

It's Easter Day!

The Veggies know the time is finally here to search the church lawn for the eggs they know are hidden near!

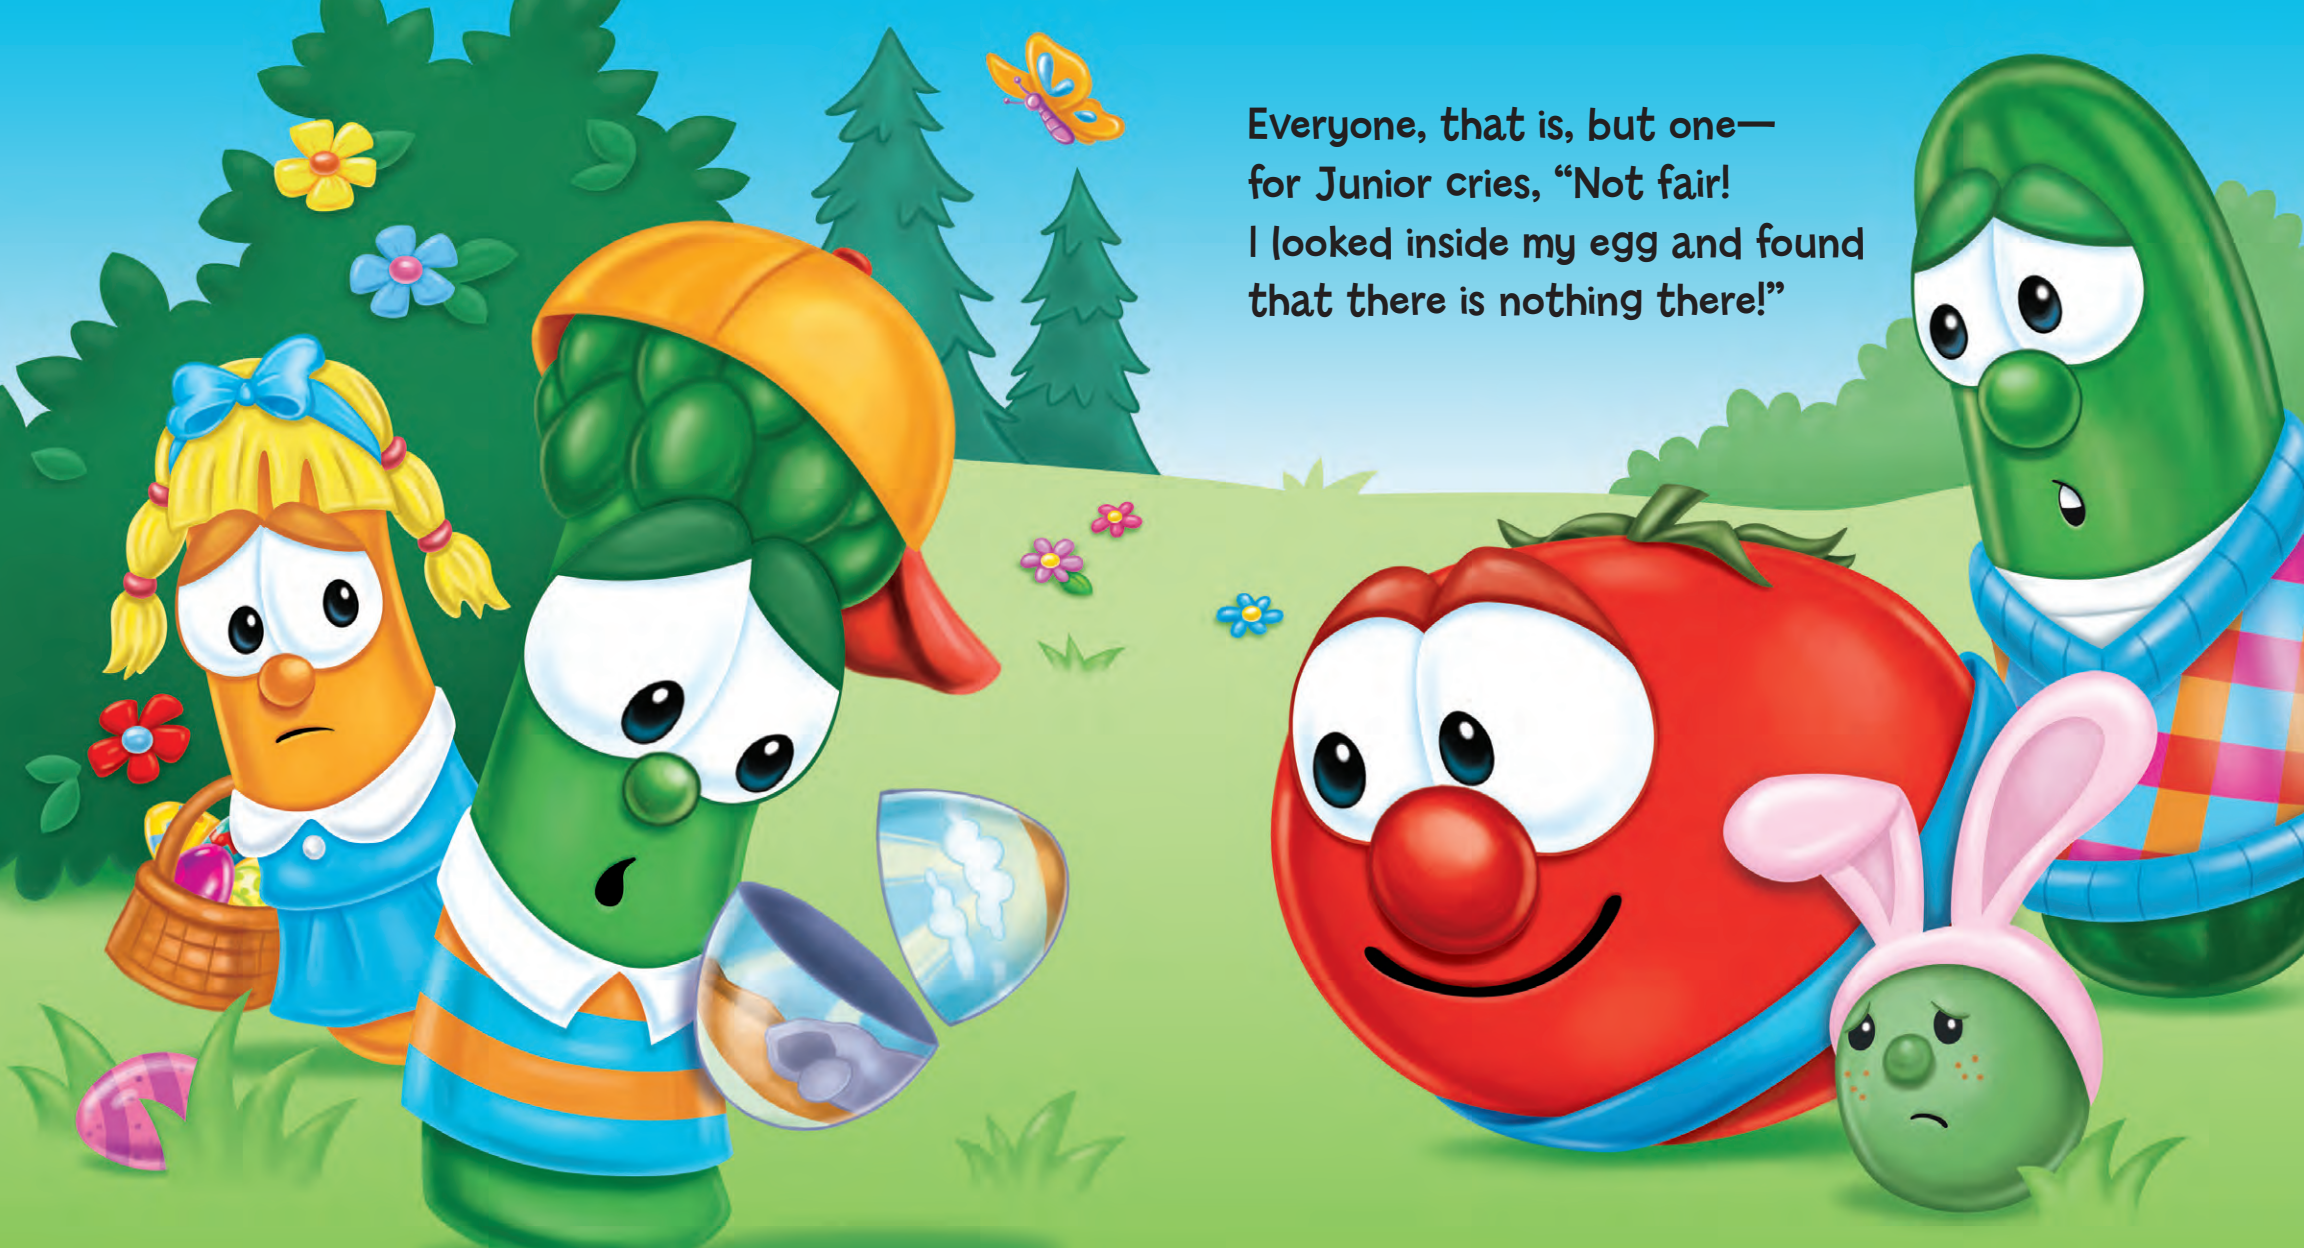

They're eager to begin the hunt!
They have a goal in mind.
The eggs all have a special prize
inside for them to find!

