I will never forget the first time I was taught about the power in the blood of Jesus. A woman told me to begin praying the power of the blood of Jesus over my life and over all of the addictions and shackles that kept me bound. I boldly began praying, “The blood of Jesus covers me and has freed me from these chains!” That prayer began to break open the prison doors I had lived in all my life. The Blood’s Decree is a gift to our generation, and the Lord has given Pastor Jim the revelation of freedom, restoration, and healing found only in the blood of Jesus. The enemy has attempted to conceal this truth from God’s Word because he knows the power to overcome is held in the Blood’s decree! May this book ignite faith in your spirit and awaken your heart as you boldly declare the power that the blood of Jesus speaks!

If you’ve never truly understood the weight that the blood of Jesus holds, Pastor James will take you on a journey of true revelation that will forever change your walk with Christ! Once we grasp this revelation, we will live in spiritual confidence every single day knowing the blood of Jesus speaks, protects, and reveals truth. There’s power in the blood!

DEDICATION

First and foremost, I dedicate this book to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I have been blessed to have known You since I was a young child, and Your presence in my heart and life is truthfully indescribable, incomparable, and a priceless treasure. You have, as David says in Psalm 3, been “my Glory and the Lifter of my head” through the mountaintop and valleys experiences of my life and journey of faith. Always my constant Companion by Your Holy Spirit, at times my Healer, Deliverer, and always my Provider, Protector, Enabler, and so much more.

I could never have imagined as a young boy who surrendered his life to You, Jesus, at the age of 9, how you would take me around the world many times over to minister for You with the musical and vocal talents you placed within me—and with the opportunity to preach Your Word, minister in the gift of healing to thousands, and see them come to the knowledge of salvation as a revivalist. Thank You for loving me and choosing me to be a minister of the gospel and for placing whatever gifts I have in me to use for Your glory.

To my amazing, beautiful wife of 40 years, Mindy! You are the love of my life! You have stood by me through the ups and downs of life and ministry, and I cannot thank the Lord enough for giving me the honor to have you as my wife and my partner for life. You are beautiful inside and out and God has gifted you with tremendous wisdom and insight that has been a source of strength throughout our marriage. I love you, Babe!

To our wonderful son, Daniel James Cernero. Words cannot express the joy I felt when the Lord woke me up from a sound sleep at 2:30 a.m. on December 1987 and I heard Him say in my spirit, “You’re going to have a son.” Tears of gratitude flooded my cheeks as I lay there praising God for His faithfulness to us as we had prayed for you for several years and now your birth was confirmed. From the moment we first held you in our arms, the love we feel for you is indescribable! You’ve always been such a blessing to your Mom and me. And now we love your beautiful wife, Linsey, too—she is precious to us.

To my parents who are now with the Lord, Nunziante and Rachel Cernero. I am eternally grateful to have had you as such godly parents! You both modeled faith and trust in God, taught us the Word of God, demonstrated your genuine relationship with the Lord and it is an immeasurable heritage that I cherish! I realize not everyone can claim that type of family faith heritage, and I don’t take it lightly! Your unshakable trust in God helped forge my own deep and personal relationship and trust in God and has been a source of perpetual encouragement. I love and miss you and look forward to seeing you in Heaven!

To my brothers, Tom, Mark, John (my twin), and their sweet wives. I’m so blessed that you’re my siblings! Tom and John, you are now enjoying the presence of the Lord in Heaven and are missed greatly here, but we are comforted knowing we have “the blessed hope” of being in the Lord’s presence one day also. Much love!

To my precious and saintly grandparents on both sides of the family, my loving aunts and uncles and cousins, and all who know the Lord Jesus as their Savior, I'm so blessed that the Lord chose you to be my family and that we share a like faith in Christ that completes our bond. I love you all!

To my father-in-law and mother-in-law, Ron and Sandy Primrose. Thank you for raising a beautiful girl in the ways and knowledge of the Lord! Your impact and influence on Mindy played an important role in her maturing to be a strong woman of faith, an amazing wife, mother, and caring pastor's wife. Love you both!

