

God knows everything about you.

He knew you'd have happy days,
and He knew you'd be sad.
So He gave us each other,
and I'm so very glad.

God put us together.
He made us a home.
I hope you'll always know that . . .
just in case you feel alone.