

PSALMS MEANS
PRAISE SONGS
AND THERE ARE 6 DIFFERENT KINDS:

PRAISE HYMNS

SONGS OF TRUST

THANKSGIVING

LAMENT

WISDOM

KINGSHIP AND COVENANT

You might be wondering what makes praying the Psalms special. Of course, it's great to pray all Scripture, but the Psalms are special as they are the songbook of Israel. They are songs that God gave to us so that we can worship him.

Here is an example of a great way that you can offer the Psalms back to God:

An attribute of God tells us more about him and who he is, and the Psalms are perfect for helping us find and understand his attributes. As you learn God's attributes, you will learn more about our awesome God.

To find an attribute, ask yourself, "What do these verses tell me about God?" Or, "Who do these verses say God is?"

Give a simple definition of each attribute of God, then pray the specific Psalm back to God.

EXAMPLE:

- God is my hope (Psalm 43:5).
- God is trustworthy (Psalm 18:2).
