

✦ About The Sing! Hymnal

Blending music and poetry, hymns beautifully bring Christian theology to life. With each verse, rich lyrics echo the timeless truths of Scripture and proclaim the unchanging message of salvation. For centuries, Christians have used these treasured resources in private and corporate worship, and The Sing! Hymnal now presents the profound beauty of hymnody to the next generation.

Thoughtfully curated by award-winning hymn writers Keith and Kristyn Getty, The Sing! Hymnal features a collection of timeless classic and contemporary hymns, created to deepen worship and foster unity among God's people through the power of song.

✦ About Keith & Kristyn Getty

Keith and Kristyn Getty are hymn writers from Northern Ireland. Since their first hymn, "In Christ Alone" (cowritten with Stuart Townend in 2001), they have led the movement to champion biblically rich and singable hymns culminating in this collection, in service to the global church.

Keith and Kristyn's impact on the church and culture has been recognized internationally, being named an Officer of the Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth II in 2018, as well as receiving a Fellowship of the Royal School of Church Music, a GRAMMY® nomination, and three honorary doctorates.

✦ Why We Sing

KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY

A People of Song

The people of God have always been a people of song, from the shore of the Red Sea—“I will sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously. . . . The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation” (Ex. 15:1–2)—to the heavenly throne room of the Lamb—“Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty! Just and true are your ways, O King of the nations!” (Rev. 15:3).

This is the great heavenly choir we join as his people on earth. For twenty centuries the church has been singing. We sing a music that flows into every part of our lives, for the delight and honor of the Lord and our deepest well-being. Those in whom the Lord dwells, who long to make their home in his presence, sing to him as freely and fully as the birds of the sky (see Ps. 84:2–4).

Hymns, then, are the heart language of the church, used to sing truth to the Lord and to one another in every season of the soul. This has always been the way. When we look to the Psalms, the great songbook of the Bible, we find God’s blueprint for singing. The Psalms sing to the valleys of human sorrow and the heights of eternal hope. They remind us of a salvation history and a salvation song we must not forget. They teach us to lament and to rejoice. They root our lives and give wings to our witness. They map out the character of the Lord, lifting our eyes to all that he is and has done.

Our hymns hold us, inspire us, comfort us—and form us. Some of the earliest memories either of us can remember are of singing with others at church: the accompaniment begins, songbook pages rustle, and that first shared breath is drawn as old and young step into a hymn together. We are so grateful to have been raised in homes where singing to the Lord as part of God’s family was the most natural and fitting thing in the world, treasured as the highest expression of the Creator’s gift of music. But it is too risky for us to assume that deep belief in the truths of God will flow with ease to the next generation. That depth must always be mined and cherished and taught.

A Book of Songs

This is why we have produced The Sing! Hymnal. Since the invention of the printing press in the fifteenth century, hymnals have been published to enable Christians to sing together. In those days such curations of hymns enabled an expansion of the range of music available to a local church. Today, when the internet enables any of us to find endless options to sing, of varying depth, precision, and quality, perhaps a hymnal serves more as a trustworthy selection of that which is both substantial and beautiful.

That has been our heart in putting together this hymnal. It was a daunting challenge to choose which hymns to include. There is always another hymn to discover, and hymn writers will continue to write new hymns—but at some point a book must close! A hymnal speaks to the context in which it is produced and lives. Each of the nearly five hundred hymns in this book has been selected in community and with care, to give as full and helpful a resource as possible. Each comes with an account of the story behind the song or a note on why we included it. You will also find over four hundred prayers and liturgies from every century of Christian history, either drawn directly from Scripture or written by great pastors and poets past and present.

The Arrangement of Hymns in The Hymnal

The hymnal is arranged into three main sections. The Worship Service follows the arc of the gospel in a worship service. The Christian Life aims to equip believers for faithful living “from life’s first cry to final breath.” The Life of Christ begins with Advent and Christmas, working through the church’s year to Pentecost and culminating with the return of Christ. In essence this is a curation of songs to carry through life, at church, and at home—songs that will help anchor you in the depths and give voice to your praise on the heights.

We are immeasurably grateful to the wonderful team that has helped us with this project. But the goal has never been simply to produce a hymnal. It is to enable and encourage churches, families, and individuals to do what God’s people have always done: tell of his salvation from day to day, worship him in the splendor of holiness, and find that the joy of the Lord is their strength.

Soli Deo Gloria,
Keith & Kristyn Getty

*Oh sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth!
Sing to the LORD, bless his name;
tell of his salvation from day to day.*

PSALM 96:1-3

Carefully placed within the hymnal are poems, prayers, and praises from faithful Christians throughout the centuries. Alongside Scripture passages, these readings help the hymns’ rich theology resound in believers’ minds and hearts.

Hymn Stories

In this feature, cherished hymns receive insightful commentary on the origin, author, or inspiration of the lyrics or tune.

