

PRESENTED TO:

FROM:

DATE:

BILLY GRAHAM

PEACE
for Each Day

THOMAS NELSON
Since 1798

Peace for Each Day

© 2020 by Billy Graham Literary Trust

Portions of this book were excerpted from the following: Nearing Home, The Reason for My Hope, Where I Am, and Peace with God.

All rights reserved. No portion of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, scanning, or other—except for brief quotations in critical reviews or articles, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Published in Nashville, Tennessee, by Thomas Nelson. Thomas Nelson is a registered trademark of HarperCollins Christian Publishing, Inc.

Thomas Nelson titles may be purchased in bulk for educational, business, fund-raising, or sales promotional use. For information, please email SpecialMarkets@ThomasNelson.com.

Unless otherwise noted, Scripture quotations are taken from the New King James Version®. © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked ESV are taken from the ESV® Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version), copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked KJV are taken from the King James Version. Public domain.

Scripture quotations marked NASB are taken from the New American Standard Bible®, Copyright © 1960, 1962, 1963, 1968, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1995 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. (www.Lockman.org)

Scripture quotations marked NIV are taken from The Holy Bible, New International Version®, NIV®. Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.* Used by permission of Zondervan. All rights reserved worldwide. www.Zondervan.com. The “NIV” and “New International Version” are trademarks registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by Biblica, Inc.*

Scripture quotations marked NLT are taken from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation. © 1996, 2004, 2007, 2013, 2015 by Tyndale House Foundation. Used by permission of Tyndale House Ministries, Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

Any Internet addresses, phone numbers, or company or product information printed in this book are offered as a resource and are not intended in any way to be or to imply an endorsement by Thomas Nelson, nor does Thomas Nelson vouch for the existence, content, or services of these sites, phone numbers, companies, or products beyond the life of this book.

ISBN: 978-1-4002-2411-1

ISBN: 978-1-4002-2452-4 (audio)

ISBN: 978-1-4002-2447-0 (eBook)

Printed in India

20 21 22 23 24 RPI 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

JANUARY

JANUARY I

A NEW RESOLUTION

“Consider your ways . . . and build the temple.”

HAGGAI 1:7–8

People by nature build, tear down, and rebuild. We build our hopes, get disappointed, and then search for renewed hope. That is why we are fond of New Year’s resolutions. They are very popular in our culture today, though most are seldom kept. We get busy; we forget; we fail. Making resolutions, though, at least forces us into a moment of honesty about our need to change.

The Bible tells us to examine ourselves before the Lord. When we do this with sincerity, the Lord reveals where we fall short. This turns us back to God and helps us realize that we are incapable of living lives pleasing to Him apart from His help day by day, hour by hour.

Have you taken inventory lately? Have you considered where you stand with God? As you begin this new year, return to the Lord and consider Him—the One who gives you everything. Consider your ways and build on His foundation. “And in this place,” the Lord says, “I will bring peace” (Haggai 2:9 NLT).

What is one area you are seeking God’s help this year?

JANUARY 2

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

*Having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets,
Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone.*

EPHESIANS 2:20

It's easy to focus only on physical well-being or emotional happiness as we prepare for the future. It is not necessarily wrong to be concerned about some of these things. But is this all it takes to prepare?

The answer is no; even the securest financial plan and the finest health care aren't enough to hold us steady when the challenges come. Will a full bank account satisfy you when disability takes away your freedom or death robs you of someone you love? Will robust health shield you against the storms of loneliness or grief? We need a solid foundation beneath our lives—a foundation that will give us strength and stability no matter what happens. And the time to build it is now.

God does not want us to drift aimlessly through life, desperately seeking happiness and security and peace—but never finding them. Nor does He want us to build our lives on an unstable or impermanent foundation. God has already provided the foundation we need!

What is one step you can take today to build your foundation on God?

JANUARY 3

THE GIFT OF PRAYER

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God . . . will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS 4:6–7

Prayer is one of our greatest privileges as God’s children. Think of it: the God of the universe wants us to bring every concern to Him! I have never met anyone who spent time in daily prayer, studied God’s Word regularly, and was strong in faith who was ever discouraged for very long.

Does God always answer our prayers the way we wish? No, not necessarily—nor has He promised to do so. He sees the whole picture, but we don’t. Sometimes He says “No” or “Not now.” But God has promised to hear us when we pray and to answer our prayers in His time and in His way (1 John 5:14).

Prayer isn’t just asking for things we want. Prayer is really a place where you meet God in genuine conversation. True prayer includes thanking and praising Him for who He is and all He does.