FOREWORD

There is a powerful and undeniable theme woven throughout Scripture, a theme that speaks, that decrees, that testifies. It is the voice of the blood of Jesus, declaring redemption, righteousness, healing, deliverance, and eternal victory for every believer. In The Blood's Decree, my friend Jim Cernero masterfully unveils this truth, bringing the reader into a deeper revelation of what the blood of Jesus declares over our lives.

Each page calls you to listen, to receive, and to stand in agreement with what Heaven has already proclaimed. The blood of Jesus is not a distant historical concept. It is an ever-present, active, and powerful reality that continues to work in our lives today.

As you read, you will not only gain a greater understanding of the atoning work of Christ, but also find your faith stirred to walk in the fullness of what His blood has secured for you.

My prayer is that The Blood's Decree will ignite within you a fresh passion for the presence of God, a deeper love for Jesus, and a stronger confidence in the finished work of the Cross. May your heart resonate with the truth that the blood still speaks and what it speaks is life, power, and victory.

Let this book strengthen your faith, renew your mind, and draw you into a greater awareness of the limitless power of the blood of Jesus.

Evangelist

PREFACE

Scientific advancements in technology over the past few decades have now made it possible for the blood of an individual to tell examiners what is going on in someone's body. What malady that is unseen externally may be revealed through examining the blood of the individual, whether it be cancer, heart blockage, diabetes, and many other diseases. In a sense, the patient's blood speaks and indicates a potential health threat that needs to be addressed before it is too late to be reversed. On the positive side of things, a person's blood can also indicate that all levels are normal and that the patient is in good health and disease-free.

Criminologists now use advanced forensic methods on evidence left behind by the perpetrator of a crime to help determine who the person may be. Not that I have a morbid interest in death, but I enjoy watching shows that go through the process of how they utilize these methods to solve the crime. It's truly remarkable that now they can solve crimes that a few decades ago would have been relegated to "cold cases" as they didn't then have the tools they have now. These modern advances are even exonerating some who were falsely accused and spent years in prison for a crime they didn't commit.

Science has just in the last few years caught up with the Source of all knowledge, the Source of all Truth, God, who has known since the beginning of time that the blood speaks.

THE BLOOD'S DECREE

How amazing it is to know that the Bible, written centuries ago, has contained this truth all along—blood speaks. More significantly and profoundly, the blood of Jesus—the Son of God who was crucified on the Cross for our salvation and our healing—speaks! It decrees! (Hebrews 12:24)

INTRODUCTION

As early as I can remember, growing up in the late 1950s, '60s, and '70s, we frequently sang songs about the blood of Jesus and heard messages on the same in my home church in Nutley, New Jersey. Songs including “There’s Power in the Blood,” “There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood,” “Oh the Blood of Jesus,” “He Was Wounded for Our Transgressions” (and by His stripes we are healed), and more were sung often. It was clear even at my young age, that salvation is by the blood of Jesus, long before I knew the scriptural backing for this doctrinally.

I am blessed to have had a heritage in Christ on both sides of my family, both parents’ parents having been saved and filled with the Holy Spirit. I was taught about the fact that not only did Jesus’ blood pay for our salvation, but that same blood covers our hearts and lives as believers in Him and has tremendous power.

The blood of Jesus was (and is) central to our spiritual lives and was central to our belief system and faith. A common phrase used in prayer by my godly grandparents and my parents, was “Lord, hover over them and cover them with Your blood, Jesus” when praying over us, their children. It wasn’t until years later that I became acutely aware of why they prayed that way and what happens when we do. More on that later.

In my teen years, the then-popular Christian artist Andre Crouch, authored and made popular the song “The Blood Will Never Lose Its Power,” which was widely sung in the churches across the nation of all denominations. I distinctly recall, while visiting family members in Sherman, Texas, in 1971, hearing the pastor's wife, affectionately known as Aunt Mary Jo, sing with her powerful alto voice, "The blood that Jesus shed for me... way back on Calvary..." I will never forget the awesome presence of the Lord that I sensed in that moment that flooded my entire being. It's still a powerful song that brings home the reality of the power of Jesus' blood.

