

PUZZLE 1

Personal Invitation

“Come, follow me.”

JOHN 1:43 NLT

Just as Jesus invited his disciples, so he says to you, “Come, follow me.” Have you taken him up on his offer? Have you left your comfort zone and old way of doing things? Have you let yourself be drawn to his wonders and kindness?

Following Jesus transforms your life. When you take in his wisdom and let his perspective challenge your preconceived notions, your old way of thinking will feel inadequate. There is much to discover in the journey of knowing him. Will you receive his kindness and move toward him? Though the details of your future are unknown, the character of Christ will never change as you travel with him as your friend, healer, teacher, and Savior. There is both mystery and hope; there is peace and expectation. Your heart’s curiosity can lead you closer to the one who calls you.

Lord Jesus, I choose to follow you not knowing what that will look like in every circumstance or season. I trust your character. I want to know you more.

PUZZLE 2

Every Little Thing

“Even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.”

MATTHEW 10:30 NIV

God knows not only our names and ages but every detail about us. He cares deeply about the smallest aspects of life. Jesus illustrated this by saying he knows the number of hairs on our heads. It's such a specific, nearly impossible thing to know, yet he takes notice of things that seem absurd to us. There are no limits to his understanding.

Why worry with a detailed and loving God overlooking our lives? Let's put our wholehearted trust in him and turn over our anxieties to his patient presence. He is enough to sustain us, and he will provide what we need. Every little thing is covered by him.

Lord Jesus, thank you for the revelation of the Father's detailed attention and care for his children. I trust you with what I can't control or anticipate. Nothing surprises you; I can rest in you today.

PUZZLE 3

Trustworthy

“Whoever can be trusted with a little can also be trusted with a lot, and whoever is dishonest with a little is dishonest with a lot.”

LUKE 16:10 NCV

Jesus is talking about money here, but the principle applies to all areas of life. When we have resources that could benefit others instead of us, it takes integrity, self-discipline, and honor to do the right thing. Honesty paired with reliability is powerful. Whoever can be trusted with a little will earn trust with more.

Think of Joseph from the Old Testament. He was sold into slavery by his brothers, and everything was taken from him. However, that was only the beginning of his story. He was as trustworthy as they come. Proving himself a hard, reliable, and honest worker, he rose through the ranks to become trusted advisor to the king. He started with nothing, but he ended up being one of the most powerful men in Egypt.

Jesus, I want to live with integrity before your eyes and before others. It doesn't matter how little or how much I have; I want to honor you and those who trust me. Teach me, Lord, to always choose the trustworthy and righteous way.