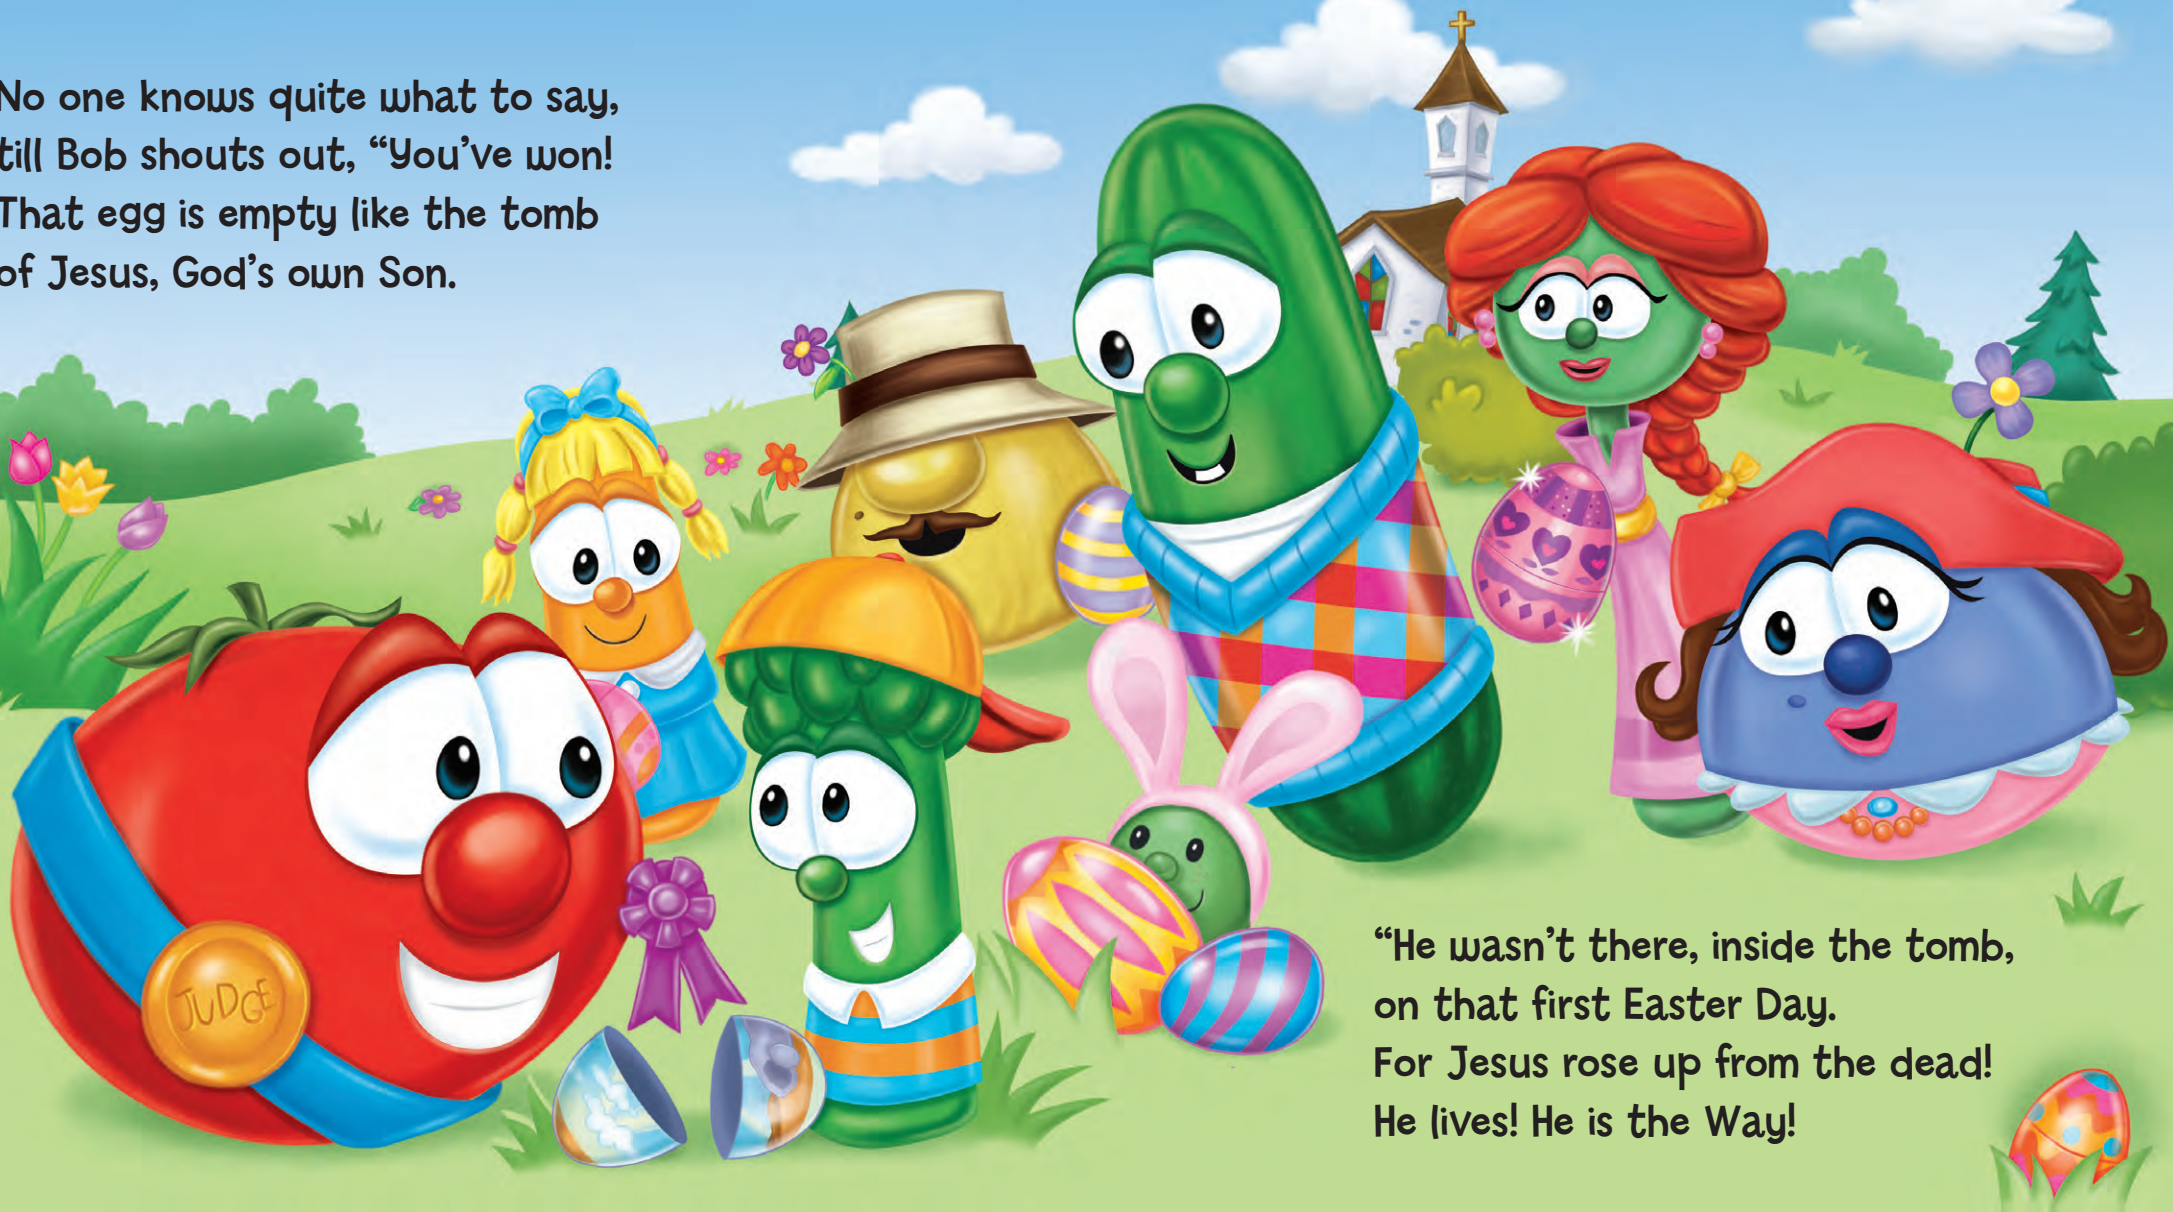

Larry searches high and low—
he's focused on the hunt!
Laura finds her eggs so fast,
she helps out Mr. Lunt.

Petunia calmly looks around
and spots one in a tree.
Junior has some trouble,
till he finds one, finally!

Everyone, that is, but one—
for Junior cries, “Not fair!
I looked inside my egg and found that there is nothing there!”

No one knows quite what to say,
till Bob shouts out, "You've won!
That egg is empty like the tomb
of Jesus, God's own Son.

"He wasn't there, inside the tomb,
on that first Easter Day.
For Jesus rose up from the dead!
He lives! He is the Way!
