

The background is a dynamic, swirling night sky in shades of blue, green, and yellow, reminiscent of Van Gogh's 'The Starry Night'. Numerous white stars of varying sizes are scattered across the sky. In the foreground, two children, a boy with curly brown hair and a girl with long dark hair, are looking up at the sky with expressions of wonder. They are surrounded by lush green foliage and small flowers in shades of pink, purple, and blue.
