

SOMETHING

ONE SMALL THING CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

When I know a friend is hurting,
then my heart starts aching too,

like it's asking me a question . . .

is there SOMETHING I can do?

What you're feeling
is compassion.
It's GOD'S WHISPER
to your heart:
"Will you try to help this person?
Can you find a way to start?"

If there's something that you notice,
there is something you can do.

Keep your KINDNESS RADAR working—maybe something starts with YOU!

Do I have to be a grown-up?
I can't even drive a car!

No! Young or old,
we all can help,
whatever age we are!