Psalm-Inspired Hymns

The Sing! Hymnal presents a curated arrangement of psalms made singable. Each song provides the presentation of a tune accompanied by lyrics.

Scripture Index

A robust listing of key Bible passages associated with each hymn allows pastors and families to identify the most fitting hymns to pair with specific sermons and Scripture readings.

Topical Index

The hymnal also includes an index of theological and practical topics to aid in the selection of hymns for various church and home contexts.

PAUL DAVID TRIPP | author, New Morning Mercies: A Daily Gospel Devotional

SHAI LINNE | recording artist; author

BLAIR LINNE | Bible teacher; spoken-word artist; author; Creator, GLO podcast

“The Sing! Hymnal, providing us with a collection of hymns old and new, is a gift to the church. Theologically sound and melodically enlivening, it leaves no doubt that true praise and worship begin with God and his glory, not man and his need.”

ALISTAIR BEGG | Senior Pastor, Parkside Church, Chagrin Falls, Ohio

“For decades God has used Keith and Kristyn Getty and those around them to introduce rich hymns into the bloodstream of our churches. I pray that this new project will only further strengthen God’s work among us.”

JOHN MACARTHUR | Pastor, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, California; Chancellor, The Master’s University and Seminary

“Great hymns are singable Bible studies, and great hymnals are treasure chests of theological and devotional wealth. That’s why we need this hymnal next to our Bibles for personal praise, family fellowship, and congregational worship. I’ve been praying for this project since Keith Getty mentioned it to me years ago. Now it’s a reality! May these psalms, hymns, spiritual songs, passages, prayers, and worship aids strengthen your soul and lead you to total praise!”

ROBERT J. MORGAN | pastor, author, Then Sings My Soul

“Hymns have been an artistic expression of the church since it was born, and I’m so glad to see this new collection carrying the beauty of the gospel into the future.”

“We are deeply honored to be able to contribute to such a rich set of works, and we eagerly anticipate the kingdom impact it will have in the many years to come.”

RICH THOMPSON | Cofounder, CityAlight

“I don’t know anyone in this generation who has promoted the use of theologically driven, gospel rich, congregationally accessible hymns for the church more than Keith and Kristyn Getty. I fully expect that believers for generations to come will be thanking God that the Gettys partnered with Crossway to produce this hymnal.”

3 In Him Is Found

Heavenly Father and Holy Spirit,
 how thankful we are for Jesus the Son,
 for in him is found every aspect of our salvation and sanctification.
 If we seek the gifts of the Spirit, they are found in his anointing;
 purity in his conception;
 gentleness in his birth;
 redemption in his passion;
 acquittal in his condemnation;
 remission of the curse in his cross;
 purification in his blood;
 mortification of the flesh in his tomb;
 newness of life and immortality in his resurrection;
 inheritance of the heavenly kingdom in his entrance into heaven.

4 John 20:19–21

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you.”

6 Great Is the Lord

O Divine Redeemer, great was your goodness in undertaking our redemption, in consenting to be made sin for us, in conquering all our foes.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised.

Great was your strength in enduring the extremities of divine wrath, in taking away the load of our iniquities.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised.

Great was your love in manifesting yourself alive, in showing your sacred wounds, that every fear might vanish and every doubt be removed.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised.

Great was your mercy in ascending to heaven, in being crowned and enthroned there to intercede for us, there to help us in times of temptation, there to open the eternal book, there to receive us finally to yourself.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised.

Christ the Lord Is Risen Today
 Because He Lives
 Christ Arose
 Christ Is Risen, He Is Risen Indeed
 One Day When Heaven Was Filled
 Rise My Soul, the Lord Is Risen
 The Day of Resurrection
 Resurrection Hymn (See, What a Morning)
 All Sufficient Merit
 He Is Lord
 I Serve a Risen Savior (He Lives)
 Thine Be the Glory
 The Strife Is O'er, the Battle Done

 Glorious
 Join All the Glorious Names
 Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise
 Across the Lands
 Ascend Thy Throne, Almighty
 King
 I Greet Thee, Who My Sure
 Redeemer Art

 The Head That Once Was Crowned
 Praise Him! Praise Him!

PENTECOST

Come Down, O Love Divine
 Come, Holy Ghost, Our Hearts
 Inspire
 O Breath of Life

Holy Spirit, Living Breath of God
 O Thou Who Camest from Above
 Spirit of the Living God
 Breathe on Me, Breath of God

THE RETURN OF CHRIST

Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken
 Lo, He Comes with Clouds
 Descending
 There Is a Higher Throne
 My Lord, What a Morning
 When This Passing World Is Done
 On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand
 Soon and Very Soon
 The Lord Almighty Reigns
 There Is a Hope
 We Will Feast in the House of Zion
 Where Shall I Be When the First
 Trumpet Sounds?
 Is He Worthy?
 Hallelujah Chorus
