

PUZZLE 1

Adam (Last Adam)

“The first man Adam became a living being”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:45 ESV

Jesus Christ is known as the “last Adam” because he is the fulfillment of everlasting life. He is fully human, just as the first Adam. But that is not all! He is also fully God, and he offers each of those who come to him with surrendered hearts his life-giving Spirit.

Jesus restores all that was lost in the fall of Adam and Eve from the Garden. He is the way, the truth, and the life. In his resurrection life, we find our hope. He is the beginning of the new creation, and in him, we are made complete and new. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.” There is nothing else needed for our wholeness in all of creation, past or present, than the power of Christ’s life-giving Spirit!

Last Adam, thank you for the hope I find in you. You make all things new, including me! Renew my spirit as I turn in total surrender to you today.

PUZZLE 2

Advocate

My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have an advocate with the Father—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

1 JOHN 2:1 NIV

Scripture says that Jesus is our intercessor, praying on our behalf before the Father in heaven (Romans 8:34). He pleads our case, which is one role of being an advocate. An advocate is someone who comes alongside someone in need to help, defend, intercede, or counsel them.

Jesus Christ stands before the Father on our behalf. When we mess up, he is there to forgive us and advocate for us. He sees us as we are, not who others say we are. God has mercy on his children, and we are not abandoned in our time of need. Let us turn to Jesus in good times and in desperate times—he will never fail in mercy, grace, or compassion. He offers his righteousness to cover us as we humble ourselves before him, and we then walk in the power of his love that lifts us out of our shame.

Advocate, thank you for standing with me in my weakness and for strengthening me with the Spirit's comfort. I rely on you as my heavenly advocate!

PUZZLE 3

Almighty

“I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.”

REVELATION 1:8 NLT

Jesus, the Almighty One, is the Son of God. He is clothed in glory. Though he was born to Mary, it was not the beginning of his existence. He was with the Father and the Spirit at the beginning of creation. He is now seated at the right hand of God.

Almighty God is no small title—it means all-powerful, sovereign over all, and ruler of everything. He has no beginning, and he knows no end. He is the Great I Am. In his ministry, Jesus walked in the power of God. He calmed squalls with a phrase, “Peace, be still.” He healed incurable diseases. He gave sight to the blind, and he even raised the dead back to life. The miracles of his ministry display the power of Almighty God at work within and through him. He is not finished moving. He continues to work in powerful ways to bring wholeness, redemption, and hope.

Almighty Jesus, your name is above every other name—the name by which all will one day bow and proclaim you as Lord. I proclaim the power of your name over my life today.