No matter how dark and hopeless a situation may seem, never stop praying. We cannot afford to be too busy to pray.

How can you readjust your schedule to spend time praying today?

JANUARY 4

THE GIFT OF SERVICE

As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

1 PETER 4:10

Just as our bodies need exercise to be strong physically, our faith needs exercise if we are to be strong spiritually.

It has often been noted that several rivers flow into the Dead Sea, but no river flows from it. That's why its water has become so saturated with minerals over the centuries that nothing is able to live in it. Without any outlet it indeed has become a "dead" sea. The same is true with us. If we keep faith to ourselves, if we never allow it to flow through us to enrich others, and if it has no outlet, then we will find ourselves like the Dead Sea—lifeless and spiritually dead.

God wants to use you right where you are. Every day you probably come into contact with people who will never enter a church or talk with a pastor or open a Bible. You may be the bridge God uses to bring them to His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Anyone can be a servant, no matter how inadequate he or she may feel.

How can God's love flow through you in someone's life?

JANUARY 5

NOURISHED BY THE WORD

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous.

JOSHUA 1:8

Strengthening our spiritual roots begins with God’s Word. A wonderful friend of ours, Robert Morgan, wrote a little book about Bible memorization and stated, “Our minds are vaults especially designed to stockpile the seeds of God’s Word.” In his book, he tells the story of an eighty-nine-year-old woman in his church who said, “Oh, Pastor Morgan, I’m so glad you are having us memorize [Bible] verses. I’ve already gotten started on them. It’s going to help me keep my mind fresh and young!”¹ It made me smile to realize that she would keep her mind fresh and young . . . she had not allowed it to get old. There is no better deposit to make in the human mind and heart than to fill them with the treasures found in the Word of God.

Are the truths of God nourishing your root system? We must never cease being filled with the abundant gifts from God that bring hope and satisfaction.

Which Bible verse will you memorize today?

JANUARY 6

WISDOM FOR GENERATIONS

Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

1 TIMOTHY 4:12

The apostle Paul wrote these words as an aged man, counseling his spiritual son, Timothy, to grab hold of scriptural doctrines and teach them to the young and old. Here is a wonderful picture of God's truth impacting one generation to another. This is God's wisdom; this is His master plan.

My prayer is that you will sense God encouraging you to impact those around you, regardless of age. Look for the Lord's purpose in every face or voice you encounter daily, for the time He has given you is not without purpose. Prepare for each day by asking the Lord to open your eyes to what is going on around you. You may feel lonely, but perhaps the Lord will use your smile to draw someone else close to you. You may experience pain, but the Lord may use your resolve to strengthen another who doesn't have the will to go on. We can reject the opportunity to be used of God, or we can seize opportunities to impact others as a testimony to Him.

How does the Lord give you direction?

JANUARY 7

FAITH BEYOND UNDERSTANDING

Nicodemus said to Him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born?”

JOHN 3:4

Even though the new birth seems mysterious, that does not make it untrue. Most people don’t understand how electricity operates, but we know that it lights our homes and runs our televisions and radios. Most do not understand how the sheep grows wool, the cow grows hair, or the fowl grows feathers—but we know they do. We don’t have to fully understand, but we accept by faith the fact that at the moment we repent of sin and turn by faith to Jesus Christ we are born again.

It is the implantation or impartation of divine nature into the human soul whereby we become the children of God. We receive the breath of God. Christ through the Holy Spirit takes up residence in our hearts. We are attached to God for eternity. That means that if you have been born again you will live as long as God lives, because you are now sharing His very life. The long-lost fellowship man had with God in the garden of Eden has been restored.

Are you born again?

JANUARY 8

A CHANGE OF DIRECTION

*I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will guide you with My eye.*

PSALM 32:8

The word conversion means “to turn around,” “to change one’s mind,” “to turn back,” or “to return.” In the realm of religion, it has been variously explained as “to repent,” “to be regenerated,” “to receive grace,” “to experience religion,” or “to gain assurance.”

I remember one confirmed alcoholic who came to one of the opening meetings of a crusade and said to me, “Mr. Graham, I’m not sure there’s a word of truth in what you’re saying, but I’m going to give your Christ a trial, and if He works even a little bit the way you say He will, I’ll come back and sign up for life!”

Weeks later he told me that he didn’t quite understand it, but every time he started to take a drink it seemed as though something or someone stopped him. Christ had given him victory over his vicious habit. He returned to his family and is now living his life for Christ. In other words, he turned around; he changed his way of thinking—he had been converted!

What habit do you need a victory over today?

