

God knows everything about you.

He knew you'd have happy days,
and He knew you'd be sad.
So He gave us each other,
and I'm so very glad.

God put us together.
He made us a home.
I hope you'll always know that . . .
just in case you feel alone.

When you're looking for a friend
or you feel a little blue,
if you wish you had a pal
but you're worried it's just you . . .

On those days you're all alone
or you're feeling kind of low,
count on me to be right here.
You need to know that I won't go.

I love everything about you.

I love the way you giggle.

I love the way you run.

I love to hear your stories.

I love to hear you hum.

I love you more than a sundae on Sunday
or a yummy piece of cherry pie.

I love you more than puppy dog licks, kitty cat kisses,
or a kite in the sky.
