

And she gave birth to her firstborn son; and she wrapped Him in cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

—Luke 2:7 NASB

Just before Mary was about to have her baby, Joseph had to travel to his hometown, Bethlehem. But there were no rooms left for them.

In a stable where the animals were kept, Mary's baby, God's Son, was born.

In the stillness of the night He came—God's Gift of Christmas—the One who would save the world.

Jesus Calling

The message of Christmas is My birth. I gave up all the riches of heaven to be born in a stable. Everyone who believes in Me becomes a child of God.

This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.

—Luke 2:12

In nearby fields, shepherds were watching over their flocks. Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord was shining around them.

“Do not be afraid,” the angel said. “I bring good news that will be great joy for all people. Today, in Bethlehem—the city of David—the Savior has been born. He is the Messiah, Christ the Lord.”

Jesus Calling

The angel’s words to the shepherds were full of good news and great Joy! I came into the world to be your Savior—so you can live with Me forever.