JANUARY 9

REPENTANCE AND FAITH

*From that time Jesus began to preach and to say,
“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”*

MATTHEW 4:17

When you fall in love completely with Jesus Christ, you will not want to do the things He hates and abhors. You will automatically renounce all the sins of your life when you surrender by faith to Him. Therefore, repentance and faith go hand in hand. You cannot have genuine repentance without saving faith, and you cannot have saving faith without genuine repentance.

Repentance is a very unpopular word. But the first sermon Jesus ever preached was “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matthew 4:17). This was God speaking through His Son. Jesus had come with a heart filled with love and compassion, but He immediately called upon men to acknowledge their guilt and turn from their ungodliness. He said repentance must come before He could pour out His love, grace, and mercy upon men. Jesus refused to gloss over iniquity. He insisted upon self-judgment, upon a complete about-face. He insisted upon a new attitude before He would reveal the love of God. This does not limit the grace of God, but repentance makes way for the grace of God.

Have you fallen in love with Jesus?

A CHRISTIAN VIEW OF THOSE WHO SUFFER

I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the poor.

PSALM 140:12

A Christian will be concerned about suffering humanity around him. The poverty and suffering of thousands of people in your own neighborhood will become a concern to you. You will join with organizations and associations to help alleviate the suffering of humanity around you. Many people spend so much time in lofty enterprises that they make no contribution to suffering immediately at hand. Who is our neighbor? Whoever is closest to us. It could be a wife, a husband, a child, or those living next door. Our neighbor is that one closest to us—in our city or country, then the world.

The Bible says the common people heard Jesus gladly. Wherever He went, He healed the sick. He comforted the sorrowful; He gave practical encouragement. Years ago, an Anglican bishop told me that he could think of no social organization in England that did not have its roots in some evangelical awakening. The Christian will be interested and dedicated to causes that help those who suffer in our world.

Who is your neighbor?

EVIDENCE IN SCRIPTURE

And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers.

ACTS 26:6

If I did not believe that Christ overcame death on the cross and bodily rose from the grave, I would have quit preaching that the resurrection empowers faith in Jesus Christ. I am absolutely convinced that Jesus is living at this moment at the right hand of God the Father. I believe it by faith, and I believe it by evidence found in the Scriptures.

Luke, a physician and disciple of Jesus, was one of the most brilliant men of his day; he made this startling statement about the resurrection in the book of Acts: “He . . . presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days” (1:3).

These “infallible proofs” have been debated for two thousand years. Many people have come to know the truth while they tried to prove Jesus’ resurrection a lie. Others ignore the facts recorded in the best-selling book of all time, the Bible. The bloodstained cross is gruesome, but the empty cross is full of hope.

Do you believe in Jesus by evidence or faith or both?

GROWING STRONG

His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us.

2 PETER 1:3

How can we develop a faith strong enough to see us throughout our lives? The key is this: God wants us to be spiritually strong and has provided us with every resource we need. We need God’s strength to face life’s challenges—and He wants to give it to us.

Tragically, many Christians never discover this. They have committed their lives to Christ . . . they may be active in their churches . . . they pray and read their Bibles on occasion—but they remain spiritually immature and weak in the face of life’s temptations and setbacks.

We may be old in years, but if our faith is immature, we will be fearful and unprepared. But it doesn’t need to be this way. Just as a baby needs food and exercise in order to grow, so we need the spiritual food and exercise God has provided for us. Without them our faith is weak, but with them spiritual strength increases, and we are better prepared for whatever life has in store for us.

What are you doing now that will make you spiritually mature when you’re older?

JANUARY 13

THE GIFT OF GOD'S WORD

*"I am the LORD your God, . . .
Who leads you by the way you should go."*

ISAIAH 48:17

How does the Bible help us develop spiritually? First, it points us to the truth—about God, about ourselves, about the world, and most of all about Jesus and His love for us. The Christian faith isn't just a matter of personal opinion or unfounded optimism. It is rooted in the unchanging truth of God, revealed to us in the pages of His written Word. The Bible is the constant rain that waters our root system of faith.

How can we be sure we make right decisions in life? By applying biblical principles. The world has its own values and goals, but they will never give us the lasting security and peace we seek.

Don't be intimidated by the Bible or think it is impossible to understand. Even if you read only a few verses a day, God can still use it to reshape your life. Take advantage of opportunities to learn the Bible from others—your pastor, respected teachers on Christian radio, and Christian books; but never let these things replace your personal reading of Scripture. It is a priceless gift to you.

How are you incorporating Bible reading into your daily life?