Many years later, while working in Nashville as a composer on songs for a new recording that my friend, the then well-known gospel tenor, Steve Brock, was about to record, Steve and the producer, Lari Goss, said to me, "Do you have any other songs we can include in the album?" I went back to my hotel room and thought about it, praying and meditating on the Word of God. Seeking inspiration from the Word of God, I opened my Bible to the book of Hebrews, chapter 10. This book of the Bible is an amazing thesis on the work of Jesus on the Cross, His office as our High Priest, and the "new and living way" He made for us to approach the throne of grace through the blood of Jesus.

Hebrews 10:19-20 (NKJV) declares to us, "Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through veil, that is, His flesh." Suddenly, I sensed the anointing come over me and the words of a song poured out of my spirit.

The song title that the Lord gave was "Through the Blood," and I will just give you the lyrics of the chorus which came as I meditated on this powerful declaration in Hebrews about what the blood of Jesus decrees over us:

It's through the blood of Christ I now can enter boldly
Into the presence of Jehovah God most holy
No other sacrifice could ever pay the pardon for my sin
Not by works of righteousness nor by deeds of earthly flesh
No other way to enter in but through the blood

I will never forget the awareness of the presence of the Lord that flooded my heart as these powerful words flowed from my pen! I believe wholeheartedly that when you mention, speak (decree), or sing about the blood of Jesus, whether in song or in a sermon or in prayer, there's an accompanying anointing and His presence becomes more real to you. By the grace of God, the song has been sung on Christian TV, in evangelistic crusades, and services around the world.

It seems, however, in more recent years there's been a shying away from mentions of the blood as if to say it's not politically correct to speak about and too controversial or perhaps gory and macabre. In my opinion, there's an intentional downplaying of the blood in preacher's sermons or messages, certain Bible translations, worship songs and choruses, and it's no doubt perpetrated by none other than the wicked one himself. He doesn't want believers to have a revelation of the power of the blood and it what it decrees to us.

Several of the newer translations of the Bible omit any reference to the words blood, Cross, Calvary altogether, and other words related to the subject. The current "woke movement," sadly, has infiltrated many churches and many pastors have succumbed to its deception. Perhaps unwittingly, they are acquiescing to this subtle ploy of the devil to de-emphasize, de-value, and disannul the power of the blood in their congregants and listeners, keeping God's people ignorant of its power, and held in bondage of all kinds.

THERE'S POWER IN THE BLOOD

This is a tragedy! There is no gospel without the blood of Jesus as Ephesians 1:7 (NKJV) declares, "In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace." The blood of Jesus and what it speaks is essential to the gospel of Jesus Christ. To ignore mentions of the blood and its decrees is to forfeit its provisions. As the old, familiar gospel song says, "There's Power in The Blood." The enemy knows that and it's no surprise he doesn't want its power, its benefits declared or decreed in song or in messages from the pulpit.

This is nothing new. If you've studied church history, you know that during the second century there was a prevalent, heretical belief and movement that contradicted salvation through the blood of Jesus. Gnosticism is derived from the Greek word gnosis, which means knowledge. Stay with me here; there's a reason I am including this in The Blood's Decree!

In summary, the Gnostics believed salvation could be obtained through a special form of "secret knowledge." Adherents of this belief believed the material world was created by a lesser god, "Demiurge," and only through this special knowledge could a "divine spark" that resided in men be ignited causing spiritual enlightenment.

The early church fathers, such as Tertullian, Origen, Justin Martyr and others, condemned gnostic teachers and beliefs as heretical because it clashed with accepted Christian doctrine. One key belief of Gnosticism was the concept of dualism.

Gnostics believed that the world was divided into the physical and spiritual realms. The material world being evil and the spiritual world good. Their beliefs described God as incomprehensible and unknowable. This obviously conflicts with Christianity's concept of a personal God who desires relationship with human beings. John 3:16 (NKJV) clearly states, "For so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

The Gnostics believed that this inferior god was separate from the God of creation, from the God of redemption. The Word of God clearly tells us that Jesus was God in flesh in John 1:1-5 (NKJV):

In the beginning was the Word [Jesus], and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light [Jesus] shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

When it comes to another key belief, regarding salvation Gnostics claimed that a "hidden knowledge" was the basis of salvation. This secret revelation frees the "divine spark" within humans, allowing only certain ones the opportunity to be saved and enter the realm of light.

