In the morning, LORD,
you hear my voice;
in the morning I lay
my requests before you
and wait expectantly.

PSALM 5:3, NIV

INTRODUCTION

The book you're holding in your hands is a year of love letters from Jesus to you. I pray as you absorb each of the daily meditations you'll see how much the Lord loves to talk to you. He's in love with you and wants you to know He has your life covered. He began speaking to me prophetically over 25 years ago, and I continue to hear Him passionately drawing us into the everlasting arms of understanding and love.

Every day when you open your heart to His, there'll be a special personal word from Him waiting for you. The scripture verses following each meditation are to help you delve further into the message for that day.

I pray you'll allow His words in this little book to permeate your life each day all year long, and for years to come.

Lovingly and humbly,
Marie Chapian

JANUARY

In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.

JOHN 1:1, NIV

January 1

I'm your mountain of strength for your new year.

I'm your mighty mountain, lofty and majestic;
I'm your mountain of awesome power and might.

I bend down at the sound of your cry.

I stoop to lift you out of danger. I pull you out of the miry pit of wrong choices. I wipe away
the splotches and smudges of every past mistake.

I make all things new.

Don't fall prey to the foolishness of envy and pride.

Blessing after blessing will come to you when you trust Me. I'm all you need.

PSALM 40:1-4; PROVERBS 13:10

January 2

Don't fret transition and reverse plans,
for these are gifts to stretch your faith.

I'm your provider.

I'm the God of all there is,
and I tell you not to underestimate

My power and authority
in every situation concerning you.

Never fear the unexpected
and the unpredictable;
never stagger at the thought of change.

I provide everything you need and much more.

PSALM 23:1; DEUTERONOMY 8:7-14;

PHILIPPIANS 4:19
