Dedication.

It was a dark and lovely night
Not a cloud in the sky and the moon so bright

And in a small and sleepy town
Where shepherd and sheep roam

One child slept quietly
As a sea of stars shone.