They also believed that Jesus was not God in flesh. Rather, He was spirit who took on human form and appearance. These beliefs are at odds with the gospel that we Christians believe. Christianity teaches that salvation is available to everyone not just a special few and that it comes from grace through faith in Jesus Christ, not from study or works. Christians believe that the Bible is the only Source of Truth and that Jesus is very much God and was very much man.

The apostle John goes on to say in John 1:14 (NKJV), “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.”

This truth is central to the gospel because if Jesus was just a spirit and had not taken on human form and become flesh and hadn't shed His blood, there could be no redemptive plan as spirits don't have blood. Moses testified prophetically, recorded in Hebrews 9, there would have been no way of salvation as there is no remission of sin without the shedding of blood. “According to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission” (Hebrews 9:22 NKJV).

The shedding of Christ's blood is central to our belief as Christians. Gnosticism nullifies the work of the Cross; it denies the deity of Christ and denies the shedding of Christ's blood that is essential to the work of salvation. If the blood wasn't shed, it would not have decreed salvation thereby paying the price for our redemption.

This devaluing, erasing the blood in many modern-day church preaching, literature, and music, is in my opinion a somewhat resurgence of this ancient Gnostic teaching. The New Age movement and the New Thought movements of our day use a lot of terms that sound good and seem to be in alignment with the gospel, but they are in fact dangerously at odds with the gospel and are based on heresies.

We need to be careful when hearing words including “enlightenment,” “self-actualization,” “your truth,” and so on. These can often be pathways to error and lead away from the Truth. There's no “your truth” or “my truth”—there's only the Truth. Truth is found in Jesus, the Word! Jesus says in John 14:6 (NKJV), “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.” Exactly contrary to the belief of the Gnostics! The only knowledge we need to be saved is the knowledge of the Lord! The knowledge and the truth that His blood speaks!

This was prophetically foreshadowed in the structure of the tabernacle in the wilderness. The three entrances of the tabernacle were called “The Way, The Truth, and the Life.” This is why the Pharisees were so enraged when Jesus proclaimed He was such because to them the tabernacle was a sacred part of their religion and how dare He compare Himself to it! He still is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and the only way to God is through His precious blood that speaks!

Is it any wonder that statistics tell us that many in the church are bound by addictions of various kinds, which includes preachers and pastors? The much-publicized moral failures of high-profile pastors and ministers, particularly those having succumbed to the allure of sexual temptation, may indeed be the result of satan accomplishing his plan to denigrate the power of the blood of Jesus to keep us from sin and deliver God’s people from victory over the flesh. There is still power in the blood!

We cannot afford to allow this! We must be aware of what the blood decrees and speak it accordingly to push back the ploys of the enemy.

I believe the Holy Spirit has given me an insight to what the well-known, often quoted Scripture Revelation 12:11 (NKJV) means, which states: “And they overcame him [the wicked one] by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.”

I believe that in part it means when what’s coming out of our mouths (our testimony) agrees with what the blood of Jesus speaks or decrees, the power to overcome is released in our lives! Matthew 18:19 (NKJV) tells us about the power of agreement as it says, “if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven.” This powerful verse gives us a key to a release from Heaven. We need to agree with the Word first and with what the blood of Jesus testifies and decrees. It decrees what Jesus accomplished on the Cross.

We then need to make it our testimony; and by agreeing with it and each other, we will see supernatural results and answers to prayer. We often fail to recite the rest of the verse, however, which is “they did not love their lives to death.” Someone could make the argument that the qualifier for the first part of the verse—that being us having the power to overcome by the blood of the Lamb and by our testimony—is contingent on dying to self and to the flesh. When we surrender our lives to Christ and He truly becomes Lord over our lives, we die to the dictates and lordship of the flesh and its carnal desires, thereby releasing the overcoming power of the blood of the Lamb.

It’s time for the church to reemphasize the blood in our teaching and preaching, in our worship songs, and in our testimonies! To come into agreement with what the blood decrees and see miracles of supernatural intervention as they saw in the book of Acts.