THE GIFT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

ROMANS 8:16

When we come to Jesus, God Himself comes to live within us. We may not feel any different; we may be unaware of His presence; we may even doubt if anything has really happened to us. But it has. God now lives within us! He does this through His Holy Spirit. Although we can't see Him, He is that part of God who is working and active in our world.

Why does the Holy Spirit come to live within us? One reason is to assure us of our salvation. He came to help us discover God's will—to illuminate our minds and make us yearn for God. He takes spiritual truth and makes it understandable to us. The Holy Spirit also encourages and strengthens us in times of trouble. And He has come to change us from within, to make us more like Christ.

Don't try to live the Christian life in your own strength. Instead, turn to God in submission and faith, and trust His Holy Spirit to help you.

How does the Holy Spirit strengthen you?

JANUARY 15

THE GIFT OF FELLOWSHIP

We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

PSALM 55:14 KJV

We are not meant to be isolated from and independent of each other, either as human beings or as Christians. We need other people in our lives, and they need us. This is especially true as we seek to grow in faith. The Bible says, “Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another” (Hebrews 10:25). A solitary Christian is inevitably a weak Christian because he or she is failing to draw strength from what God is doing in the lives of fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

If you aren’t presently part of a church fellowship, ask God to guide you to a church where you can grow in your faith through biblical preaching and teaching and worship. The church is a storehouse of spiritual food. This is where our souls are fed, nourished, and developed into maturity. It is there we can “encourage one another and build each other up” (1 Thessalonians 5:11 NIV).

Who are the people who encourage you in your faith?

JANUARY 16

THEN AND NOW

“I am going away. . . . If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said, ‘I am going to the Father.’”

JOHN 14:28

This old house is empty now, with mostly only me, the trees are crowding up the hill as if for company.”²

These words reflected my late wife’s thoughts after all the children were gone, what is now called empty-nest syndrome. Ruth simply called it then and now. I watched how she transitioned to this stage of life with grace.

God designs transitions and provides the grace to embrace what follows. When Jesus prepared to leave His earthly dwelling, He told His beloved disciples where He was going. And He gave them work to do: “Feed My sheep” (John 21:17). How wonderful that the Lord did not leave the world void of His presence but sent His Holy Spirit to be our constant companion.

While I will never grow accustomed to life without Ruth, she would be the first to scold me if I didn’t look for God’s plan for the here and now. I also know that God will guide us into whatever He has for us if we are watching and waiting attentively.

How has God’s grace helped you navigate a difficult transition?

JANUARY 17

WORK WELL

Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 CORINTHIANS 10:31

Work is a part of God's plan for our lives. Work is not something we do just to put food on the table; it is one of the major ways God has given us to bring glory to Him. In God's eyes work has dignity and importance, which means we should do our work with pride and diligence and integrity.

But our work was never meant to become the center of our lives. That place belongs only to God, and when we allow our work to dominate and control us, then it has become an idol to us. Someone who brags about working seventy hours a week probably thinks he is the master of his job—but in reality he has become its slave. In addition, because his life is so wrapped up in work, his sense of self-worth often comes to depend on his ability to work. Society only reinforces this view. But God says you are greater than your work, and your work is only a part of His plan for you.

Have you allowed work to become the center of your life?

RECOGNIZE HIS VOICE

“My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.”

JOHN 10:27

I have never heard the voice of the Lord audibly, but the Lord has spoken to me many times throughout my life. You might ask, “How can someone recognize His voice?” To recognize the voice of the Lord, we must belong to Him.

Ruth never had to identify herself when she called me on my many trips around the world. When I picked up the phone and heard her speak, I knew the voice of my wife. That was years before mobile phones and caller ID. I never had to ask my children to identify themselves by name when they phoned. We recognize the voices of those who are dear to us and those with whom we commune.

Likewise, if we are communicating with the Lord Jesus through prayer and meditating on His Word, our spirits will identify with His voice. The Lord would not expect us to hear His voice if He did not make it possible. “I will give them hearts that recognize me as the LORD” (Jeremiah 24:7 NLT); and “Obey My voice, and I will be your God” (Jeremiah 7:23).

How does obedience help you hear the Lord’s voice more clearly?

JANUARY 19

FOUNTAIN OF LIFE

The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life.

PROVERBS 14:27

Juan Ponce de León, the Spanish explorer who traveled at one time with Christopher Columbus, went in search of a magic water source that people called the Fountain of Youth. Instead, he found Florida—what became America’s retirement haven.

The world’s idea of a fountain of youth is a mirage. Only the Bible provides an oasis for the soul. If the “fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,” we must first understand what “fear of the LORD” means. It is contrary to being afraid of Him. This is a reminder to be in reverential awe of God, to love Him with our whole being and commit ourselves joyfully to Him in all things.

