“Let the little children
come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”

MATTHEW 19:14 ESV

Where My Story Begins

When were you born and where? What details do you know about your birth?

How did your parents choose your name? Does it have a special meaning?

What nickname were you given as a child? Who gave it to you?

What was your hometown like?

What is one of your very first memories?

CHILDHOOD

What things frightened you?

If you had siblings, what were their names and what was the age difference?

Did you share a room, or did you have your own? What did it look like?

What was your relationship with your siblings like?

What family traditions do you remember the most?