I have felt compelled for some time to write this book, and I greatly appreciate the invitation of the publisher to do so as the church at large needs to be reminded and understand all that the blood of Jesus decrees. As we see it become prevalent in our teaching, preaching, singing, and writing as evangelical Christians, there will once again be great grace and great power in the church that is called by His name.

ONE

THE BLOOD'S DECREE

What do I mean when I say, “The Blood’s Decree”? I’ve chosen the title The Blood’s Decree because a decree is powerful. So, let’s first examine exactly what a decree is.

Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary defines the word decree as follows:

- an order usually having the force of law, a judicial decree
- a religious ordinance enacted by council or titular head, a papal decree
- a foreordaining will, God’s decree
- a judicial decision of the Roman Emperor
- to command or enjoin by or as if by decree
- to determine or order judicially, decree a punishment

As we can see by these definitions, the word decree carries a legal aspect to it. A decree definitely evokes a response and cannot be ignored. In fact, there are consequences for not heeding a decree, either positive or negative.

When used in conjunction with the blood of Jesus, decree conveys the powerful truth that the blood of Jesus and His work on the Cross at Calvary provided us as believers the legal right to claim and to lay hold of what He, Jesus, purchased for us with His blood and what His blood speaks over us even today!

The church may not have always comprehended this and thereby may have forfeited much of the blessing, rights, and provisions of Calvary out of ignorance of this powerful truth.

In Bible days when a covenant was made between two individuals or God with an individual, there was usually a sacrifice made, a shedding of blood that sealed the covenant. That blood spoke a testament of all that the covenant entailed—it's power and provisions, terms and conditions. It was binding and could not be broken. The application of the blood by Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, David, and so on was done with the knowledge and understanding that God was vowing to do what He promised He would do and that His Word is immutable, or unchanging and “forever settled.” That He is the God who cannot lie. They could stake their very lives and future on it, knowing His Word is final.

In the United States when someone is in police custody and suspected of committing a crime, the person must be made aware of their legal rights, including their Miranda rights informing them of their fifth and sixth amendment rights that include the right to remain silent and to be represented, that their words may be used, and so forth.

Even to us believers today, we must realize our rights in Christ and that the promises of God are blood-backed and sealed. If He said it, He will do it! His blood decrees so!

When the “accuser of the brethren,” a name given in Scripture in Revelation 12:10 to the adversary of our souls, the devil himself, brings charges against us, we must know our scriptural, legal rights as believers that the blood of Jesus speaks over us.

We must declare those rights in agreement with what the blood speaks!

We must speak what the blood says and decree it over our lives to realize the full potential of what Christ's victory has won for us.

One more thing....when I was growing up, our mom would often ask us to do some things she wanted us to do. If we replied "why?" In protest, she would reply "because I said so!" Not being mean or overbearing, just reminding us emphatically of her authority as our mom! Well, I'd like to take the phrase "because I said so" and employ it for us to use when stating what the blood decrees over us. "The blood says so!" When I preach this message, I will often state one of the "better things" that the blood speaks, decrees, and have them respond with "because the blood says so!" I encourage you to do the same as you are reading this book and claim what your inheritance is, spoken by the blood of Jesus!

YOUR VICTORY—THE DEVIL'S DEFEAT!

Unseen forces and hindrances—fear, failure, sickness, trauma, guilt, and more—often try to stand in your way. These destructive enemies play keep-away with God's best for your life.

Is there a way to permanently overcome? Yes! The Blood of Jesus.

In His Blood Speaks, a powerful 31-day devotional, Ginger Ziegler points out that your victory is in the Voice of Jesus' Blood. When Cain killed his brother, Abel, his blood spoke from the ground, crying vengeance. Today, Jesus' Blood speaks from heaven, crying forgiveness and mercy. As you digest these daily teachings, the Blood will cry on your behalf:

- freedom not bondage
- health not sickness
- prosperity not poverty
- acceptance not rejection
- righteousness not unrighteousness
- exoneration not condemnation
- and everything else you'll ever need

The Blood of Jesus is your major weapon to live victoriously and guarantee the devil's defeat. Start right now living your life in the freedom Jesus' Blood purchased for you!