Jesus sums it all up in the closing book of the Bible: “I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts” (Revelation 21:6–7).

The fountain of life is real, friends. We can draw strength from its resources and stand strong in our resolve to be overcomers, looking forward to the inheritance and being in the presence of the Savior of our souls.

Are you thirsty today for God’s love?

JANUARY 20

RESTORING PEACE IN RELATIONSHIPS

If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men.

ROMANS 12:18

How do we restore a legacy that has been marred by something that may have happened many years ago, but continues to haunt us because it was never resolved? Often these have to do with broken relationships that have never been healed. Perhaps this has been true in your own life. If so, face it honestly, and do whatever you can to change it. As we grow older and look back over our lives, how will we view these unresolved conflicts?

“My mother and I always had a difficult relationship,” one woman wrote me, “and for the last ten years we didn’t even speak. Now she’s gone, and I’d give anything to have just one minute with her to tell her I’m sorry.” Whether it’s with parents, children, friends, or family, a broken relationship often brings regret—regret over what happened, regret over the years that have been lost, regret because the time for healing has passed. Don’t live with regret. As far as it depends on you, restore peace in your relationships.

Is there someone you need to reconcile with?

JANUARY 21

OLD AND NEW

I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning.

1 JOHN 2:7

While we all benefit in some ways from modern technology, I wonder what state our world would be in if we suddenly lost electrical power. Would the younger generations know how to grow crops, or drop anchor and wait for the catch? Would they know how to survive by the sweat of the brow? New is good. Old is necessary.

The Bible has a lot to say about the old and the new. In today's text John is reminding his readers that the proof of knowing God is following the commandments that He gave long ago, that He gave "from the beginning." The love of God is then perfected in the one who obeys (1 John 2:5). Anything "from the beginning" is old, including God's love, present before the beginning of time. When man did not fathom the inexpressible love of God the Creator, He sent love down to earth in the form of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Our redemption is rooted in Jesus' sacrifice of Himself, keeping us firmly planted.

How does it affect your sense of peace knowing that the Lord is beyond time?

JANUARY 22

BLESSED ASSURANCE

This is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

1 JOHN 5:11–12

Are you trusting Jesus alone for your salvation? If you aren't, or if you are unsure, I urge you to turn to Jesus Christ in repentance and faith today and by a simple prayer ask Him to come into your life as your Lord and Savior.

Don't let another day go by without Christ. Don't doubt God's promises about the certainty of Heaven, and don't doubt what Jesus Christ has already done to save you by His death and resurrection. When doubts assail you (and the devil will be sure they will), remember this: If you have put your faith and trust in Christ, you now belong to Him. You have been adopted into His family, and you are now His beloved son or daughter. Because of this, the Bible says, nothing "in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:39 NIV). You are now part of His family—forever!

What is one wonderful thing about being God's child?

JANUARY 23

LEADING THE WAY

In all things showing yourself to be a pattern of good works; in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, incorruptibility.

TITUS 2:7

A police officer pulled over a distinguished-looking woman, the story goes, and asked why she had exceeded the speed limit. The old gentleman sitting in the passenger seat laughed and said, “Well, young man, we were speeding to get to the place before we forget where we’re going!” Getting where we are going is important. Equally important are those who are following us because they are on the same journey; they just don’t realize it yet. Older generations may have a hard time keeping up with the younger, but let’s remember that as long as we are still breathing, we are leading the way. Are we good examples?

While we have all made mistakes and would like to turn back the clock to correct some things, we know this is not possible. But the lessons we have learned from our failures and successes can help those following behind. The impact we can potentially have on them can mean the difference between leaving good memories or letting our lessons go to waste.

What failure have you experienced that you can share to help someone else?

JANUARY 24

REDISCOVER THE WORD

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

HEBREWS 13:8

If you and the Bible have had a long absence from each other, it might be good for you to renew your acquaintance by reading again the gospel of John. While this is considered one of the most profound books in the Bible, it is also the clearest and most readily understood.

Next you might acquaint yourself with the Gospel as taught by Mark, Luke, and Matthew, noting how these men of widely different personalities and writing styles set forth the eternal story of redemption through Jesus. You will become aware of the powerful, universal truth that underlies all Gospel teaching.

When you have read each of the Gospels individually, start at the beginning of the New Testament and read straight through all the books in order. When you have done that, you will have developed such a taste for Bible reading, you will have found it such a fountain of inspiration, such a practical counselor and guide, such a treasure chest of sound advice, that you will make Bible reading a part of your daily life.

How has God met you as you have read your Bible recently?
