leap like Bobcat!

Oh, to burrow 'neath worms,
just like Kangaroo Rat!"
